Kathy Haughey Sets 3 Records in Intra-City

Kathy Frahm Wins 3 Events In 25th Annual Competition

Cal Winn, Jim Treat Emerge as Top Winners In Boys' Divisions; Elaine Downing Beats Her Old Mark in 75-Yard Breaststroke Race

By STEVE MOORE

Kathy Haughey, daughter of Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, gave an impromptu lesson in upstaging last night at the 25th annual Boys' Club intra-city swimming championships before 300 at the club pool. She paddled off with four first-place trophies. Sister Sue, a perennial winner also, could manage only a pair of firsts and a second. The second came in the final of the 75-yard breaststroke for 16-19-year-old girls. The winner was Elaine Downing who, with a time of 1:10, broke her own record of 1:11 for the event.

Three New Records

Kathy enjoyed a good night at the record table as well, trading new records for old in three races. The 25-yard breaststroke record of 22.7 was cropped to 20.4 in the mermaid's best effort. Other assaults were: 25-yard freestyle, 14.4 and 25-yard backstroke, 18.1. The old marks had been 15.0 and 20.0 respectively. The only race which did not receive a face-lifting was the 50-yard freestyle for 13-15-year-old girls. It was no "disgrace" however, for Miss Haughey usually competes in the 11-and-12-year-old bracket.

Another Kathy, 9-year-old Kathy Frahm of 77 Whittier Ave., also turned in a creditable performance. She set records in two of her three wins; the 25-yard backstroke and the 25-yard breaststroke in the 10 and under class.

In the boys' divisions, Cal Winn and Jim Treat came away with the top money with Winn picking up records as well as trophies for two first places.

Winn's first win was in the 75-yard backstroke for boys from 16-19 years old. He eclipsed the old mark of 52.2 with the time of 51.8. He is a sophomore at Springfield College. In a recent meet with Brown, he finished second in both the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle.

In the second race, the 100-yard freestyle, Winn turned in a time of 56.8. The previous low had been 58.3.

Two for Treat

Treat, in taking two events, hung up a new shingle in the 25-yard breaststroke for 11-12-year-old boys with 18.1. Jim Bushey finished second with 18.2 which was also below the old 19.8 record.

Sue Haughey's only record effort was the second place to Miss Downing in the 75-yard breaststroke. Her 1:10.6 and third-place Diane Quirk's 1:10.9 were both less than the existing 1:11.

The boys' 50-yard backstroke, 13-15 years old, ended in what appeared to be a dead heat between Lee Prior and Clinton Stowers. The judges' final decision went to Prior, but both times were 36.0.

The meet, sponsored by the Boys' Club swimming committee, listed 200 entries before the deadline Saturday noon.

The Boys' Club swimming team will swim against Williston Academy Wednesday afternoon at 4:30, at Easthampton.

Funds Raised For Retarded Less Than in '59

Receipts from the fund drive for the Berkshire Association for Retarded Children are expected to be within 10 per cent of the $4,400 raised last year, according to George J. Bulgarelli, chairman. Returns are incomplete because of Halloween activities by drive workers for their children.

Mr. Bulgarelli said that he is pleased that the drive did so well despite the financial circumstances of the community.

It is hoped that through the professional mail campaign under the direction of Joseph A. Torchio and proceeds from the Civitan fruit cake sale, the gross income will approximate the needs of the organization for the coming year, Mr. Bulgarelli stated.

$100 From A Parent

The largest contribution yesterday was a $100 check from the parent of a retarded youngster. Two retarded children were discovered because the parents, who are new to this section, saw the publicity on the drive.

Durant TV Co. contributed $364.16 as a result of business brought in by an advertisement in Friday's Eagle offering percentages of sale and repair prices on Saturday to the drive.

Mr. Bulgarelli stated that he is grateful to those who contributed and to the more than 700 solicitors who went from door to door. "The association," he said, "should have a larger income in order to support a local program adequate for the needs of the retarded youngsters." The program, he pointed out, is open to every retarded child in the community.

Two Local Delegates To Attend Meeting of Assn. for Retarded

Two delegates of the Berkshire County Association for Retarded Children will attend the sixth semi-annual meeting of the Massachusetts Association for Retarded Children on Saturday at the Hotel Northampton, Northampton. The delegates are Mrs. Helen Touhey, nursery chairman, and Mrs. Cornelia H. Rawling, corresponding secretary.

The major item slated for consideration at the meeting will be the MARC guardianship and life insurance plan for mentally retarded children living at home and in state schools. This unprecedented plan establishes protection for the retardate after his parents' decease. The 1960-61 budget will also be set.

Judge Cimini Issuing Appeal For Retarded Children Fund

A final appeal for contributions to the Berkshire County Association for Retarded Children will be made this week with the mailing of about 2,000 letters to area residents.

Judge Frank W. Cimini is heading the letter drive, which has a $10,000 goal. He and the late Judge Harold R. Goewey were chairmen last year.

Announcing the mail campaign today, Judge Cimini said he felt mentally retarded youngsters were "everybody's problem, not just the responsibility of the parents involved."

He said anyone who wishes to contribute but who did not receive a letter may send a donation to him in care of the local District Court.

The judge emphasized that the association, to which anyone may belong, operates on a volunteer basis, so that all money collected goes to help retarded children. None is used for administrative purposes.

A door-to-door drive was conducted Oct. 30 to aid the association. The association has filed an application for membership in the United Community Services next year.

Golden Age News

Special Interest Group Party Attended by 50

By MRS. ALBERT H. PARKER

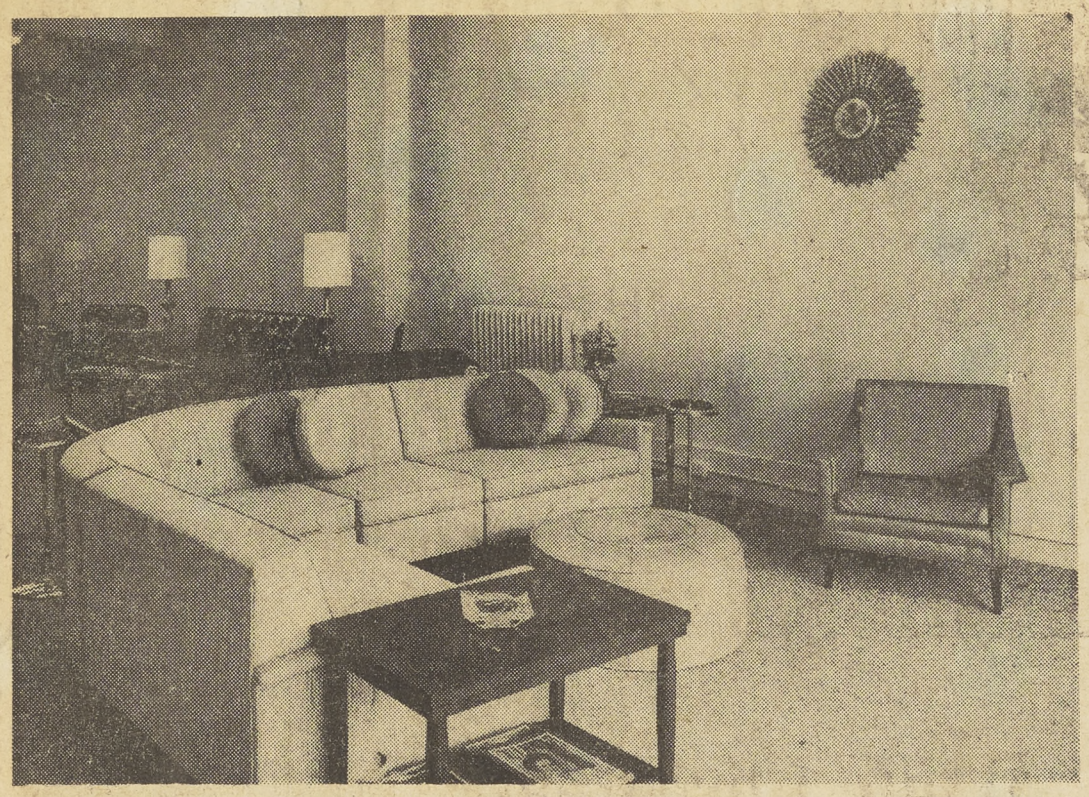
Fifty members of the special interest group of the Golden Age Club held a Christmas party yesterday at the home of Mrs. Martha F. Waterman, 21 Goodrich St.

Musical selections were played by Mrs. Grace Lowden, Otto Ungewitter, Henry Newmarker, Clifford Peaslee and Mrs. Waterman. Mrs. Eltha Forman entertained on the viola, accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Ellis at the piano. William McLaughlin, 12 years old, played Christmas music on the organ. Joseph Ressler, chairman of the group, read a special poem for the occasion. Mrs. Alden P. Landall of the College Club gave several readings.

Group singing of carols was accompanied by Mrs. George Gottsche at the piano. Miss Alice Merchant and Mrs. Helen Mack assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Curtiss M. Cederstrom and Mrs. Landall were in charge of party arrangements and headed the group of assistants which included College Club aides.

Senior Citizens Rate an Active Lounge



A CHEERFUL CORNER of the new Senior Citizens' Lounge boasts a comfortable sectional couch, hassock and wing chair. In rear are card tables, more couches and chairs.

There isn't a rocking chair in sight, at the new Senior Citizens' Lounge.

It's an active, not a passive lounge, designed for older citizens of Pittsfield who aren't content to sit and rock or watch TV all day. In fact, television is conspicuous by its absence in this lounge, open to any city resident 60 years old or more.

The lounge, which opened this week at 349 North St., has plenty of ample, comfortable couches and chairs for relaxing—but there are also card tables for playing bridge, and canasta, provision for checkers, chess, scrabble and other games. A rotating library of 160 selected books from the Berkshire Athenaeum has been provided for readers.

Social Security to Rug Hooking

A community bulletin board will list matters of interest to senior citizens: plays, concerts, job opportunities, club and organization news—this includes such groups as the Golden Agers, the GE Pensioners Club, church clubs and service groups. Plans are underway for classes in such subjects as rug hooking, gift wrapping, metalcraft, leather work; discussion groups on literature, drama, music, and matters of special interest to this age group are also planned. Typical of these discussion groups is one to be given by George Ames, local Social Security manager, on recent Social Security legislation affecting those in the 60 and over age bracket. (The first talk will be given next Tuesday at 10 a.m.)

The lounge itself mingles a traditional kind of comfort with contemporary decor. Danish modern furniture is used throughout, but there are several cushiony couches and wing chairs upholstered in a leather-like synthetic. These are done in brown, beige, green, and coral, the major colors used in the room. A brown tweed rug covers the floor of the long, rectangular-shaped lounge. Turquoise paint is used for both the lounge and the rest rooms (pink plumbing fixtures for the women, beige for the men). The furniture has been carefully selected for suitability; even wastebaskets used in the card-table section of the lounge are decorated in a hearts-spades, clubs-diamonds pattern. All this furniture has been bought with $2,000 donated for this purpose by the Junior League of Pittsfield. An additional $2,000 will be made available to the lounge for equipment and furnishings by the League during the next year.

Dual Department Sponsor

The Senior Citizens Lounge is conducted by the Pittsfield Department of Health and the Department of Parks and Recreation. It is open from Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except on holidays and is being staffed by Miss Jean Loveland of the Park Department and Mrs. Dorothy Diamond of the Health Department. Miss Loveland supervises recreation information and activities, while Mrs. Diamond is available for health counseling and medical referral service.

Although it has now become a community project, the Senior Citizens Lounge began as a state project in 1959 when special legislation was passed for a $25,000 appropriation to the state Health Department. The money was earmarked for the Bureau of Preventative Disease Control, to be used for a geriatrics program in three Massachusetts cities. The money was to be used for administrative purposes in "Pilot Projects" set up in Cambridge, Newton and Pittsfield. Pittsfield's $8,000 slice of the "pilot" pie is being used in this unique Senior Citizens Lounge, which differs radically from the other two state projects. According to Dr. Harold E. Stein, director of the Pittsfield Department of Health, Cambridge and Newton's projects are devoted primarily to "home care," the treatment of senior citizens who require medical attention and nursing but not enough for hospitalization. The Pittsfield program, under Mrs. Diamond, will specialize in health counseling and referral for senior citizens using the lounge.

Although the lounge is sponsored by the Park and Health departments, both departments stress that it will be the senior citizens themselves who run it. An executive committee of older citizens who use the lounge will be set up to make policy and determine just what kind of needs it must meet. According to an unofficial census conducted by the Health Department's Mrs. Diamond, there are between 9,000 and 10,000 residents of Pittsfield who fall into the 60 and over age bracket. If they all turn out, the lounge may have to be expanded before it's had a birthday. The present capacity is 50 seats.

Ames Reports

Social Security Coverage Extended to More Persons

The 1960 social security amendments contain three provisions to extend coverage to people who could not participate in the program before, George F. Ames, local social security manager, reported today.

He said:

Starting next month, work that a parent does for a son or daughter in the operation of a trade or business will be covered by social security. This will be the first time that many parents can build up credits toward retirement, survivor and disability benefits by working for their children. Those who do not have social security cards should apply promptly at the 7 North St. office. The first report of their wages will be due before April 30 for the calendar quarter ending with March 31st. Parents who perform household duties in or around the private homes of their children will not be covered. Such work continues to be excluded from coverage under the program.

Members of the clergy who failed to elect coverage by April 15 of 1959 now have until April 15, 1962 to do so. They must file waiver certificates with Internal Revenue Service before that date. As this represents the third opportunity they have had to indicate a desire for coverage, it seems doubtful there will be further extension of time beyond the April 15, 1962 deadline.

The third coverage provision removes a requirement in the law that at least two-thirds of the employes of a non-profit organization must consent before social security coverage can be made available to them. Now, even one employe may elect coverage, provided the organization has first agreed to participate. The non-profit organization itself may now elect to come under social security even though none of its present employes want to be covered. By so doing, all employes hired or rehired after the effective date of the waiver certificate would automatically be under social security.

Social Security Talks To Be Given to Senior Citizens

George F. Ames

George F. Ames, district manager for the Social Security Administration, will open a series of social security discussions Tuesday morning at 10 at the Senior Citizens' Center, 349 North St. The discussions will continue for the following five Tuesdays, from 10 to 11 a.m.

In presenting his first talk, Mr Ames will show a film, "Before the Day."

Senior citizens who are planning to attend the sessions are asked to bring questions.

Mr. Ames has been associated with the Social Security Administration since 1939, with the exception of 2½ years spent in the Army during World War II. He was assistant manager of the Brockton office before being transferred here as manager in 1942. Last year he was presented a cash award for "outstanding services in respect to leadership, these contributions being over and beyond the requirements of the position."

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey announced the reappointment of all his city department heads yesterday.

Names of the appointees were submitted to the City Council for confirmation at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. As anticipated, there were no changes.

Reappointed were:

John J. Norton, auditor; John W. Meehan, collector of taxes and city collector; John J. Fitzgerald, treasurer; Donald E. Farr, superintendent of public buildings; Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services; John F. Daniels, commissioner of public works, moth superintendent and tree warden; and Dr. Harold Stein, commissioner of public health. All were named for two-year terms.

Reappointed to the Board of Assessors for a three-year term was Miss Ruth E. Sisman. Her name was also submitted to the Council for confirmation.

The mayor also announced that he had reappointed his legal officers, City Solicitor Maurice B. Rosenfield and Asst. City Solicitor William R. Flynn. Their appointments are for indefinite terms and do not require the approval of the Council.

Members of the Police Department are circulating a petition asking the City Council to accept permissive legislation establishing a $5,500-a-year minimum for police patrolmen, but the president of the Pittsfield Police Assn. said today that the petition does not represent a final decision to seek the raise.

Patrolman Lawrence J. Healy, who also heads the association's salary committee, said the petition for the $5,500 minimum represents an inquiry to find out how many members of the department are interested in seeking the acceptance of the law.

"It is something we're mulling over for future use," Patrolman Healy said. "We are also considering raises of other types as well as fringe benefits. We haven't definitely come up with anything yet."

The association president denied published reports that the petition for a $5,500 minimum would be submitted to the City Council tomorrow night.

The permissive legislation, already adopted by the cities of Westfield, Holyoke and Chicopee, would set a minimum of $5,500 for the 64 patrolmen. Proportionate increases would be asked for the seven detectives, five sergeants, four captains and Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan, if the petition were submitted.

The pay ranges under the present salary scale are $4,160 to $4,888 for patrolmen, $4,342 to $5,060 for detectives $4,888 to $5,720 for sergeants, $5,720 to $6,656 for captains, and $6,916 to $7,982 for the chief.

City Employes Listen to Mayor, Give $100 for Boys

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey has the fun-raiser's touch.

City Auditor John J. Norton, chairman of the City Hall solicitation for the current Boys' Club drive, said this morning that he asked the mayor to say a few words for the drive at a luncheon meeting of the City Employes' Social Club yesterday.

The words were effective ones. Shortly after the luncheon broke up, the club delivered to Mr. Norton a $100 check for the drive.

City Firemen Ask Raises

Proposed Boosts Range Up From $1,248 in 5 Years

Pittsfield firemen want the City Council to approve a new salary schedule which would give the Fire Department's 133 employes increases ranging from $1,248 to $2,094 over a five-year period.

A petition calling for the adoption of a new schedule was filed with the city clerk this morning by the betterment committee of the Pittsfield Permanent Firemen's Assn.

Lt. David J. Cullen, a member of the betterment committee, said he could give no estimate as to the total cost of the entire package. However, the proposed schedule shows that for the 100 privates in the department the difference between their present and proposed maximums would amount to $153,400 at the end of five years.

Now at $4,888

Under the present schedule privates in the Fire Department currently have a maximum annual salary of $4,888. The proposed schedule would increase the minimum pay for privates to $5,512 and boost the maximum to $6,422 through five annual increments ranging from $106 to $127.

In addition to the 100 privates, there are 27 officers, two clerks, one mechanic and three telephone operators in the department.

Under the current salary schedule, the fire chief has a maximum salary of $7,982. The new schedule would raise the minimum to $8,840 and the new maximum to $10,076.

Mrs. Marion R. Benoit of 31 Lucille St., senior clerk-stenographer in the city's personnel section, is the only person certified by Civil Service for a post as principal clerk-stenographer in the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Mrs. Benoit was the only person who took the "open" promotional examination last Dec. 12, and hers was the only name on the certification supplied today to Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert.

The principal clerk-stenographer's job would pay $3,016 to $3,536 a year, compared with a range of $2,808-$3,276 for a senior clerk.

Police Petition For Increase In Salaries

New Minimum Schedule Asked By Most Members

Almost all members of the Police Department signed a petition today asking the mayor and City Council to establish new minimum salaries for regular patrolmen in accordance with a schedule included in a 1959 act of the Legislature.

The schedule, subject to local adoption, provides for a starting pay of $4,880 a year, $5,030 the second year, and $5,500 for third and subsequent years. The petition filed today requests that the chief, captains and sergeants be compensated "proportionately."

Under existing schedules, regular patrolmen receive a maximum of $4,840 plus longevity increments. The minimum starting pay now is $4,320.

The petition will be referred next week to the Committee on Finance along with other pay raise proposals, including that of the firemen.

Clerical employes in city government will be line for a slight pay boost if a recommendation from Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services, is adopted by the City Council.

In a letter to the Council, Mr. Johnson recommended that junior clerks and junior clerk-typists be raised from class Grade 1 to class Grade 3 on the salary scale, that junior clerk-stenographers go from 1 to 4, and that senior clerk-stenographers go from 5 to 6.

In terms of money, that would mean a jump from $47 a week to $50 for the junior clerks and typists, and from $47 to $52 for junior stenographers. Senior stenographers would rise from $54 to $56.

Can't Compete

"The city is experiencing difficulty in obtaining competent clerical help because of the differential between our pay scale and that in effect in private industry," Mr. Johnson commented.

The city cannot hope to match the private pay rates, "but it is imperative that we at least reduce the spread," he said.

He pointed out that Civil Service has recently approved minimum rates of $52.25 for junior clerical workers and $62.50 for senior clerical workers in the Welfare Department. The state's own minimum pay rates are scheduled to rise next month, and the trend generally is upward, he noted.

'Should Apply to All'

He conceded that the state minimums apply only to the clerical workers in Welfare, but he added, "It is strongly felt . . . that any increases should apply to all employes in the city."

He said he had recommended a higher upgrading for stenographers because there should be a pay differential for those who know shorthand.

City IBM Unit Takes Over DPW Payroll

Director Johnson Cites Advantages Of New System

The IBM section of the city's Department of Administrative Services has taken over production of the entire payroll of the Department of Public Works, one of the largest in city government.

Director Robert U. Johnson said this morning that preparations for the change-over from hand-computed to automated payrolls took about two months. The first full payroll was produced for the period ending Feb. 6

The director said the new system not only eliminates the slow and tedious process of figuring payrolls by hand, but also provides more detailed information about costs of various operations performed within the department.

Features of System

The IBM cards, color-coded by divisions, will quickly yield such information as the number of overtime hours worked in a given period in any division or combination of divisions; the cost of the overtime; the cost of snow removal, whether done on regular time or overtime; and similar combinations of data.

The new payroll system includes automatic production of more than 200 final paychecks by IBM machines, with all deductions automatically computed.

The change-over was made possible by a new IBM machine leased by the city last fall. Mr. Johnson said the IBM section has been working since that time to "program" the new system, making "parallel" or dry-run payrolls over a period of weeks to make sure the system was foolproof.

Law Prohibits City Cutting Pay On Promotions

The city would be prohibited by law from dealing a pay cut to any employe promoted to a higher position, according to Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services.

Mr. Johnson, responding to a query on the subject, pointed to Section VIII.a.5 of the salary ordinance, which stipulates:

"In any case where an employe is promoted to a class with a higher compensation schedule, the entrance rate shall be at the lowest step in the higher schedule that will provide an increase over the rate received immediately prior to such promotion."

The question arose because of a claim that senior Grade 2 engineers in the Public Works Department had declined to take an exam for temporary promotion on grounds that it would make them liable to a pay cut. The maximum rate for Grade 2 engineers is higher than the starting rate for Grade 3 engineers, and some of the Grade 2 men claimed they had been given no assurance that they would not get a pay cut as result of a "promotion."

In fact, the salary ordinance requires that a pay raise must accompany each promotion.

Budget Session Held by Council

The City Council met for another budget session last night.

Conferring with the Council on 1960 budget requests were City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fitzgerald, Tax Collector John W. Meehan, the assessors, and Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert. Park Commissioner Francis G. Nichols accompanied Mr. Hebert.

No decisions were made last night. The Council customarily reviews each budget line by line with the department heads, then when the first round of conferences has been completed, begins cutting.

City Clerk Named Clearing Agent For Meetings

City Clerk John J. Fitzgerald will serve henceforth as a "clearing house" for information about meetings of all city agencies.

The innovation was suggested last night by Ward 1 Councilman Leo B. Nesbit, who noted frequent conflicts between meetings, particularly for councilmen who may be members of several Council committees as well as other city boards and commissions.

Henceforth all meeting will be scheduled with the cognizance of the city clerk, who will advise those calling the meeting of conflicts.

Council Agrees To Upgrade Two Positions in Health Lab

The City Council informally agreed last night to upgrade two positions in the Health Department laboratory in the hope of solving the lab's personnel problems.

The tentative decision was reached at a special Council meeting called by Mayor Raymond L. Haughey. Sentiment among the nine councilmen present was unanimously in favor of the proposed raises.

The proposal, advanced by Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services, would raise the salary range of the chief bacteriologist in charge of the lab from $4,524-$5,304 to a new level of $5,096-$5,954 a year.

The salary range for the assistant bacteriologist would go from the present $3,692-$4,342 to $4,524-$5,304.

Dr. Stein Explains

Health Commissioner Harold Stein, explaining the personnel problem, said that he had been unable to fill the assistant's post on a full-time basis at the present salary, but had had to rely on part-time help in that particular job.

Such an arrangement was not too satisfactory, he said, and might well become impossible in the near future. Miss Eleanor A. Fraser, bacteriologist in charge of the lab, is planning to retire early next year, Dr. Stein said, and a full-time assistant should be hired now so the department will have a trained successor to Miss Fraser.

Dr. Stein pointed out that the lab—"one of the better ones in the state"—performed 8,539 bacteriological tests in 1958.

Figuring a minimum of $3 per test—"some would cost more, but very few would cost less"—the city would have to spend at least $25,000 a year to purchase the services elsewhere, Dr. Stein said. "And," he added, "that's not considering the advantages of having our own lab, being able to set up the tests we want when we want them, being able to get quick answers when we need them. If we have a sick child we can't wait three or four days to get an answer on a throat swab, and with our own lab we don't have to."

'Highly Competitive Market'

Noting that the city's previous attempts to hire personnel for the lab had failed because of the low salary, Dr. Stein concluded: "We are operating in a highly competitive market here. The colleges are not turning out as many bacteriologists, and they are snapped up right away.

"We are faced with either rectifying the situation, purchasing the service, or ditching the whole thing, which would be a sad commentary."

Mr. Johnson presented results of a comparative-salary survey made among other agencies hiring bacteriologists, and concluded by proposing the raises.

After some discussion of the special qualifications needed—a college degree in bacteriology, according to Dr. Stein—the Council considered the possibility of advertising the position on a "salary open" basis.

Johnson Objects

Mr. Johnson felt that might lead to disruption of the entire salary scale in the Health Department. "I make a verk strong personal plea against that," he said.

"By going out to hire someone and setting the salary afterward, you are starting something the consequences of which I could not foresee."

He suggested that an effort be made first to hire someone at the proposed new salary figure. "If it doesn't work, we'll just have to come back and say we couldn't catch any fish with this bait."

That plan was adopted on an informal vote. The mayor will be asked to submit the necessary change in the salary ordinance, which will then be subjected to a formal test.

Lts. Benham, Coty Appointed Firemen's Muster Chairmen

Lt. Paul L. Benham

An earlier-than-ever start is being made this year for the Firemen's Muster, annually sponsored by the Pittsfield Permanent Firemen's Assn. for the city's Fourth of July celebration.

With the rest of the area hoping for a sign of spring, the firemen started on their summer plans today by announcing appointment of Lts. Paul L. Benham and Eugene F. Coty as chairmen of the 1960 event.

Lt. Benham and Inspector Robert P. Villanova have been chairmen the past two years. Lt. Coty is president of the association.

No committe has been named as yet, but the chairmen will ask the Park Commission for a permit to use Wahconah Park for their carnival from June 30 through July 4.

Lt. Benham said he had already received requests for booths at the park. He said anyone interested could obtain an application blank by writing the Firemen's Muster Committee, P.O. Pox 332, Pittsfield.

Mayor Calls Two Meetings For Tomorrow

Junior College, Burbank Park Addition Are Topics

A junior college and a park addition will be the topic of two special meetings tomorrow morning, one involving the City Council and School Committee, the other the Council.

Both sessions were called by Mayor Raymond L. Haughey.

First on the crowded agenda will be the City Council's meeting at 10:30 with Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert and others on a proposed acquisition of about 1,800 feet of Onota Lake shore frontage for Burbank Park.

Shorefront Offered

Berkshire Woolen Co. has offered the city about eight acres of shorefront property, if the city will acquire another 2.3 acres lying between the present northern boundary of the park and the land owned by the textile firm. The intervening property is owned by Charles R. Ramsay and John M. Marshall. An eminent domain proceeding may be necessary to acquire those properties, which have been appraised for about $16,000, the mayor said.

Tomorrow's meeting is designed to acquaint the Council with the proposal, and perhaps to get the general views of the councilmen, the mayor said.

Following that session, the mayor and Council will meet at 11 with the School Committee to hear a report from Thomas E. O'Connell, executive consultant to the state Board of Regional Community Colleges.

School Supt. Edward J. Russell, who also will attend, said today that a progress report on plans for a junior college here would be the principal matter before the meeting.

"I hope, too, to make known my views of the implications in having a junior college here," Dr. Russell added.

Mayor Haughey Asks $2,000 For Help-for-Aged Program

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey has asked the City Council to appropriate $2,000 — all of which will be refunded by the state — to establish a "demonstration" program in help for the aged.

Pittsfield was picked by the state Department of Public Health as one of three communities to establish the demonstration programs in geriatrics. The others are Cambridge and Newton.

The $2,000 would carry the program through June 30, the end of the state's fiscal year. It is anticipated that the Legislature will provide another $8,000 to continue the Pittsfield program next year.

In a letter requesting the initial appropriation Health Commissioner Harold Stein said the local Health Department "is attempting to coordinate this with our existing program and with a proposed program of the Parks and Recreation Department."

He said finding adequate space for the proposed assistance center is a major problem, and may require more city funds.

Dr. Alfred Frechette, state commissioner of public health, said in a supporting letter that it is understood the local program would include a "full-time co-ordinator who will have knowledge of the available resources which can be utilized so that whatever type of service is required by a physician, volunteer agency, or individual families in some cases, will be met insofar as possible."

The proposed center would provide a recreation lounge as well as office space for the co-ordinator, who would work full-time at assisting elderly citizens with their problems and seeking out those who need help.

Quadrozzi Seeks Spadina Parkway Lighting Change

Ward 5 Councilman Samuel J. Quadrozzi has asked the City Council to accept the recommendation of Western Massachusetts Electric Co. for changes in the street lighting plan on Spadina Parkway, at an additional cost to the city of $120 a year.

Quadrozzi submitted to the Council a letter from Raymond W. Flynn to the Park Department, which has charge of the center strip where the lights are located.

The utility official said the company has had considerable difficulty and expense on the street because boys with BB guns persist in shooting out the panes of glass on the present five-sided ornamental globes. Each pane costs a dollar to replace, he said.

The company proposes to remove the dozen 2,500-lumen lights now on the street and replace them with a like number of 4,000-lumen units housed in thick glass globes. The 2,500-lumen units cost $40 each a year, the larger ones $50 a year.

'Fed Up With Daniels,' Says Leahy Leaving DPW

Retiring after 41 years of service in the Pittsfield Public Works Department, Grade 2 Engineer John P. Leahy Jr. charged today that Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels has let the department "slide downhill" during his four years in the top job.

"I'm fed up with Daniels," the retiring engineer said today.

Leahy said he had submitted an official request for retirement, but added, "Resignation would just about cover it otherwise." He said he chose retirement in order to protect his pension rights. He is 59, and will reach his 41st anniversary in city service April 1, the day he will wind up his duties. The retirement will take effect after a vacation of three weeks.

Daniels Comments

Commissioner Daniels, commenting on reports that Leahy's retirement was part of a general upheaval in the engineering section of the Public Works Department, today denied knowledge of any "dispute" within the department.

He confirmed that Leahy had asked Friday for retirement but denied knowledge of a reported retirement of Arthur S. Menard, another grade 2 engineer. "The men have arrived at the retirement age, and if they decided to retire, that's their business," he said. "But I have heard nothing about it."

Menard declined to comment today on his reported retirement plans. Highway Foreman John F. (Pete) Gilligan, the other man identified as a candidate for retirement, branded the report a "false rumor."

"I'm of age to retire," the 65-year-old foreman said, "but I'm going to stay on for a while."

Menard, 59, a veteran of almost 36 years with the department, confirmed reports that he had launched a campaign for the post of city engineer, which Commissioner Daniels has asked the mayor to revive.

Listed Qualifications

Menard has sent letters to the commissioner, the mayor, all members of the City Council and Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services, setting forth his qualifications for the post.

Commissioner Daniels also confirmed a report that he had spoken to Menard about alleged "conflicts of interest" involved in private work done by the engineer on projects which eventually come into the hands of the city. At issue was work done by the engineer on Arch and Radcliffe Streets. As an employe of the abutters Menard prepared layouts to be used in connection with petitions of the abutters.

Noting that these same layouts then come into the engineering section for review, the commissioner commented, "I don't think it's ethical to have a city man doing this work. I think it's a question of interests."

Although Leahy declined to amplify his blast at the commissioner, it is understood that there are several points of contention within the department.

Most important apparently is the commissioner's retention of his Civil Service rating as permanent grade 3 engineer, the only such post in the department.

Leahy has been filling the job on a series of temporary appointments, but Saturday a Civil Service exam was held to fill the job on a "permanent" temporary basis. Only one of the grade 2 engineers, William E. Flynn, took the exam for the temporary appointment.

It is understood that several members of the staff feel that the commissioner should have given up the grade 3 post, in order that one of the other men in the department could have a permanent promotion.

As things stand now, the holder of the grade 3 job would be bumped back to grade 2 if the commissioner should resign or be fired from the top job.

Also reportedly at issue within the department are various other personnel policies, including an funeral services and burial were in California.

Leahy 'Fed Up'

alleged failure to provide qualified permanent surveying parties and other assistance within the department.

It is understood that some of the senior grade 2 engineers declined to take the promotional exam for the temporary grade 3 rating because they had no assurance that they would not receive a pay cut if they took the job. The top salary for a grade 2 engineer is $5,954 a year, while the starting pay for a grade 3 man is $5,720.

Commissioner Daniels this morning denied all knowledge of any dispute about the examination. "There has been no dispute," he said. "There hasn't been one word mentioned to me about this exam."

Having failed to take the Civil Service exam for the "permanent" temporary grade 3 rating, Leahy would automatically have been bumped back to grade 2 if he had not decided to retire. But he denied that the prospect of a reduction in salary affected his retirement plans.

Commissioner Daniels said today that so far as he knew the only protests made to Civil Service about the exam were made by himself. He said he had objected to some of the requirements for the exam as "too severe."

The examination was open only to the present grade 2 engineers in the department.

Orders Filed By Mayor

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey has submitted orders appropriating $623.59 for action by the City Council Tuesday.

Largest of the sums is $360 to pay for a pay raise for Miss Mary E. Calnan, secretary to the mayor. The Council has already given initial approval to an amendment removing the mayor's secretary from the regular pay classification schedule and granting her a flat $80-a-week salary. It is expected the action on the change will be completed Tuesday. The money will come from surplus revenue.

Transferred from the "new auto" account is $193.59 to be used for auto maintenance by the inspector of wires. And appropriated from the reserve fund is $70 to pay for an automobile allowance for the assistant wire inspector.

The mayor also filed an order appointing three special policemen at the Berkshire Hills Country Club: John Kellar, the club professional; Gordon Pettibone, the course superintendent, and Homer Burdick, the club steward.

Jr. League Launchings

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

Many Pittsfield service organizations are doing beneficial, and largely unheralded, work in supporting worthy community projects. One organization, however, puts an unusual twist on its giving. It supports the launching of new attempts to meet the needs of Pittsfield.

The organization that gives this highly essential boost is the Junior League. Just last week it announced its latest gifts—$2,500 to equip the new Berkshire Psychiatric Clinic for Children and $4,000 to equip the new Senior Citizens' lounge.

We, the undersigned, are involved in the two lucky organizations that are on the receiving end this time. We are naturally appreciative, and felt this would be a good time to remind the community about what the Junior League is doing.

Starting with the Milk Fund in 1930, it has had an active part in launching the Children's Dental Health Clinic, the Athenaeum Record Lending Library, Young Audience Concerts, the Volunteer Service Bureau, Recording for the Blind and several projects for the Girls' Club. It's an impressive list of accomplishments. We thank the Junior League publicly for its latest gifts as well as the over-all conrtibution it is making to Pittsfield.

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

The nation's senior citizens are giving the home building industry a slight headache.

The builders aren't unhappy about the fact that more old persons own houses than ever before in the history of the country. Nor about the span-of-life statistics that make it evident this market will be increasing in the years ahead.

What is causing some concern is the difference of opinion among housing authorities, as well as the oldsters themselves, on what constitutes ideal living conditions for individuals and couples in retirement. For instance, there are many communities built almost entirely around the concept that elderly persons require living accommodations designed especially for their needs. This theory is carried out both in the structural character of the homes and in the facilities for recreation and entertainment.

Unwanted Grab Bars

These so-called retirement communities generally have been successful. But of late there has been a noticeable tendency on the part of many senior citizens to steer clear of housing developments which seem to cater to their specific wants.

This is partly borne out of a recent survey undertaken by a Florida organization called the Bayshore Gardens Council on Retirement. The council, in questioning 500 retired families, found that most of them were very much against living in areas designed solely to make living easier for men and women over 65 years of age.

They were especially against grab-bars, luminescent light switches and other features generally considered essential in housing for the elderly.

Want Extra Bedrooms

You will note that we said the survey "partly bore out this seeming change in thinking. That's because the same survey also disclosed that retirement persons have definite ideas on housing suitable for them. They consider it important, for instance, that they live in single level homes to avoid climbing stairs. They want homes with two or three bedrooms to accommodate visiting children and grandchildren. They need lots of closet and storage space to take care of the many and varied items they have collected through the years. And they believe churches, shopping facilities and the like should be reasonably close at hand.

On the matter of gardens, nearly all said they liked them and wanted them, but felt they should be small enough to make caring for them a pleasure and not a chore.

Junior League Votes $6,500 For Two Community Projects

The Junior League of Pittsfield last night voted to give a total of $6,500 to two new community projects.

Four thousand dollars will be appropriated to provide furnishings for the Senior Citizens' Lounge over a two-year period, and $2,500 this year will be allotted to the Children's Mental Health Clinic for office furniture and playroom equipment.

The lounge, under the auspices of the Park Department, will open later this fall at 349 North St.

Dr. Gordon Northrup will direct the clinic, which is slated to open in a second-floor suite of rooms at Coolidge Hill School as soon as a staff has been obtained. Dr. Northrup, a child psychiatrist, arrived here from San Francisco last August and presently has headquarters at the Berkshire Psychiatric Clinics.

Junior League members are to help supervise use of the money.

Mrs. John Church, league president, announced the results of the vote at last night's meeting attended by about 75 in St. Stephen's parish house. Mrs. Russell D. Bousquet was chairman of the community research committee to consider projects for the league.

Money for the projects will be realized from the league's Thrift Shop and from the annual Junior League ball. This year's will be Friday evening at the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel.

Son To Give Big Party Here For Palestinian Father, 105

Next month the father of Esa A. Ali will be 105 years old.

Esa Ali lives in Pittsfield. His father lives in Palestine, but the younger Mr. Ali is going to honor his father long distance.

The way he's going to do it is to throw a mammoth party for all members of the Pittsfield Golden Age Club. He's expecting about 400 people.

Mr. Ali, who owns restaurants at 12 Dalton Ave. and 101 West St., has ordered more than 400 pounds of turkey for the dinner. It will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. in North Junior High School.

The food will be prepared by Mr. Ali, his wife, and his brother, Musa, from Fitchburg. Musa has been giving dinners like this in Fitchburg for many years.

Mr. Ali has invited the mayor, members of the City Council, other public officials and members of the clergy. The Pittsfield Rotary Club and the Daughters of Lebanon will help serve the dinner.

Mr. Ali said there will be entertainment, including an exhibition of Arabian dancing.

Program for Senior Citizens Outlined for UCS Health Staff

The program and plans of the newly established Senior Citizens' Counseling and Referral Service were discussed by Mrs. John M. Diamond, health program co-ordinator, at the November luncheon meeting of the health staff group of United Community Services yesterday noon at the Women's Club.

The Senior Citizens' two-year pilot project in Pittsfield presently serves 14 active cases, ranging in age from 46 to 87 years, requesting varied needs—medical, rehabilitation, employment, housing, nursing home, financial and transportation.

Mrs. Diamond outlined plans for a home-care program that would provide continual total care of home-bound patients. Community-based rather than hospital-based, this project "would derive financial support and services from a multiple of community agencies," she said. "This organization introduces no duplication of services, but integrates more effective utilization of those presently available."

New Center

A second phase of the pilot project is the Senior Citizens' Recreation Center at 349 North St., former home of Singer Sewing Machine, which is scheduled to open by the end of the month. Senior citizens will be encouraged to spend leisure daytime hours at the center. Tentative programs include arts and crafts, ceramics, flower arrangement, cake decoration, reading, games, music and other interest groups, under the direction of Miss Jean Loveland, recreation supervisor of the city's Parks and Recreation Department.

Mrs. Diamond cited great need for volunteer workers in these areas.

George O. Gibeau of the Massachusetts Division of Vocational Rehabilitation will speak at the December meeting of the health staff.

A salute to big-hearted Esa Ali, Pittsfield restaurant owner who has decided to honor his father's 105th birthday by stuffing some 400 Golden Age Club members with turkey next Sunday. Certainly it would have been hard to devise a more appropriate way to observe the occasion, or a more generous one . . .

State Legislature Acts

Medical Care for Elderly Liberalized Under New Law

One of the last acts passed by the Massachusetts Legislature early Thursday morning was an adoption of a new federal law liberalizing medical care assistance to the elderly.

Under the law elderly persons are eligible for medical care assistance even though they are not welfare recipients. However, standards of need have been set up by the federal government before a person is eligible for such assistance. Experts in the field are still disagreed as to its provisions.

Welfare Commissioner Charles H. Hodecker opined last night that Pittsfield will save money in overall welfare outlays if the law says what he thinks it does. Under existing legislation on old age assistance, Pittsfield contributes from one-fourth to one-third of the cost, and the federal and state governments pay the remainder. But under the bill passed by Congress, federal and state governments will assume a much larger share of the cost. Because of the latter feature, considerable sums now spent by the local welfare department to help elderly persons who can't get along on their incomes will be financed to a greater extent by federal and state governments. That means it would save money for real estate tax payers of Massachusetts.

Standards of Need

Under the standards of need, an elderly person would be eligible for aid if he has less than $2,500 in the bank and owns a house. Money in the bank would make him ineligible under existing old age assistance relief. He could own a house and get assistance under the OAA routine, but state law requires that the welfare agency take a top priority lien on the property. Under the new plan, the government doesn't have a priority lien.

Disagreement between the House and Senate over a clause on dependents' responsibility held up enactment at the State House until the last minute. Generally, the House was not for making children responsible for the medical care costs of their parents; but the Senate was in favor. The compromise was reached after conferees agreed to increase the amount a child would receive in net income before being responsible for the support of his parents' medical care.

A single person living at home with his parents wouldnt' be liable for medical care assistance to his parents unless his net income was at least $2,500 a year. A married son would have to have a net income of at least $4,000 a year plus $600 for each dependent before he was liable for such assistance.

Councilman-at-Large Donald G. Butler is preparing to ask the City Council for use of the soon-to-be abandoned Armory on Summer Street for the Golden Age Club.

Butler wants the building, which is tax exempt, so the club could use the large drill floor for its activities, as well as the kitchen and small meeting rooms. More than 200 senior citizens now meet weekly at the YMCA. If these meetings were to be moved to the old Armory, when the new one is complete, the necessity of climbing long steps would be eliminated.

Pittsfield's Golden Age Club, one of the first in the state, could greatly expand its activities, Butler said.

The management of the center would be handled by the members of the club, according to the councilman.

Butler's order will come before the City Council at its next regular meeting. It will ask the mayor and the council to assure that the old Armory will not be town down or sold before the senior citizens' use has been investigated.

He maintains that buildings like the Armory are costly to tear down or are sold for small sums to private individuals.

Park Commission Meeting

10/18/60

Lounge, Recreation Setup For Older Citizens Proposed

Provision for a lounge and recreation program for Pittsfield's senior citizens was discussed last night at the Park Commission's monthly meeting.

The project, according to Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation, would be conducted on an experimental basis to determine whether a need for such a center exists.

Jointly operating with the Health Department's pilot project in a referral service for the elderly, the center would provide a place for senior citizens to congregate in downtown Pittsfield.

Vacant Store Considered

Under discussion last night was the former Singer Sewing Machine Center on North Street, now vacant. The proposal has been referred to City Solicitor William R. Flynn for further study.

Mr. Hebert said the center would include an office for Mrs. Dorothy P. Diamond of the Health Department and would supply information on all services available to the elderly.

The commissioners also discussed possible changes in the parking-fee system at Pontoosuc Lake where nonresidents were charged 75 cents a day last summer.

Mr. Hebert presented a graph indicating that most of the nonresident fees were collected on Saturdays and Sundays, with the weekday costs of a collection force making the week-long policy questionable.

The commissioners table the matter for further study.

Mayor Attends

Mayor Haughey attended the meeting, which also included discussion of the upcoming 1961 budget for the department.

Mr. Hebert reported that the commission was considering a request from the Little League for partial subsidy of umpires for their games. The Little League asked for the underwriting because operating expenses ha[illegible] during the past two years, bringing a strain to their budget.

City Council President Charles J. Kidney should feel complimented by his colleagues' decision to table his resignation in the hopes that he may reconsider. There have been plenty of councilmen whose resignations would have been accepted before the ink was dry . . . It was appropriate that when death took Hubert P. (Bay) Orienti of Lee it was in front of the headquarters of the town fire department he had served for four decades, including 21 years as chief. He was always a fireman 24 hours a day, which is one reason why Lee's volunteer company is among the best in the area.

If the success that has attended the work of the Golden Age Club since its inception is any indication, there is a lot of merit to the Park Department's proposal to extend its program for senior citizens by providing them with a lounge and recreation center in the North Street area . . . Better late than never may be as good a rule in politics as in anything else, but the newly established Kennedy organization here would have been a lot more value to the ticket if it had been set up before the vast majority of independents had already made up their minds . . . In justice to Senator Cramer, whose remarks in Lee the other day gave aid and comfort to advocates of a state lottery, it should be noted that as chairman of the Committee on Taxation he is on record for many sounder methods of getting the state out of its recurrent fiscal difficulties . . .

Old Age Measures Said Forced On Elder Citizens Against Will

BOSTON (UPI)—Social planners and politicians are forcing bills purported to help the aged or the nation's older population against their wishes, a researcher into problems of the aged said yesterday.

Dr. Hugh Cabot, executive director of the Age Center of New England, said in an interview that the huge majority of the nation's aged do not want to be singled out for special assistance. They resent being made "the new minority,' he said, and are not in need of most of the legislation concerning them.

Self Gains Seen

"It is not the aged who ask to be considered as a unified group but rather the social planners and politicians who see in them either a new strength in vote - getting or a new menace to the national economy,' said Cabot. "Most older people reject even such labels as 'senior citizens' and as the newer politicians begin to introduce bill after bill purported to help the aged they are individually in revolt."

The Age Center of New England is a research organization set up to study apparently normal and healthy persons over 55. Most previous research done in the field had been confined to "captive audiences" such as in hospitals or institutions, he said.

Cabot said that though there "is complete agreement" that special assistance should be provided the aged by the federal or state government, "this help is already being given them to a greater or lesser extent through various plans and cannot be considered a part of the sweeping legislation which is now a rallying cry of the present crop of politicians."

"Despite the popular notion that all, or nearly all old people are ill... only 5 per cent are today in an institution of any kind," he said.

O'Donnells Campaign Here For More Benefits for Aged

Myers

Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell, with transportation, propaganda and petitions. G.A.

Going all out for aid to the aged yesterday and today were Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. O'Donnell of Lynn.

Mr. O'Donnell, 69, is president and legislative director of Senior Citizens and Associates of America. He and his wife were in North Adams Tuesday and here yesterday and today, passing out petitions. He wants a federal pension of not less than $200 a month for all retired citizens 65 or over, as well as medical care not to exceed a total cost of $2,000 and funeral benefits of $400.

This would come out of Social Security funds, he explains, although he does not advocate raising the amount paid into Social Security.

Pass Out Petitions

Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell set up shop on North Street, opposite the Bridge Lunch. They passed out petitions to all passersby who would take one. They got rid of about 100 petitions in North Adams, Mr. O'Donnell said, and expect to do the same in Pittsfield. There is room for about 60 signatures on each petition.

At least 1,200 signatures must be obtained from each state senatorial district, Mr. O'Donnell said, to apply to the Legislature to put the question on the ballot. The referendum, he hopes, would persuade the state Legislature to memorialize Congress to pass such legislation.

He's already got his 1,200 signatures from the two districts in Essex County, Mr. O'Donnell said, and has done spade work in Districts in the Boston area.

Old Hand

Mr. O'Donnell is an old hand at this sort of thing. He's on Social Security and has been on a veteran's disability pension for many years. For about 20 years he's devoted his full time to whooping it up for old-age pensions.

He used to be a newspaperman himself, out West, and got the old-age pension bug when covering a Socialist convention as a young reporter. At one time he was a publicity man for an organization seeking an end to Prohibition.

The O'Donnells have four married children, and many grandchildren.

They're trying to get their petitions in so that they will have an impact at the White House Conference for the Aged, coming up in Washington next January.

Report Given On Governor's Conference

By MRS. ISABEL M. PARKER

Gov. Foster Furcolo delivered the keynote address at the Governor's Conference on Aging, held at Hayden Hall, Boston University, Saturday. The conference was held in preparation for the January, 1961, White House Conference on Aging. Some 1,200 delegates heard the governor defend the Kennedy-Forand bills and condemn the Republican endorsed medical programs as "inadequate, expensive, and difficult to administer."

In reviewing the accomplishments of his own administration in the field of care for the aging, Gov. Furcolo cited the more than 2,400 housing units for the aged in 55 communities, either completed or under construction.

Formal reports by 14 subcommittees, the results of studying various aspects of the general aging program and problems, were submitted at afternoon workshops and in summary session to the conference audience. Areas covered included leisure time, vocational rehabilitation, employment, health and social services. Recommendations in the subcommittee reports were prepared for presentation to the 1961 White House Conference on Aging.

"Aging With a Future—Every Citizen's Concern" was the theme of the conference. George P. Davis, chairman of the Massachusetts State Council for the Aging, introduced the keynote speaker. John W. Spillane, Worcester attorney, was general chairman of the conference, and Dr. Malcolm S. Knowles, associate professor of education and general consultant in adult education at Boston University, served as program chairman.

10,000 Swarm City Beaches

An estimated 10,000 persons swarmed the public beaches at Onota and Pontoosuc lakes yesterday as the warm, humid weather attracted the first large crowds of the summer.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said 5,000 were at Burbank Park at Onota Lake and about 4,500 at Pontoosuc.

A jazz concert contributed to the attendance at Pontoosuc as the Park Department and Local 109 of the Musicians' Union sponsored Tommy Scannell's Berkshire All-Stars, John Culpo's jazz quintet and Dick Russo's 13-piece orchestra.

The concert marked the first time that the union's grants from the music performance trust fund had been used here for a jazz program.

Mr. Hebert also reported that John Narducci of Bridgeport, Conn., had made his own way to shore at Pontoosuc after dislocating his shoulder while swimming; and two wading rescues were made, one at each beach.

A 19-year-old lifeguard at Pontoosuc public beach successfully rescued a 61-year-old swimmer yesterday afternoon.

Robert Shoemaker of 264 Benedict Rd. was treated at Pittsfield General Hospital and released after he was pulled to shore by Miss Carolyn George.

The girl was on duty for the Department of Parks and Recreation when she heard Mr. Shoemaker cry for help. He was about 30 feet from shore in water over his head.

The resuscitator was used at the beach, and local police took Mr. Shoemaker to the hospital in the ambulance.

Grateful Guest

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

During the past week I was a guest in Pittsfield of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stetson. While there I had the opportunity to visit the municipal beaches at both Lake Pontoosuc and Onota. I had my two young children with me.

Your Park Commission is certainly to be congratulated for the immaculate beaches and the excellence of the life guards at their posts. Commissioner Hebert and his department have afforded the people in your area magnificent care and protection. On behalf of the three of us, I wish to thank the people of Pittsfield for a wonderful visit.

Makes a Good Story

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

As a former cub reporter, I regret the impulse that prompts me to spoil a good story, but as a person aggrieved, I want to play down my role in same.

On my first day swimming for several years, if once or twice a season in shallow waters is ignored, I allowed myself to swim out to the diving raft at Pontoosuc beach. The distance did not look far, but aging arteries, varicose veins, "athletic heart," short sleep and too many cigarettes are bound to take their toll.

I took a good rest after my first dive, but not enough before my third, from which I emerged to try for shore. Some short distance from the pier, I remarked, not sotto voce, to the nearest guard that I was getting quite tired. I never could float, but I turned over on my back and marked time, and tired as I was, got an appreciable thrill when the voice of a girl rescuer enlisted my cooperation. So I got pushed to the pier where male arms assisted me in scrambling up.

At not quite 61 I should have known better, but these efficient young people didn't scold me. After a short rest in which my dislike for lying down was countered by the proffered pabulum of a respirator, I was gently escorted by police car to the nearest hospital where a kindly lady intern checked my blood pressure as 30 points below my normal. A consultant finally let me go home, courtesy of the park superintendent and a co-driver.

I ask you, was that being rescued from near drowning, resuscitated at the bathhouse, and "treated" at the hospital?

I do appreciate the friendliness, aid and advice of all concerned, and the subsequent active solicitude of some real friends. But I feel unduly flattered to be the cause of stopping the Yankee ball game broadcast with a "bulletin" on WBEC.

I shall be kidded no end after the shutdown at GE.

ROBERT SHOEMAKER.

Local Stores Give $500 to Swim Program

TCM 10/31/60

Two area business organizations, Adams Super Markets and Zayre Department Stores, have contributed $250 each toward transportation of children who will take part in the swimming program of the Pittsfield public schools.

Swim Entry List Passes 100; 14 Events May Be Scratched

AUG 4 1960

The entry list for the 15th annual Pittsfield and Berkshire County swim meet, jointly sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation and The Berkshire Eagle, passed the 100 mark yesterday. Several more entries were received at the Springside House office of the Parks Department, from Pittsfield, Williamstown, Lenox, Lee, Hudson, N.Y., and several county camps.

Counting all the entries of contestants swimming in more than one event, well over 130 swimmers will leave the starting blocks. A large number of these are concentrated in the 11-13 boys' events; 26 will swim in six heats in the 50-yard freestyle, and 15 in three heats in the 50-yard backstroke. All winners will be decided on a best time basis.

Due to a lack of interest at certain other age brackets, 14 of the 43 scheduled events will have to be dropped unless more entries are received by scratch time, at 1 p.m.

Events with no entries or only one entry include the 100-yard freestyle, 50-yard backstroke, and 50-yard breast stroke races for both the girls 16-18 and 17 and over classes, the 50-yard freestyle and 50-yard backstroke races in the girls 14-16 class, the 100-yard freestyle in the girls 13-15 class, and the 50-yard freestyle in the girls 11-13 class.

Boys events with too few entries include the 17 and over 50-yard backstroke, the 16-18 50-yard breast stroke and butterfly races, and the 13-15 100-yard freestyle race.

Meet director John Marchesi has emphasized that entries may be filed today at the Pontoosuc beachmaster's office or the Parks Department office anytime up until the 1 p.m. deadline, which is also the time of the scratch meeting.

All officials should report to the lake at 1 p.m. for the meet, which begins at 1:30.

Speed Skaters Get $400 for New Uniforms

Action Postponed Again on Gift To Boys' Club Fund

The winter sports committee voted last night to give $400 to the Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club for new uniforms, and for the second time postponed action on a proposed donation to the Boys' Club building fund.

New officers were elected for the 1960-61 winter carnival, with William S. Litty named chairman; Miss Margaret L. Dobson, vice chairman; Mrs. Carl E. Peaslee, secretary; and William P. Drummond, treasurer.

A committee was named to further investigate the proposed indoor skating rink at the new Boys' Club. Carl E. Peaslee, Robert B. Deloye and Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation were placed on the committee.

Action on Gift Postponed

George (Doc) Maynard, outgoing chairman, suggested at the committee's annual banquet Feb. 29 that the group give $2,000 to the Boys' Club. Action was postponed until last night, when the committee again decided to wait.

Mr. Maynard said the special group selected to look further into the Boys' Club situation would try to determine whether the rink would be available for winter sports committee events and what size it would be.

The sports group has a particular interest in the possibility of an indoor rink since it would give them a chance to hold large-scale, indoor meets here for the first time.

When the Boys' Club fund was set up, it was announced that if the $1,100,000 goal were exceeded by $200,000 a skating rink might be added to the plans.

Mr. Maynard also appointed a committee headed by Robert B. Deloye to look into the possibility of drawing up a constitution and bylaws for the sports group.

Other members of the committee are Miss Dobson, Winthrop Gutmann Jr., Max Sauter and Mr. Hebert. The group will report its findings to the entire committee before any definite action is taken.

SHARING HONORS in the city ski meet Saturday at the Pittsfield State Forest were Jimmy Hollister, 10, and Walter Dickie, 13, who had perfect scores in their individual classes to tie for The Eagle skimeister trophy. This is the second time since the trophy was first awarded in 1950 that two boys have shared it. In 1958, James Gardner and Collin Garstang won. Left to right are Hollister, Dickie, Mrs. William Fosty, chairman of the event, and Patricia Norton, winter carnival queen, who made the presentations.

Marsten's Ski Devils Sweep City Meet; 44-Entry Field Rated 'Best in Years'

By LEE GOERLACH

Marsten's Ski Devils swept the city ski meet at the Pittsfield State Forest Saturday, taking seven first places, five seconds, two thirds, combined honors in all four junior classes and The Eagle skimeister trophy.

Despite weather that ranged from rain to fog, officials said it was the best meet they have seen in years.

Skimeister honors were divided between Jimmy Hollister, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Hollister, 164 Bartlett Ave., and Walter Dickie, 13, son of city Water Commissioner and Mrs. Canfield S. Dickie, 34 Eleanor Rd. They won the downhill and slalom events in their respective classes to take combined honors, each with perfect scores of 200 points. It is the first year of competition for both.

Dickie is an eighth grade honors course student at South Junior High, and Hollister a fifth grade student at Notre Dame. The boys will each keep the large trophy for six months. Miniatures of the big trophy will be given both winners. They flipped a coin to see who would take the trophy first, and Hollister won the toss.

Marstens Share Honors

Ski Devils who took combined honors were Marquita Marsten, first in downhill and second in slalom for 197.8 points, and her brother Eugene, second in downhill and first in slalom for 198.

Ski Devils Pamela Marsten and and Cathy Stevens, took first and second respectively, in the downhill in the under 11-year-old class. Pam Unwin was third. Ski Devils Debby Tracy, Marquita Marsten and Jackie Faustine took the top three positions in the slalom for girls 12 and 13.

Collin Garstang of the Mount Mount Greylock junior program, was a close second to Dickie in the Downhill. Dickie's time was 25.4 and Garstang's 25.6. Chris Bonnivier of the Mount Greylock Ski Club was third, and Jonathan Mahanna and John Lovejoy tied for fourth.

Peter Marchand was second in the high school downhill class. Oleg Babikow and Evan Hendricks tied for third.

Wright Takes Downhill

Larry Wright took the top spot in the downhill for boys 14-15 with Marsten two-tenths of a second behind him. Teddy Bonnivier of the Mount Greylock Ski Club was third.

Nanc Fitzpatrick, Debby Tracy and Jackie Faustine, all Ski Devils placed in that order behind Marquita in the downhill for girls 12-13.

Ski Devil Steve Tracy and Bill Tate tied for second in the boys' downhill 11 and under group.

Babikow won the high school slalom, with Alan Skogsberg and Evan Hendricks second and third, respectively.

Marsten, Bonnivier and Wright placed one, two and three in the slalom for boys in the 14-15 age group.

Lovejoy and Brian Hendricks placed second and third behind Dickie in the slalom for boys 12-13.

Entries Praised

Tracy and Tate placed second and third behind Hollister in the slalom for boys 11 and under.

The 44 entries displayed "better form and speed than has been seen at the city meet in several years," officials said. They were high in their praise of the work done by Mrs. Heather Nesbit Habbersett, who coaches the Ski Devils and the people who are taking the time and patience to work with the juniors of the Mt. Greylock Ski Club.

Several of the young competitors were disqualified for missing gates in the slalom course, but received a big hand from the spectators for the skill with which they ran the course and the good sportsmanship displayed when disqualified. Their training has been such that they realized immediately why they had been disqualified.

There were no injuries. The only thing to mar an otherwise perfect meet was the loss of two pair of ski polies. When Evan Hendricks and Alan Skogsberg went to get their poles to go home they were gone. It is hoped the poles were picked up by mistake, and will be returned to the boys or the Parks and Recreation Department. The winter sports committee of the park department sponsored the meet.

The complete results and times: (The downhill was on the Ghost Trail and the course was shortened for the junior skiers.)

Skiing Story

Trail Sweep

2/16/60

By Lee Goerlach

THE OFFICIALS of the Berkshire interscholastic ski meet last week were not only impressed by the skiing ability of the winning Saranac Lake (N.Y.) team, but by their good sportsmanship and manners.

I was impressed with the officials. It was one of the best run affairs I have ever attended. Events went off like clockwork. There were no unexplained delays, no bickering over decisions and mimeographed sheets of results were passed out to contestants and the press following the events.

The answer lies in a group of hard-working volunteers, most of them members of the Mt. Greylock Ski Club, who have been running the meets for years.

Chairman Willard Bridgham said everything possible is done in advance, including drawing numbers from a hat to determine the starting order.

Among the workers were Blanche and Win Gutmann, young Win, Doc and Dot Maynard, Jim Garstang, Bill and Nippy Nesbit, Max Sauter, Ida Fosty, Eleanor Wilde, Betty Howe, Bill and Betty Conover, Vernon and Gladys Goodwin, Rheta Bonnivier, Bob Deloye and Bill Liddy.

Members of the Pittsfield Radio Club, including Art Needham, Al Goodwin, John Valiasek and Milt George, with civil defense equipment, took care of communications.

The women made and served sandwiches and soup to the contestants, cut stencils for the result sheets and anything else that needed doing. Blanche Gutmann tended gates, passed out and collected numbers and comforted those who didn't do too well.

The men set up the slalom course, shoveled snow onto the course as the skiers wore it down and kept score. Come to think of it, one of the women was in on this. I saw Ida Fosty busy with a clip board. Besides shoveling snow for Friday's slalom, Bill Nesbit was announcer for Saturday's jumping. He gets this job every year, and I could see why. His humorous side remarks are appreciated by both contestants and spectators.

ROLAND PALMEDO, owner of Mad River Glen ski area in Vermont, who is either writing for, or being written about in almost every issue of Ski Magazine, is a 1917 graduate of Williams College.

Palmedo organized the Williams Outing Club in 1915 and was its first president. He also was actively involved in organizing the Eastern Ski Assn.

Palmedo has many Berkshire connections. His family had a summer home next to the Wyantenuck Country Club in Great Barrington and he has a sister, Mrs. Lawrence Bloedell, living in Williamstown.

Doc and Dot Maynard have known Palmedo for years. "I'd say he is Mr. Ski himself," Dot said when I asked her about him. They have visited Palmedo at his home in New York and have stayed in his cabin at Mad River Glen.

Mad River was exclusively an area for good skiers until this year when Palmedo added a beginners' area for the convenience of wives and friends of the people who ski there, Dot said.

Palmedo is described in Ski Magazine as "a lean and successful Wall-Streeter who has managed to merge skiing and the art of merchandising securities so well that one cuts no swath through the other." He has visited almost every ski area in the world.

There is so much to say about "The Remarkable Mr. Palmedo," that Martin Luray of Ski Magazine had to write a "continued in the next issue" profile of the man that ran in the December and January copies of the magazine.

Palmedo is married and has two sons and a daughter. The youngest son, Philip, is a former Williams ski team champion.

Palmedo was a personal friend of Franklyn Edson, who was killed during the 1935 ski meet at the Pittsfield State Forest, when he lost control and ran into a tree.

AFTER SKI TALK — Walter Howard of The Eagle staff skied at Stowe over the weekend. He said the new all-day ticket speeds up the lift line considerably. Up until this year, books of tickets for single rides were sold. When every person in the line had to unzip a pocket, tear off a ticket, hand it to the attendant, put the book back in their pocket and zip pocket again, it slowed things up a little . . . You meet such interesting people riding on a T-bar. Sunday at Jiminy Peak I rode with Anne Benson of Liverpool, England. She has been in this country a year, works as a physiotherapist at the Hartford (Conn.) Hospital. She had skied at Burrington Hill on Saturday and at Mt. Snow the previous week. You can see by the amount of information I gathered that she was not the reserved, distant type, usually attributed to English people . . . I also talked to a girl from Germany. She said everyone is surprised that she never skied until she came to the United States. She lived in the wrong area for it . . . Incidentally, Walter Howard said they wire the day tickets to your parka at Stowe. The only way to remove them is with a wire cutter. If you want to let someone else use your ticket you have to swap jackets. There is a way around most anything ski operators do to prevent tickets being used by anyone but the purchaser.

IN THE LIFT LINE your skies are apt to receive more abuse from other people walking on them and jabbing them with their poles, than you could give them in years of use. This is true at practically every area except Pico Peak. My sister Sally spent last weekend at Rutland, Vt., with the Mountain Laurels of Hartford. They skied Pico, and she said it was "fabulous." Outside of the excellent skiing, Sally said they have the most orderly lift lines of any place she has skied and that is almost every area from Connecticut to Mt. Tremblant in Canada. We are dropping Don Rosenburg, manager of Pico, a line and asking him how he manages this.

KEN CUDDEBACK, former Pittsfield man who was instrumental in initiating the movement to build the Thunderbolt Trail on Mt. Greylock, was skiing at Big Bromley recently. Bart Hendricks and Jim Stack also were there.

Cuddeback wanted to be remembered to Doc Maynard and his other ski friends in Pittsfield.

Cuddeback is with Western Massachusetts Electric Co. in Amherst. A Dartmouth man, he helped organize the first races on Thunderbolt with Dartmouth skiers paticipating. He was president of the Western Massachusetts Sports Committee several times.

KNEE DAMAGE indicates a novice; a broken or sprained ankle an average skier and a really complicated fracture of the tibia is the mark of an expert's fall, Dr. David Bryan of Stowe, Vt., says.

Another Big Winner 2/16/60

Robert J. Grandbois writes:

Dear Mr. Flynn:—

After reading your article in Saturday's Eagle about speed skating champions, I recall a more recent skater, who has brought more credit to Pittsfield than is known. In 1955, Mary Lou Bromback broke three records at the national indoor meet at Lake Placid, N.Y., and then proceeded to Milwaukee for the North American indoor championships, where she broke her own records, establishing new times in the junior girls' division. In 1957 as an intermediate she also won the North American title at Champagne, Ill., and again at Lake Placid, N.Y., to retain the national title. I have seen certificates to prove these accomplishments.

With the new indoor rink, that is to be built in the near future, Pittsfield is likely to have more indoor champions since there is no artificial ice here on which to practice.

Twenty-two Pittsfield Parks speed skaters, accompanied by 10 adults, left at 7 this morning from Springside House for the New York State Outdoor Championships at Westport, N.Y. The meet is sponsored by the Westport Chamber of Commerce, and will be run today and tomorrow.

Because of poor ice conditions it was decided to move the speed skating races from Westport Bay to the public beach at Port Henry, N.Y., located 10 miles south of Westport on Lake Champlain.

Also juvenile girls, Linda Morrison and Marilyn Gaviorno; junior girls, Glennie Zofrea, Pat Madden, Mary Placido, Joan Thibodeau and Patti Smith; and intermediate girl, Jo Ann Hollister.

Although the Westport event is the last outdoor meet of the season, there are eight indoor meets scheduled in the next six weeks, four of them one-day affairs.

Thirty members of the club were present in uniform at the regular weekly meeting at Springside House Thursday night at which time pictures were taken. The pictures will be available to the members in the near future.

Jeanne Ashworth, the Olympic skater from Wilmington in Eastern Massachusetts, is well-known in Pittsfield. She competed in the Berkshire Hills speed skating championships several years.

Pittsfield's Mary Lou Brombach, now Mrs. Richard DiNicola, gave Jeanne stiff competition. Jeanne lost the intermediate title to Mary Lou in Pittsfield in 1956 by 20 points.

Jeanne, a year older than Mary Lou, skated as a senior the following year. The girls swept to victory in their respective divisions in performances "which held the large gallery surrounding the Thomas Island rink in awe," according to The Eagle account of the event written by John Vander Voort.

Jeanne's showing in 1957 was considered outstanding because it was her first year as a senior.

Jeanne placed eighth in the 1,000 meter, third in the 500 meter and 11th in the 1,500 meter races at Squaw Valley.

Local Club Enters Thirteen Members In Weymouth Event

The Pittsfield Parks speed skaters will compete in their first indoor meet of the season today and tomorrow at Weymouth. It will be a new experience for the club's freshmen members as the lack of an indoor facility in this area has limited their competition and practice to the outdoors.

The Weymouth event is the first annual Eastern Seaboard indoor championship, and is sponsored by the Bay State Skating Club. Thirteen members of the local club, accompanied by 12 adults, are making the trip.

Susan Bienick, 11, of 9 Edward Ave., and Joseph Kamienski, 10, of 1747 East St., the outstanding girl and boy of the City Skating Meet, won the free trip to the Weymouth competition as the prize. Susan will be a spectator but young Kamienski has joined the club and will compete in the midget division.

Ski Lessons Begin Tomorrow

2/25/60

A special series of three additional lessons is being offered by Court McDermott, head of Bousquet's ski school to members of the Friday night adult ski classes, which ended last week. The classes were sponsored by the Pittsfield Department of Parks and Recreation.

The new series will start tomorrow night. Those who are interested may call Court's home in Lenox.

Local Skaters Set Club Meet Today at Cove

The Pittsfield Parks speed skaters will hold an interclub meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the Cove at Onota Lake.

The local group was scheduled to compete in the second annual Cape Cod speed skating championships (open-indoor rink) today at the Kennedy Memorial Skating Center, Hyannis, but the event was cancelled because of a recent 27-inch snow fall there.

Eighteen club members and 12 adults had signed for the meet.

Outstanding boys in last week's inter-club meet at the Cove were Fred Merrill, midget; Gary Fillio and Paul Canterella, juvenile. Top-rated girls were Sally Farry, special midget; Nancigene Gillette, midget; and Joan Thibodeau and Glennie Zofrea, junior.

Merrill led the boys with 21 points, and Miss Farry was high for the girls with 30.

Patti Smith In NA Meet This Weekend

Local Girl, 16, Today Must Move Up Class For Lake Placid Event

Patti Smith, outstanding junior girl skater of the Pittsfield Parks speed skating club, will celebrate her 16th birthday today by stepping up a class into the intermediate group in the North American indoor speed skating championships at Olympic Arena, Lake Placid, N.Y. Patti will be the only entry from the local club in the highly regarded field, and will have the additional pressure of having to compete in a higher classification.

The event, which is sanctioned by the U.S. Amateur Skating Union, the Canadian Amateur Skating Association and the Northern New York Skating Association, will run today and tomorrow under the auspices of the Lake Placid speed skating club and the North Elba Park district.

Jimmy (Mouse) Brown, unattached local skater, will be competing in the senior men's events. Brown, 19, has shown considerable improvement in recent meets, and should be a serious contender in his class.

Other members of the local club will compete in an intra-club meet at the cove on Onota Lake at 2 this afternoon. Some of the skaters will be entered in two or even three classes. The purpose is to allow members, who have just just moved up a classification, to skate in their former class, and also gain experience with the older group.

Races Slated At Bousquet's

Cup Competition Is Planned For March 20

The first annual Bousquet's cup races will be held at Bousquet's Ski Area Sunday, March 20, Donald L. Soviero, manager, announced today.

Presentation night will be the following Tuesday, when awards will be made with free skiing and refreshments an added attraction for all Berkshire County residents.

It will be a giant slalom on the Grand Slalom trail. Soviero said they decided on the controlled downhill slalom as being more suited to all skiers rather than a slalom with tight gates.

Class Trophies

Trophies will be awarded to the winner of each class, medals for second place and ribbons for third. Bousquet's cup will go to the person who makes the best time of the day. His or her name will be inscribed on a large trophy that will be kept in a display case in Bousquet's canteen, along with pictures of the winners. The person who wins the cup will receive a special trophy to keep.

Registration for the races may be made at Bousquet's or by calling HIllcrest 2-2436, the office number.

Soviero said the event is being promoted to encourage spectator participation. Paths will be provided for onlookers to reach the race area.

Court McDermott, director of Bousquet's ski school, suggests that anyone unable to do a christy in perfect control should not enter the race.

What a Career Will Mean to Me

By Maureen L. Connolly

(Maureen Connolly, a senior at Pittsfield High and a member of the Pittsfield Girls Club, won a $250 scholarship last month in the "Career Key" competition sponsored by the Girls Clubs of America and the Reader's Digest Foundation.)

When the word "career" is mentioned, most people immediately think of a means of earning a living. Nevertheless, to me it has a much more involved connotation. A career is my way of serving the people of my community. I have been presented the basic tools, my public education and training; now it's up to me to pay them back in worthwhile service.

My career, physical education, is one of the best ways I know of serving my community. There will soon be much leisure time in the working world due to automation. If I can prepare young people to derive pleasure and health from physical activity in this world of tomorrow, I will be helping, in my small way, to solve a problem of paramount importance. Therefore, at this time, it is necessary that I work as hard as I can at school, and take advantage of every available opportunity in school and in my community.

My Girls Club has offered me many of these opportunities. By working with the children, I was able to ascertain my aptitude in my chosen field of physical education. If these girls gain so many benefits and derive such enjoyment from their club activities, why shouldn't all girls do likewise? My ambition is to plant this desire in the younger generation, so that in following it through, they may become well-rounded, happy citizens, when they have to take on the responsibility of their adulthood. If, in any small way, I can feel that I'm helping someone reach this goal, I, in turn will have reached mine.

I have not decided yet exactly where I wish to teach upon completing my education, but if it is in a school, rather than a Girls Club, I would still be able to give volunteer service to such an organization. Not only would I be able, but it would be a privilege to repay the club for all it has done for me.

Darrel E. Badger

Darrel E. Badger was elected commodore of the Pittsfield Boating Club at its annual election meeting Tuesday night at Springside House.

Others chosen for a one-year term were: Vice commodore, George W. Wilson; purser, Alfred Boryta; and Mrs. Oscar Dubois. Sydney R. Kanter and Quentin N. Thompson were the two new directors elected, with Superintendent of Parks Vincent J. Hebert and outgoing Commodore Eugene F. Rauh remaining as standing directors. Chairman of the nominating committee was George W. Wilson.

The new slate of officers and directors will be installed at the annual banquet Saturday, Feb. 13, at 6:30 p.m. at Green Acres. Banquet chairman is John Giftos.

Mr. Badger, who has been active in the club since its formation, is the first commodore who has had many years' experience in boating, having had a boat since boyhood. In 1957, he built his own boat, an 18½-foot cabin cruiser. He has taken three courses in seamanship, given by the Mohawk-Hudson Power Squadron. In 1958 he took piloting and seamanship, and in April, 1959, received a diploma for advanced piloting.

Coast Guard Ready To Take On Boat Registration, Club Told

The Coast Guard is ready to take over the registration of boats of more than 10 horsepower on April 1 if the state doesn't assume that function by that date, Lt. George A. Lively of the Coast Guard Reserve told 45 members of the Pittsfield Boating Club and guests at the club's fifth annual banquet Saturday night at Green Acres, Cheshire.

"If the state doesn't act," Lt. Lively said, "I would like to see the Coast Guard take over because they have the know-how and the equipment."

Speaking on "The Coast Guard and Small Craft," Lt. Lively, who is with the GE ordnance department here, outlined some high lights of the Federal Boating Act of 1958 and answered questions after his talk. He explained that the Act of 1958 merely supplemented and "put teeth into" a previous act adopted in 1918.

Mobile Units To Be Used

Lt. Lively pointed out that if the Coast Guard takes over enforcement of the regulations it will be by mobile units — white craft manned by uniformed Coast Guard personnel. He also noted that even if the state fails to adopt boat registration by April 1 that it can do so at a later date.

The speaker also said that although registration by the Coast Guard would obviate registration by cities and towns that it would not prevent the cities and towns from enacting their own regulations for the operation of boats on waters within their own borders.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Parks and Recreation Department which sponsors the Pittsfield Boating Club, spoke briefly. He said he was continuing his efforts to get a city appropriation for a boating ramp at Pontoosuc Lake. "I just hope no one gets hurt before we get it," he added.

New Officers Inducted

Sydney R. Kanter, a past commodore, was toastmaster and paid tribute to the outgoing officers and inducted their successors: Darrel E. Badger, commodore; George W. Wilson, vice commodore; Alfred Boryta, purser; Mrs. Oscar F. DuBois, yeoman; and Quentin N. Thompson, director. Mr. Kanter also is a director.

A commodore's flag was presented to Mr. Badger by Mr. Kanter, and past commodore's flags were given to William F. Plouffe, Eugene F. Rauh and Mr. Kanter. Outgoing commodore Rauh was presented a gift by John C. Giftos, chairman of the banquet committee.

A plaque made by George W. Wilson was given by him and Mrs. Wilson to the club. On it will be inscribed the names of past commodores. It will be hung in Springside House, the club's meeting place.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mr. and Mrs. Giftos for their work on the banquet committee. Dancing followed the after-dinner program.

Registry Will Have Boat Owners' Forms in May

All owners of boats powered by motors of 10 horsepower or better must register their craft with the state by July 1.

So says Wilton Vaugh, Gov. Furcolo's press secretary who has been appointed to head the new Division of Motorboats. Registration forms, scheduled to be mailed out May 6, will be available at all local branches of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Boat owners are expected to fill out the post card size forms and mail them with a fee of $5 to the registry, Vaugh said. They then will receive their registration by return mail.

With an estimated 200,000 boats to be registered, the state expects to realize $1 million the first year. Renewal fees will be $3.

Revenue from fees will go into a special boating fund from which the state Legislature will make appropriations for administration, boat safety programs and applicable construction projects.

Applications Available May 6 For Motorboat Registration

4/19/60

Wilton Vaugh, director of the newly created state Division of Motorboats, advised yesterday that registration forms will be available in all local branches of the Registry of Motor Vehicles May 6. He also added that all boats propelled by motors of 10 or more horsepower must be registered by July 1.

The initial registration will cost $5, but the annual renewal fee will be $3.

Director Vaugh said that distribution of application forms will be as wide as possible—boating clubs, boat showrooms, marinas, state office buildings, etc., but they will be processed in branch offices of the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The new motorboat agency is a part of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

The certificate a boat owner will receive will not be unlike his auto driver's license—the stub of a business machine card. And like the auto license, it will expire on the registrant's birthday.

But unlike the auto registration procedure, a number plate will not be furnished. A number will be assigned, and the owner will have to provide two number plates of a prescribed material—wood, metal or plastic—one for each side of the bow. The numbers must be three inches high and of a color which contrasts with the color of the boat.

Boating Club Launches Another Season

The Pittsfield Boating Club held its first meeting of the season last night at Springside House, with 20 members attending.

The club, entering its sixth season, voted to cut down on the number of official club-sanctioned boat trips to one or two a month. It was decided to hold a covered-dish supper, to which friends could be invited, in early May, and Alfred Boryta was appointed chairman.

Commodore Darrell E. Badger presided and appointed the following as chairmen of the year's standing committees: membership, Sydney R. Kanter; work projects, George W. Wilson; programs and safety, Quentin N. Thompson; and publicity, William F. Plouffe.

Officers serving the club this year, in addition to Commodore Badger are George W. Wilson, vice commodore; Mrs. Oscar F. Dubois, yeoman; and Alfred Boryta, purser.

The group will vote on an amendment to the constitution at the next meeting April 19.

Boating Club Will Cruise Connecticut

4/16/60

The Pittsfield Boating Club made plans at its monthly meeting last night to cruise the Connecticut River this weekend.

Members will meet Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Howard Johnson restaurant on Lenox Road. They will go to Wethersfield, Conn., where they will launch at Wethersfield Cove and cruise down river to Saybrook, putting up overnight at Hamburg Cove. All members planning to go are asked to get in touch with Commodore Darrel E. Badger.

A previously planned trip to Candlewood Lake has been postponed until fall foliage time.

Another weekend trip is planned to Lake George on Sept.10-11. The next regular meeting will be held at Springside House Sept. 20.

Commodore Badger last night thanked Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Dubois for the help they have given the club. They are leaving to make their home in Florida. Mrs. Dubois was secretary of the club. Commodore Badger appointed Past Commodore William F. Plouffe to be acting secretary for the rest of the year.

Simonetta stocked Onota Lake this week with 1,000 rainbow trout, mostly 10 to 11 inches. Simonetta, right, bending over 20-inch hole he cut through ice, and club members with help from the city administration and others installed a fish screen in the lake last summer to prevent rainbows from going down the outlet. Trout season opens Saturday, April 16.

FAIR OR FOUL

2/17/60

By Roger O'Gara

BULL SESSIONS in bars and barber shops often bring forth picturesque language and inaccurate conclusions. It was that way the other day in Mancy's tonsorial establishment on Fenn Street, where the problems of the sports world receive the same keen attention as hair cuts and shaves.

The topic under discussion was the Boys' Club building fund drive and its relationship to the future of interscholastic basketball in Pittsfield.

Said one respected senior citizen, "A lot of guys would give a lot more if they were sure that the high schools would be able to use the big court for their games."

"Of course Pittsfield and St. Joseph's will play all of their games there," said another man. "This is a community project, isn't it? Every time I read the paper, someone is mentioning that this is a community project."

o—o

"YES, BUT where have you read that the schools will be permitted to play their games at the club? That's what's bothering me and a lot of others," the first fellow said.

"Come to think of it," the other conversationalist said, "I haven't seen that in print. But I just naturally assumed that you'd take such an arrangement for granted. The schools would ask, and the club would say yes."

"That's a pretty big thing to take for granted," the first guy said. "But I should think the people running the drive would want to say something. An announcement that we wouldn't have to go to the old Armory any more after the club building is finished would pep up contributions, it seems to me."

o—o

THAT MAN had a point.

So we went to the people who know. They are W. Rankin Furey, president of the club, Bruce Crane, campaign chairman, and William G. O'Connell, building committee chairman.

They probably anticipated our request. For they were in the final stages of preparing a statement.

Here's what they said, and fortunately it's specific:

"The directors of the Boys' Club are in favor of scheduling high school basketball games in the new gymnasium, and would make available the new addition to the general public for outside activities when there was no conflict with the Boys' Club program.

"All activities of the regular Boys' Club program could be operated separately and would not interfere with such special events as high school basketball games. Entrance and exit of Boys' Club members would not interfere with the general public attending a major event, since the great majority of our boys leave the building now by 8 p.m., and all but seniors are out by 9 p.m."

There you have it.

o—o

ANOTHER MUCH-BRUITED point is what the capacity of the new gymnasium will be. Unofficial (which in this instance means uninformed) estimators have had it all the way from 2,000 to 4,000.

Checking the statement, we find this point also is covered.

It says, "We believe that if our goal of $1,100,000 is achieved, that we would be able to replace the present 50 by 83-foot gymnasium with a one and one-half story building containing a gym 105 by 140 feet. This gym would provide a championship basketball court and spectator capacity up to 2,500 with folding bleachers in use. With the folding bleachers retracted, there would be space for two basketball courts for use of the club's membership."

Skipping over the next several paragraphs of the statement, because they do not treat of sports subjects, we come to these words: "If our goal should be oversubscribed by $200,000 or more, we believe that a larger gym, 105 by 190 feet, could be provided. A gymnasium of this size would provide for a championship court with spectator capacity up to 3,500 with folding bleachers in use. With folding bleachers not in use, there would be space for three basketball courts for use of the club membership. It is also possible that an ice hockey and skating rink approximately the same size could be built either over or under the gymnasium."

Moving by a few more paragraphs, we read, "Since a skating rink could handle a large number of boys at one time, there would be many hours available each day for scheduling skating for the general public or private groups. This would be particularly true on Sundays when the club is normally closed."

o—o

HOW DOES the fund stand now? Approximately $600,000 has been pledged, according to a spokesman for the fund-raising company. That's just beyond the halfway point on the way to the $1,100,000 goal.

The big push must come between now and Tuesday, March 8. That's the date for the final reports.

The $600,000 figure doesn't include any money from the General Electric, company or employes. The GE board will meet in New York Saturday, Feb. 27 to determine what its corporate gift will be.

o—o

OKAY, SO WHEN will construction start?

Architect Prentice Bradley estimates that it will require approximately six months to complete drawings for the project. He explains that he and his associates will have many problems of tying a new structure into an old building.

That takes us up to next fall. Assuming that this time table will be met, what would be the target date for completion?

"The fall of 1961," Bradley says.

Isn't that something? Only one more season of interscholastic basketball in the Armory.

By March 8, everyone in a key position in this effort will know whether the architects will be drawing plans for a 2,500 or 3,500-seat gymnasium. Let's make it 3,500.

DALTON — At the quarterly meeting of the CRA board of governors Thursday in the Community House, Director William F. Feeney reported on the summer program.

With most of the major industries giving vacations at the same time, the playground program ran smoothly, Mr. Feeney said, as members of leagues were not absent due to varying vacation periods.

Babe Ruth Team

Babe Ruth baseball for boys age 13-15 is to be added to the program next summer it is thought.

The Duncan Brook swimming area was patronized satisfactorily, Mr. Feeney reported, even though there was no bus service to the area this year. The director expressed concern about the Greenridge playground where the expanding housing development threatens to eliminate the play area.

Mr. Feeney said that the Youth Center-YMCA locker room has been adapted for the storing and care of peewee football uniforms. The Community House is the head quarters for the junior group.

Successful Meet

It was reported that the recent AAU - sanctioned weight - lifting meet in the Youth Center attracted the largest field of competitors in the history of the New England events. Archie DeAngelus, Youth Center director, was in charge.

The meeting brought out some criticism of maintenance of town playgrounds this summer. The CRA officials said that with the permission of the Selectmen they would allocate more money next year for that operation. It was pointed out that this could be done without increasing the total expenditure by reducing recreational expenditures, at Duncan Brook probably.

A report was made on the Teen Canteen which continues to be popular in the Community House. The meeting voted to help the program with a $15 weekly payment to leaders of the program.

Park Projects Are Discussed

Springside Work Weighed for 1960 Capital Request

Some phase of the long-range development plans for Springside Park may be part of the Capital Outlay requests from the Park Commission again this year.

Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation reported this morning that capital outlay needs had been discussed at the commissioners' meeting last night at Springside House.

No definite requests were drawn up, but a decision may be made by Friday. The commission last year asked for and received funds for reconstruction of the entrance to Springside Park and remodeling of the Springside Park wading pool.

Waiting on Weather

Both projects were undertaken last year, with the pool used once before the end of the season and some work on the entrance remaining to be done when good weather returns. The two projects were part of the long-range plan for Springside Park.

The commissioners also discussed a possible rise in the rental rate for Wahconah Park, but no decision was made.

Francis G. Nichols, chairman of the commission, was appointed a representative to attend the annual meeting of United Community Services Monday.

And interview dates for summer jobs were set for April 11, 12, 13 and 16 at Springside House. Application blanks for the variety of jobs open in the playground and beach season are available at the Park Department or the office of Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services.

Capital Outlay Conferences To Start Soon

4/27/60

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey and the Capital Outlay Committee will begin work on the 1960 outlay program soon, probably Monday.

The mayor said that date had tentatively been set for the initial study meeting of the committee, which consists of the Planning Board, Council President Charles J. Kidney and City Auditor John J. Norton.

Scheduled to meet with the committee are Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels and Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert, head of the two departments which will receive capital outlay funds this year.

Mr. Daniels has submitted a list of projects costing a total of $1,954,985, while Mr. Hebert has entered $87,715 worth of projects in the annual derby. Mayor Haughey has not yet indicated how much he wants in this year's outlay program, though it is understood that the total expenditure probably will be somewhat lower than the $312,390 spent last year.

Money for capital outlay projects comes from the surplus account.

Burbank Park Land Addition Is Discussed

Further conferences will be needed to settle the matter of a proposed addition to Burbank Park on the shore of Onota Lake, Mayor Raymond L. Haughey indicated today.

Berkshire Woolen Co. has offered the city slightly more than eight acres of shore-front land north of the park, if the city will acquire an additional 2.3 acres lying between the textile firm's property and the present park boundary. Since the two owners of the smaller tract are not eager to sell, an eminent domain proceeding may be necessary.

The mayor called a special City Council meeting Saturday morning to hear an explanation of the proposal by Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert, but only four councilmen appeared.

The mayor said this morning that he would have to get in touch with the other councilmen before deciding whether to lay the matter before the Council formally. In general, he said, sentiment seems to be favorable. The four councilmen at the meeting Saturday expressed interest in the proposal, and one other councilman has informed the mayor that he favors it. A two-thirds vote in the Council—or eight votes—is needed to approve land-taking.

Attending Saturday's meeting were Councilmen Roy F. Brown, Joseph S. Scelsi, Donald G. Butler and Charles W. Wilson.

Capital Outlay Session Held

5/11/60

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey and the Capital Outlay Committee met again yesterday afternoon to continue their review of the 1960 requests for projects.

No decisions were made, the mayor said.

Burbank Park Parking Lot Bids Are Rejected

11/3/60

All five bids received for construction of a parking lot at Burbank Park have been rejected, it was disclosed this morning by Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Mr. Hebert said the bids, opened Monday afternoon, had been rejected "in the best interests of the city." He said all of them exceeded the $5,000 capital outlay appropriation for the job.

The lowest bidder was about $300 above the appropriation, Mr. Hebert said. New specifications are being drawn up by the Park Department, and new bids will be sought in advertisements today and Monday.

Deadline for the second round of bids is Nov. 15. The project involves a new parking lot to be constructed on a spur road that leads to the pumping station at Onota Lake.

City Council To Meet Sunday, View Onota Land

The City Council will hold a special meeting Sunday afternoon at 12:30 to view property on Onota Lake proposed for addition to Burbank Park.

Berkshire Woolen Co. has offered the city slightly more than eight acres of land it owns north of the park, if the city will acquire an additional 2½ acres intervening between the park and the Berkshire Woolen land. Since the owners of the smaller tract are not interested in selling, it is assumed that an eminent domain taking will be necessary.

The proposal would add about 1,800 feet to the city's Onota shore frontage.

Council president Charles J. Kidney, who called the meeting, said it is designed to familiarize the councilmen with the proposal.

Capital Outlay Projects Total Is $226,000

Mayor Indicates Approval of Entire Program

The Capital Outlay Committee yesterday presented the mayor with a $226,000 capital outlay program for 1960. Mayor Raymond L. Haughey indicated today that he probably would approve the entire recommendation and forward it to the City Council for action.

The outlay figure for 1959 was $312,390, and another $190,000 was spent in renovating Central Junior High School. The figure was held below that level this year in part because the surplus account, source of funds for capital outlay projects, was down about $210,000, to $732,667, at the beginning of 1960.

Included in the program submitted to the mayor were projects involving four city departments. Public Buildings was allocated $20,000 for enclosing a terrace to create another room at Williams School. The Signal Department received $6,000 for work on the alarm system. Parks and Recreation was allotted $17,000 for parking lots at Onota Lake and for creation of a woodland trail at Springside Park. And Public Works got all the rest, $183,000.

The Park Department submitted a list of projects costing $87,715 for consideration by the Capital Outlay Committee. The Public Works projects were selected from a list costing $1,954,985.

Public Works Projects

The detailed breakdown of the recommendation for Public Works included:

Equipment—Sanitation, $38,000; general, $12,000.

Water extensions—Old Partridge Road, $1,800; Plumb Street, $1,200; Barker Road, $8,000; and Cheshire Road, $9,480.

Sidewalks—North Street, $1,000; West Street, $2,900; Tyler Street, $3,000; Madison Avenue, $1,200; Francis Avenue, $800; Maplewood and North, $1,500; South Onota Street, $900; Allengate Avenue, $2,200; and North Street in the business district, $1,970.

Other Jobs

Other projects — Abby Lodge School yard drainage and paving, $4,600; fence at the incinerator yard, $900; stump removal, $5,000; rebuilding the Ashley dam chlorinator, $7,000.

Materials — stockpiles, $23,000; 24-inch valve and chamber for the Ashley system, $3,000.

General labor—$50,000.

Prices of the various projects are exclusive of labor, which is provided for in the general labor allocation.

Onota Lake Land Taking Favored 8-1

Councilman Crow Only Dissenter To Park Proposal

A proposed land acquisition at Onota Lake, adding 10 acres and 1,800 feet of shore frontage to Burbank Park, drew only one dissenting vote at an informal City Council discussion yesterday.

Eight members of the City Council attended the session, called by President Charles J. Kidney for a tour of the area in question. After visiting the area the Council adjourned to Springside House to discuss the proposal with Park Supt. Vincent J. Hebert, Park Commissioner Francis G. Nichols and Charles R. Ramsay, owner of about two of the 10 acres.

Crow Dissents

Seven councilmen favored taking the land, but Ward 2 Councilman Raymond E. Crow dissented. He said this morning that he is opposed to the move because it involves an eminent domain proceeding against valuable building lots in order to acquire a tract of swamp land.

Berkshire Woolen Co. has offered to give the city about 8.2 acres of land fronting on the lake, if the city will acquire an additional 2.3 acres of land lying between the city's park property and the textile company's land.

Both Mr. Ramsay and the other landowner involved, John M. Marshall, who owns 12,000 square feet, have indicated that they do not wish to sell. To acquire the smaller tracts by eminent domain takings would require the backing of two-thirds of the City Council, or eight votes.

Eventually the matter will come before a formal meeting of the City Council for final action, but Mayor Raymond L. Haughey said today he does not plan to submit the question to the Council tomorrow night.

Hutchinson Bid Lowest for Parking Lot Job

Hutchinson Sand & Gravel Co. submitted the lowest bid, $5,333, when proposals were opened by the Parks and Recreation Department yesterday for building a parking area at Burbank Park, Onota Lake. The two next lowest bids among six received were from Conway Construction Co., $5,528, and Del Virgillo, $6,027.

All bids were taken under advisement, and a contract will be awarded soon.

"INADEQUATE," says Councilman-at-Large Roy F. Brown of the $226,000 capital outlay budget for 1960. His reason: the program, voted by the Council last night, contains too little money for fixing such decaying streets as Onota Lake Boulevard, a chunk of which Councilman holds in his hand.

Capital Outlay Funds Voted Although Brown Dissents

The City Council last night adopted a $226,000 capital outlay program for 1960, but not without one unusual dissent.

Said Councilman-at-Large Roy F. Brown. "I'm in no way opposed to this $226,000. In fact, I think it's not enough."

Brown said after the meeting that he thought the capital outlay program—the year's list of more or less "permanent" projects—was deficient in the matter of funds for street rehabilitation and maintenance.

Cites Three Streets

Among other rugged roadways needing more than the usual patchwork repairs Brown cited Onota Street, Onota Lake Boulevard and Crane Avenue.

Of the boulevard he commented, "It's an outright shame that the Onota Lake Boulevard, which was put in in the depression when there wasn't any money, can't be maintained in a time of prosperity."

Both lanes need extensive repairs, Brown said, and their condition will be aggravated by the heavy lake traffic in the coming months. "If the boulevard were fixed it could be a beautiful road, and it could take a lot of the Onota traffic off Lakeway Drive."

He added the Naval Reserve Center now provides plenty of traffic to justify fixing the road, as does the plan for a new National Guard vehicle maintenance center, to be built there soon.

Why Pick on the Moon?

"I read in the paper that the scientists spend several million dollars a year photographing craters on the moon," Brown commented. "They could save that money by photographing our streets. We have craters enough to go around."

In the debate during the Council meeting Brown also objected to the fact that councilmen did not receive a copy of the list of projects approved by the Capital Outlay Committee, although a release was made to the press.

"The press," he added, "is not always reliable, at least if we judge by what is reported as being said at these meetings."

Mayor Assumes Blame

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, present at the meeting, apologized for the failure to provide a list, as has been done in the past. He said the lapse this year was "simply an oversight on my part."

After several questions about specific projects, the outlay program passed, 10-0. The $226,000 will be taken from surplus revenue, and will not affect either this year's or next year's tax rate.

The Hutchinson Sand & Gravel Co. has entered the low offer in the second round of bidding for a contract to construct a 60-car parking lot in Burbank Park at Onota Lake.

The Hutchinson bid $3,984; second-place Conway Construction Co. entered a $4,016 bid. The two firms were the only bidders.

Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation rejected the first round of bids for the construction job because all exceeded the $5,000 appropriation made by the Capital Outlay Committee.

Specifications were rewritten, and new advertisements were made for the parking lot. Among the items deleted from the original plans were installation of wooden concrete bumpers and the elimination of some trees. The new bids were opened yesterday.

Francis G. Nichols Elected Head of Park Commission

Francis G. Nichols

Francis G. Nichols is the new chairman of the Park Commission, succeeding Daniel R. Lee. Mr. Nichols was elected at Springside House last night.

The Park Commissioners received a petition signed by 39 persons living in the Allen Heights playground area, asking that a fence be erected around the playground.

The commissioners decided to hold the matter for consideration when the 1960 recommendations were made to the Capital Outlay Committee. In 1958, Capital Outlay turned down a Park Commission request for $6,875 to build a cyclone-type fence around the Allen Heights playground.

A petition from the Berkshire County Square Dance Assn. for use of Wahconah Park on June 18 was granted. The association, in conjunction with the Department of Parks and Recreation, will hold its annual summer square dance festival at the park.

The Commission decided to meet again this year on the first and third Mondays of the month, except during June, July and August.

Park Concessions Placed on 3-Year Basis

4/12/60

Three-year contracts are being offered for the first time this year for operation of the concession stands at Pontoosuc and Onota lakes and Wahconah Park.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said bids for the concessions would be accepted at Springside House until 3 p.m. Monday.

Contracts have formerly been renewed each year. Under the new plan, the concession operator may either pay the required fee in one sum or in three installments.

Capital Outlay requests for 1960 are still under consideration by the Park Commission, which met last night at Springside House. The commissioners are waiting for estimates on some potential jobs.

Pop Warner Games

The commission granted the Pop Warner Football League permission to use Wahconah Park for games between Sept. 18 and Nov. 24 and the Common for practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings during the same period.

Use of Wahconah was also granted to the Firemen's Muster committee for its 14th Fourth of July celebration, June 30 to July 4.

The commissioners interviewed about 15 applicants for summer jobs at the beaches and playgrounds. Applications will be accepted through Friday, and more job-seekers will be interviewed April 18.

JUL 21 1960

Harry F. Nichols, 74, retired merchant and affectionately known as "the mayor of the North End," died early this morning at his home.

Mr. Nichols opened Harry's Variety Store at 274 Wahconah St. in 1914. The family moved into the same building, but with its entrance at 131 Pontoosuc Ave., which is still the Nichols home.

Mr. Nichols' store was probably the first, or one of the first, variety stores in Pittsfield. His enterprises grew with the times and his family to include a package store at 268-270 Wahconah St.; a supermarket at 290 Wahconah; a pharmacy at 274 and Nichols Toyland at 276 Wahconah. The Dower Square area has become known as Harry's Shopping Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in December. Mrs. Nichols was the former Alice Marie Pharmer, whom he married in St. Alphonsus' Church, Glens Falls.

Mr. Nichols officially retired in 1948. The responsibility of running the shopping center has rested with his seven sons since then. However, Mr. Nichols continued to spend a great deal of time in the stores, greeting his many friends and waiting on customers during rush hours.

Over the years, Mr. Nichols greeted most of his many customers by name and lent a sympathetic ear to family problems, lending assistance when possible, a tradition that is being carried on by his family.

Born in 1885 in Moussir Eshouf, Republic of Lebanon, he came to America in 1897. He worked for a while in a store in Adams operated by his older brother, Lewis, and then went to Glens Falls, N.Y.

Mr. Nichols was on the road selling candy from 1904 to 1910. He came to Pittsfield to go with the former Interstate Grocery in 1911 and later was with Pittsfield Candy Co.

A communicant of St. Charles' Church, Mr. Nichols was a member of the Lady of Fatima Club, the Knights of Columbus, Eagles, Alford Brook Club, Syrian-Lebanese-American Club and St. Charles' Holy Name Society.

Survivors include his wife; seven sons, Francis G. and Charles L., who run the package store; Harry F. Jr., Robert J. and Raymond A., who run the market; and Registered Pharmacist Arthur J. and William J., who manage the pharmacy; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas J. Reed and Mrs. Dominic F. Demick, both of Pittsfield; 35 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Rasheda Mitchell of Lebanon; and two brothers, James of Springfield and George of San Diego, Calif.

The family will meet friends at the Dwyer Funeral Home tonight from 7 to 9 and tomorrow from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9. The funeral will be Saturday morning at 9:15 at the funeral home, followed at 10 with a Solemn High Mass of Requiem at St. Charles' Church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

All the stores at Harry's shopping center will be closed until after the funeral.

Community Chest campaigners set out today with renewed hopes of getting the $46,000 they need to bring their 1960 Pittsfield-Lanesboro fund drive to its record-high $443,000 goal. The campaign will continue for two weeks.

Solicitors and leaders were heartened by their progress to date and by expectations of a break in the General Electric Co. strike. The month-long annual campaign had been dampened first by talk of a strike and then by the actuality two weeks ago.

Surprised at Total

Apparently almost all the approximately 1,300 volunteer workers in the chest drive—from top to bottom—were surprised by the showing tallied last night at the "final" report meeting of the campaign. The official total, announced after an initial bobble in addition, was $396,932, or 90 per cent of the goal.

"This is wonderful, but it isn't good enough," Campaign Chairman Frank A. Strom told the report meeting. Announcing the two-week campaign extension, he went on to say: "The money's in town. All we have to do is get it."

The chairman's brief comments and their note of assurance brought applause — plus an observation from at least one solicitor that "Strom should know if there's money around; he's a banker."

About 225 campaigners attended the report meeting, a supper affair at the Pittsfield Girls Club.

Berkwool Employes

One of the surprises of the session was announcement of a gift to the chest of $3,021.39 from the Berkshire Woolen Employes Charity Fund. The presentation was made by William J. Carrigan, secretary of Local 301 of the Textile Workers Union, representing the fund and former Berkshire Woolen Co. workers.

Berkshire Woolen has shut down and is going out of business, but Mr. Carrigan noted that former employes through the final payment from their charity fund "can still share in our responsibility to the community."

Other contributions announced for the first time were $1,800 from the United Students Fund of the Pittsfield public schools, presented by the USF president, Miss Nancy Walker, and $2,000 from the students, faculty and trustees of Miss Hall's School, presented by Miss Lynde Deming, president of her school's community-service organization.

Women solicitors and clergymen were among those singled out for hard, successful work and notably high contributions.

Dr. Rubin Named To TB Clinic Advisory Group

The County Commissioners today announced the addition of Dr. Irving Rubin of Pittsfield to a recently established Berkshire County tuberculosis clinic advisory committee.

The committee will meet at the Courthouse Dec. 13 to advise the Commissioners on the selection of personnel for the clinic which will have a consulting physician, a field nurse who has specialized in tuberculosis treatment, a clerk-stenographer and a part-time janitor.

Dr. Rubin, who is considered an authority on chest diseases, joins two public health commissioners, Harold R. Stein of Pittsfield and Edmond Larkin of North Adams, and Dr. Herbert R. Glodt of Pittsfield on the advisory committee.

Connors Heads City Employes Club

The City Employes Social Club has elected John F. Connors president; Mrs. Doris Carmel, secretary; and Mrs. Florence Ryan, treasurer. William Flynn and Mrs. Marion Benoit were chosen for the board of directors.

Jaycees Seek Nominees For Civic Service Award

A committee headed by Kenneth N. Welch is accepting nominations for candidates for the Pittsfield Junior Chamber of Commerce 1960 Distingiushed Service Award.

This will be the eighth annual award presented by the local Jaycee organization "for outstanding community service through loyal, faithful and unselfish efforts resulting in lasting contributions to the community."

The award will be presented during the week of Jan. 15, which will be observed throughout the country as Jaycee Week.

Men 21-35 Eligible

Mr. Welch said that nominations for candidates for the 1960 award are being solicited from professional, business and civic leaders and from social organizations. Judges selected by Mr. Welch's committee and composed of local leaders who are more than 35 years old will pick the winner.

Men from 21 to 35 years old are eligible for the award, whether or not they are Jaycee members. If the nominee will reach his 36th birthday before Dec. 31, 1960, he is eligible, providing the activities for which he is nominated were performed when he was 35.

Laughran S. Vaber, a Pittsfield General Electric public affairs specialist, was 1959 winner.

The Pittsfield Jaycee award was first presented in 1953 and that year went to Robert T. Capeless, then mayor of Pittsifeld and now chairman of the Massachusetts Commission of Corporations and Taxation.

Assisting Mr. Welch on the committee are Cyrus A. Henry Jr., Richard D. Hines and Harold Aspinall Jr. Nomination blanks may be obtained from any of the members. Deadline is Dec. 23 for submitting nominations.

Police Patrolmen Stalled On Salary Raise Petition

A petition signed by 67 policemen asking a salary increase was not considered by the City Council at last night's meeting.

The council did not hear the $5,500 maximum salary request for patrolmen after five years service because a motion to suspend Council rules did not carry. The petition reached the Council clerk yesterday afternoon, too late to appear on the agenda. The only way a petition can be heard when not on the agenda, is if the Council passes a suspension-of-rules motion by a two-thirds vote. Such a motion was made by Councilman-at-Large Donald G. Butler but was denied by a 6 to 5 vote.

The petition, which automatically appears on the Dec. 13 Council agenda, stated three reasons for the pay-raise request.

3 Arguments for Raise

The first was that there is now a difference of $1,300 between a sergeant's and a patrolman's pay, where five years ago this figure was only $600.

The second was because of Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan's order of Nov. 3, that anyone violating the outside-work rule would be suspended, said the petition.

The third was that sergeants get adequate salaries so don't need outside work.

"Before someone is suspended for outside work, which none of us could stand," said the petition, "we appeal to the Council for an adequate raise."

Patrolmen after five years' service can now receive a maximum salary of a little less than $5,000 a year, said a police source.

After a meeting of the Pittsfield Police Association this morning Patrolmen Lawrence Healy and Gordon B. Wilson, two signers of the petition, planned to request that the third reason on the petition be deleted. The feeling was that it was not correct to say that sergeants were adequately paid, a police source said.

$55,000 Voted for Welfare

In other business, the Council approved three orders from Mayor Raymond L. Haughey appropriating a total of $55,000 from the city surplus fund to cover Public Welfare expenses for the remainder of the year.

In explaining why the money was needed, Commissioner Charles H. Hodecker said that $40,000 was cut from the budget last year.

"We were about $15,000 off in esti mating a $2 million budget last year," he said. "It's a good thing the strike didn't go on, for as it is we figure we spent in the neighborhood of $4,000."

Included in the order were provisions for inter-department money transfers — $13,000 was redesignated in the Public Works Department and $8,176 in the Public Welfare Department.

Appointments Approved

The appointments of Vincent E Walsh to the Zoning Board of Appeals, Louis N. Pannozzo as a permanent fireman and Peter A. Masoero to the Civil Defense Department were all approved.

Guests of the Council last night were 11 girls from the St. Mary Parochial School's eighth grade The girls were observing city gov ernment in action and heard short sketches from Commissioner of Public Works John F. Daniels Commissioner Hodecker, and Zoning Board of Appeals member Robert H. Burbank on the workings of their departments.

Just before adjournment, Council President Patrick E. Callaghan threw the meeting open for questions from the girls. Such questions as "What is a confirmation?" "What is a bacteriologist?" and "Will the council give autographs?" were all answered by the council members.

Planning Board Report

11/7/60

Conservation Commission For City Is Recommended

Warning that Pittsfield must act now to protect its beauty and natural resources, the Planning Board was on record today as urging immediate creation of a city conservation commission.

The proposed commission would buy up marsh and swamp land to protect the city's watershed. It would also acquire open land for the use of Pittsfield residents.

Much of the beauty around Pittsfield "is gradually vanishing" with growth, the board said. "Acres of marshand are being drained and filled."

Council Requested Study

The board's recommendation was voted at a special meeting Friday afternoon. The City Council, which next gets the report, voted last August to have the Planning Board make a study of the possible creation of such a commission. The report at the board's afternoon meeting was prepared by Planning Director Duncan M. Graham.

"With increasing urbanization," the report said, "it is quite obvious that at some time in the future Pittsfield will be a city of over 100,000 persons." With this in mind "it is time for the city to take the initiative and through the creation of a conservation commission develop a far-sighted program of expanding the city's holdings of open land (in their natural state). The commission's role will bring long-term benefits of inestimable proportions to the community."

"No one notices when the encroachment begins," the report said, referring to the draining and filling of wet land to provide building sites, "but there is wonder when the soil is too dry for gardening, when the wells go dry and the pond levels drop. Regret is expressed when a flash flood washes away a few homes downstream, but connection is made between misuse of wet lands (which provide natural flood controls) and the major catastrophes—the draining and filling goes on. In Pittsfield this has not happened to any dangerous degree—YET."

State May Match Funds

A city conservation commission is charged, by state legislation passed in 1957, with the protection of its watershed and the development of the natural resources. The law—An Act Authorizing Cities and Towns To Establish a Conservation Commission — says the state may match the funds spent by the city commission for the purchase of land.

A city can appropriate up to $15,000 a year to its conservation fund under the law. This money can accumulate year after year. So it is possible for Pittsfield to spend $30,000 a year for the purchase of both wet and open land —the state matching the city's $15,000-appropriation.

Anticipating the question: Isn't there any agency in our present city government that could take on the duties of a conservation commission?—the report says though there is the Water Commission, the Parks and Recreation Department, and the Planning Board, there is no one agency that has the capabilities, manpower, time, authority or money to set up a conservation program. All these departments would have some overlapping duties in this area. It would be the job of the commission to co-ordinate them.

Duties of Commission

A seven-member commission appointed by the mayor is recommended. The commission's duties would be as follows:

"Conduct research into local land areas; coordinate the activities of unofficial bodies organized for similar purposes; advertise, prepare, print and distribute books, maps, charts and pamphlets; keep an index of all open areas, including marshlands, swamps and all other wet lands; obtain information pertinent to the proper utilization of the open areas; recommend to the City Council, Department of Natural Resources and to the state Reclamation Board a program for the better promotion, development or utilization of these open lands; keep accurate records of its meetings; file an annual report; accept gifts of land, funds and buildings on behalf of the city and manage donated or purchased properties; and appoint clerks and other employes that it may require."

In other Planning Board business, it was decided to consider a report from Mr. Duncan on the creation of a new residential zone. The new zone would be between an R-1-A (restricted one family, acre lot) and a R-2 (one family, ¼ acre lot) by providing for ⅔ acre lot or 25,000 square feet with one family buildings.

Pittsfield Could Profit By a Conservation Commission

Three years ago the Massachusetts Legislature enacted a foresighted law authorizing cities and towns to establish conservation commissions for the purpose of acquiring and developing local park areas. This year, the law was supplemented to permit the state to give financial assistance to such commissions on a dollar-for-dollar matching basis for land purchases.

In a report to the City Council yesterday, the Planning Board strongly recommended that Pittsfield take advantage of this bargain by establishing a conservation commission of its own. It is an eminently sound recommendation, of potentially enormous significance for Pittsfield's future.

As the Planning Board report notes, Pittsfield is fortunate in having a park system better than many other cities of its size. This, however, has not been because of any systematic public policy, but rather because of the philanthropy and foresight of a few individuals who have given land to the city, often over considerable resistance. It is a park system that has been developed on a haphazard basis by good luck more than by good planning—and it is a system that in no sense meets the needs of the future. In the words of the Planning Board report: "It is now time for the city to take the initiative and, through a conservation commission, develop a far-sighted program of expanding the city holdings of open land—open land which will be essentially unchanged for the future enjoyment as well as safety of our citizens."

This is not an easy idea to put across in a community which, for the present, happens to be blessed with a good deal of privately-owned open land which has not yet been developed. To the average citizen, the need here seems nowhere near as great as in cities of smaller area or larger population.

But the very fact that there is desirable land still available for public acquisition makes the need to take advantage of the opportunity all the greater. "With increasing pressures of urbanization," says the Planning Board, "it is quite obvious that at some time in the future Pittsfield will be 100 per cent developed —a city of over 100,000 persons. This won't happen tomorrow, nor in the next decade—but it must be faced."

There is another important point to be considered here. In Pittsfield, as in countless other communities, there has been a constant encroachment on park land for seemingly laudable public purposes—a year-by-year nibbling away as park land is taken for schools, for other public building sites, and for highway purposes. Here, as elsewhere, there is a dangerous tendency to regard parks not as areas to be uncompromisingly preserved for the future but as cheap land banks to be drawn upon as needed. The result is that the proportion of total park land to population has actually been declining at a time when it should have been increasing.

The only sensible answer is to replace the hit-or-miss system of letting park acquisition depend upon private philanthropy—to replace it with a coordinated program of park planning and acquisition under established public auspices. The conservation commission approach makes it possible to do this, and to do it at bargain prices while there is still time. The mayor and City Council should move quickly to take full advantage of it.

Conservation Commission For City Backed by Council

A conservation commission came a step closer to reality last night when the City Council unanimously accepted a Planning Board recommendation for such a commission.

Council President Patrick E. Callaghan said before the vote, "The conservation commisison is a noteworthy proposition that towns and cities throughout the state are interested in."

Such a commission would be entrusted with the cataloguing and buying of open and wet land in the city to hold in a natural state for the enjoyment of present and future residents, the board reported.

The recommendation was referred to the Ordinance and Rules Committee for the writing of a proposed ordinance establishing a conservation commission.

tential home-buyers and builders . . . With only half of Pittsfield's proposed department budgets submitted so far, speculation on the grand total is out of order. But the increases asked for the Park Department, the Athenaeum and Board of Assessors scotch the hope that this year's leveling off of living costs will act as an automatic brake on city expenditures.

Dellert Slated To Head Local 861, City Employes

Next year's officers for the 75-member Municipal Employes Union Local 861 have been nominated, with election scheduled for Nov. 28.

Unopposed nominations include Fred P. Dellert, president; Harold C. Huddleston, vice president; Anthony M. Pastore, business agent; and Zenophil J. Bleau, recording secretary.

Other nominees are Raymond P. Cambell and Albert W. Hugabone Jr. for treasurer, with Tttore Paoli and Robert Staskin for sergeant at arms. Unopposed trustees are George Jenks, Hugh W. Quirk and Robert H. Higgins.

Competing for three seats on the executive board will be Jere Whitmire, Jeames Pearce, William P. Hinckley, Leo Blaine and retiring President Manuel Pravia Jr.

Chaet Buys Abandoned City Playground

The abandoned Pontoosuc playground was sold Tuesday afternoon at public auction to Milton Chaet for $7,400.

The auction of the 1¼-acre playground on upper North Street, was conducted by Supt. of Public Buildings Donald E. Farr. Bidding along with Mr. Chaet were Stanley J. Wilkes, owner of Pittsfield Roofing and an officer in Springside Nursing Homes, and James A. Penoyer, a General Electric laboratory technician.

Mr. Chaet is manager and treasurer of Pontoosuc Wayside Furniture Co., which is adjacent to the playground.

A minimum bid of $3,800, set by the City Council, started the bidding, which ended 24 bids later. The money will go into a city fund which can be used only for bond reduction.

Civil Service Discussed by LWV Panel

City Employes Unions' Spokesmen Plead for Changes

An explanation of the Civil Service system last night almost turned into a debate between two municipal-employe-union representatives and three heads of various city departments.

A panel of five men were invited by the League of Women Voters to discuss the Civil Service organization on the local and state level with emphasis on the former in the Pittsfield Girls Club auditorium. More than 60 heard the men each give a 10-minute explanatory talk, followed by a question and answer period.

Alfred A. Hebert, president of the Massachusetts Federation of State, City and Town Employes, Local 65, and Raymond F. Campbell, past president of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, Local 861, AFL-CIO, took thier time to explain changes the unions feel are necessary in the present Civil Service laws.

Among other things they felt that if a laborer is suspended, and has to go to Boston for hearings on his case, and then is exonerated, he should be reimbursed by the city for incurred lawyers' fees. They said a bill was going to be submitted to the legislature this session to that effect.

Seek Bargaining Rights

The union representatives also asked for bargaining rights. They said a petition was before the City Council and they were awaiting word.

Answering the union's position were the other three members of the panel, Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels, Director of Administrative Services Robert U. Johnson and Superintendent of the Parks and Recreation Department Vincent J. Hebert.

Mr. Johnson agreed that there should be reimbursement of fees to those suspended employes who were acquitted. He also explained the chain of command a man goes through when he has a grievance.

The majority of questions from the floor dealt with the one-out-of-three rule in selecting people for an opening from the Civil Service list which comes from Boston. Under the law the hiring authority may pick one of the first three names on the list; not necessarily the one with the highest examination mark or the one at the top of the list. This is because, it was explained, the Civil Service people in Boston do not personally know the individuals they place on the lists.

Mayor Attends

Those attending the informative meeting included Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, Fire Chief Ward G. Whalen, Rep. Thomas C. Wojtkowski, most of the City Council and a few municipal employes.

Mrs. Harry H. Ross, chairman of the league's Civil Service committee, presided.

Special Session Of Council Tuesday Night

A reminder of a special session Monday night for discussion of two items went out to City Council members today from President Patrick E. Callaghan.

Discussion of the controversial proposed ordinance regulating picketing is the main reason for the session, at Springside House. Hearing requests for "bargaining rights" from representatives of the Municipal Employes' Association will start the meeting at 7.

A move to hold an executive session was made at Tuesday's regular Council meeting. A motion, passed unanimously, set up Monday's meeting so the Council could discuss the proposed "picketing code" with two representatives from both sides of the question, the city solicitor and the chief of police.

Regular Meeting Tuesday

"We will go into executive session about 7:30," said Councilman Callaghan, "to hear pro and con points of view on the picketing question. Then the Council may hash it over by itself, possibly reaching some line of action for the regular Council meeting Tuesday night."

The meeting with the employes' association will be open, provided we have no disturbances from guests, said the Council president.

Alfred A. Hebert, president of Local 65 of the Municipal Federation of State, City and Town Employes had requested this meeting with the Council to discuss a petition asking for bargaining rights for city employes. This petition covers both the city employe unions and city employes except policemen and teachers.

Alfred Hebert Slated To Head Local 65 Again

11/24/60

Alfred A. Hebert was nominated unopposed for re-election as president of City Employes' Assn. Local 65 at a meeting last night in Polish Falcon Hall. The election will be Dec. 14.

Mr. Hebert, who is completing his first term as head of Local 65, was elected president of the Massachusetts Federation of State, City and Town Employes at its convention here in September. He is a truck driver for the Pittsfield Public Works Department.

Also nominated unopposed were Alfred C. Parker, recording secretary; Joseph Hodlin, financial secretary; and Robert Tucker, treasurer.

Four candidates were nominated for vice president as follows: Alfred Goerlach, Albert Thompson, William S. Fraser and George Gallagher.

Henry Cormier and William Pidgeon were nominated for sergeant at arms.

Six were nominated for the three trustee positions: John W. Groat, Albert E. Thompson, Louis Sweener, John Roberts, Andrew Nylick and Alfred Yovis.

Open Meeting On Bicentennial Moved to BCC

The planning meeting of the 1961 bicentennial celebration group, scheduled to be held in the Berkshire Museum, has been changed to the Berkshire Community College auditorium. The meeting is planned for Monday at 8 p.m.

Anyone wishing to attend is welcome, said Mayor Raymond L. Haughey. Invitations have been sent to various societies, groups and organizations in the city, and it is hoped that any of those possibly overlooked will also send representatives, said the mayor.

Mayor Urges Elderly Housing In Eastern Section of City

A suggestion that the Housing Authority consider the eastern section of Pittsfield for a new elderly housing project was received in letter form today by Ralph J. Froio, authority chairman, from Mayor Raymond L. Haughey.

"If the authority is thinking of a new project" said the mayor "Ward 3 Councilman Remo DelGallo and myself feel that the easterly part of town would be the best spot because there are many eligibles and interested people in the area."

Froio Has Questions

Mr. Froio said today that he likes the idea, but that there is a question of need. I have to have some evidence of need before I can go before the authority and ask for the new program," said the chairman. The only way to determine this is for people in the easterly section to file applications for such housing, he added.

"When the applications for the Wahconah project are all processed," said Mr. Froio, "we will have a better idea of how many persons who have applied still require housing."

"We try to build where the most people can be accommodated without moving them from the immediate area, he said. If there is a definite need in the easterly section of the city we would like to know about it. And the only way we can know is by the number of applications, commented Mr. Froio.

Applications may be obtained at the eVterans Service office, the IUA Local 255 office and the main office at the Wilson Park housing project.

Mayor Signs Bill For Conservation Commission

Mayor Haughey has signed a bill accepting the state act which provides for the creation of a conservation commission.

The state act permits cities and towns to establish such a commission and to provide funds for its operation.

The act also says the state can match the funds that the individual cities spend for land purchased (in its natural state) under the conservation program.

The purpose of the state law is to allow municipalities to set up an agency which would be responsible for obtaining wet and open land for the city. The land would be kept in a natural state for the enjoyment of city residents both now and in the future.

With the mayor's signature, the way is now open for Pittsfield to establish such a commission. Plans have already been laid for a conservation program. The City Council accepted a recommendation from the Planning Board on the matter and passed it along to the Ordinance and Rules Committee which will draw up the city ordinance.

Bicentennial Plans Advanced As Societies Promise Aid

Plans for the observance of Pittsfield's bicentennial were given support by more than 100 representatives of local organizations at a meeting last night in Berkshire Community College auditorium.

Although the observance is to be carried on with various events throughout the entire year the celebration will be concentrated on the weekend of Sept. 1-4.

Robert M. Boland, cochairman with Philip C. Ahern of the observance executive committee, presided at the meeting and introduced Mayor Haughey, honorary chairman, who promised that "the city will cooperate in any way it can."

Interests Recorded

Definite form was given to the celebration when Mr. Boland passed out slips and asked the representatives to fill in which one of some 20 committees their group might like to be on.

Some groups were recorded as being interested in preparing a float for the parade on Sept. 4 while others wanted to be on the bicentennial ball committee for Sept. 1 or plan the fireworks for the same evening.

"You name it, and we'll do our best to help in any way possible," said one slip. "We will be glad to assist on any committee at your discretion," said another.

Many individuals, representing themselves, filled out slips and offered their services. More than 55 organizations and many "interested people" filed their requests and suggestions.

Ideas from the floor were noted by the executive committee for consideration along with other suggestions at its meeting scheduled for Monday. At that time the committees will be selected.

Beard Contest On

"The beard contest is definitely on," said Chairman Boland. He also said the bicentennial celebration should be a year-long affair. In line with this thinking, he asked the organizations present to submit dates of their activities, that could be connected with the celebration, so a calendar could be printed. He also mentioned that the mayor and librarian, Robert G. Newman had arranged for a special postal cancellation stamp to be used by the post office for the year 1961.

Some groups have already offered their services, said Mr. Boland. "Thomas E. O'Connell, director of Berkshire Community College, has offered use of the college and is sure the students and staff are more than happy to participate in any way they can," said Mr. Boland.

It is also expected that the Council of Churches will take over the organization of the planned bicentennial Sunday services on Sept. 3, the committee chairman reported.

Police Ask $5,500 Minimum After 5 Years

12/9/60

A new petition asking for a salary increase for patrolmen on the Pittsfield Police Department was submitted to the city clerk's office this morning.

All patrolmen on the force signed the petition, which asks for a $5,500 minimum salary after five years' service.

A previous petition which had been signed by patrolmen and officers would have appeared on Tuesday night's Council agenda. The request, submitted two weeks ago, was too late for Council consideration. When the Council defeated a motion to admit it under suspension of rules, the petition was automatically deferred to the next session.

Today's request was a simplified version of the original petition in that it asked that "careful consideration be given to this petition viewing comparative pay scales and the inequitable position in which we find ourselves."

The patrolmen eliminated references to the pay scale differential between the sergeants' and patrolmen's pay, and the ban on outside work ordered by Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan.

Mayor Files Appropriation, Transfer Orders

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey submitted several orders calling for appropriations and transfers for consideration by the City Council Tuesday night.

He issued an order authorizing the city to take an easement on land owned by Dr. Eugene O. Brielman for installation and maintenance of water pipes.

He also issued an order appropriating $2,471.75 to be paid to Philomena and Francis J. Pianpiano of this city for settlement of a claim against the city. The money would be used to indemnify John F. Gilligan, a city employe who was involved in an accident with the Pianpianos.

Another order would authorize the City Council to pay $400 to Dorothy E. Steiner of this city as a result of a judgment obtained against the city.

Among the transfers was one for $91.40 for personnel service account in the administrative department; $467.80 to be transferred within the Department of Public Works account; $273 for another account in the same department and $350 for use by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The mayor also authorized the appropriation of $1,000 to Elise Carey of this city for payment of a judgment obtained against the city in a suit filed as a result of a fall on an allegedly defective sidewalk.

City Employes Local 65 Head Is Re-elected

Alfred A. Hebert was re-elected president of City Employes Local 65 at a meeting last night in the Polish Falcon Hall.

William S. Fraser was named vice president, and Henry Cormier, sergeant at arms.

Other officers named were Joseph Hodlin, financial secretary; Alfred C. Parker, recording secretary; and Robert Tucker, treasurer.

Elected trustees were Albert E. Thompson, Louis Sweener and John W. Groat.

Officials of the local will meet today with city officials to clarify the setup for Class 2 motor equipment operators. An opening in this classification is pending and the local wants to know what the job entails.

Downing Fires Back at Hart On Parking Lot Criticism

School Committeeman Robert N. Hart's criticism Thursday of the proposed new city parking lot on Depot Street was attacked today by John F. Downing, executive director of the Association of Business and Commerce of Central Berkshire County, and Ward 2 City Councilman Raymond E. Crow, the Council's representative on the Traffic Commission.

Mr. Downing pointed out that Mr. Hart was a member of the City Council in 1953 when that body approved a $15,000 appropriation for a survey by Ramp Buildings Corp. to develop a program for parking and traffic improvements in Pittsfield.

"Mr. Hart's only inconsistency in the field of the city's parking needs," said Mr. Downing, "has been this vote in 1953 for the funds to study the problem. Since then he has been consistent in that he has opposed following the recommendations of that study to correct the parking situation."

Downing Cites Survey

Mr. Downing said the Ramp survey showed that the city in 1954 needed 576 additional parking spaces. He said that since then approximately 300 new spaces have been provided through new city lots and some private construction, but he maintained that increased traffic has boosted the need by about 128 more spaces. The ABC official said the city has a "current urgent need for more than 300 new spaces."

"Mr. Hart appears to believe," said Mr. Downing, "that the construction of city parking lots is aimed solely at improving the income of merchants in a particular area. This we have never stated and this is not so. New parking facilities have been built to meet a public need, a need evidenced by such studies as the Ramp survey. That this need still exists is, we believe, an undisputable fact."

Mr. Downing interpreted Mr. Hart's criticism of the project as indicative of a belief that city parking lots are financed by tax revenue and that the cost of the projects is reflected in the annual tax rate.

$60,000 Pledged

"The facts are," continued Mr. Downing, "that metered parking in Pittsfield is a financially self-sufficient operation. It is true that the law provides that any deficit in the operation of parking facilities must be made up by all taxpayers. But, as a matter of fact, there never has been such a deficit. The parking program has been financed quite simply and fairly by receipts from the people who use the parking facilities. We are certain this would be the case with the proposed new lot."

Mr. Downing also pointed out that property owners and businessmen have pledged $60,000 toward the cost of the Depot Street project. He said this donation will make it possible to undertake the project without using any appreciable amount of the city's parking meter receipt funds.

Mr. Hart Thursday termed "specious" the arguments advanced by proponents of the proposed new lot. He was especially critical of the theory that North Street property values would dip markedly if additional parking were not provided.

"It should have been evident from the tax abatement granted a downtown Pittsfield property owner this week," said Mr. Downing, "that the lack of parking already has reduced property values in that area. It certainly can be anticipated that other property owners will seek similar relief unless something is done to bolster the value of downtown property.

"Mr. Hart certainly must be aware," Mr. Downing continued, "that in communities throughout the nation municipal off-street parking facilities are accepted as one method of preserving a major source of tax revenue. We need go no further than the Massachusetts community of Quincy to show how real estate valuations have increased with the advent of adequate municipal parking lots in the downtown area."

Councilman Crow

Councilman Crow said that the most recent report on parking meter receipts indicates that the greatest demand for parking is still in the North Street section near the proposed new lot.

"There is no doubt," said Councilman Crow, "that the proposed lot would benefit some more than others. But isn't this true of almost every public improvement?

"However," the Ward 2 councilman continued, "the benefit of being able to park would accrue to the auto owner who puts his nickel in the meter. And this, remember, is voluntary.

"The intense use of the First Street lot proves that people want to park and are willing and able to pay the nickel," said Mr. Crow.

Park Board Holds Meeting

A special meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners was held last night at Springside House, it was reported by Vincent J. Hebert, park superintendent.

A request from Thomas E. O'Connell, director of Berkshire Community College, for removal of a portion of the fence that separates the college building from the Common was reviewed. After discussion, the commissioners agreed to do so.

A request from Gerald C. Randall, supervisory cartographer for the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, concerning a 100-foot temporary steel observation tower over a triangulation station in Park Square was granted.

The Pontoosuc Lake parking policy was reviewed, and it was generally agreed, Mr. Hebert said, that no changes would be made until complete returns were in at the close of the season.

Mr. Hebert reported on the summer program to date and presented information on coming events for the rest of the season.

Mr. Hebert said that the Park Commissioners also voted to undertake a study of the existing salary and wage structure within the department. He said: "This action was taken to ensure proper compensation for Park and Recreation Department personnel, and it appears appropriate in light of other city departments' recent requests and grants.

Butler Urges City To Acquire Woolen Mill Water Rights 9/1/60

Councilman at Large Donald G. Butler proposed today that the city move immediately to acquire Berkshire Woolen Co.'s water rights at Onota Lake.

Butler pointed out that a major portion of the lake is man-made, the level having been raised by an outlet dam owned by Berkshire Woolen. The lake serves the city as a standby water supply, in addition to its recreational uses.

In announcing his intention, Butler noted that the city of North Adams had experienced some difficulties with the water levels at its principal swimming area, Windsor Lake, after the Windsor Print Work closed. The lake belonged to the print works.

Butler said he hoped to avoid similar problems here, now that Berkshire Woolen has announced its intention of closing.

"If that mill were bought by an outfit that didn't care about the lake or the water rights, we could have real trouble," Butler said. "All the area around the causeway, for example, would be dry land if the level were not properly maintained."

Butler said he would enter a communication on the matter for the attention of the City Council at its next meeting Tuesday night.

Job Titles, Salary Changes Given City Council Approval

The City Council last night passed for a first reading an ordinance changing several job titles and salary classifications in the Welfare and Veterans Services Departments, without debate.

The changes had been the subject of considerable discussion at a series of sessions last month. The changes voted last night were the result of those discussions.

Scelsi Dissents

Created in the Welfare Department was a new post of deputy commissioner and a new post of senior accountant, placed in Grades 23 and 16, respectively.

Lifted to higher classifications were senior clerk-typists, the veterans' services director, the veterans' services investigator, and welfare social workers. The ordinance passed 10-1, Ward 6 Councilman Joseph S. Scelsi dissenting. Scelsi offered no explanation of his vote last night.

In other action the Council:

Confirmed Robert P. Villanova as a new fire lieutenant and Richard E. Plankey as a new fireman, replacing Villanova.

Passed for a first reading an ordinance shifting working foremen from salaried ranks to the 40-hour work week category, so they can collect overtime pay.

Passed for a first reading an ordinance adding banks to the list of buildings allowed to have marquees and raising the maximum height of marquee signs to 15 feet above the sidewalk, both at the request of Union Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Granted Union Federal permission to install a marquee projecting four feet over the North Street sidewalk.

Sent to the Traffic Commission two requests for new traffic control measures at Elm and Newell streets, scene of a recent fatal accident.

Other Actions

Sent to the Finance Committee a group of five petitions on salary matters from the Pittsfield Permanent Firemen's Association and the Pittsfield City Employes' Association.

Granted Western Massachusetts Electric Co. and New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. permission to put wires underground on McKinley Terrace, thus writing finis to a lengthy controversy.

Asked the city solicitor for advice on the legality of a proposal that the city acquire water rights at Onota Lake from Berkshire Woolen Co.

Confirmed John J. Fiorini as a new police patrolman, replacing William J. Paris, resigned.

Mayor Studies Proposal on Equipment Use

Butler Proposes Idle Machinery Be Put To Work or Sold

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey said today that he is studying "many, many factors involved" in a petition seeking authorization for city employes to use city equipment during off-hours to work on unaccepted streets.

The proposal, originally made to the mayor by the Pittsfield City Employes Association, was espoused by Councilman-at-Large Donald G. Butler in a petition at Tuesday night's City Council meeting.

Butler claimed that the city has "upwards of 100 pieces of heavy equipment" sitting idle much of the time. "The only time they actually earn their keep," he said in his petition, "is during a heavy snow storm."

Butler's Argument

Noting that many city jobs are now put out to bid, and that idle equipment costs more for depreciation than equipment in use, Butler argued that the city should either sell the machinery or put it to work.

He pointed out that the city makes little progress in diminishing the number of unaccepted streets, and suggested that city workers be allowed to use the equipment during off hours and on Saturdays to improve those streets. "The streets could be reconstructed for a fraction of what it would cost if they were to go through the Betterments Program," Butler said, and the employes would "benefit both themselves and the city.

The mayor, commenting on the proposal today, said he had not refused to entertain the idea.

But he noted the plan is fraught with "unwieldy" questions—such things as maintenance costs, repair costs for equipment damage, workmen's compensation, insurance, liability for damage, responsibility for engineering work, and similar problems. All these things must be considered before any decision can be made, he said.

The Council last night forwarded Butler's petition to Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels with a request that he reply promptly to the proposal.

Mayor Approves Park Items Except Out-of-State Travel

AUG 9 1960

Mayor Haughey said today that he will approve a request from Park Department Supt. Vincent J. Hebert for the appropriation of $1,395 but will deny a request for permission to use $100 for out-of-state travel by department personnel.

Supt. Hebert asked for $595 to replace the telescope stolen from Springside Park Observatory June 18 and $800 to pay park police for the rest of the season.

The mayor said the city will receive an insurance payment of $595 to cover the cost of replacing the telescope.

The $800 additional sum for park police will bring the total expense for that service up to $8,800 this year. Last year park police cost the department $8,849.

The mayor said he would approve a request for the transfer by the Park Department of $200 from the rent account to in-state travel but would deny a request to transfer $100 from the same account for out-of-state travel.

Police Ask Three-Step Wage Raise

The Pittsfield Police Assn. has petitioned the City Council for a three-step wage increase. The petition was filed at the city clerk's office late Friday by Lawrence J. Healy, president of the association.

If granted, the raise would increase the maximum pay for Police Department privates from $4,888 to $5,512.

City Employes Vacation Ruling Is Reversed

Alfred A. Hebert, president of the independent City Employes Union Local 65 of Pittsfield, today disclosed that Pittsfield Personnel Director Robert U. Johnson has reversed a ruling on vacation eligibility after a complaint from the union.

Hebert said the union secured the services of Atty. John Martin after Johnson maintained that city employes had to work 32 weeks in 1959 to be eligible for a vacation in 1960.

"The union maintained that the employe just had to work 30 weeks prior to June 1 in the 12 months preceding that date," said Hebert. "The law upholds our position."

Meeting Held

The union president said that Johnson changed the ruling after a meeting Friday with Atty. Martin and City Solicitor William R. Flynn.

Asked why, with the problem solved, he wished to make a public issue of the cases, Hebert said: "We have questioned many of Mr. Johnson's decisions before but not gone into them legally or publicly. We intend to from now on."

Johnson told The Eagle the case was a simple one in which there was an amendment to the vacation regulations and he was not acquainted with the change. He said he today issued a directive to city department heads informing them of the change.

Firemen Seek Hearing on Pay Raises

The betterments committee of the Pittsfield Permanent Firemen's Assn. today asked the City Council for a chance to be heard on seven requests for pay raises and assorted other changes in fringe benefits.

In a communication signed by Lt. David J. Cullen, chairman, and four other members, the association pointed out that it has pending some seven petitions, some dating back as much as two years, of which nothing has been heard since they went to the Council.

The association added an eighth request with another petition seeking a continuation of longevity increments beyond the present 20 year cutoff date, up to a maximum of 40 years; weekly deductions of group medical insurance charges; unspecified changes in sick leave and vacation policies; and other changes.

The communications will come before City Council at a meeting Tuesday.

Chief Calnan Issues Warning On Pamphlets Distribution

Chief Thomas H. Calnan reminded Pittsfield residents today that distribution of pamphlets or flyers on city streets is "prohibited by city ordinance."

The chief said one section of the ordinances stated that paper, among other items, could not be "placed or deposited in or on any public way" where it might be "scattered by the wind."

"This applies most particularly to people who stand on the street and hand out slips of paper," the chief said, pointing out that the receiver often glances at the paper and throws it away. The ordinance was set up to avoid such littering of the streets, he said.

Simultaneously, Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation issued a statement of policy in regard to distribution of written material on the city's parks or playgrounds.

Mr. Hebert said anyone wishing to pass out such material at the playgrounds must first clear the matter through him.

Both statements followed complaints that youngsters on the playgrounds and on the streets had been given cards inviting them to a local home for a "party" where various mothers reported that Bible stories were being read to the children.

Mayor Requests Funds for Raises In Relief Agencies

Mayor Haughey today filed two orders calling for a total appropriation of $1,300 to meet proposed pay raises in two welfare agencies —$1,000 for the Department of Public Welfare, $300 for the Department of Veterans' Services.

The mayor said the money is needed in anticipation of approval of a change in the salary ordinance. The ordinance has been read twice before the City Council and now awaits final passage.

Council Votes Mayoral Trip To Nebraska

The City Council voted today to send Mayor Raymond L. Haughey to the national American Legion baseball tournament in Hastings, Neb., as the city's official representative.

A Pittsfield team will be participating in the tourney for the first time.

Six members of the Council, meeting in a special emergency session at noon today, unanimously voted to designate the mayor as the city's official spectator, and to appropriate $495 from the reserve fund to pay his air fare and expenses. He will leave for the Nebraska city tomorrow morning, in order to be on hand for the Pittsfield team's first game Sunday afternoon.

Attending the noon meeting were Councilmen Remo DelGallo, Ward 3; Raymond E. Crow, Ward 2; Leo B. Nesbit, Ward 1; John F. Fraser, Ward 7; Donald G. Butler, at large, and Council President Charles J. Kidney.

Hebert Is First From City To Head Employes Federation

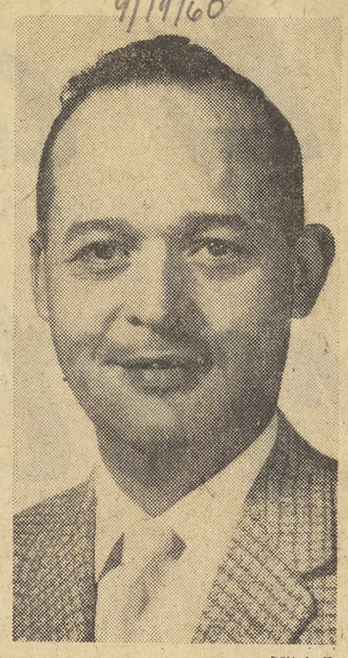
Alfred A. Hebert of 228 Lebanon Ave., a truck driver in the Pittsfield Public Works Department, yesterday became the first local resident to head the Massachusetts Federation of State, City and Town Employes.

Mr. Hebert was elected president of the federation, defeating Joseph J. Ryan of Worcester, 40 to 27. Election was at the Polish Falcon Hall on Bel Air Avenue and climaxed the federation's annual two-day convention.

About 250 attended the convention banquet Saturday evening at the Falcon Hall and heard Pittsfield Mayor Raymond L. Haughey and Thomas J. Greehan of Boston, director of civil service in Massachusetts, praise the 58-year-old union.

Mr. Greehan pointed out that the state Legislature this year passed a law enabling labor organizations to bargain collectively for city employes on the subjects of wages, hours and working conditions.



Alfred A. Hebert — Mitchell

'New Era To Face'

"You have a new era to face," said Mr. Greehan. "This is the first year under the new law enabling you to bargain with the cities. Be careful with this new privilege and avoid excesses."

The bill passed by the Legislature is so-called "permissive" legislation under which individual towns and cities must adopt the law before it can become operative there.

In Pittsfield, the federation's Local 65, representing about 40 city employes, has asked the City Council to adopt this law. There has been no action yet.

Mayor Haughey, following Mr. Greehan as a speaker Saturday, said city officials have had an excellent relationship with Local 65 and expressed confidence this relationship will continue.

"I have full confidence they will cause no abuse of the privilege recently granted them . . . We have no difficulties here," said the mayor.

Congressman Silvio O. Conte, Sen. Robert P. Cramer, Rep. Thomas C. Woitkowski and City Councilmen Butler, Brown, Scelsi, Quadrozzi, Del Gallo, Crow and Brown were among the elected officials present at the Saturday dinner.

The after-dinner program included two fast rounds of jokes by Doc Circe, who was on lend-lease from the Show Boat, and dancing to music by Louis Rodrigues and his orchestra.

Mr. Hebert, new president of the state association, succeeds Walter M. McCuster of Cambridge in the office. He was one of two Pittsfield men on the ballot. Jack Groat of Pittsfield, a past president of Local 65, was an unsuccessful candidate for vice president.

James J. Barry of Cambridge was re-elected secretary-treasurer without opposition. Mr. McCusker, Matthew Dowd of Lawrence and

Mr. Hebert has been president of Local 65 for the past year. A native of Wray, Colo., he is 32 years old and has lived in Pittsfield since 1939. He graduated from Pittsfield High School in 1945 and then spent two years in the Navy. He was recalled to active duty during the Korean War.

Mr. Hebert has been employed by the city seven years. He is married to the former Elizabeth Neilson of Pittsfield. They have two sons, David, 12, and Gary, 9, and a daughter, Patricia, 8.

Mayor Seeks Budget Estimates By November 18

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey today asked city department heads to submit their 1961 budget estimates by Nov. 18.

The mayor set the deadline in a letter accompanying budget worksheets, distributed to all city agencies this morning.

Submission of the estimates will be followed by the usual series of conferences before the mayor makes his final recommendations to the City Council early next year.

Last night the City Council unanimously approved the sale of the abandoned Pontoosuc playground.

The 1.4-acre property, bordered by North Street, Clifford Street and New Road, fell into disuse when the present Pontoosuc School playground was built.

A public auction, under the supervision of the superintendent of public buildings, Donald E. Farr, will be announced later. No sealed bids will be accepted at the auction. Also, by Council direction, bids of less than $3,800 will not be accepted. This figure was suggested by the Assessors

In answer to a question by Ward 2 Councilman Raymond E. Crow about proceeds, City Treasurer John J. Fitzgerald said the money will go into a special fund which the Council can use for any purpose which allows the issuance of a 20-year bond.

"The purpose of this fund is to be able to exchange one asset for another," continued Fitzgerald, "and not to use the money for regular operating expenses."

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey urged the sale of the property which was "so ordered" by an 11-0 vote of the Council.

The City Council last night spurned Health Commissioner Harold Stein's plea for quick action on a pay raise for the bacteriologist and assistant bacteriologist in the Health Department laboratory.

Instead, the Council voted 10-1 to send it to the Finance Committee for investigation. Ward 1 Councilman Leo B. Nesbit dissented.

The decision to refer the matter to committee was made despite Dr. Stein's argument that it is a matter of some urgency, because the department needs a higher pay scale in order to attract a successor to Miss Eleanor A. Fraser, who is retiring from the post of bacteriologist early next year.

Dr. Stein said the entire matter was explained at a meeting of the Council early in March, when the Council went along with the move.

The change would give the bacteriologist a pay range of $5,096 to $5,924, compared with a present scale of $4,524 to $5,304. The assistant would go from a $3,692-$4,342 range to one of $4,160-$4,888.

Other Action

In other action the Council:

Voted $1,305 from surplus to pay a temporary replacement for Miss Fraser, who is ill.

Voted $4,300 from surplus for emergency repairs for the roof of Russell School.

Voted $1,000 from surplus to make emergency changes in the chlorinating apparatus on mains from Cleveland Reservoir.

Voted $1,000 from surplus to pay for raises previously granted in the Welfare Department. Ward 6 Councilman Joseph S. Scelsi dissented on the ground that the raises would disrupt the salary schedule.

Voted without dissent $300 from surplus to pay for raises in the Veterans' Services Department.

Sets Hearing Dates

Set Oct. 18 as the date for hearings on two controversial petitions for zone changes in the Gamwell Avenue area.

Tabled a petition from Sanford Bookless for a loading zone on Edwin Street, pending further information.

Sent to the Public Safety Committee a report of the Traffic Commission recommending a no-parking area on the north side of Willow Street.

Filed an ordinance exempting Welcome Wagon signs at the city's outskirts from provisions of the sign ordinance.

Sent to the mayor for study and action a petition asking the city to take by eminent domain a right of way between Pine Grove Drive and Harryel Street.

Complaint Filed

Placed on file a complaint signed by Harry J. Moore and 13 others asking revocation of the junk license of L. H. Mindlin & Son at 76 John St.

Gave final approval to ordinances establishing the position of planning director and making changes in the Welfare Department and the Veterans' Services Department.

Adopted a motion asking the Planning Board to notify the City Council of all meetings of all meetings of the board.

10/25/60

Robert N. Hart, chairman of the School Committee's salary subcommittee, said today he hopes the full committee can meet with teachers' representatives on salary matters before the next monthly meeting, Nov. 9.

He said that much work must be done to get the new school budget prepared by the early December deadline.

Salary proposals have been forwarded to the School Committee by both local teachers' organizations, the Pittsfield Teachers Association and the Pittsfield Federation of Teachers.

Ask $4,400 Minimum

The association's request was submitted by Edwin R. Grady Jr., chairman of the group's salary committee. It asks for a nine-step scale with a minimum bachelor's degree salary of $4,400 and a maximum of $7,000, to be instituted within five years. It is also asked that the scale be adjusted to keep it in balance with any increase in the state-required minimum.

The state-required minimum is now $4,000. The Pittsfield scale is now $4,000 to $6,200, in 11 steps.

The federation is asking a bachelor's degree minimum of $4,600 and a maximum of $6,600, to go into effect next Jan. 1. Eleven increment steps are asked, $100 for the first two years and $200 thereafter. The schedule now provides for 11 $200 increments.

Improvement Boosts

The federation also asks for professional-improvement boosts of $10 a credit to a maximum of 30 credits beyond the degree level, with vocational teachers' credits in proportion. Currently, the teachers get $40 for each block of six credits. Also requested is a master's degree differential of $400 and a doctor's degree differential of $600 over the master's level. At present, teachers get $300 for a master's degree and $600 over the bachelor's level for a doctorate.

Also asked is equalization of all teachers' salaries as of next Jan. 1.

The federation's suggested schedules are as follows: bachelor, $4,600-$6,600; bachelor plus 30 credits, $4,900-$6,900; master, $5,000-$7,000; master plus 30 credits, $5,300-$7,300; doctorate, $5,600-$7,600; doctorate plus 30 credits, $5,900-$7,900.

10/10/60

Pay Hikes, Benefits Asked For 600 Non-School Workers

A healthy across-the-board pay raise and various fringe-benefit changes are sought in a petition submitted to the mayor and City Council today by Local 861, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes AFL-CIO.

In a communication signed by President Manuel J. Pravia, the union asked for a flat $350 annual pay raise across the board to cover increases in the cost of living. Such a raise, if granted to the approximately 600 nonschool employes, would cost about $210,000 a year.

The union also asked for a number of changes in fringe benefits, including:

Three weeks' vacation after five years, and four weeks' vacation after 10 years, of service.

Weekly deduction of the employe's share of health insurance costs, rather than the present monthly deductions.

Addition of Patriots' Day, Washington's Birthday and Columbus Day to the list of paid holidays, bringing the number to 10.

No limitation on the amount of sick leave that can be accrued prior to retirement, instead of the present limit of 90 days' accumulated leave within any six-year period.

Jump for Laborers

The union also asked that laborers be jumped to the top of their scale at the end of one year, rather than advancing gradually over a five-year period as other employes do.

And it proposed that the work schedule in the Sanitation Division of the Public Works Department be changed from the present eight-hour day, six-day week to a nine-hour day and a five-day week, with time and a half after 45 hours.

Quinn Cleared For Welfare Deputy Post

State Civil Service has approved the provisional appointment of Raymond T. Quinn to the newly created post of deputy welfare commissioner.

Mr. Quinn, supervisor of social work in the department since 1941, was given the provisional appointment after the City Council approved creation of the job last month. Commissioner Charles H. Hodecker was notified of Civil Service Commission approval yesterday.

A noncompetitive promotional exam for permanent appointment, open only to Mr. Quinn, will be held later. The new deputy has been a member of the department since 1933.

Civil Service Discussion To Be Thursday

11/1/60

Many officials of city and state government and others interested in civil service have been sent invitations to attend Thursday night's panel discussion on "Civil Service: Help or Hindrance to Good Local Government?" The meeting, open to the public, is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Pittsfield and will be held at the Girls Club at 8.

Invitations have been sent to Mayor Raymond Haughey; John J. Fitzgerald, city clerk; John J. Norton, city auditor; state Sen. Robert P. Cramer; state representatives from Districts 3 to 7; city councilmen; members of the School Committee; department heads in city government; employes of city government; the Williamstown League of Women Voters; and hte Bureau of Government Research at the University of Massachusetts.

Five Speakers on Panel

The panel of speakers includes John F. Daniels, public works commissioner; Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation; Alfred A. Hebert, president, Local 65, Massachusetts Federation of State, City and Town Employes; Robert U. Johnson, director of the Department of Administrative Services. Raymond F. Campbell, past president of Local 861, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL-CIO, will be the fifth speaker on the panel, taking the place of Manuel J. Pravia, president, who was originally scheduled to appear.

The panel members will give short presentations, with a question period following to enable the audience to participate in the discussion.

Mrs. Harry H. Ross, chairman of the local league's civil service committee, will preside.

Members of the invitation committee included Mrs. Carey S. Hayward, Mrs. Kenneth Goldblum, Mrs. Ralph T. Millett and Mrs. Josephine Savino.

Hebert, Johnson Discuss Classifying City Equipment

Alfred A. Hebert, president of the Pittsfield City Employes Association Local 65, discussed with Robert U. Johnson, personnel director, yesterday, classification of various motor equipment operated by city employes.

At the present time the men are classified as motor equipment operators 1, 2 or 3, but the equipment they operate is unclassified, said Mr. Hebert. The talk was to clarify for the local the setup for a Class 2 motor equipment operator. An opening in this classification is pending and the local wants to know what equipment operation the job entails.

A decision on the equipment classification is expected next week, Mr. Hebert said.

Council To Take Final Action Tonight on '60 City Budget

The City Council meets tonight at 7 to take final action on the 1960 municipal budget, which totaled $10,118,069 when Mayor Raymond L. Haughey laid it on the Council chopping block a month and a half ago.

It is expected that the Council's cuts from the total will be relatively small. Last year the Council managed to trim only about $52,000 from the mayor's request.

As soon as the budget has been passed the way will be cleared for work on the 1960 tax rate. Chairman Antonio J. Ruscetta of the assessors said today he does not expect the rate to be set before the end of next week, as the board has not yet completed work on the 1960 valuations for the city.

Possible $7 Rise

The mayor's budget request, $834,418 above the amount voted by the Council last year, would mean a rate rise of perhaps $7 if all other things were equal. Happily, however, all things aren't equal.

Among the factors which should combine to hold the tax increase well below the maximum are a substantial rise in real estate valuations, a slight improvement in state reimbursement estimates; and, of course, the Council's cuts from the budget.

With the budget out of the way, city officials will next turn their attention to the Capital Outlay Program. Last year a total of $312,390 in capital funds was approved, and later another $200,000 was invested in Central Junior High School.

Mayor Haughey said today he expects the capital program this year to be somewhat below the $500,000 spent last year, though he mentioned no figure.

Missing Projects

The mayor pointed out that several major items in last year's capital budget would be among the missing this year, including $66,000 for projects by the Department of Public Buildings.

The bulk of this year's capital outlay probably will be spent on public works, the mayor indicated. He added that in general he thought the city should begin with a relatively modest program, adding other projects later in the year if it appeared that the funds were available and the work could be done.

Capital outlay funds come from the surplus account and do not affect the tax rate.

Nesbit Seeks Special Study Of PWD Personnel Matters

Ward 1 City Councilman Leo B. Nesbit said this morning he will press for formation of a special five-man Council committee to study personnel matters in the Public Works Department.

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey declined to comment on Nesbit's announcement, and Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels said only that most of the items mentioned by Nesbit seemed to be specific grievances rather than matters of broad policy.

Nesbit said he intended to put his proposal before the full Council under suspension of the rules Tuesday night. He said the committee he envisions would study "from top to bottom" the personnel problems of the department, largest of the "operating" sections of general city government.

Would Dig Deep

"We're going right to the bottom and drag it all out to find out what's going on," Nesbit said, "and see if we can straighten it out. I think we can improve the department's operations and still save the city some money."

Nesbit said the proposed study would include a look at the engineering section to see what changes are needed to strengthen the technical side of public works. It also would include study of a proposal to provide separate personnel classifications for various types of equipment operators.

"As things stand now," Nesbit said, "a man who is a Motor Equipment Operator 1 doesn't know whether he is supposed to drive a pickup truck or a bulldozer. I think that ought to be changed, and different classifications or job titles ought to be set up for the men on various types of equipment."

The Ward 1 representative said the committee would also look into such things as a report that a man from the water division works overtime as a highway foreman in charge of snow removal.

Daniels Comments

Commissioner Daniels declined comment on the specific points mentioned by Nesbit, but he added, "Most of these things seem to me to be particular grievances which have been discussed before. They are cases for administration through the regular grievance procedure established more than a year ago through the good offices of the mayor."

PITTSFIELD — Following its annual series of conferences with municipal department heads, the City Council Friday night chopped $50,537 from the mayor's proposed 1960 Pittsfield budget of $10,118,069. It thus approved an overall figure of $10,067,532 for operation of 34 city departments during the next year. The amount pared was only slightly below that eliminated by the council following its 1959 deliberations.

Most of the cuts were fairly small and rather widespread, according to Council President Charles J. Kidney. However, the city fathers decided to cut $9000 from a Public Works Department request for $59,000 to cover snow removal for the rest of the year. Commissioner John F. Daniels indicated that this action could have serious repercussions in the event that the city is hit by a late season snowstorm, an occurance that is never unlikely in the Berkshires during April. Another big chop came in the Public Buildings Department budget estimate, when $5251 was eliminated from the school repair account.

The assessors are expected to set the 1960 tax rate next week. A boost of some seven dollars might be expected, if there were not a number of factors involved which should make the boost, if it comes, considerably smaller.

City Council Clears Way For Three DPW Promotions

The City Council last night approved transfer of $8,880 within the accounts of the Department of Public Works, thus clearing the way for promotion of three motor equipment operators to higher ratings as pipelayers.

The action, which reportedly was opposed by some city employes, was completed after only a short and uncontroversial discussion.

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, citing "operational difficulties" in the Water Division, had asked that the division be allowed to have more pipelayers so it would have a personnel roster "commensurate with the duties the department is expected to perform."

Daniels Explains

Public Works Commissioner John F. Daniels, present at the meeting, explained that the transfer was mostly a budgetary technicality to clear the way for the promotions. He said the larger number of pipelayers—four, compared with only one now—would give the Water Division greater flexibility in its operations. "A man can operate from a rated job down," he said, "but not up, according to the rules of Civil Service."

"In other words," said Councilman-at-Large Patrick E. Callaghan, "what you're trying to imply is that these men were being underpaid when they did pipelaying work?"

"That's right," replied the commissioner.

Ward 6 Councilman Joseph S. Scelsi asked if the pipelayers could be used in any of the sections of the Public Works Department. His question apparently was prompted by reports that some employes in the department were unhappy because of an alleged plan to consolidate all pipelayers' positions in the Water Division.

"Absolutely," the commissioner said in answer to Scelsi's question. "As head of the department I can use these men anywhere in the department if they are needed."

With that the debate tapered off to an unanimous vote for the transfer.

Other Actions

In other financial matters last night, the Council also:

Approved an appropriation of $2,000 from surplus to establish a pilot program of counseling for the aged, the entire sum to be returned by the state.

Appropriated $20,000 from surplus to clear the way for an early start on the 1960 Chapter 90 projects on Peck's Road, Newell Street and Meadow Lane.

Appropriated $2,000 from parking meter funds to buy a new cruiser for Patrolman Royal McGuirt, the meter enforcement officer. To a suggestion that a compact car be considered, Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan replied, "Royal won't like that." In a more serious vein, he added that the car is used as a regular cruiser from 4 p.m. to midnight, and therefore the standard car is deemed desirable.

Council Unit To Request Wage Changes

The City Council's Finance Committee met last night with Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services, and decided to recommend changes in three areas of the salary ordinance.

In the clerical group, junior clerk-typists and junior clerks would be raised from a $2,444 annual minimum to $2,600; junior clerk-stenographers, from $2,444 to $2,704. Senior clerks and clerk-typists would remain at a $2,808 starting level, but senior clerk-stenographers would be raised to $2,912. The changes would bring nonschool clerical workers' pay in line with that recently established by the state for employes in the Welfare Department.

A pay differential of $4 a day would be provided for public works employes engaged in blasting work. The sum is double the amount originally suggested as a pay differential, but it was rejected by the two unions representing employes in the department.

Also in the labor and trades group, working foremen would be dropped from the bottom rung of the supervisory class and placed in the general classification. The change will not affect their base pay, but it will enable them to earn time and a half or double time on overtime, rather than the straight hourly rate stipulated for the supervisory group.

School Custodians File Pension Measure

4/1960

The Pittsfield Public School Custodians Assn. has asked the City Council to accept a state law which would drop the minimum service requirement for their pension rights from 25 years to 20 years.

A letter asking the change was filed yesterday by Herman W. Shea, president of the group, and John J. Nolan, secretary.

Salary Raise For Secretary To Mayor Voted

5/24/60

The mayor's secretary apparently will be getting a raise, as an ordinance providing her with a salary of $80 a week passed its first Council reading last night.

The action was taken on a 9-1 vote, Councilman Roy F. Brown dissenting vigorously.

The $80 salary was recommended by Robert U. Johnson, director of administration services, who suggested that the mayor's secretary, like the mayor, should be exempted from the salar schedule and given a little extra to compensate for the necessarily precarious nature of the job.

Finance Study Urged

Brown suggested that the measure should be sent to the Finance Committee for study and a report, a move opposed by Ward 7 Councilman John F. Fraser. The Ward 7 representative said the question had been under consideration for some time by the Finance Committee.

Councilman at Large Patrick E. Callaghan agreed. "On principle Councilman Brown may be right," he commented, "but unless there is something new that the Finance Committee might add, I see no need for it."

Brown replied, "In the last few years that salary structure has been taken apart piece by piece by the personnel director." He said he belived it was a mistake to single out an individual for special consideration. "Either review all the salaries or leave the ordinance alone," he said.

Legal Department Hit

The councilman at large, chairman of the Committee on Ordinances and Rules, also had a broadside in passing for the city's legal department. "The Ordinances and Rules Committee has had quite some time getting ordinance changes out of the law department," he said, "but here is an ordinance drawn up at the will of the personnel director which has not even been seen by Ordinances and Rules."

His motion to refer the question lost on the short end of an 8-2 vote, with Ward 4 Councilman John Burbank joining Brown. On subsequent passage after a first reading Brown was alone on the losing side of a 9-1 vote.

Playground Sale On Agenda for Council Tonight

Authorization for the sale of the unused Pontoosuc Playground on upper North Street will be an added starter at tonight's special meeting of the City Council.

Principal topic at the session will be a vote on financing for a $382,300 parking lot off McKay Street, but yesterday afternoon the mayor also filed an order authorizing sale of the unused playground.

The Park Department recommended last March that the 1.4-acre property be sold, as there seems to be no practical use for it in city hands. Mayor Haughey has instructed Donald E. Farr, superintendent of public buildings, to sell the property for the highest bid over $3,800.

Johnson Urges Salary Hike For Secretary to the Mayor

The mayor's secretary would receive a substantial raise under a new salary arrangement proposed by Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services.

In a letter sent to the City Council today Mr. Johnson suggested that the mayor's secretary be paid a set salary of $4,160 a year, and that her position be removed from the regular salary classification. At present the job pays a range from $3,276 to $3,848 a year.

"This department feels," Mr. Johnson wrote, "that the secretary to the mayor should be under the unclassified plan inasmuch as this position is not under Civil Service and is not a permanent position.

"For the same reason, the salary should be a constant figure, as the mayor's, and sufficient to compensate for the brief tenure of the position and also for the special responsibilities and for the confidential nature of the position."

The proposal will come before the City Council Tuesday.

Miss Mary E. Calnan is the secretary to Mayor Raymond L. Haughey.

$1,800,000 Bond Issue Asked By Mayor for Crosby Jr. High

5/21/60

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey yesterday filed an order with the City Council for a 20-year $1,800,000 bond issue to finance the construction of Crosby Junior High School on the Crosby estate off West Street.

"We are well versed in the past history, which concluded in the decision to build a new facility rather than additions to the present junior high schools," said Haughey. "The school building commission charged with the responsibility of the construction of this school has been formed and is in operation. I feel any further explanation of the order is superfluous."

The city receive financial assistance from the state and federal governments in the project amounting to slightly more than one-third of the total cost. A federal allocation of approximately $100,000 is anticipated, and the state School Building Assistance Commission is scheduled to contribute about $600,000.

The Crosby Junior High School Building Commission, headed by J. Donald Codey, has set a tentative completion date of the fall of 1961. John H. Fisher of Pittsfield is architect for the project.

City Buildings Tradesmen Ask For Pay Raise

6/7/60

Building tradesmen in the city's Public Buildings Department have asked for a chance to be heard by the City Council on the subject of a general pay increase designed "to bring our rate of pay onto a comparable basis" with that of men doing the same work for private employers.

In a petition entered today, signed by Supt. Donald E. Farr and 14 others, the buildings men said "outside tradesmen" make upwards of $40 a week more than city workers.

"The cost of living has and is still steadily climbing and we city employes are steadily slipping behind," they said.

Included among the signers of the petition were carpenters, plumbers, painters and electricians.

The pay scale for carpenters, plumbers and electricians in the department is $4,524 to $5,304 a year, while painters earn $4,342 to $5,096 a year. The range is from $2.17 to $2:55 an hour for the first group, $2.09 to $2.45 for the second.

Council Unit Backs Raise for Mayor's Secretary

The Ordinances and Rules Committee of the City Council last night went along with a salary increase for the mayor's secretary, as urged by Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services.

Under terms of the revision, passed on its first reading at the last meeting of the Council, the mayor's secretary would be removed from the regular classification plan and paid a flat $80 per week. The matter will come up for final action at the Council meeting next week, with a favorable recommendation from the committee.

In other matters considered last night, the committee met with Everett A. Kelsey, vice president of the Berkshire Gas Co., to continue its discussion of a proposed ordinance regulating installation of gas fixtures.

The gas company official said his firm had no objection to the proposed code, but he added that the thorough inspections made by the company's own crews before any gas is turned on would seem to make the additional expense of city inspections unnecessary.

The committee took no action last night.

Also given the committee's approval were several minor changes in the parking rules—affecting portions of Silver Lake Boulevard, Appleton Avenue and Bradford Street.

$7,936 Voted For Police on Strike Duty

The General Electric Co. strike cost Pittsfield taxpayers $7,936 last night.

The bulk of the money—$7,600 of it—was appropriated by the City Council surplus to the emergency overtime account of the Police Department, to be used to pay off-duty police called in for duty at the plant gates. Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan has estimated the cost of extra policing at $650 a day.

Last night's appropriation will cover the cost through the week of Oct. 22 if the strike should last that long, the chief said in a letter to the mayor and City Council.

Another $336 was taken from the reserve fund for the personnel accounts of the Veterans' Services Department. Director Theodore J. Handerek explained in a letter that a senior clerk-stenographer on a provisional appointment has been bumped by a Civil Service list, but he wants more money to keep the experienced woman on duty during the anticipated period of "heavy work load" resulting from the strike.

The vote on both items was unanimous.

In other financial action the Council also appropriated $106 to the Department of Administrative Services to pay for recent salary increases, $63 to the auditor's office for the same purpose, and $60 to the Fire and Signal Department to pay for out of state travel by Signal Supt. John H. Sturgeon.

Assessors Ask $20,000 a Year For Revaluation

Despairing of getting a straight $90,000 appropriation to pay for another revaluation program in Pittsfield, the assessors have suggested that the city start laying aside $20,000 a year to be used eventually for a revaluation.

The suggestion was made in the 1959 annual report of the board, filed yesterday afternoon. The board again called for a wholesale revaluation, noting that property values have not been completely reviewed since 1948. The assessors are too completely immersed in the day-to-day changes in property values to tackle the task of overhauling all valuations, the report said.

The assessors also suggested that the city's ordinances be revised to add two more members to the Planning Board and two to the Zoning Board of Appeals, with one of the new seats on each board being occupied by an assessor. They said tax problems are closely related to the matters considered by both boards, and that the change would provide improved liaison.

As usual, the report also reviewed the figures used in computing the 1959 tax rate of $56.50 per thousand of assessed valuation. The 1960 rate is $59 per thousand.

Council Group Maps Study Of Clerical Help

The Finance Committee of the City Council met last night to discuss investigations in two personnel areas within city government.

Robert U. Johnson, director of administrative services, was present to discuss the feasibility of a major review of the city's clerical help policies, particularly in the Public Works Department.

Public Works Largest

Council President Charles J. Kidney, chairman of the committee, noted that the Public Works Department alone spends $53,000 a year for clerical salaries. The study would deal with the question of overhauling clerical rosters and pay scales, not only in Public Works, but in all departments. No decision was made last night on whether to launch the study, Kidney said.

Also on hand last night was Welfare Commissioner Charles H. Hodecker, who has requested creation of a post for a deputy commissioner and for the upgrading of several other jobs.

Kidney said the committee would seek further information before making a recommendation.

Parking Lot Bids Being Accepted

10/25/60

Bids are currently being accepted by the Department of Parks and Recreation for a contract to build a parking lot at Burbank Park, Onota Lake.

The bids will be opened at Springside House at 2 p.m. Monday. Specifications are available at the Park Department.

Council Race Is Between England, Murphy

The battle lines are apparently formed for the councilman-at-large seat vacant in the City Council.

The announced candidacy yesterday of former Ward 5 Councilman Daniel England narrowed the field to two — Mr. England and former Ward 3 Councilman Bernard J. Murphy.

"I intend to keep my hat in the ring," said Mr. Murphy, "I am not going to withdraw, come what may." He said he was an announced candidate and would see it through, but added if Mr. England was elected the council had made a "good choice."

Tagliente Out

Some question as to the candidacy of former Councilman-at-Large Anthony G. Tagliente was quickly dispelled when he said yesterday afternoon, "I am not a candidate."

When asked if he would accept a draft, he again stated he was "not a candidate."

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey said he would not call the special convention to elect a councilman any earlier than the scheduled date of Nov. 15.

"We adjourned the last convention by voting to reconvene at 6:30 on the evening of Nov. 15," said the mayor, "and I plan to hold the meeting at that time."

The mayor will chair the convention. He is only allowed by law to vote if there is a tie (5-5) ballot.

Kidney Resignation Stuns City Council

City Council President Charles J. Kidney stunned his colleagues today with a sudden and unexpected resignation from the Council, effective immediately.

In a letter to the mayor and Council, mailed Friday night at 7 in Albany, N.Y., Kidney said he was taking the step for unspecified "personal reasons." He was out of town today and could not be reached for further comment.

Kidney, a Council member for 11 years, has been president since January, 1958. Throughout his service on the Council he had been a member at-large.

Meeting Called

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey promptly called a special meeting of the Council to choose a president pro tem. The meeting will be tomorrow night at 7 in the auditor's office in City Hall, with City Clerk John J. Fitzgerald in the chair in accordance with Council rules.

A permanent president presumably will be chosen after the Council has selected a new councilman at large. That election will take place at a special convention called by the mayor, who will preside at the session. The mayor will cast a vote for the new councilman only in the case of a tie.

First indications were that the race for both the temporary and permanent presidency is wide open.

Butler a Candidate

Councilman-at-Large Donald G. Butler, unofficial floor manager of Kidney's campaign to stave off a challenge for the presidency from Ward 7 Councilman John F. Fraser earlier this year, said in response to a question this morning that he would be a candidate.

Fraser, who withdrew from the race for the presidency in January of this year when last-minute developments made it clear he would go down on the short end of a 6-5 vote, announced this morning that he would nominate former Council President Patrick E. Callaghan for the pro-tem presidency.

"I think," Fraser said, "that in the interests of good government, with something coming up as speedily as this, we have no choice but to impose on Mr. Callaghan to be our president pro tem. I therefore have every intention of nominating him for the job."

Should Callaghan run for the pro-tem presidency and win it, he probably would not be a serious candidate for the permanent job. He is the Democratic nominee for the state Legislature from the 3rd Berkshire District, and he has said that if he wins the election in that heavily Democratic district he will resign his Council seat.

His resignation thus would vacate the president's chair again, and would mean that the Council would have to pick two new councilmen at large by the convention system.

The special convention system of filling Council vacancies was set up by amendments to the City Charter adopted in 1958. Prior to that time vacancies were filled by special elections.

Kidney

The system has been used only once before, to fill the vacancy created earlier this year by the resignation of Charles W. Wilson from the Ward 4 seat. The Council picked former Ward 4 Councilman John Burbank on the first ballot.

Won on First Try

Kidney, a foreman at General Electric, was elected a councilman-at-large on his first try for public office in 1949. His father, the late Michael C. Kidney, was a councilman for several years.

A native of this city, he graduated from Pittsfield High School and attended Taft School and St. Lawrence University. A Navy veteran of World War II, he is married and the father of three children. The family lives at 23 Appleton Ave.

He has served at various times on all the Council committees, the West Pittsfield School Building Commission, the City Charles Revision Committee, and the special Committee on Tax Resources.

As president of the City Council he has been a member of the Capital Outlay Committee.

In 1950 he was the unsuccessful Democratic candidate against Sheriff J. Bruce McIntyre.

His letter of resignation:

"For the past 11 years I have had the privilege of serving on the Pittsfield City Council. Many have been the problems and changes over this period of time, all of which have been resolved, I believe, for the betterment of our city. It is with satisfaction that I feel I have had a small part in making it so.

"Consider this letter my notice of resignation, effective immediately. This decision is not a hurried one, nor caused by dissatisfaction, but purely for personal reasons.

"With the new charter changes in effect, no expense or difficulty should be experienced in picking my successor."

2 Financial Orders Filed by Mayor

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey sent two orders to the City Council today appropriating a total of $21,607.65.

The first order requests approval of transferring $21,000 from the surplus fund to an account for Blue Shield and Blue Cross for city employes to cover an increase in the hospitalization rates.

The second order asks for $607.65 to replace an 8-inch (Dynascope) telescope that was stolen from the Springside Park observatory last June. Money, covering the loss, has been paid the city by an insurance company, but any cash received in this manner goes into the city surplus fund and then has to be appropriated by the mayor with the approval of the City Council to replace or repair items covered by insurance.

City Workers Delay Election

Postponement of officer elections until Dec. 14 has been announced by Alfred A. Hebert, president of Local 65 of the Municipal Employes Association, pending City Council action on union requests for collective bargaining legislation.

The union president has asked City Council President Patrick E. Callaghan to arrange a meeting with the Council to discuss a number of subjects pertaining to the employes' association.

If the City Council and the mayor approve a state act allowing cities to enter into collective bargaining with unions, an association election would be held to determine whether Local 65 or the AFL-CIO municipal employes' union would bargain for the city workers.

Other points for discussion, Mr. Hebert said, are problems concerning equipment classifications and temporary promotions. Now, light-equipment operators are working on heavy equipment, but their pay is less than called for in that category, he said.

Council Agenda Tomorrow Has Only Nine Items

"Tomorrow night's City Council agenda is the shortest one I can remember," City Clerk John J. Fitzgerald, who has been in the city clerk's office for 22 years, said today.

Only nine items are scheduled for consideration at the regular meeting at 7:30 in the District Courtroom. A major reason for the small agenda is that the Council met last Tuesday because its regularly scheduled Nov. 8 meeting fell on election day.

Two Pay Raises Favored

Included in the agenda is a report from the Finance Committee on a communication from Mayor Raymond L. Haughey submitting an ordinance increasing the salaries of the bacteriologist and assistant bacteriologist in the Health Department.

The committee recommended that the assistant bacteriologist be raised from Grade 12 ($3,692 to $4,442 a year) to Grade 15 ($4,160 to $4,888 a year).

A jump from Grade 17 ($4,524 to $5,304) to Grade 20 ($5,096 to $5,954) was recommended for the bacteriologist.

The Council will also set a date for a public hearing on an application from the A. Leo Nash Steel Corp. for a license to store 18,900 gallons of oil, gas, paint; alcohol and other miscellaneous inflammable fluids about a mile south of Route 20 on Central Berkshire Boulevard.

Counseling Service for Aged Opens

Mrs. Diamond Sets Up Shop At Springside

Pittsfield's newest social agency is now in business—a counseling service for the aged, financed by the state and operated by the Pittsfield Health Department.

Now located in Springside House, the agency is looking for permanent quarters in a central location, preferably, of course, at moderate or no cost.

The service, one of three "pilot" programs in aid for the aged financed by the state, was officially launched when the Health Department enagaged Mrs. John N. Diamond as "counselor for senior citizens."

Mrs. Diamond, wife of the Eastern divisional sales manager for Fasteners Inc., formerly located here, brings to her new post an extensive background in social work.

Worked at PGH

She was active in Red Cross, Girl Scout and Cub Scout work in the Holyoke area before coming to Pittsfield. In this city she has been director of clinics at Pittsfield General Hospital and field representative of the county chapter of the Massachusetts Heart Assn.

In her new job she will offer a general liaison service designed to help aged residents of the city with their problems. The Health Department and its new center will provide no direct services, but will serve as a clearing house and contact agency for the myriad local offices, organizations and agencies which do provide the services. The general guidance will cover the areas of recreation, health, social and financial problems, rehabilitation, and practically anything else affecting the well-being of an elderly person.

A Matter of Guidance

"I don't know of another community that has the resources we have available," Mrs. Diamond comments. "It's simply a matter of guiding the people who have problems to the right place for help."

Among the individual agencies with which she expects to work closely Mrs. Diamond lists the Visiting Nurse Assn., the Family and Children Service, the hospital clinics, the various disease foundations, the local Social Security Administration office, the General Electric Co. pensioners' counseling service, the city's own Welfare Department and Parks and Recreation Department, and others.

After the bugs have been ironed out of the program, the case worker will attempt to seek out those with problems as well as help those who come to her seeking aid.

Open Five Days

The office in Springside is open from 9 to 5, five days a week, and by appointment.

Librizzi

Mrs. John N. Diamond in her new quarters

If proper quarters can be located, the center hopes to branch out into other activities. The Park Department would like to run a "drop-in" lounge in connection with the office, a place where older citizens could meet, watch television, read, and generally enjoy themselves.

Again if proper facilities are available in the new location, Mrs. Diamond hopes to set up a crafts and vocational shop, perhaps with classes of instruction and a retail outlet for the goods produced. A snack kitchen also is on the hoped-for list.

$8,000 from State

Since these things obviously will involve more money than the state is providing—$8,000 is expected for the next fiscal year—both Mrs. Diamond and Health Commissioner Harold Stein are hoping that assistance will be forthcoming from the community.

Among the types of help appropriate to the problem, Dr. Stein says, would be an outright donation of suitable quarters in a downtown location and, financial assistance from service clubs, other groups or individuals.

Once the quarters have been obtained, the center would happily accept help, physical and financial, in both preparing the new location and in operating it.

350 Berkshire Golden Agers Make Merry at Field Day Here

By MRS. ALBERT H. PARKER

Pinning Pittsfield on the map, bundling in the modern manner, and other such games and contests were the order of the day as Berkshire County Golden Age clubs gathered yesterday for a field day at the GEAA field house.

Registration was in the morning, when Golden Agers from Great Barrington, Dalton, North Adams and Otis were greeted by the host club from Pittsfield. A total of 350 Golden Agers viewed displays of Pittsfield's Golden Age sewing group, art class, and Golden Age News. Mrs. Marie Wilkinson headed a reception committee consisting of Miss Mary Connelly, Miss Rose Connelly, Mrs. Rose Cote, Mrs. Nellie O'Brien, Mrs. Sophie Sauer, Arthur Shaver and John Maloney. They greeted arrivals and distributed the day's program.

Opening the program of games was the bundle relay, in which contestants got themselves "all tied up." Winning teams were the Jerks, in a contest featuring the Yanks versus the Jerks; and the Mud Cats, in the contest which pitted the Mud Cats against the Alley Cats. George Oschman proved the expert in transferring eggs from the floor to the egg carton, without breaking a one. On close examination, Mr. Oschman found that the eggs had been previously hard-boiled by Mrs. Grace Harrington, and he walked away proudly, and neatly, with his prize. In the saltine game, Mrs. Ada Dion, a North Adams Golden Ager, was able to devour her crackers and whistle a happy tune, therefore winning the prize for speed.

Other Winners

Golden Agers who tried their luck in finding Pittsfield with their eyes closed, were able to pin the marker all over the map of Massachusetts, but Mrs. Olive Valencourt of the North Adams club, landed closest to the mark. A contest which requested members to compose as many words as possible from the phrase "Golden Agers" found Mrs. Anne Tompkins of Pittsfield heading the list. Mrs. Rose Cote and Mr. Maloney judged several of the games, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ayers assisted in tabulating winners.

Decorating the stage with a patriotic theme, and covering picnic tables for use, was accomplished by a group consisting of Mrs. Elizabeth Francover, Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson, Mrs. Elizabeth Lagasse, Mrs. Yvonne Mickle, Arthur Pierce, Mrs. Geneva Smith and Mrs. Cecilia Trembley. Mrs. Emogene Kingman, Mrs. Mary McHugh, and Mrs. Ada Smith assisted in arranging displays. Roses on the stage were given by Mrs. Viola Houser.

After a picnic lunch, the Monarch Junior Drum and Bugle Corps played for the group.

The afternoon program in the field house was opened with greetings by Pittsfield president, Mrs. Anne Flynn, and the introduction of visiting club presidents: Sam Bailey, Dalton; Mrs. Harold Markham, Great Barrington; Mrs. Margaret Isherwood, North Adams, and Mrs. Merritt Haskell, Otis. A skit was given by Mrs. Edith Supernaugh of Great Barrington. Members of the Pittsfield chorus sang songs, including one written by Mrs. Flynn. Mrs. Florence Cote recited a Golden Age cheer.

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey addressed the group. He congratulated the club officers, and spoke on the housing projects for senior citizens now under construction in the city. Vincent J. Hebert, Park Department superintendent, greeted the Golden Agers.

Program of Entertainment

Mrs. Jennie Durwin, Pittsfield vice president, and William Murphy told humorous stories. Orrin Clark described the changes made in his home state of Ohio, from experiences on a recent trip home, the first in 80 years. Mr. Clark also gave an Independence Day recitation. Mrs. Hutchinson sang "Home on the Range." The French Canadians, Mrs. Cote, Mrs. Durwin, Mrs. Francouer, and Mrs. Lagasse sang several selections. William Powell of North Adams sang "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."

Miss Catherine Nadon, accompanied by Miss Estelle Alfonse, performed for the afternoon's program with several songs. A square dance group was under the direction of Mrs. Sol Minecci. The GE Pensioners orchestra played for singing and dancing.

Mrs. Francouer announced the following winners of door prizes: Mrs. Louise Jette and Mrs. Florence Sharon of Dalton; Mrs. Virgania Raspuzzi, Great Barrington; Mrs. Laura Lanou, North Adams; and Mrs. Vincent DeFazio, Charles Daniels, Alfred Griffin, Chris Barrecca, Mrs. Rose Gurski, Mrs. Emogene Kingman, Pittsfield.

Other members of the field day committee in addition to those mentioned above were Mrs. Anna Lapp, Harry Reynolds, Mrs. Sarah Eddy, Harry Snow and Mrs. Catherine Weatherbee.

Trip chairman was Mrs. Durwin, and pilots were Mr. Maloney, Mrs. Shaver, Magnus Lovgren, Jesse Beebe, Mr. Reynolds and Henry Newmarker.

Thanks were given to the GE for the hospitality extended to Golden Agers in the use of the GEAA facilities and grounds, and to all who helped with plans for the day, including the Golden Age committee; College Club assistants, under the direction of Mrs. Bartlett Kimball; and Park Department personnel. First Aid assistance was offered on the grounds by Mrs. Fred Krook, Mrs. Winston Roulier and Mrs. William Wheelock.

Limited Aged Care Is Passed by House

Democrats Vow More Next Year

Compromise Bill Less Than Either Candidate Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed Friday a limited bill for health care of the aged, amid Democratic predictions of broader programs to come "when John F. Kennedy is our president."

The Senate was expected soon to complete legislative action on the measure, center of one of the bitterest and most partisan fights of the session.

Senate Delays Vote

The Senate debated the compromise at length Friday night and finally put over the vote until Saturday.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) said several more senators wanted to speak, and that he believed it would not be possible to pass the measure Friday night.

Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) was planning to talk at some length on the compromise. He had told the Senate earlier in the day he was distressed at the deletion of several Senate provisions in conefrence.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), chief author of the medical care provisions included in the final version of the legislation, said the measure "marks a significant and far-reaching advance in the structure of our social security and public assistance laws."

Ike Likely To Sign

Indications were that President Eisenhower would sign the bill. Its benefits could reach as many as 12 million persons.

The bill provides for federal grants to help states which set up medical benefit plans for citizens on the old age assistance rolls and those just above this economic level, but still with incomes too low to meet medical expenses.

Assuming all states choose to take part, the federal grants would run about 200 million dollars yearly, ranging up to 80 per cent of the cost of state programs in states with low income.

The compromise program, which could benefit 2,400,000 persons now receiving assistance and perhaps 10 million more, does not go as far as the plans supported by either the Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. John F. Kennedy, or the GOP nominee, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But it is closer in princple to proposals by Nixon and President Eisenhower for a state-federal system. Kennedy advocated a broad plan of old age care tied into the Social Security system, but a Republican-Southern Democratic coalition beat the plan in Congress.

Arthur Bartram Becomes 97

Golden Age Member Observes Birthday Quietly Today

Arthur L. Bartram, formerly of Berkshire Village, now at Springside Nursing Home Inc., is observing his 97th birthday today. He has had invitations to go out for dinner but will remain at the nursing home.

Last year at about this time he was taken ill, but has been up and around for about three or four months. A charter member of the Golden Age Club he never missed a meeting until his illness and has been able to attend meetings again recently. He led the grand march at the group's June banquet in Dalton.

He was born in Bethel, Conn., and came to Pittsfield in 1886. For many years he operated a bicycle repair shop in Lee. In 1928 he retired from the GE where he was a fine precision machinist. He has a daughter, Mrs. Warren L. Cooke of 60 Draper Ave., two granddaughters, six great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Mr. Bartram says, "Faith in my Creator and love for mankind keep me up." He says he has never met a person he did not like. Another of his sayings is "When I get all my faults corrected, I will start on other people's."

The nonogenarian still plays the flute and guitar which he has with him at the nursing home. He and Mrs. Sarah I. Eddy, another Golden Ager who often visits Mr. Bartram at the home, often give impromptu musical performances for the other patients.

enough, but not astronomical . . . Happy birthday to Arthur Bartram, age 97 today. Active member of the Golden Age Club and versatile music-maker with flute, piccolo, cello, violin, guitar, piano and harmonica. His long life he says with a laugh, "Comes from my being born very young, and never getting over it."

Bicentennial Suggestions

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

The only idea that I have seen advanced to date concerning our bicentennial celebration involves the growing of beards. Let's have a beard contest for those that want it, but how about prodding the committee into a greater display of originality. At least the letters so far demonstrate an interest on the part of the public in the coming celebration. It might be well to have the committee let the general public know its progress.

Here are some of my ideas:

Let the church open the celebration with a Pittsfield Sunday, stressing prayer and thanksgiving.

Set the dates for an "Old Home Week" as soon as possible so that old time residents and relatives may make their plans accordingly.

Have some major league baseball teams stage an exhibition at Wahconah Park.

Invite the Springfield baseball team to play one of its regular scheduled night games at Wahconah. Start Roger O'Gara on this project now.

Stage a "Rural Night" at Wahconah Park with square dances, etc. so the long-beard boys can have their night.

Give us a real old fashioned formal ball.

Supplement the firemen's muster parade with added prize money to insure top grade participation, and a super display of fireworks.

Bring a rodeo to Wahconah. Beards in at a price. Lady beards free.

Have Jacob's Pillow bring its show to Pittsfield High for one night.

Stage an official pageant at Wahconah. The author should b. .t work on this now.

Invite President-elect Kennedy home, and let's see the new governor.

Have Berkshire Downs remember Pittsfield with a "day," all admissions to go to the committee.

Be sure the Yankee Circuit Drum Corps are consulted so there can be scheduled one or two "Nights of Champions." They provide great entertainment at reasonable prices.

Have the summer theater groups stage a musical at Pittsfield High.

Encourage Tanglewood to put on a special Pittsfield night, preferably along the "Tanglewood on Parade" theme.

Ask George Bisacca of Eastover to bring his staff show to Pittsfield High with all profits going to the committee.

Ask the Great Barrington people to bring their wonderful horse show to Wahconah.

Ask the local theater to bring in a musical, perhaps from a neighboring music tent.

Clear North Street one night for a gigantic automobile show. Perhaps the dealers would raffle a car that night with profits going to the committee. Stage a "Miss Compact" contest.

Could the residents around Onota stand an official outboard motor race, if we promised not to repeat it until our next anniversary?

Have my friend Bucky Callahan stage a show with Berkshire talent, all profits going to the committee.

Our winter and water sports enthusiasts should not be forgotten.

A grand week of Bargain Days and Nights by our stores with all-out decorations.

Special letterheads used by our business people announcing our anniversary.

Get our industries to have open houses during "Old Home Week."

Once the curtain has been raised on our celebration it should be a continual display of our spiritual, cultural, recreational and business heritage.

HENRY A. WINDOVER.

Boland Heads Committee On City's Bicentennial

11/15/60

Robert M. Boland, temporary chairman of the executive group planning the observance of Pittsfield's bicentennial in 1961, was elected permanent chairman yesterday afternoon at a meeting in the Melville Room of the Berkshire Athenaeum. Philip C. Ahern was elected cochairman; Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, honorary chairman.

The meeting was devoted mainly to a discussion of the subcommittee setup for the bicentennial organization and a screening of names of personnel to serve on these committees. The major subcommittees are: administration, program, publicity, history and events.

The celebration is scheduled for Labor Day weekend, Sept. 1, 2, 3 and 4. Events tentatively planned include a ball, drums corps competition, historical pageant, religious services, folk festival and parade.

Mayor Invites Participation

The general committee will be expanded, and Mayor Haughey has sent a letter to 200 representatives of local civic, fraternal, labor and veteran organizations inviting them to a meeting Monday night, Nov. 28, at 8 in the Berkshire Museum to determine their area of participation.

"At that time," the mayor said in his letter, "basic thoughts and ideas will be presented to you; and in turn your suggestions will be appreciated and fully discussed. In order that we may proceed with speed, and to the end that this celebration will prove to be second to none of similar purpose, we earnestly solicit your cooperation. This is a unique opportunity for all of us to show the pride we have in our community. Let us collectively volunteer to sing Pittsfield's praises during 1961."

This was a prophetic gift. For it had been announced at the beginning of the campaign that if the drive went beyond $1,300,000, an indoor hockey facility would be among the additions. The figure as of last night was $1,380,000.

They meet at 8:30 p.m. to plan the sports equipment sale, the carnival queen contest and other carnival events that will be scheduled through most of the winter.

Another winter organization, the Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club, has already started its preparations for the ice season.

The skaters met last night at the Department of Parks and Recreation to discuss plans for raising funds to defray the expenses of skating trips. The group also talked over ways to attract more members during the current membership drive.

Parachute Jump Discussed for Winter Carnival

A parachute - jumping contest may be the special feature of winter carnival this year, it was disclosed last night at the regular meeting of the winter sports committee.

The committee dropped plans to ask curling teams from Albany to return here this year to demonstrate their sport, and started discussion of the jumping contest.

It was also voted to investigate the possibility of bringing a few sled-dog teams here during the Berkshire Hills speed skating competition to give children special rides.

To Meet Monday

At last night's meeting, Robert B. Deloye was named chairman of the Berkshire Square Dance Festival, to be held Jan. 30; Willard Bridgham, chairman of the Berkshire interscholastic ski meet, Jan. 29 and 30; Sumner Gamwell and James Tobin, chairmen of the speed skating event, Jan. 30 and 31.

The annual winter sports equipment sale was definitely scheduled Dec. 10, 11 and 12; but no store has been selected.

Parachute Jumpers Sought For Winter Carnival Here

1/5/60

A parachute-jumping demonstration, under discussion by the winter sports committee for several weeks, looked today as if it would be part of the 1960 winter carnival.

The committee agreed last night that if Miss Margaret L. Dobson, chairman of the jumping arrangements, could get performers at a reduced price, they would be scheduled.

Miss Dobson reported this morning that she thought two jumpers would agree to perform at the Pittsfield Airport from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Jan. 24 at the price set by the committee.

The winter sports group had almost eliminated the parachuting event last week when one jumper disclosed his price. But contracts are expected this week from two other men.

If negotiations are completed as expected, two men will make six jumps at the airport, weather permitting. They set up a target at the airfield and try to land on it, according to Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation.

In other business discussed last night, Sanford Bookless reported that plans for the winter carnival ball Feb. 12 were well under way. Mr. Bookless and Vincent Ruperto are chairmen .

William Litty submitted a report on carnival programs, which will be distributed at the various events.

Winter Sports Group Honors Mrs. Clemens

The Pittsfield winter sports committee paid tribute last night to Mrs. Richard J. Clemens of 298 Benedict Rd. for her outstanding work on past winter carnivals.

Mrs. Clemens is the former Joan M. Fahey of Dalton, who was employed as a recreation supervisor at the Department of Parks and Recreation until November, 1958.

She was presented with a sterling silver dresser set. Mrs. Clemens worked closely with the sports committee in its carnival preparations while she was with the Park Department.

The committee named Mrs. John L. Cantarella as chairman of the annual sports committee banquet. Reports of city skating and skiing meets and the ice-fishing derby were given by committee chairmen.

The sports car races scheduled to be held last Sunday, but postponed because of weather conditions, will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday at Onota Lake, weather permitting.

Sports Committee To Complete Plans For Carnival Ball

2/15/60

The winter sports committee of the Park Department will meet tonight at 8 in the Springside House to discuss plans for the Winter Carnival ball at the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel Friday. The new queen will be crowned at that time.

Plans for the annual banquet also will be discussed, according to George F. Maynard, committee chairman. A nominating committee will be appointed to bring in a slate for 1960-61.

Sports Committee Plans Smorgasbord For Annual Fete

2/23/60

A smorgasbord will be served at the annual banquet of the Pittsfield winter sports committee, it was announced today by Mrs. John L. Cantarella, chairman.

With Robert B. Deloye as toastmaster, the program will include swimming, music and special presentations.

Among the guests will be members of the Park Commission, the 1960 carnival contestants and their escorts, Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation and members of the press.

The banquet will be the final event of the current carnival season. Assisting Mrs. Cantarella are Miss Leonora Salterelli, Miss Olga M. Aulisio, Mrs. Richard J. Clemens and John C. Marchesi.

$1,200 Voted To Boys' Club Building Fund

4/6/60

Winter Sports Group Would Add $1,000 If Rink Is Built

A minimum gift of $1,200 was voted for the Boys' Club building fund by the Pittsfield winter sports committee at a special meeting last night.

The committee, which has been considering a donation to the fund for more than a month, decided to make an outright gift of $1,200 and add another $1,000 with strings attached.

William S. Litty, chairman for the 1960-61 season, said the extra $1,000 would be given in $500 amounts over the next two years if an indoor skating rink is included in the new Boys' Club. The gift was made in recognition of the importance of expanded facilities in the city, with the hope that the Boys' Club would see the value of a rink.

Primarily interested in supporting and encouraging winter sports, the committee has been particularly interested in the rink, which would make possible large-scale indoor meets here for the first time.

The Pittsfield Parks Speed Skaters currently travel to other communities during their regular season for indoor as well as outdoor competitions.

The building fund committee had indicated that the rink might be constructed if their drive went as high as $1,300,000, which it did. But they have not as yet been in a position to make a definite commitment on the skating area.

George (Doc) Maynard, winter sports chairman for the past season, had originally suggested an outright donation of $2,000.

Winter Sports Group May Aid Boys' Club Fund

3/14/60

It was suggested last night at the annual banquet of the Pittsfield winter sports committee that the group make a $2,000 donation to the Boys' Club building fund.

The recommendation was made by George (Doc) Maynard, outgoing chairman of the winter carnival planners, in his remarks following a smorgasbord at Eastover in Lenox.

The group agreed to postpone further discussion until the final business meeting of the 1959-60 carnival, scheduled for 8 p.m. March 14 at Springside House.

Treasury in Good Shape

Mr. Maynard's suggestion came after William P. Drummond, committee treasurer, said indications were that his final report would show the committee considerably in the black for the current season. He said he thought the winter sports group would wind up "about $1,500 to the good."

Added to $3,200 already in the savings account of the winter carnival sponsors, the expected surplus would bring a balance of $4,700, he said.

Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation recommended that a decision on the donation be postponed until the complete financial report was in.

About 85 persons attended the banquet, saw color slides of carnival activities taken by William Plouffe, and swam in the resort pool.

Gift Presented to Maynard

Robert B. Deloye, toastmaster, introduced head table guests. Mrs. John L. Cantarella, banquet chairman, presented Mr. Maynard a token gift for his year's services.

Also attending were Miss Kathleen Marby, new carnival queen; the other eight girls who competed for the crown, including Miss Linda R. Syrett, lady-in-waiting; members of the Park Commission; John C. Marchesi, recreation supervisor at the Park Department; and chairmen of carnival events.

Mr. Hebert reported that an estimated 7,000 spectators had watched this year's carnival events, with about 680 persons participating. He pointed out that weather casualties had been at a minimum, the only cancellation being the snow sculpture in Park Square.

Surplus of $1,375

3/14/60

Winter Carnival in Black Despite Cost of Over $8,000

The 1960 winter carnival cost more than $8,000, and the winter sports committee operated it in the black, it was learned today from William P. Drummond, treasurer.

Mr. Drummond will present his complete report on the committee's financial status at its final meeting at 8 p.m. today at Springside House.

He said this morning that almost $10,000 had been taken in from the various income sources of the carnival operation, providing a surplus of about $1,375.

The winter sports committee already has more than $3,000 in its savings bank account, accumulated in the surpluses of other carnivals.

Boys' Club Donation

One of the chief topics of discussion tonight will be the proposed donation of $2,000 to the Boys' Club building fund, which officially closed last week after surpassing its goal of $1,100,000 with apparent ease.

The winter sports group has a particular interest in the Boys' Club building plans, since it has been proposed that an indoor skating rink be built if enough money is available.

Such a rink would make it possible to hold indoor speed skating meets in Pittsfield. Currently, the sports committee sponsors the Berkshire Hills Speed Skating Meet and a city meet, both held outdoors.

Maynard's Suggestion

George (Doc) Maynard suggested at the annual banquet of the winter sports group two weeks ago that a donation be made. Action was postponed until the committee held an official business meeting.

In other winter activities, the Department of Parks and Recreation reported this morning that more than 300 children used the ski tows at Osceola playground and Clapp Park during the weekend.

Morewood, Cavaliers Top Parade Winners

By ARTHUR MYERS

Little old men, little dowagers, little apes, small but horrible pirates infested the streets of Pittsfield last night.

In weather that was colder than a witch's heart, hundreds of small fry—so awfully costmed that they terrified themselves—paraded from Park Square down North Street to Wahconah Park, in the annual Halloween parade designed to dissuade the kids from soaping up your windows, but which never does.

More Than Pols

The crowd was estimated by local crowd-estimating experts as considerably larger than either Nixon or Kennedy drew here. One unofficial guess tagged it as "upwards from 15,000."

Most horrible of the floats was a ship, the USS Halloween, conceived and executed by Morewood School.

Winner in the band department was the Cavaliers Drum and Bugle Corps.

Second and third places in the floats went to Mount Carmel's "Vote for Witch" and Redfield's "Devil's Kitchen," respectively.

Second and third-place band winners were the New Lebanon High School Band and the Berkshire Pipe Band, respectively.

Band Exhibitions

Exhibitions were given by two college bands and two professional bands. The college bands were from Holy Cross and the University of Massachusetts. The professional bands, which donated their services, were the Eagles Band and the Turnverein Band.

Some 55 youngsters received prizes of gift certificates for originality and awfulness of costume. A list of the winners will be published tomorrow in The Eagle.

Judges of the parade were ladies from Beta Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Missing from the half-hour parade was the usual GE monster, killed by the recent strike.

Parties Held

Parties and dances before and after the parade were held at the Catholic Youth Center, the Boys' Club and Girls Club and the Christian Center.

The college bands were entertained at a dance at St. Charles' School. Hostesses were nursing students from St. Luke's Hospital.

The parade was sponsored jointly by the Pittsfield Parks and Recreation Department and The Berkshire Eagle.

A POLITICAL MOTIF invaded last night's Halloween parade with this pitch for witch. Campaign workers are students from Mount Carmel School. They won second prize.

The Glory That Was . . .

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—11/3/60

The Department of Parks and Recreation and The Berkshire Eagle, sponsors of the annual Halloween parade, are to be credited this year with one of the city's finest.

However, out of the hundreds of people I could see, only one elderly man had enough love for his country to take off his hat when the American flag passed by. No one else did I see salute, remove his hat, or clap.

People want our country to be respected and loved. But one wonders how this can be when the American people have lost their own respect for "Old Glory."

Halloween Paraders Invited To See Capitol Cartoons

9-9-60

Youngsters who marched in the Halloween parade last week are invited to attend a special cartoon series at the Capitol Theater at 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

The theater doors will open at 10:15, and the movies are expected to run until 11:45 a.m., according to the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The Park Department has already distributed passes to most of the eligible children, but those lacking them may get tickets at Springside House this week.

Park Christmas Tree Lighting Program To Be Sunday Night

Lights on the community Christmas tree in Park Square will be lighted Sunday evening at 7:30 and will be followed by a program of Christmas carols by three local groups.

A Pittsfield Park Department spokesman said the lights will be turned on by Sue Ann Niederjohn, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kelly Niederjohn of 50 Putnam Ave. The Niederjohns donated the 40-foot tree.

A chorus from the Pittsfield Area Council of Churches led by Miss Barbara VanBramer will sing from 7:30 to 7:50. The Catholic Youth Center chorus, led by Mrs. John Reagan, will sing from 7:50 to 8:15. The one-hour program will be concluded with selections by the Berkshire Hillsmen, a 30-voice group from the local barbershop quartet society and led by Henry W. Hedges.

300 Attend Lighting of Park Yule Tree

A nine-year-old girl last night flicked the switch that lighted the big Christmas tree on Park Square in ceremonies sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The child was Sue Ann Niederjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kelly Niederjohn of 50 Putnam Ave. About 300 persons braved freezing temperatures to attend the annual event.

Three choirs provided carols. The groups were the junior-high fellowships of the First Methodist and First Congregational churches, the Catholic Youth Center and the Berkshire Hillsmen.

Halloween Planning To Get Under Way

The first planning session for the annual Halloween celebration will be held at 8 Friday at Springside House.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, today invited all civic groups and other interested parties to attend the meeting.

The citywide celebration is scheduled to start Oct. 30, which will be proclaimed trick-or-treat night by the mayor. The parade will be held at 7 on Oct. 31.

Halloween Planning Starts

Fourteen persons representing 10 different civic organizations met last night at Springside House to start planning the annual citywide Halloween celebration.

Louis J. Russo of 131 Ridgeway Ave. has been named general chairman of the committee. He has already initiated the yearly search for 100 marshals to work on parade night.

The parade will be held at 7 p.m. Oct. 31, on the customary route from Park Square along North and Wahconah Streets to Wahconah Park.

The committee last night discussed procedures for fire-proofing all floats and will issue regulations within a few days. Also under consideration is a change in the judging system for bands marching in the parade.

Halloween Plans To Be Discussed

Further plans for the citywide Halloween celebration will be made at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the cafeteria at North Junior High School.

Louis Russo, general chairman of the Halloween committee, has invited all interested persons to attend.

Sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, the annual festival includes trick-or-treat night Oct. 30 and a giant parade on Oct. 31.

Halloween Events Listed

Parties and contests for various age groups are being planned as sidelights to the 16th annual Halloween parade, which will be held here Oct. 31.

James E. Eulian, assistant chairman of the committee in charge of the citywide celebration has announced that parties will be given at the Boys' and Girls Clubs, the Catholic Youth Center and the Christian Center.

The committee held its second meeting at Springside House last night and again made a plea for 100 volunteers to marshal the parade.

Float Judging Rules

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said parade floats would be judged on the basis of theme (30 per cent), originality (20 per cent), effort (30 per cent) and costuming (20 per cent).

Sponsored by the Parks Department and the Berkshire Eagle, the parade will take the North Street route to Wahconah Park and will include a collection of floats assembled by youngsters in the city schools.

Lt. Alexander D. Sturgeon of the Fire Department has listed a number of precautions for those making floats.

He asked that papier mache or other fire-resistant material be substituted for real hay, corn stalks or straw. He said jack-o-lanterns and lights should be battery-operated and all evergreens properly fireproofed. All paper materials should also be fire-proofed, the lieutenant said.

Sheriff Is Grand Marshal

Sheriff J. Bruce McIntyre will be grand marshal for the parade, which is expected to include the Eagles, Turnverein, Pittsfield High, New Lebanon High and University of Massachusetts bands; and the Cavaliers, Monarchs, Imperials, Sky Hawks and Interstatesmen drum and bugle corps.

The annual pumpkin contest for children 5 to 11 years old will be held Oct. 29 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. at the Girls Club, sponsored by the Berkshire County Insurance Women and the Daughters of Lebanon, assisted by the Girls' Athletic Association of Pittsfield High. Judges will be from the Pittsfield Art League.

Trick-or-Treat Night Set for Sunday

Local residents have been given ample warning to stock their larders in preparation for the annual bombardment of spooks and witches.

Mayor Haughey yesterday proclaimed Sunday evening as the annual trick-or-treat night and urged Pittsfield adults to help the "happy hunters" in their Halloween rounds.

Halloween Parade

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

I immensely enjoyed Monday night's Halloween parade and considered it outstanding. The numerous bands were magnificent. But what seemed to dominate the parade were the children's floats.

I am beginning to wonder whether the absence of the spectacular floats of the General Electric Company, missing the first time this year, were responsible. It seemed to make the children's floats more enjoyable and more conspicuous.

This is not a criticism of the splendid GE floats but to emphasize the work also done by the children.

Boys' Club Members Going All Out for Halloween Parade

Busy Boys' Club youngsters this year will make a quadruple contribution to the annual Parks and Recreation Department parade Monday night. The club will enter a float, the Boys' Club Cavaliers will provide music in the line of march, about 300 club members in costume will march as a unit. When the parade is over, the Boys' Club will be the scene of the annual Halloween teen-age dance in the main gymnasium.

Halloween Plans Are Announced By Girls Club

The annual Halloween party will be held at the Pittsfield Girls Club tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 in the club gymnasium. Miss June Bowman, assistant director of the club, will be in charge.

The game room also will be open. There will be no regular classes tomorrow.

The regular Friday night junior high school dance will be held this week from 7 to 9:15 with those attending adhering to the usual regulations. The annual "hobo" dance for junior high school students will be Monday, following the Halloween parade from 8 to 9:30 p.m. At this special dance, those attending may come in costume or as they went to the parade.

Children 12 years of age and under who plan to attend the party must make reservations at the CYC by 5 Friday afternoon. All Monday afternoon and evening classes at the CYC will be canceled because of the party.

Halloween Party At Boys' Club To Be Monday

Fahey said today. Program director Jim Mooney is in charge of arrangements for the entertainment, which will precede the street parade in which club members will march as a unit in costume.

Included in the party program will be a full-length movie, door prizes, party games before the show, the traditional "chamber of horrors" and attractive prizes for the funniest, most original, scariets and silliest costumes. There will also be free popcorn. Boys must be in costume to be admitted to the party, Mooney advised today. Judges for the costume prizes will be Mrs. John Luzis, Mrs. Samuel Russo and Miss Vannie Boucar.

Following the movie the boys will group for their appearance in the parade.

the long-needed new city hall . . . A happy aspect of the Halloween season this year was a sharp reduction in the usual volume of vandalism around the county—attributable in large part, no doubt, to the fact that almost every community in the area now offers some type of organized activity to help let off the youngsters' steam . . .

. . . The Pittsfield Park Department rates a salute today for demonstrating that it's possible to put on a crowd-pleasing Halloween parade even in the absence of any spine-tingling monsters from GE . . .

THE SPRINGFIELD UNION, SPRINGFIELD, MASS., TUESDAY,

Award Winners, Timely Attraction in Pittsfield's

Boys Club Cavaliers, a junior drum corps sponsored by Boys Club Alumni, won first award at the 16th annual Halloween parade Monday night in Pittsfield. The youngsters who have been organized less than two years, have been furnished with colorful uniforms and proper instruments. They appear at all local events and have appeared out of town for many events and contests.

A timely attraction at the parade was a ballot box accompanied by voters who showed how the box is used. The ballot box in the center is Joyce Wilkes of Russell School. The voter on the left is Lynn Rand of Tucker School, and the voter on the right is Donna Almstead of Redfield School.

Procession of Horribles Attracts 15,000 Viewers

PITTSFIELD — In spite of a very slight drizzle the weatherman again cooperated with the kids of the city on their annual Halloween celebration sponsored by the Park and Recreation Department.

This was the 16th year and again this year there seemed to be more youngsters in costume, and more costumes that showed imagination.

For the first time in many years the Boys Club turned out en masse with about 350 youngsters in line in back of their prize-winning drum and bugle corps "The Cavaliers."

The parade got under way at seven with Sheriff J. Bruce McIntyre in a bright red coat in the lead. It took about 30 minutes for the 62 units to clear Park Square on the way to Wahconah Park where awards were announced.

First prize in float competition went to Morewood School with the USS Halloween. Second prize was given to Mt. Carmel School for its "Vote for Witch" float, and Redfields "Devils Kitchen" took third. "Spooks Cookout" from Crane took honorable mention.

The Boys Club Cavalier drum corps was judged winner in the music section with the Lebanon, N. Y., High School band in second place, and the Berkshire Pipers taking third. The bands from the University of Massachusetts and Holy Cross College were not candidates for prizes, nor was the Pittsfield-Troy, N. Y. Interstatesmen drum and bugle corps.

Gift certificates were given to 32 youngsters whose costumes caught the judges eyes as they marched along North St.

The crowd was as big as other years and was perhaps up to 15,000. Because of the strike, the annual GE "Monster," always a crowd pleaser, was absent.

After the parade and awards, there were many parties. The Redmen and Holy Cross contingents were entertained at St. Charles Church. There were parties at the Boys' Club, the Girls' Club, the Catholic Youth Center and the Christian Center for the younger participants, and there were some teen-age dances.

THE SCRAMBLE WAS ON for about two minutes yesterday afternoon as about 1,000 youngsters cleaned up after the Easter Bunny's visit. Fences restrained eager parents from helping their offspring. Leading the pack here is a boy stuffing eggs inside his shirt, an accepted practice since plastic eggs entered the picture. (Story on Page 1, Section 2.)

Annual Scramble for Eggs Attracts 1,000 Youngsters

Ideal weather was added yesterday afternoon to the annual scrambling of eggs, youngsters, parents and Easter outfits at Clapp Park.

It took about 90 seconds for more than 1,000 youngsters to swarm over the area like colorful locusts, collecting about 3,500 plastic eggs filled with jelly beans.

But it took considerably more time to reunite a number of wailing tots with their lost parents. The "orphans" were apparently also the youngsters who fared none too well in the competition. The successful hunters didn't seem to mind the absence of their wandering parents.

Jelly Beans to the Rescue

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, held up one tear-streaked child after another, called for jelly-bean reinforcements from the Easter Bunny and cautioned youngsters not to leave the area without their parents.

The event was sponsored by the Park Department and the Exchange Club. Special prizes, candy-crammed Easter baskets went to finders of black, gold, silver, largest and smallest eggs. The youngest hunter was Mark Litano of 23 Lincoln St., eight months old.

Clapp Park was dry and in prime condition for the hunt, which jammed traffic on West Housatonic Street for about a half hour.

Snow Sculpture Is Canceled— No Material

2/19/60

The weather played a trick today on the winter sports committee, but it was the first scheduled casualty of the current carnival.

The committee and the Department of Parks and Recreation announced yesterday that the snow sculpture in Park Square would not be built this year for lack of material.

Material was plentiful this morning, but time was scarce, so the sculpture will not be put up by William Beaulieu and his committee. A platform base has to be constructed for the sculpture, and the sculptors ordinarily spend the major part of a night working on the structure.

DR. TED QUINN writes to say the younger generation is all right, and in no way "irresponsible." Two of the pretty girl candidate for queen of the Winter Carnival work as nurse's aides at Springside Nursing Home; Judy Manson at West Branch and Dionne Phillips at North Branch, "They are kind, dependable and considerate," says he, "helping the nurses care for our sick oldsters." If they win both top spots in the contest, it will be just what the doctor ordered.

Miss Marby, titian haired Pittsfield High School student, was chosen Friday night by a panel of three judges, Miss Sunny Jennings of Schenectady, N. Y., Jerry Barnes of Springfield and Michael Rallis of Lee. Miss Syrett is lady-in-waiting by virtue of having sold the greatest number of Winter Carnival buttons during the pre-ball period.

Nearly 300 persons witnessed the procession of nine contestants in the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel ballroom, despite severe wintry weather conditions.

Other contestants were Miss Tina Sinopoli, Miss Sandra Dawley, Miss Judith Paladino, Miss Patricia Stiffler, Miss Fay Doyle, Miss Diane Phillips and Miss Judith Mansen.

Also introduced at the ceremonies were three former carnival queens, Mrs. James J. Lambert, Jr., 1952; Mrs. George F. Yannone, 1953; Mrs. David O'Leary, 1954; and Mrs. Rita Duval Beebe, 1959 lady-in-waiting.

A GENTLE LANDING is made by Nate Pond, one of the parachutists who will be here tomorrow afternoon in a winter carnival event at the Pittsfield Airport. Pond is an experienced jumper and competed last year in the world championships where the U.S. team placed second. Here he is making a practice sky dive.

Dogs, 'Chute Jumpers To Open 1960 Carnival

By RUTH HASKINS

Siberian huskies and parachute jumpers will entertain here this weekend as the Pittsfield winter sports committee stages its first major event of the 1960 carnival.

The huskies will provide sled-dog rides for children and adults today and tomorrow, and a parachuting team from Orange will perform at the Pittsfield Airport tomorrow afternoon.

Sled Rides Seem Assured

While bad weather might interfere with the jumping demonstrations at the airfield, the sled-dog rides will probably be offered regardless. A Berkshire winter provides no challenge for the huskies.

Two teams of sled dogs from Lake Placid, N.Y., will be at Clapp Park from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, offering rides to children for 50 cents and adults for $1.

The same teams, with 10 dogs on each sled, will be at the airport tomorrow from 1 to 4 p.m., if the parachuters go on as scheduled at 1:30 p.m. If the jumpers cancel, sled dog rides will again be provided at Clapp Park tomorrow afternoon.

While the dogs are entertaining on the ground, Nathan Pond, Dana Smith and Jim Blaisdell will start their performance from an altitude of 7,000 feet in the newest addition to the roster of winter carnival events.

Six free falls are on the program. The parachutists will delay opening of their chutes for 30 seconds, bringing them to an altitude of 2,000 feet.

Hold Smoke Signals

Pond says the six jumps will be split into three separate plane loads with two men leaving the plane simultaneously. They will hold smoke signals that make them plainly visible to the crowd below.

As they criss-cross paths during the 30-second free fall, the jumpers will be aiming for targets set up on the ground. Miss Margaret L. Dobson and Wallace A. Wing are chairmen of the event.

After the second series of jumps, the three men will set up their packing facilities and demonstrate how they pack their chutes, explaining the procedure over a loud speaker system.

One Commercial Pilot

Pond is vice president of Parachutes Inc. and is the most experienced member of the team. He has more than 300 free falls to his credit.

Formerly a member of the U.S. Air Force ski team, Pond holds a commercial pilot's license. He is a graduate of Cornell University.

Smith is currently president of the University of Massachusetts parachuting team and has 250 free falls on his record. Both men were members of the 1958 U.S. parachuting team that took second place in an international meet in Paris, competing against nine other countries.

Blaisdell is a relative newcomer to the sport of sky diving. He started jumping at the Sport Parachuting Center at the Orange Airport less than a year ago and has jumps to his credit. He is a student at Dartmouth College.

Orange Airport First

The Orange Airport was the first official parachuting center established in the country. It opened in May last year and features a closed circuit television, with huge telephoto lenses that allow spectators a close view of the entire performance of a jumper.

Lessons in jumping are given at Orange by licensed instructors. The relatively new sport has been catching on, and it is expected that the United States will have as many as 20 instructors by summer.

A United States team will compete in Bulgaria this year for the 1960 world championship.

The target is the black and white circle at lower left. Parachutist closer to the ground is Nathan Pond of Orange. Higher at upper right is Dartmouth College student Jim Blaisdell of San Francisco. Pond made the best mark of the day. On his second jump from an airplane 7,000 feet above the ground, he landed three feet from the 28-foot target. Approximately 2,000 watched the jumping.

Parachute Jumpers, Dog Sled Riders Get Perfect Weather

Parachute jumps and dog sled rides opened the 15th annual winter sports carnival yesterday afternoon at Pittsfield Airport. A crowd estimated at 2,000 was at the airport and on roads in the vicinity, causing a traffic jam and bumper-to-bumper movement of cars.

The weather was perfect for the three jumpers and the spectators. Nathan Pond, manager of the Orange Airport and veteran of more than 300 jumps landed just three feet from the 28-foot target on his second jump from 7,000 feet. James Blaisdell, a Dartmouth College student, landed about 50 yards from the target, and Peter Schaming of Albany, N. Y. came down in the brush about 100 yards away.

Spectators on the site and in the cars parked in the area could see the men bail out and fall free for 30 seconds. Only persons at the airport could see the landings. Pond's father, Sebastian, 59, who also jumped, flew the plane.

During the jumps free dog sled rides were given to children by two teams from Sears Kennels at Lake Placid, N. Y. and were driven by Frank and Dexter Sears. Miss Margaret L. Dobson and Wallace A. Wing were in charge of the events.

Carnival Ball Rescheduled To Feb. 19

The winter carnival ball has been rescheduled because of conflicting dates at the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel.

The Department of Parks and Recreation said this morning that the ball, originally set for Feb. 12, will be held at the Wendell on Feb. 19.

The winter sports committee had to change the date of the ball when the hotel discovered that two events had been inadvertently scheduled for the same evening.

The remaining event in the 1960 carnival program will be the crowning of a new queen at the Snowflake Ball to be held in the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel Feb. 19. The nine queen contestants had sold over 15,000 carnival buttons at last week's report and are all eligible for selection as queen. The one who has sold the largest number of buttons will automatically be lady-in-waiting to the queen, unless she herself is chosen queen, when the girl who sold the next largest number of buttons becomes attendant.

Saranac Lake Takes Commanding Lead in Berkshire School Ski Meet

First-Year Entry Wins Cross-Country and Slalom

Lenox School Is Distant Runner-Up, PHS Third—Competition Concludes Today With Downhill and Jumping

By LEE GOERLACH

A classy Saranac Lake (N.Y.) High School ski team easily took the first half of the Berkshire interscholastic meet yesterday at Pittsfield State Forest. They piled up 195.423 points. Second place Lenox School had 177.889 and Pittsfield was third with 174.355.

Saranac was first in the cross-country competition in the morning, receiving 96.765 points in that event. Pittsfield was second with 93.981, Lenox School next with 93.976 and Drury High of North Adams fourth with 86.222. Eaglebrook School, Williamstown High and West Springfield High finished fifth, sixth and seventh, respectively.

Hesselltine, Poole Triumph

Saranac took four of the top eight places in the slalom. Roger Hesselltine took top spot, Faker LaFountain, second; Doug Poole, it is a sure bet to take today's events, the downhill and jumping. Yesterday's events were the cross-country and slalom.

It is the first time the Saranac team has competed in the local event, and the consensus is that opinion is that it is a sure bet to take today's events, the downhill and jumping. Yesterday's events were the cross-country and slalom.

With the Olympic ski jump in near-by Lake Placid (10 miles from Saranac) and practice jumps in both towns, local prognosticators were predicting that Saranac will sweep the jumping this afternoon. The first event will be the downhill on the Shadow Trail this morning at 10. The jumping is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. on the USEASA approved jump adjacent to Lulu slope.

All eyes were on the Adirondack team, not only because of its ability but its matching outfits were the envy of every school present. The Saranac skiers were on the starting line in the morning with red cross-country suits and showed up for the afternoon competition in bright blue outfits with black and red stripped sweaters under insulated packets. Officials at first thought a new team had arrived.

Team Is Well-Supported

Hart's 17.29. Capt. Tom Clark of the PHS team was third. His time was 18.13. The next seven men and their times were: LaFountain, Saranac, 18.27; Barry Kellogg, PHS, 18.46; Hesselltine, Saranac, 18.48, David McLelland, Drury, 18.51; Chris Oakman, Lenox, 19.04; Evan Hendricks, PHS, 19.18; and Gordon Norton, Saranac, 19.19.

William Seely of PHS was third and Hart fourth in the slalom. Oleg Babikow, one of Pittsfield's hopes in the slalom, tied for 10th spot with Doug Adams of Westfield.

Sandra Walsh of Williamstown, was the only girl in the competition. She placed well in the first run of the slalom but failed to back track and finish the course when she missed a gate in the second run and thus disqualified herself.

Drury Girls To Compete

A team of girls from Drury High will compete in today's events.

Walter Burling of Kingswood lost a ski two-thirds of the way down the slalom course and finished on one ski to the delight of the spectators who gave him the biggest hand of the afternoon. He placed 41st in the field of 47 contestants. Gordon Norton of Saranac had to backtrack, and still managed to take 14th spot.

The top ten and their times in the slalom were: Hesselltine, 75.4; LaFountain, 75.8; Seely, 78.4; Hart, 79.2; Poole 79.6; McLelland, 80.8; Tony Plansky, Bennington Catholic, 81.6; Bill Donnelly, Saranac, 82.2; Oakman, Lenox, 82.8; Babikow, 84.6 and Adams, 84.6.

In the team standings, Drury was fourth with 168.788 points; Eaglebrook fifth, 145.211; Williamstown, 103.330; Kingswood, 75.909; West Springfield, 51.438; Westfield, 49.798; and Bennington Catholic, 42.511.

Coach Bob Moore said that the Saranac school allows them $2,000 a season for expenses. They also receive some support from the town.

The team, used to a five-mile cross-country course, completed the two and a half mile local run scarcely out of breath.

A close second to Poole in the cross-country was Paul Hart of Lenox. Poole's time was 17.07 and

Midget Champions Selected As Best in Competition

Frances Barbarotto, Owen Boyington Defeated in Skate-Offs for Trophies— Twenty-Two Events Run on the Common

By RUTH HASKINS

Two skaters in the midget class were judged outstanding competitors in the city skating meet last night on the Common.

Chosen were Susan Bienick, 11, of 19 Edward Ave., winner of the midget girls' trophy; and Joseph Kamienski, 10, of 1747 East St., winner of the midget boys' trophy.

Each Has 1st, 3rd

They will be rewarded with invitations to the Weymouth speed skating meet Feb. 27 and 28 as guests of the Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club.

Both skaters took a first and a third in the events for their age group, and had to skate off a tie for the trophies with Frances Barbarotto and Owen Boyington.

It is the first time outstanding competitors have been chosen in the meet, which is held annually for skaters not belonging to the speed skating club. The new award is designed to encourage up-and-coming skaters to join the club.

Two Classes Canceled

Heats and finals for 22 events were run. Lack of competitors caused elimination of events scheduled for senior and intermediate girls.

Trophies were presented by Miss Patricia A. Norton, queen of the 1959 winter carnival. Francis J. Zofrea and Carl Peaslee were chairmen for the winter sports committee.

Department of Parks and Recreation crews worked yesterday afternoon after 4:30 trying to get the ice in shape for the races, which started about 7 p.m. It was feared at noon yesterday that poor ice would bring postponement.

Louis O. Conway was clerk of course and chief judge. Other officials were Carl Peaslee, Irving Bull, Sumner Gamwell, Margaret Dobson and Willard Yeates, assistant judges; Roger Conway, referee; James Tobin, Willard Bridgham, Alice Cantarella and James Farry, timers; Patricia Peaslee and Brenda Deloye, scorers; Vincent J. Pittsfield Sends 23 Skaters to N.Y. Championships

Patti Smith won the junior girls' trophy in the New York State outdoor speed skating championships Saturday and yesterday at Port Henry, N.Y. The meet had been moved from Westport, N.Y., because of poor ice conditions there.

Patti had a first in the 880, a second in the 440, and a fourth in the 220. Other Pittsfield Parks speed skaters who did well were: Billy Farry, third and Jamie Lambert, fifth in both the Pee Wee Boys' 110 and 220; Nancijean Gillette, fifth in the midget girls' 220, 440 and one-sixth mile races, and Karen Downey, fifth in the special midget girls' one-sixth mile and 220.

Twenty-three skaters, accompanied by 11 adults, went from Pittsfield.

Adequate Weather Is Predicted For Berkshire Hills Speed Skating Races

Final preparations are being made for the Berkshire Hills Speed Skating championships this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon on the Common, and meet and park department officials say the races will be run, rain or shine.

Late weather reports last night predicted cloudy skies with temperatures in the thirties today. According to park personnel, these conditions will not affect the ice as long as the sun does not shine. However, a large area has been cleared on Onota Lake at the cove near the Thomas Island Causeway, and a one sixth mile lap track plowed opposite the boat landing in the event the Common ice does not hold up.

Registrations will be taken at Plunkett School this morning up until 11, and the races will begin at 1. Fifty-three events are listed for today, 25 of them finals. Tomorrow 39 events are scheduled, 20 of which are finals. The meet is under the supervision of the New York State Skating Assn. A supper will be served tonight beginning at 5:30 at Pittsfield High School cafeteria for both skaters and skiers who have been competing in the winter sports events. The supper is being prepared by the Pittsfield American Legion Auxiliary, and plans call for feeding 400.

Applications have been received from about 350 speed skaters from five states representing 32 clubs. The Saratoga Winter Club will have the largest representation, with 36 of its 50 members competing.

The Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club will enter 19 of its members, 10 girls and nine boys. Alex Goguen and Jimmy (Mouse) Brown, both of Pittsfield, will also compete, but they are unattached. A large percentage of the Pittsfield club entries will be in the younger groups, and will gain valuable experience, which will help make a stronger local club in the coming years.

Sumner Gamwell and Jim Tobin are the co-chairmen in charge of the arrangements. Louis Conway is the meet director.

PITTSFIELD SPEED SKATERS Marilyn Gaviorno, left, and Glen Zofrea, right, will be trying to score some points for the local club in the Berkshire Hills speed skating championships this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon at 1 on the Common. Glen skates in the junior division, and Marilyn is in the juvenile class.

Springside Skating Is Expected Today

Springside Park pond may be opened again today for skating.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said maintenance crews were at work until late last night getting the rink ready.

If expected low temperatures hold, the ice will be back in condition for weekend skating.

4,000 Skaters On City Rinks Over Weekend

1/11/60

About 4,000 skaters used five city rinks during the weekend, it was reported this morning by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The biggest skating weekend to date this winter saw areas open at the Common, Springside and Clapp parks, West Memorial playground and Osceola playground.

Some 6,500 skaters used rinks during the entire week. Crews were working on Clapp, West Memorial, Deming and the Common today.

The telephone answering service for skating and skiing information on city areas has been installed at Springside House and will provide daily reports. The number is Hi 8-8274.

The winter sports committee meets tonight at 8, with progress reports from committee chairmen.

Rain Closes Skating Areas

1/4/60

City skating areas were still closed today, but the Department of Parks and Recreation reported a successful weekend at skiing and sliding slopes.

One of the largest crowds ever to use the beginners' ski tow at Osceola playground was counted Friday, with about 190 youngsters at the area Friday and Saturday. The tow at Clapp operated Saturday.

About 1,000 children used the supervised sliding areas at Springside Park and Clapp Park Friday and Saturday. The larger group was at Clapp.

The Springside skating area was open Saturday for about a thousand skaters. Rains closed it Sunday, and the ice was in poor condition today.

The Park Department also announced that the regular meeting of the winter sports committee would be held at 8 p.m. today at Springside House.

City Skating Rinks Being Cleared

1/13/60

Plowing crews were at work this morning clearing snow from skating rinks at Springside Park and the Common.

Barring a change from snow to rain, the Department of Parks and Recreation expected to have both areas open this afternoon and tonight.

The Park Department also planned to work on rinks at Osceola, Deming and West Memorial playgrounds and Clapp Park this afternoon, with possible opening of the four skating rinks tonight.

Skating Rink Work Resumed

1/5/60

Around-the-clock skating rink crews were expected to be at work tonight on five different areas in the city.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said work would be done on skating rinks at Springside and Clapp, Osceola playground, the Common and the Pittsfield High School hockey pen.

The crews will flood the areas even if it snows this afternoon, unless the snowfall is too heavy. Bad weather conditions will mean calling off the rink work, Mr. Hebert said.

City Seeks Instructor in Figure-Skating

1/12/60

A figure-skating instructor is needed by the Department of Parks and Recreation to run the annual program of classes, it was announced today.

Applications may be made at Springside House. An instructor had been secured by the Park Department, but the teacher recently acquired a full-time job.

Another skating area, the rink at Deming playground, opened this afternoon and will be supervised from 6:30 to 9 p.m. today as well. Five areas already open include Osceola and West Memorial playgrounds, the Common and Clapp and Springside parks.

Crews worked on the ice at Root playground last night, but it was not ready for skaters today.

50 Applicants

The Park Department also said that 50 applications had been received for the adult skiing classes, to start at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Bousquet's Ski Area.

Additional applications will be accepted. Skiers should be prepared to pay the $10 fee for the lessons at the first class. They will receive an hour's instruction each week and two hours on the tows.

Three City Rinks Open for Skating

1/7/60

Skating rinks at Springside Park, Oscella playground and the Common were opened today by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Supervised hours for the afternoon and evening were 3:30 to 5 and 6:30 to 9. Crews are still working on the Clapp Park rink.

If the weather permits, there will be three skating sessions at Springside Park today, the Park Department announced.

Skating hours will be 10 a.m. to noon, 1 to 5 p.m., and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Skating—If

1/15/60

Six skating areas will be open here this afternoon and tonight if the weather stays the same as it was at noontime.

John C. Marchesi, recreation supervisor at the Department of Parks and Recreation, said at noon that the light rain was not damaging the ice.

Areas will be opened at Springside and Clapp Parks, Osceola, Deming and West Memorial playgrounds and the Common.

Six City Rinks Open for Skating

1/14/60

Six areas are open for skating in the city today, the Department of Parks and Recreation announced this morning.

Rinks at Springside and Clapp parks, the Common and West Memorial, Deming and Osceola playgrounds will be supervised from 3:30 to 5 and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Weather permitting, crews will flood the Common and Root playground rinks again tonight. It was expected that another day's work would prepare the Root area for skating.

About 70 adults are registered for ski classes that start tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Bousquet's Ski Area under Park Department sponsorship. For a $10 fee, adults will get five one-hour lessons and two-hour use of the tows.

West Memorial Rink Is Open for Skating

1/19/60

The skating rink at West Memorial playground is scheduled to open today, weather permitting, it has been announced by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

If the weather holds, skating prospects for the weekend will be excellent. Rinks at Springside Park, Osceola playground and the Common will also be open and supervised.

Two Skating Rinks Cleared of Snow

1/19/60

Skating rinks at Springside Park and the Common were cleared by Department of Parks and Recreation crews today and opened this afternoon.

Both areas will be supervised from 6:30 to 9 tonight. If the snow has been cleared off, rinks at Clapp Park and West Memorial, Deming and Osceola playgrounds will also be opened tonight.

Warming House Gets Too Warm

1/25/60

In one of two fires reported here this weekend, a blaze which started in the rear wall of the warming house at Clapp Playground extensively damaged the one-story wooden structure.

Firemen put out the blaze with a booster line Friday afternoon, but were unable to determine what caused the fire.

Yesterday morning firemen were called to put out a blaze in a light fixture on the first floor of a two-story frame house at 31 Whipple St. The Fire Department said water leaked from an upstairs bathroom into ceiling wiring in a pantry below. The house is occupied by Mrs. Maria Guinan and her three children.

An engine was also called to 900 East St. Saturday night when steam coming from the radiator of a car owned by Frederick Martin of 48 West Housatonic St. was mistaken for smoke. There was no fire.

SKATING was superb, if a mite cool, last weekend at Springside Park. Many children and some adults were there.

Skating

THE MANY PONDS and lakes in the Berkshires are available for ice skating for those who bring their snow shovels along. In addition there are several areas kept clear by park departments or else flooded especially for skating.

In Pittsfield, Springside and Clapp parks, Deming and Osceola playgrounds, fields at West Memorial Park and South Junior High School and the Common are flooded for public skating. In addition, the Park Department clears the Thomas Island Cove at Onota Lake for speed skaters and the Pittsfield High School hockey pen is open to the public when the hockey team is not using it.

Williams College maintains an outdoor rink which is open to the public on weekends every Friday evening from 7:30 to 9:30, except Fridays Feb. 12, 19 and 26; every Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 and evening from 7:30 to 9:30. There is public skating Saturday afternoon on Jan. 23, Feb. 13, Feb. 20 and Feb. 27; Saturday evening Feb. 6; and both afternoon and evening on Jan. 16 and Jan. 30. Adults 50 cents, children 25.

In Great Barrington, the popular place for skating is Lake Mansfield. There is no supervision and there is a danger of thin ice. There are also small rinks near Dewey School and on Memorial Field near Searles High School.

In the Lee-Lenox area, there is skating on Laurel Lake, Perkins Pond and the Housatonic River cove in Lee, but these are not always safe.

Skating rinks are maintained and open to the public at Happyland in Becket and Oak n' Spruce in South Lee. An admission fee is charged at these two places.

Big Crowds Use Winter Facilities Over Weekend

1/25/60

The Park Department reported today that larger than usual crowds of skiers and skaters visited the city's six winter recreation areas over the weekend.

More than 3,500 skaters were counted during the weekend, bringing the week's total to 7,800. Some 300 children used the sliding area and children's ski tow at Clapp Playground.

The young-adult tow at Osceola Playground was out of commission throughout the entire weekend because of a broken shaft in the drive mechanism. It was to be repaired today.

Skating today was reported at Springside Park, the Common, Clapp, Deming, Osceola and West Memorial playgrounds. Hours are from 3:30 to 5 and 6:30 to 9.

Coltsville Assn. Seeks Members; Meeting Tonight

2/1/60

President Robert A. Vittone of the Coltsville Community Assn. issued an appeal for more members in announcing a meeting for tonight at 8 in the Community House on Hubbard Avenue.

"We are still trying to set up a recreation center at our association house for the teen-age group," Mr. Vittone said. "All who are interested in this project are invited to attend tonight's meeting or to get in touch with us later."

Through the efforts of association members and with the cooperation of Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of parks and recreation, Coltsville now has an ice skating rink. The rink, equipped with flood lights and a warming house, is at West Memorial Playground.

9,000 Use City Rinks in Week

More than 9,000 skaters used city rinks during the past week, it was reported this morning by the Department of Parks and recreation.

The grand total from Jan. 25 through yesterday was 9,130 skaters at the six areas prepared by the Park Department.

The winter sports committee weekly meeting is at 8 p.m. today at Springside House. Reports on the week's carnival events will be given, and the program for the rest of the carnival will be discussed.

Mrs. Carl E. Peaslee, chairman of the Snowflake Hop at the Boys' Club following the Berkshire Hills speed skating championships, said today that 400 teen-agers had attended the dance.

Prizes Awarded

Two local and two visiting skaters were among the winners of contests at the dance. Mary Tosi of Hartford and Bruce Albert of Levittown, N.Y., were awarded first place in the waltz contest. Candy Procopio and William De Fazio of Pittsfield won the jitterbug contest.

Skater Patti Smith and her partner, Edward Spence, took second in the jitterbug. Mr. and Mrs. William P. Drummond and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stiles were judges.

City Rink Skating Season Ended by February Thaw 3/2/60

The February thaw melted chances of a record winter season for city-sponsored skating, it was reported today by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Despite a late start, city skating rinks were used by more than 41,000 persons this season, Supt. Vincent J. Hebert said. Last winter's total was 43,000.

Mr. Hebert said 19 consecutive days of skating were provided at rinks at Springside and Clapp parks, the Common Osceola, Deming and West Memorial playgrounds.

Season Closes Today

The Park Department's winter season officially closed yesterday, but crews will continue to maintain the ice at Thomas Island Cove on Onota Lake as long as possible.

"Our over-all snow season was exceptionally successful this year," Mr. Hebert said. He said the February thaw had knocked out rinks at Springside and the Common, last year's biggest skating areas.

Free ski tows at Osceola playground and Clapp Park were operated 27 days this winter, compared with eight last season.

The ski programs at Bousquet's Ski Area drew 1,000 children this year and 450 adults, compared with about 700 youngsters and 150 adults last year.

Instruction at Springside

Mrs. Winthrop Gutmann Sr. took care of an overflow of about 60 youngsters from the Bousquet's program with after-school instruction at Springside Park, Mr. Hebert said.

With its new portable warming shelter, West Memorial playground had skating for 23 days, compared with two days last winter, he said. The number of days also increased at Osceola playground and Clapp Park.

Park Department crews took care of the first flooding operation for the Pittsfield High hockey rink, which was then maintained by the team members.

The skating season started Dec. 23, 12 days after it opened in 1958.

Skating Rinks Being Prepared By Park Dept. 12/15/60

Skating rinks on the Common, Springside Park and in the rear of Pittsfield High School, for hockey, are being prepared by employes of the Parks and Recreation Department.

An announcement from the department said that it was hoped to have the rink at the Common open by Saturday. Some difficulties have been encountered at Springside because of sticks and stones having been tossed onto the first ice, and they have had to be dug out.

Ski tows at Clapp and Osceola parks will operate this week end.

Skater Injured 2/2/60

A 12-year-old skater fell at the Springside Park rink last night and chipped a bone in her knee.

Dorothy Samitt of 36 Montgomery Ave. was taken to Pittsfield General Hospital in the police ambulance for treatment of a possible fractured leg. But X rays disclosed that the girl had not suffered a fracture.

Rising Temperatures Halt Flooding Crews 2/4/60

Rising temperatures stopped work on the city skating rinks before noon today, but the Department of Parks and Recreation expected to have several areas ready for the weekend.

Only the rinks at Clapp Park and Osceola playground will be open today. Work will resume at Springside, Deming, West Memorial and the Common when the temperature drops.

Park Dept. Backtracks, Reopens Winter Season 3/5/60

The Department of Parks and Recreation, which closed its winter season Tuesday, succumbed last night to the snowstorm.

It announced that the ski tows at Osceola Playground and Clapp Park would be open and supervised from 1 to 5 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Thin Ice Warning Issued by Chief 3/16/60

Chief Thomas H. Calnan warned today that parents should keep their children off thin ice on lakes and ponds in the area.

Following an emergency call yesterday, officers chased a number of children off dangerously thin ice at the pond behind the tannery on West Housatonic Street.

Skating Today On Five City Rinks 1/29/60

There will be skating at five city rinks today, John Marchesi of the Department of Parks and Recreation said at noon.

Supervised skating will be held at Springside, Osceola, Clapp, Deming and West Memorial. There will be no skating today at the Common.

No Skating Today 2/9/60

There will be no skating today on any of Pittsfield's public rinks, the Department of Parks and Recreation announced this noon.

According to Park Department figures, a total of 935 people used the four skating areas which were open to the public last week. Osceola and Clapp skating areas were open simultaneously three days; the Common and Clapp, open one day each. A "heat wave" Thursday ruined the ice on all areas, so that none of the rinks was open to the public.

Both ski tows at Osceola and Clapp playgrounds were open to the public over the weekend. Use of the tows by only 50 people was attributed to poor weather conditions.

There will be a meeting of the Winter Sports Committee tonight at 8 in Springside House.

Skating Rinks Being Prepared By Park Dept. 12/15/60

Skating rinks on the Common, Springside Park and in the rear of Pittsfield High School, for hockey, are being prepared by employes of the Parks and Recreation Department.

An announcement from the department said that it was hoped to have the rink at the Common open by Saturday. Some difficulties have been encountered at Springside because of sticks and stones having been tossed onto the first ice, and they have had to be dug out.

Ski tows at Clapp and Osceola parks will operate this week end.

Rinks To Be Cleared When Winds Die Down 2/15/60

High winds prevented Department of Parks and Recreation crews from working on skating rinks today, but clearing will start as soon as the weather calms down.

Rinks at Springside Park and on the Common will be cleared, and the Thomas Island Cove area at Onota Lake will be kept open for skating.

The Park Department doesn't flood skating areas after Feb. 15, so no additional work at other city rinks is planned this year.

Skaters Sell JUL 1 1960

Members of the Pittsfield Parks Speedskating Club are trying to raise money fo rnext winter's expenses by operating a booth at the Firemen's Muster at Wahconah Park. They're offering varied large stuffed animals and felt cowboy hats.

Five Skating Rinks Opened for Tonight 12/30/60

Five city skating rinks are scheduled to be in operation from 6:30 to 9 p.m. today, it was announced at noon by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The Park Department closed all skating areas at 5 p.m. yesterday when snow began to accumulate. But the ice cleared last night.

Rinks open today under supervision were those at Springside and Clapp parks, Deming and Osceola playgrounds and the Common. They also operated from 1 to 5 this afternoon. If the cold weather holds, they will be open during the weekend.

Excellent Weather Brings Out Large Crowd to Speed Skating Meet

Kathy Harrington Awarded Outstanding Skater Plaque

Veteran Ray Blum Wins Senior Men's Five Mile To Take Exchange Club Trophy— Bobby Fenn High Scorer With 5 Firsts

By BILL MAHAN

Excellent weather from a spectator's point of view brought out an estimated 2,000 people Saturday and yesterday afternoons to watch the 15th annual Berkshire Hills speed skating championship meet, most of which was run at the cove on Onota Lake. The event began on the Common Saturday, but a combination of heavy traffic and sunshine made the rink unfit for racing so it was moved to the lake.

Syracuse Girl Wins Plaque

Kathy Harrington, a 17-year-old senior at St. Anthony's High School in Syracuse and a member of the Syracuse Speed Skating Club, was awarded The Berkshire Eagle plaque for the outstanding skater of the meet. She was top point scorer in the intermediate girls' division with a perfect score of four firsts in four events.

The pert skater has been competing in meets for eight years. She was national indoor and outdoor champion in 1957, and this year has also topped her class in the Lake Placid and Eastern States meets.

Veteran skater Ray Blum, now living in Chicopee Falls, a member of Grossinger's club of New York, won the senior men's five-mile race, which brought him the Exchange Club trophy. This event was one of the most exciting of the meet as Blum flashed over the finish line with Fred Bruckner of Grossinger breathing down his neck. The two had been up in front with a group of about seven for the entire race, but poured it on in the bell lap to pull away from the field.

Blum is a 40-year-old electrical engineer, who looks much younger. He has been racing since 1941 and says he will keep it up "as long as it's fun." He explained that he is curtailing his activities some this year and probably will lessen his racing as time goes on.

Bobby Fenn of Grossinger's, was tops in the intermediate class, and the meet high scorer with five firsts in five events.

Other winners in each of the divisions were: Senior men, Don Beam, Grossinger's; senior women, Darlene Sechanic, Concord Skating Club; junior boys, Jackie Walters, Bay State Skating Club; junior girls, Judy Kendrick, Bay State; juvenile boys, Bob Leto, Wollman Skating Club; juvenile girls, Jeanne Brusso, Saranac Lake Skating Club; special midget boys, Dave Dunlap, Saratoga Skating Club; special midget girls, Susan Bradle, unattached; midget boys, Charles Russo, Flushing Meadows Skating Club; pee wee boys, Mike Merrill, Saratoga; pee wee girls, Donna Sue Levy, Wollman.

Merrill and Bill Taylor of Willow Brook tied on points in the pee wee class, and Merrill won a 220 yard skate-off for the trophy, when Taylor fell in the back stretch.

Patti Smith Lone Scorer

Patti Smith was the only member of the Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club to score. She had a fourth Saturday in the junior girls 220, and a third yesterday in the 440. Alec Goguen of Pittsfield who is unattached took fourths Saturday in the senior men's 440 and 880.

The local club entered 19 in the meet, nine of whom were pee wees. Club officials felt that their neophytes gained valuable experience.

Louis Conway was meet director, and Sumner Gamwell and James Tobin chairmen in charge of arrangements. Parks Supt. Vincent J. Hebert said he thought it was the best meet ever held here, and was high in his praise of the officials who made the unscheduled change of location from the Common to Onota with the minimum of delay and confusion.

The starting time yeterday was moved up an hour, to noon. The last race ended at 3:30.

The American Legion Auxiliary served a ham and baked bean supper to 450 of the competitors, officials, and supervisory personnel Saturday night at Pittsfield High cafeteria. All were fed by 7:30.

TROPHY WINNERS, Kathy Harrington and Ray Blum had reason to smile yesterday at the close of the 15th annual Berkshire Hills speed skating championships at Onota Lake. Kathy took the intermediate girls' trophy with four firsts in four events, and The Berkshire Eagle plaque for outstanding skater of the event. Blum won the Exchange Club trophy, which goes to the senior man who is first in the five-mile race, the longest distance event of the meet.

WINNING FORM of Faker LaFountain of the Saranac Lake (N.Y.) High School team was caught by Eagle photographer Eugene Mitchell. Mitchell had to crouch underneath the jump takeoff to get picture. LaFountain was named skimeister of the two-day Berkshire interscholastic meet at the Pittsfield State Forest. He won the downhill and jumping events Saturday after taking second in the slalom and fourth in cross-country Friday.

New Awards To Be Made At City Meet

Outstanding Pair To Get Free Trip To Weymouth Event

Outstanding boy and girl awards, a new feature in the city skating meet, Wednesday night at 7 on the Common, will be given to a boy and girl, who will be selected by three judges following the races. The award will be made on the basis of sportsmanship, ability and interest in the sport of speed skating.

The Pittsfield winter sports committee consented to the special award in order to promote local speed skating. The prize will be a free trip with the Pittsfield club to the Weymouth meet March 12-13. The Weymouth event is one of the largest in the East. To make the trip, the winner must receive parental consent.

Another feature of the meet will be a speed skating exhibition by members of the local club. This exhibition has not been presented in recent years because of conflicts between the city competition and out of town championships in which the local club has competed.

Entries for the meet will close Monday night at 5. Blanks may be obtained at any of the city's six skating areas and at the Boys' Club, Girls Club and the Catholic Youth Center. There will be six classes, and skaters of any age may enter.

300 Skaters Are Expected To Compete In Berkshire Hills Meet on Jan. 30, 31

By RUTH HASKINS 1/22/60

Three hundred entries are expected for the Berkshire Hills speed skating championships that will be held here Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 30 and 31, if ice conditions are good.

The Department of Parks and Recreation has received 123 entries to date from competitors in Massachusetts, New York State and Connecticut.

Slated for Common

The meet is scheduled on the Common at 1 p.m. both days. If ice on the Common is not good enough, the meet will be moved to Thomas Island Cove at Onota Lake.

Chairmen for the winter sports committee are Sumner Gamwell and James Tobin. Louis O. Conway will be meet director.

Among the competitors will be 20 of the 30 members of the Pittsfield Parks Speed Skating Club, with 15-year-old Patti Smith rated as the best skater in the group.

Patti will be skating in the junior girls' division again this year. She was Pittsfield's only winner in the Berkshire Hills meet here last year.

Goguen and Brown

Alex Goguen and Jimmy (Mouse) Brown, both of Pittsfield, are expected to enter the meet. The two veteran skaters, competing in the senior men's division, skate independently.

Twelve-year-old Johnny Wurster of Ballston Spa, N. Y., who won The Eagle trophy last year as outstanding skater of the meet, will be returning this season. He has moved from the midget division to the junior.

Ray Blum of Chicopee Falls and Don Bean of Binghamton, N.Y., will be leading contenders in the senior men's section. Other men and boys competing include Fred Buckner of Astoria, N.Y., Ronnie Taksar of Hartford, Joe Tosi Sr. of Warehouse Point, Conn., and Robert Steenson of College Point, N. Y.

Grind Is Climax

In the junior girls' division from Pittsfield are Glennie Zofrea and Pat Madden. Skating as juveniles will be Marion Gaviorno and Linda Morrison.

The climax of the meet will be the grueling five-mile race for senior men. At the Common, the race takes the men around the rink about 30 times.

Among trophies awarded at the meet is one given by the Exchange Club to an outstanding performer. Ray Blum won the trophy last year.

Saranac Scores Sweep In Berkshire Ski Meet 2/1/60

By LEE GOERLACH

The outstanding Saranac Lake (N.Y.) High team, which piled up a commanding lead Friday in the Berkshire interscholastic ski meet at the Pittsfield State Forest, continued to sweep events Saturday. The winners walked off with every gold medal, all four trophies and the skiemeister award.

PHS Is Third

Saranac piled up 385.60 points n the two-day event. Second place Lenox school earned 350.07, and Pittsfield High took third with 343.32.

Faker LaFountain of the Adirondack club turned in the outstanding performance to earn the skiemeister award. He won both the downhill and jumping events Saturday after placing second in the slalom and fourth in cross-country Friday.

Saranac took four of the top eight places in the downhill. LaFountain's first-place time was 66.6. His teammate Doug Poole, was second with 68.6. Gordon Norton and Bill Donnelly of the New York team, placed fifth and eighth, respectively.

Paul Hart of Lenox was third; Tom Varanka of PHS, fourth; David McClelland of Drury High, sixth, and Evan Hendricks of PHS, seventh. Teddy Bonnivier and Collin Garstang, members of the sponsoring Mount Greylock Ski Club, foreran the course.

LaFountain's winning jump was 61 feet. Gus Hart of Hotchkiss had the longest jump, 63 feet. Form counts as well as distance, and he placed third in the final tabulation. Hoby Terhune of Housatonic Regional School was second. His longest jump was 59 feet.

Wiessner a Favorite

Hendricks jumped 57 feet in the practice jumping which preceded the competition, but failed to do better than 54 feet in the finals. He placed 11th in the field of 30.

"Mighty-Mite" Wiessner, son of the Falline Wax manufacturers, a 13-year-old from pre-prep Eaglebrook School, was one of the favorites of the spectators in the jumping event. He received cheers from the crowd every time his diminutive form came sailing over the jump. He ended in 29th place. His best jump was 45 feet.

Members of the winning team have been training since early November, hiking five miles a day and doing calisthenics for an hour. They ski on Whiteface Mountain at least twice a week.

Coach Bob Moore said competition is tougher in New York State. They have divided honors so far this season with near-by Lake Placid High, described by one of the team as their "arch rival." Moore used to coach the Placid team. Placid was unable to compete in the local event because of exams Friday.

Scouts Search In Vain for Stolen Telescope

JUN 28 1960 ✓

Last night 100 Boy Scouts from Pittsfield troops hunted unsuccessfully in Springside Park for the telescope stolen the weekend of June 18 from the Department of Parks and Recreation Observatory.

The scouts were from: Troop 2, First Baptist Church, under the direction of Richard Allard; Troop 10, Lutheran Church, with Edward Tooley; Troop 14, First Congregational Church; Troop 16, Trinity Methodist Church, with Bernard Wood; Troop 44, Immanuel Community Church; and Troop and Pack 47, Christian Center, with Frederick Glander. Winsor Martin of the Berkshire Council Boy Scouts Activities committee directed the search.

The scouts separated into three groups and walked at arms' length through the entire area behind Springside House, in back of North Junior High and in the woods above the Springside Playground area. The scouts scouted the area from 7 until dark to no avail.

Moon Eclipse Fails To Rouse Drowsy City

6/6/60

The eclipse of the moon came and went in Pittsfield with an apparent minimum of fuss and public consternation.

It came, on schedule, Monday morning at 5:30, right in the middle of the long weekend.

Most of Pittsfield's astronomical experts seemed to be out of the city today, so a general authoritative report could not be obtained. However, Bartlett Hendricks, science curator of the Berkshire Museum, had his enthusiasm well under control today.

"There's usually one or two eclipses of the moon every year," he said, admitting he didn't roll out to see this one.

Nobody watched the eclipse through the telescope at Springside Observatory, chiefly because somebody stole the telescope last June. However, Parks and Recreation Department Supt. Vincent J. Hebert said a new telescope is on order with the insurance money obtained from the disappearance of the old one, and will be installed shortly. He added that he had heard that telescopes weren't much good for watching eclipses of the moon, anyway.

Do-Si-Do in the Lenox Gym

Get along home with the pretty little thing,
You son-of-a-gun, now face the middle.
Swing your lady, do-si-do.
Have I told you lately that I love you?
Well, darling, I'm telling you now.

By ARTHUR MYERS

The above is a freely recorded version of a square dance caller's chant, heard last Friday night at the Berkshire Square Dance Association's annual Calico Ball.

The words may not be poetry, but they have a meaning all their own, decipherable by the dedicated square dancers that swing their partners and other things regularly all over the county.

And whatever the tune might be lacking as a serious piece of musical literature, it makes up in rhythm. It's got more rhythm than Gershwin.

Gospel Spreading

Square dancers are evangelists, of a sort. They want everybody to get out and make a joyful noise, just like themselves. And during the past few years their gospel has been spreading. Some eight square dance clubs now swing it in Berkshire County, about 225 couples. Their annual big do is the Calico Ball, held this year in the Lenox High School gym.

For this they imported a star caller, Dick Leger of Warren, R.I. Twanging his guitar like Elvis Presley, without the grinds and bumps, Leger last Friday night gave the association a three-hour workout. A tall, dark, handsome man in his 30s, Leger does this as a hobby, although he's made recordings and it's probably a profitable one. In real life, he's a lace draftsman. And if you read to the end of this story you'll find out what a lace draftsman is.

All sorts of people go crazy over square dancing. Engineers, detectives, businessmen, housewives, lace draftsmen.

The 50-odd couples who came to the Calico Ball all seemed to be experts. Few feet were stepped on. But the individual clubs cater to dancers of varying degrees of proficiency. They have classes for beginners and intermediates, as well as children.

The go by such exotic names as "The Catch-All Eights," "The Quadrille Club," "The South Congo Squares," "The Cross-Trailers." (The South Congo Squares, incidentally, don't really come from the South Congo; they come from the South Congregational Church.)

Capt. Barry Is President

President of the association is Michael P. Barry, captain of detectives on the Pittsfield police force. Vice president is Austin (Audie) Gaylord, a salesman. Gaylord does some calling himself, as do other aficionados, such as Dick Agar, Reggie Rigney, Ed Wylde, George Osgood, and Allan Macy.

Gaylord credits the current boom in square dancing to the infiltration of the Western style. In this style, all couples keep moving practically all the time. In the Eastern style, there's what they call the "visiting couple" pattern.

As Gaylord puts it, "The visiting couple will be doing something and the others will stand around like dummies, like in bridge." The Western style, apparently, gives everybody a chance to get into the act all the time.

Most of the dancers are married couples. Many of them are in their 30s, but the total membership ranges upward and downward in age.

They have fun.

Dick Leger sings:

All the women under 40 yell!!
Up goes a mass scream.
All the men under 40 yell!
A loud shout.

P.S. A lace draftsman designs ladies' underwear. No kidding.

Myers

Oleg Babikow, 18-Year-Old PHS Senior, Wins First Bousquet's Ski Cup Race

Collin Garstang Finishes Close Second in Slalom

Evan Hendricks and Bill Martin Place Third and Fourth—Field of 160 Called Biggest in Berkshire History

By BILL TAGUE

The first Bousquet's Cup Race, described by veteran officials as the largest competition ever conducted in the Berkshires, was won yesterday by an 18-year-old Pittsfield High senior who first went skiing only five winters ago.

Lithe and handsome Oleg Babikow flashed and snaked down the grand slalom course in 51 seconds flat to make the best time in a field of 160. His name will be engraved on the Bousquet's Cup.

14-Year-Old Leads

Collin Garstang, a North Junior High ninth-grader and a skier since age of 5, had the best time until Oleg's run. Starting 20 places earlier, 14-year-old Collin zipped through the finish gate in 51.6, a maddening six-tenths of a second too slow. The older youth was one of the last to come down the sun-splashed hillside.

Also quite close were the next two bidders for the best time. Evan Hendricks, 18, a frequent winner

Tague

Second in Slalom
Collin Garstang

in local competition, was clocked at 52.8 seconds. Bill Martin, 13, who recently won a giant slalom race at Belleayre in the Catskills, came in with a timing of 53.2 seconds. Garstang was fourth in that race at Belleayre.

Garstang won the trophy for winning the 13-15 age class. Martin was second in that class. Hendricks was runner-up to Babikow in the 16-20 group and will get a medal. The cup is a permanent trophy, which will be displayed at the ski area.

Presentations Tomorrow

Trophies, medals and third-place ribbons will be presented to the first three in each class at Bousquet's tomorrow night at 8. Free skiing from 7:30 to 10:30 will be available to Berkshire County residents, and free refreshments will be served, courtesy of Don Soviero, president.

The race was favored by ideal spring conditions on corn snow. Designed by Soviero to interest the "average skier" in competitive racing, the event was far more successful than he had hoped, although some of the entrants, especially in the adult class, could be considered "average" only by a sensational stretch of the imagination. Several appeared to be skiing for the first time. They were obviously having fun, however, and despite incessant falling, gamely managed to finish the course, which, as laid out by head ski instructor Court McDermott, was interesting yet not difficult.

Soviero was enthusiatsic about the large turnout, which meant nothing to him dollarwise, since there was no entry fee and participants skied free for the whole day. He said the success of the race discloses that competition on a nonexpert level obviously has considerable popular appeal. No pros or semipros were allowed in the race, which was for Berkshire County residents only.

George (Doc) Maynard, veteran ski operator who served as a timer at the finish line, said it was the biggest race he could remember in the Berkshires, at a commercial area or anywhere else. The races on Greylock's Thunderbolt in the 1930s were more significant for quality, but quantitatively were much smaller, he recalled.

Besides Maynard, the officials, all members of the Greylock Ski Club, included Max Sauter, chief timer; Ida Fosty, recorder; Will Bridgham, starter; John Habbersett, alternate starter; and Jim Garstang, head gatekeeper. The race started at 10 a.m. and was run off smoothly in four hours. No one was injured, although one boy went out of control, flopped spectacularly and broke a ski.

The cup winner, Babikow, has an interesting background. His father, Ivan, is a mechanical engineer. The family has lived in many countries. They were living in Santiago, Chile, when Oleg started to ski five winters ago. Before that, they lived in Argentina, Belgium and Poland, where Oleg was born. Both parents are Russian. It is reported that Oleg's greatest wish is to become an Olympic skier.

Frankie Martin To Promote Bargain New Talent Shows

6/3/60

First Card Is Scheduled for June 27 At Wahconah Park—Pep To Be Associated With Martin—Tallarita Is Matchmaker

By ROGER O'GARA

Professional boxing, which resumed here last summer after a lapse of nine years, will be continued, but under different auspices, it was announced today. Restaurateur Frankie Martin disclosed he will promote weekly bargain price bouts at Wahconah Park, starting Monday evening, June 27 at 8:15.

Plan Worked In Holyoke

Martin said former world featherweight champion Willie Pep will be his associate. Pep headed a group that successfully promoted new talent matches at Holyoke's Valley Arena the past winter. Paid attendance ranged from 1200 to 1800. The programs were suspended in the spring when the arena was destroyed by fire.

The Pittffield operation will be patterned after the one that worked so well at Holyoke, Martin explained, in that comparatively inexperienced fighters will be used. Most of the bouts will be three-rounders, he said.

Vito Tallarita of Thompsonville, Conn., who was matchmaker at Holyoke, will serve in the same capacity here.

99-Cent Fee

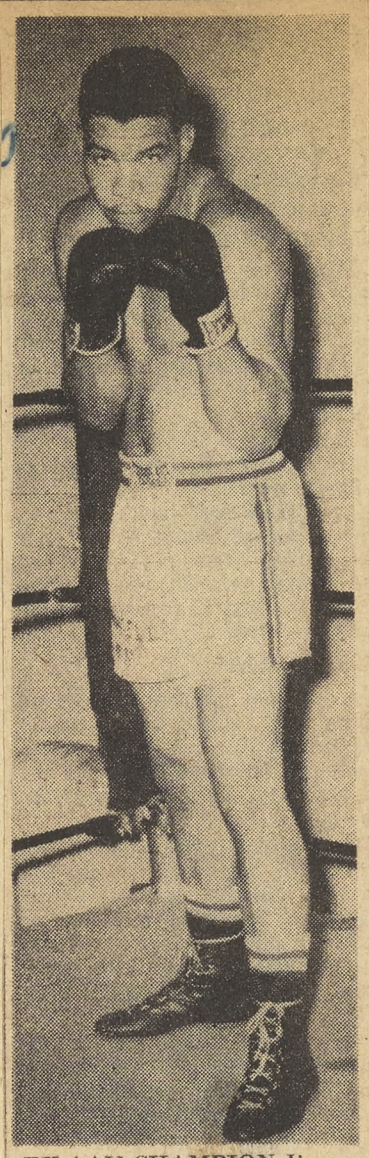
Martin said general admission will be 99 cents.

No boxers have been signed for the opening card, but unbeaten Springfield featherweight Matty Mullane is considered a possibility in the main bout. He has won all eight of his professional starts.

Martin, a former boxer, is a member of the Massachusetts Boxing Commision's executive advisory board. He was appointed last winter by Gov. Foster Furcolo.

Sam Silverman of Chelsea was the promoter here last summer. All four programs were financial failures. Silverman used comparatively big names in his feature bouts. Ranking light-heavyweight challenger Harold Johnson, ex-lightweight champion Paddy DeMarco and one-time lightweight contender Arthur Persley were the most important.

Silverman now is promoting the Paul Pender - Sugar Ray Robinson middleweight championship match June 10 at Boston.



EX-AAU CHAMPION Jimmy Blythe of Hartford, Conn., will make his professional boxing debut Monday night at Wahconah Park. Blythe, AAU heavyweight titlist in 1958 and 1959, will oppose Danny Booker of New York.

6/24/60

Fights Listed For Pro Card At Wahconah

The full slate for the Monday night professional boxing program at Wahconah Park has been announced. The bouts have been matched by Roger Sala of Pittsfield. Frankie Martin of Pittsfield, and former featherweight champion Willie Pep of Hartford, Conn., will promote the matches.

The program:

Randy Burney, Springfield, vs. Al Brandon, Hartford; heavyweights.

Frank Tallifero, Hartford, vs. Tony Hernandez, Meriden, Conn.; lightweights.

Willie Rice, Sheffield, vs. Joe Taylor, Springfield; light-heavyweights.

Gary Kelly, Springfield, vs. Whitey Stratton, Palmer; lightweights.

Dubie Josie, Springfield, vs. Bobby Burns, New York City, middleweights.

Al Costello, Hartford, vs. Dick Verdi, Palmer; middleweights.

Jimmy Blythe, vs. Danny Booker, New York City; heavyweights.

National Amateur Champion To Turn Pro in Pittsfield

JUN 21 1960

One of the nation's outstanding amateurs has chosen Pittsfield as the site of his professional bout. Jimmy Blythe, a Hartford heavyweight, who last year became the only boxer ever to win the National A.A.U. championships two consecutive years, will meet Danny Bocker of New York in the first of the Frankie Martin-Willie Pep weekly boxing shows next Monday night at Wahconah Park.

Blythe won the national crown in 1958 and 1959, but was eliminated in the finals in Detroit this year on a much-disputed decision. Since the Detroit match was also billed as an Olympic elimination bout, the loss ruined Blythe's hopes for becoming an Olympic champion. That had been his only reason for remaining an amateur, and now the 23-year-old 198-pounder is considered an excellent professional prospect.

After considering offers from many parts of the country, Blythe decided to turn professional in Pittsfield. His manager, Johnny Duke, plans to bring his protégé along very carefully, and, after talking with Martin and Pep, he agreed to let Blythe get his introduction to the professional ranks in their Monday night series.

Bocker, an amateur champion himself, has been fighting as a professional for the past year. He should provide an excellent test for Blythe.

Pep, an all-time great as a featherweight will be present in Pittsfield on fight nights to assist Martin with all the details of the promotion.

General admission seats will be available at 99 cents for Monday night's card, which begins at 8:15. Some ringside seats will be on sale at $1.50.

JUN 25 1960

Boxing Card Is Cancelled; Commission Withholds OK

The "new talent" professional boxing show scheduled for Wahconah Park Monday night has been canceled, co-promoter Frankie Martin announced last night. He said Herman Greenberg of Springfield, chairman of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission, declined to sanction the program.

Greenberg Says No

Martin said Greenberg refused to give approval unless the the young boxers all agreed to report for weigh-ins in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Martin explained that this would have meant that the boxers would have to give up a day's work in order to be here at the designated hour.

Efforts to reach Greenberg for comment last night were unavailing.

Three-round bouts were planned. This meant that the boxers would have received only a minimum of pay. Bargain admission rates had been announced.

Ex-featherweight champion Willie Pep and Martin were to be associated in the promotion. The same kind of operation was very successful last winter at the Valley Arena in Holyoke.

Track Tomorrow

FAIR OR FOUL

4/28/60

By Roger O'Gara

AS COACH of skiing and track at Pittsfield High, Rudy Benedetti sees very few adults. That's because spectators at these sports have to make an effort to see. There are no seating facilities. And in order to have any idea of what's happening, fans have to move almost as fast as the contestants. A few adventurous parents, a sprinkling of schoolboys and one or two daring girl friends comprise the audience.

So, while Benedetti may be lonesome, he nonetheless has peace of mind. Not one former participant in either of the sports ever tried to tell him how to run his team. He doesn't receive poison pen letters or nuisance telephone calls.

o—o

PHS OPENED its season at Clapp Park the other day almost in virtual seclusion. Even perennial Irving D. Hughes wasn't there.

Benedetti wasn't attempting to make track goers an exclusive society, but he did neglect to tell the community's finest daily newspaper in advance of the competition. So that drastically reduced the number of people who knew in advance that a meet would be held.

This is to announce that PHS again will have a home meet tomorrow afternoon at Clapp Park. Track, like politics, makes strange bedfellows. So in this triangular competition, the opponents will be coming from the north and the south—Bennington (Vt.) High and Windsor Mountain School of Lenox. There'll be a bit of nostalgia for the few hardy fans as they observe the Windsor Mountain School coach. In his late 60s, he is John T. Carmody, who was Mr. Track at Pittsfield High for many years. Now retired here, he still has enough pep to drive daily to the Lenox private preparatory institution, where he serves as athletic director.

Benedetti, an ambitious guy, has arranged the most elaborate schedule in Pittsfield's history. He's a great believer in the value of considerable competition.

This will be the second of four home meets during the season. Benedetti yet may break down the public's apathy toward the sport by showing a willingness to meet people early and often.

o—o

BENEDETTI'S shortages aren't confined to spectators.

He also suffers from a dearth of candidates and help.

He said the other day he has become discouraged by the small number of sophomore aspirants. Most of the squad members are juniors and seniors.

Of course, it's not surprising that there are only a handful of sophomore track men. The sport receives little attention in junior high. There usually is year-end track competition on the various grade levels, but no great importance is attached to it. Football is the only junior high sport that attracts a crowd, but basketball and baseball players supplement their school experience in these sports by playing elsewhere. There are the basketball leagues at the Boys' Club, the Catholic Youth Center and the YMCA and the Babe Ruth Baseball League. Youthful track enthusiasts have no such independent outlet.

o—o

THE HELP crisis is even more appalling.

Benedetti has only a handful of volunteers to assist him with the many details that must be handled at a track meet. Carmody had the same problem for years, but the amazing man never complained, even when he was badly crippled. He just trudged along, doing a job that would tire three well men.

What must be done at a track meet? Well, to begin with there are the various record keeping departments — scoring and timing. Then there are judges, one each for first, second and third places.

After that, there must be men who hold stakes and lines for measurement purposes. Also needed are officials who will call fouls if a boy goes beyond the legal takeoff line in the discus, javelin, shot put, or broad jump.

Oh, yes. Also needed are fellows to lug equipment from the shed, and to put it back when the events are concluded.

o—o

A PECULIAR situation has existed in track at PHS for some time. Pittsfield hasn't had any hurdles and/or hurdlers.

It's a matter of money.

Hurdles are expensive. So PHS some years ago omitted the event because it didn't have enough funds.

This year, Benedetti acquired five. That wasn't enough for man-to-man racing, but the 120-yard low hurdle event was conducted on a time trial basis.

Henry Batt, the Classical coach, had an idea for Benedetti.

"Why don't you have them made in your vocational department?" Batt asked.

He also pointed out that it wasn't fair for PHS not to have a hurdles race in a home meet. Most visiting schools have men trained for this specialty, and they expect to run. It was that way with Classical the other day.

Classical had two hurdlers. They finished one, two. Pittsfield managed to squeeze a point for third.

o—o

COACH BATT is a cheerful man.

Just before the start of the 100-yard dash, a Classical boy came to Batt, and told him he couldn't run.

"I have an awful stomach ache," the youngster said.

"Sure," said Batt, "you had a pile of that Italian food for lunch. Ravioli, isn't it? That's great stuff to train on."

Batt chuckled. "You can see we don't have any training table. Ravioli. That was the main course for lunch at our cafeteria. They gave you a big helping for 25 cents. A real buy, but not for track men."

Batt had a long chat with Jack French, veteran Pittsfield football enthusiast. They were contemporaries at Springfield College. Both were linemen. Henry was in the class of 1932, Jack in the class of 1935.

An afternoon at a track meet here is a pleasant experience. All of the running events are exciting, and some of the field contests provide their share of thrills. Then, too, the exercise and the sun are beneficial. On top of that, one meets such fascinating people. If you need another sales point, here it is: The price is right. No admission fee.

Touch Football Days Recalled

To the Editor of The Eagle:—

It is true that recently I tossed off a few reminiscences about touch football with Roger O'Gara but this hardly earned me the title ["Fair or Foul," Dec. 6] of "philosopher of sport" — whatever that is. Back in Athens about the 4th century B.C. Socrates may have been seen at the stadium of Olympia swapping opinions with the sculptor Phidias about sports, if indeed their life cycles crossed. The hemlock cup, however, was hardly a championship award and I, at best, am only a philosopher of sorts.

Now, for the Townsend rules of touch football which Roger says I criticized—put it down that I merely shuddered at the thought of this strait jacket imposed upon the free-wheeling variety of the game I once played. This was, as my detractors will guess, about the time when Billy Bull used to kick for three points without a wet nurse to hold the ball for him or perhaps about the time when a young guy named Knute played "sloogie" at West Point with another young guy named Gus. As Roger observes, I am older than Bob Kennedy but you name the game and I can still kick it around and few politicians can throw it further.

Getting back to the subject, a recent writer of letters-to-the-editor, resenting some unglowing comment I made in '56 about a certain golfer who doubled at being President, bracketed me with Robert Smith, commenting that apparently we "played in the same arena." This was an extremely penetrating observation.

Both Bob and I (frequently right but never destined to be president) regularly played touch football on the same field in Long Island City for a number of years prior to Pearl Harbor and briefly thereafter. The game we played was on a field only inches smaller than Townsend's specification and the players on a given Sunday or Saturday afternoon numbered anywhere from 3 to 30 on a side.

When only a handful showed up —say up to 8 or 10 on a side, we played from scrimmage, four downs to a touchdown or you had to kick. We played one-hand touch, none of the patty-cake two-hand touch variety. Sometimes on a warm, clear fall Sunday the number of players was too great for controlled scrimmage whereupon we played alternate kick, then run-back or pass the length of the field for a score. In those days I was only as old as Archie Moore. It was a good game and I had lots of fun. To make a scoring run through that solid mass of friend and foe you had to have training in the subway rush hour—something all of us had. A successful passer really had to thread-the-needle to hit his receiver in that mob scene.

Let me not give the impression that we were playing some earlier game than the one now being reintroduced on the lawn of the White House. The ball was in every way similar to the one in use today—without square corners. Hap Moran, just one season past playing in Mara's backfield alongside of Mel Hein, occasionally played with us. Some ex-college beef and a few high school regulars gave our game plenty of zip. There was a sprinkling of poets, painters, broadcasters, writers, bricklayers, etc. and then, of course, there was Bob Smith, a handy man to have on your side, and myself.

This brings me to the topic that first led to my discussion with Roger, namely, the man who "played in the same arena," Bob Smith. Most of us in Berkshire County know how he can dish it out. I'm here to testify that he can take it, too. I remember him on one occasion in our Long Island variety of referee-less basketball, his nose dripping redder than his hair, glaring at 200-pound Bob Haas and advising him to keep his --- --- Republican elbows to himself, or else. As I seem to recall, he was as good as his word.

Second Townsend Plan

FAIR OR FOUL

12/6/60

By Roger O'Gara

NATE HORWITT, a sports philosopher with considerable range, telephoned recently to speculate whether President-elect Jack Kennedy's liking of touch football would lead to a revival of that sport. President Eisenhower's addiction to golf didn't hurt the game, you know.

Nate keeps well-posted on national developments in politics and athletics, but occasionally misses important local happenings.

He didn't know, for instance, that the Pittsfield Adult Touch Football League recently completed a successful season. He was interested to learn the rules.

So we asked Fred Townsend, a Berkshire Life Insurance Co. employe, for a rundown on the code of the league that he, Bob Blake and Tom Ditello started back in September. Townsend is no relation to the late Dr. Francis Townsend, who pioneered fervently but futilely for large old age benefits back in the 1930s.

Still, his format in a way is a second Townsend plan, in that it is designed to benefit oldsters, in this instance those who have passed 21.

o—o

WE HAD a reading of the rules. Nate didn't like them.

"Too academic," he said. "I'll bet Bob Kennedy would agree with me. He's an old touch football player too."

There's a 29-year differential here. Nate is 63, Bob 34.

We said that Bob had better show an extreme devotion to rules in that he is being mentioned as the next attorney-general.

"Why don't you write something on this kind of touch football and send it to Bob? It would be interesting to learn what he thinks of this version of the game."

This will be done. If the county editor of this newspaper can visit the President-elect, the sports editor certainly should be entitled to write to the prospective attorney-general.

o—o

SO HERE is what Fred Townsend says of his league: "Since it was to be for adults (age 21 and over), its personnel no longer would be in high schools or college. Most would be married and family men. Rules were tailored to save the breath of the contestants, and to prevent needless injuries. The rules committee felt that the first bad injury would send the league into oblivion.

"Originally, the league started with 15-man rosters and eight-man teams. After four weeks, it changed to six-man teams. Eight-man ball consisted of too much line play. The game became a defensive contest, as defenders sent two men in and kept six men covering four eligible receivers. Lack of substitutes tired the players quickly. Changing to six-man teams corrected all of the faults, and every offensive player was allowed to be an eligible receiver.

"The rules have not permitted a team to place more than three men in an offensive backfield. This prevents wedges, or a packed backfield on running plays. Because everyone is an eligible receiver, the game opens up passing attacks, avoiding too much line contact. Free substitution works wonders for preserving energy and spelling those players short of breath.

"The playing field is 80 by 40 yards, with 10-yard end zones.

"There are no goal posts. Extra points are running or pass plays. To keep the safety worth more than an extra point, the point after touchdown is worth only one point in this league. Kickoffs are made from the 30-yard line, and touchdowns or safeties put the ball in play from the 15-yard line.

'Considerable thought was given to the definition of touch. It is a two-hand tag above the waist. Requiring a two-hand tag, both above the waist, gives the carrier more of a chance to pick up yardage, particularly on running plays. This also prevents flying leg tags, which are likely to be flying tackles. If a player halts the carrier either by tackling him or by holding him with one hand in order to make a legal touch, a 15-yard penalty is invoked. A player is also considered downed if he falls to the ground.

o—o

"GAMES ARE PLAYED in two halves, each 25 minutes long. The first 22 minutes are running time, the last three stop watch time. The halftime rest period is 10 minutes. Each team is allowed four time-outs per half.

"First downs originally were 20 yards, but halfway through the season the required distance was cut to 15. Teams can go the length of the field on a sequence of short gains. It has helped to open up the offense, and permits a possession game.

"All punts are announced, and are free kicks. All fumbles, including kick returns, are dead if the ball hits the ground. The latter rule prevents injuries from diving and scrambling for the ball.

"Rules for blocking probably will be changed next year. At the beginning of the season, it was proposed that only upright blocking be permitted, but a majority wanted to have blocking from a crouched position. Cross-body blocks and flying blocks draw a 15-yard penalty.

"Cleats have not been permitted.

"Officials may eject anyone for dirty play or a deliberate foul. The second time a player commits a 15-yard penalty, he must leave the game."

o—o

HOW ABOUT injuries?

Fred reports only five in 27 games.

One player chipped a couple of teeth. Another suffered a bruised arm. One man bumped heads with an opponent, and three stitches were required for a cut over the eye. Another suffered a broken finger when a defensive lineman stepped on his hand. One player suffered a broken nose when he ran into either a shoulder on an elbow.

Water Department and the Rainbow Restaurant scored convincing victories Sunday afternoon at the North Junior High field to set up a climatic final weekend schedule Sunday afternoon in the Pittsfield adult six-man touch football league.

Rainbow and Water are scheduled to meet at 2:15 in the final game of the year.

Water kept first place deadlocked Sunday by pounding the Aardvarks 41-7 in the opening game of a triple-header. Unable to grind out yardage on the ground, it went to the air with quarterback Jerry Doyle.

Doyle threw five touchdown passes and caught three conversion passes.

Rainbow Restaurant avenged an earlier loss to Park Jewelers by winning this time 26-12. The loss eliminated the Jewelers from first place contention, and kept Rainbow in a first place tie with Water.

Paul Rote threw a five-yard pass to Buddy Pellerin to put Rainbow ahead 6-0. Bob Vollinger upped the score to 7-0 with the extra point.

The Jewelers bounced back as Frank DeAngelis passed to Tom Ditello on a 40-yard touchdown play. The extra point was missed, and the score remained 7-6. Rainbow stepped to a 13-6 lead before the close of the first half as Teddy Burzimatti caught a Pellerin pass.

Park Jewelers scored in the closing minutes of the contest when DeAngelis intercepted a pass that bounced out of a Rainbow receiver's hands. The extra point was unsuccessful, and Rainbow emerged a 26-12 winner.

In the closest contest of the year, last place Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. won its first game by defeating the Berkshire Life Insurance Co. team 19-18.

BLICO and Mutual traded touchdowns to make the score 7-6.

Bob Blake passed to Don George for 15 yards and another touchdown, putting Berkshire Mutual ahead 13-6. BLICO came back with one minute left in the half, when Harry Beaudin made a diving catch of a pass in the corner of the end zone to make the score 13-12.

Connor of Berkshire Life intercepted a second-half pass at midfield and ran the ball back to Mutual's 30. Center Dick Tretowicz slipped into the end zone for a pass to put BLICO ahead 18-13.

With five minutes left, Dick Smeester ran 10 yards for the winning touchdown. BLICO took the kickoff and came back downfield. A pass to Bob McNeese put BLICO on the Mutual five-yard line. On fourth down, Beaudin threw to McNeese in the flat, but a Mutual defender deflected it for the win.

Marchisio Asks Public To Buy Tickets to Holiday Contest

The sports public was urged today by Hank Marchisio to buy tickets for the Thanksgiving morning football contest between Pop Warner League all-star teams at Wahconah Park.

Said Marchisio, who is chairman of the ticket committee, "The sale of tickets has been slow. We need heavy receipts at this game to insure the success of next season. In the past, we've raised enough money on Thanksgiving Day to meet expenses for the following year. That's what we would like to do this year."

Marchisio said that few parents thus far have purchased tickets. He said he hoped most fathers and some mothers would buy some in the next 24 hours.

Tickets may be obtained at the Viale Floral Co., the J. F. Kahl Co., Nichols' Package Store, Mancy's Barber Shop, and Marchisio's Package Store.

Rainbow Restaurant and the Water Department six-man football teams will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 at the North Junior High Field to decide the championship of the Pittsfield Adult Touch Football League.

Both teams have won seven of their first nine games, and are paired against each other in the final game of the 10-game schedule. Water triumphed 19-7 in an earlier contest, but Rainbow's lopsided 26-12 victory over the Park Jewelers last week makes tomorrow's game a toss-up.

A game will be played at 1 between the third-place Park Jewelers and fourth-place Berkshire Life Insurance Company team. In an earlier encounter, they played the only tie game of the season, 12-12.

Fifth and sixth places will be decided this morning at 10 when the Aardvarks meet the Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Company at the North Junior High field. The Aardvarks defeated Berkshire Mutual last time out, 19-6.

Water Department's six-man football team captured the Pittsfield Adult Touch Football League championship Sunday afternoon with a 20-6 victory over the runner-up Rainbow Restaurant. The contest was played in warm weather before a large crowd at the North Junior High Field.

Rainbow scored in the first five minutes of the game as Buddy Pellerin threw a 10-yard pass to Bob Vollinger for the score. The extra point attempt failed.

Water Department sewed up the contest late in the second half when, using the screen pass again. Doyle threw to Mancivalano. Mancivalano lateralled to Al Litano, and Litano ran 55 yards to the Rainbow 5. DeAngelo swept the end for a touchdown and caught the pass for the extra point.

Rainbow's passing attack, with Buddy Pellerin and Paul Rote, failed to click against the Water defensive line of Joe Scherban, Norm Caribo, and Roger Phillips.

Jerry Doyle set up the first Water touchdown, on a flat pass to Eddie DeAngelo who followed the blocking of Norm Caribo and Jim Farry to the Rainbow five-yard line. DeAngelo hit Roger Phillips with a pass for the tying touchdown. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful, and the score was knotted at 6-6.

Later in the first half Water's Norm Caribo danced his way downfield for 40 yards and a touchdown after snagging a screen pass. Doyle passed to Charlie Mancivalano for the extra point and a 13-6 halftime lead.

The game between the Park Jewelers and Berkshire Life Insurance Co. team was ruled a forfeit when the BLICO players showed up late.

Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. defeated the Aardvarks 33-13 Saturday morning to move out of sixth place and into fifth place in the final standings.

Bob Blake powered the Mutual attack, passing for four touchdowns and scoring a fifth himself. Blake paced Fire to a 13-0 halftime lead with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jock Burbank and a 30-yard heave to Jay Greenman.

In the second half, Blake connected with Greenman again for a 20-yard touchdown. The Aardvarks cut the score to 19-7 as Jinx Principe ran 40 yards on a pass option play to score the first Aarvark touchdown.

Roland Miller hauled in a Blake pass and ran 35 yards for another touchdown, making the score 26-6 and Dick Smeester found Blake in the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown pass, and ended the scoring at 33-13.

Giants and Rams Triumph, Remain Unbeaten in PWL

10/3/60

By LAWRENCE JACOBS

The unbeaten Giants and Rams continued their winning ways in a Pop Warner Football League doubleheader yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park. The Giants defeated the Lions 12-6 in the opener. The Rams overwhelmed last year's champion Browns 34-8 in the afterpiece.

The hard-hitting football provided a pleasant afternoon for a crowd of 500. Like the Legion baseball players, the Warner youngsters demonstrated conclusively that they knew their assignments from A to Z, and could handle the details from Alpha to Omaha.

The Giants' first score came in the first quarter and stemmed from a punt reception at the Giant 32. After a penalty set them back to the 27, Dave McNeice circled right end for a first down at the Giant 45. Gene Milotte slanted inside right end for 19 yards to the Lions' 36.

McNeice Scores

A penalty against the Lions put the ball on the 31. McNeice swept left end for a first down at the 20. Ed Archey tried left end, but was run out of bounds at the 17. McNeice went outside right end and raced 17 yards into the end zone. Bob L'Hote's attempt to sneak over for the extra points was smothered.

With Joe Woitkoski using the pass-or-run option and Frank Scago bulling through for consistent yardage, the Lions penetrated as far as the Giants' 14, but a couple of 15-yard penalties took the steam out of their attack, and the ball went to the Giants on their own 32. On the first play, Archey ran 68 yards down the left sideline but a clipping penalty nullified the score.

In the third quarter, the Giants scored again. Gaining possession on a punt at the Lions' 35, the Giants ground out the necessary distance in eight plays. Milotte went over for the touchdown from the one-yard line. On a cross buck for the additional points McNeice was stopped short of the goal line.

In the fourth period, the Lions' mixture of guile and power finally paid off. The scoring play was a well-executed pass from Woitkoski to Dave Kearns for 15 yards. A line play failed for the extra points.

Chesney Has 2 TDs

In the second game, the Rams had more winning combinations than the daily-double window at that Den of Equinity in Hancock. Mike Chesney scored twice and Tommy Beck, Lou Orazio and Armand Borden once each.

The Rams' first score in the opening period stemmed from a recovered fumble on the Brown six-yard line. Chesney made four yards at guard, and Beck slammed over from the 2. The try for points resulted in a backfield fumble.

In the second quarter, the Rams took the ball on downs on the Browns' 46 and scored in four plays. The climactic play was a 21-yard scoring sprint by Orazio. The point-try failed to gain.

In the third period, the Rams went 45 yards in 5 plays in an impressive display of power. Beck, Chesney and Roger Bellinger alternated in carrying the ball to the 20. The powerful Chesney ripped through the left side from this point into the end zone. Beck added two points on a rush.

Late in the same quarter, the Browns put on their only sustained drive. After reaching the Ram 32 with the aid of a couple of penalties, the Browns went to work for their touchdown. Charley O'Neil on a sneak made four yards. On the next play, O'Neil fumbled, but recovered for a seven-yard advance. Dan Murphy picked up nine yards, advancing to the 10. Mike Fiorini added nine yards, setting the ball on the one. Fiorini crashed over for the score. O'Neil sneaked into the end zone for the extra points.

The final touchdown resulted from a pass interception. O'Neil fired a pass over the right flank in the general direction of Armand Borden. Borden picked it off at midfield, and rambled 50 yards to score. Beck rammed through for the points.

Because of the World Series, there will be no contest next Sunday. The Warners pop again with an hour-of-decision twin bill a week from Sunday. The unbeaten Giants and Rams will clash in one contest. The Lions and Browns, both winless, will collide in the other.

WAHCONAH PARK

Lee High Plays at Wahconah Under Lights Oct. 21; St. Joe's, Holyoke Catholic There Oct. 28; Procopio To Start Friday

10/12/60

By BILL MAHAN

The St. Joseph's High football team shifts into its Friday night schedule this week with a game at Wahconah Park against Dalton. The night game will be the first in a series of three. St. Joe's plays Lee at Wahconah Park under the lights Friday, Oct. 21, and Holyoke Catholic Friday night, Oct. 28, at Mackenzie Field in Holyoke. All the contests are scheduled for 7:30. The Dalton game is the first night action here this season.

Two Are in Class A

The Dalton and Holyoke Catholic games are part of the Class A Conference competition. The Lee action is an exhibition affair. Dalton has won once and lost once in the conference. St. Joe's has one victory and two defeats in conference play.

An added feature Friday evening will be an exhibition between the halves by the Cavaliers, the Boys' Club drum corps. It marks the second year that the Cavaliers have volunteered to perform at a St. Joe's game. The corps, which will put on a 12 minute show, have had a busy season appearing in numerous competitions in this section.

The parochial school team came out of the Adams game Saturday morning in good physical condition. Coach Ted Mezejewski reported that he was satisfied in general with the football played by his team, even though Adams won 12-6. St. Joe's led in most of the statistics except touchdowns.

Delaney Recovered

Regular guard Leo Delaney, who was a doubtful starter against Adams because of a slight groin injury suffered last week in a scrimmage against Darrow School, made a fast recovery. He started the Adams game with the understanding if the injury bothered him he was to tell Mezejewski and come out. However, Delaney felt so good he played the entire game.

The St. Joe's coach plans one change in his starting lineup against Dalton. He will give Paul Procopio a starting role at halfback. Procopio, a sophomore, has been in on defense this year. However, he has impressed the coaching staff with his running and pass catching in practice and will join quarterback George Horton and fullback Allen Walker, both sophomores, and junior halfback Tom Potter in the starting backfield.

BLICO Beats Fire Team 7-6 In Touch Game

Augustine Scores On Scott's Pass In Second Period

Berkshire Life Insurance Company dominated the first half of play in an adult touch football league game Saturday morning at North Junior High and staved off a strong second half rally by the Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Company team to eke out a 7-6 victory.

Berkshire Mutual Fire, playing with only seven men against eight, held the BLICO club scoreless until the final two minutes of the first half. Capping a 50-yard drive on running plays, BLICO quarterback Tom Scott hit Jack Augustine in the end zone on a fourth down pass. Scott scooted around end for the extra point play.

Midway through the second half, the Fire team stalled the Life men on downs, and then marched 60 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Bob Blake sparked the Fire team with a good running attack and passes to right end Kent Woodger.

The touchdown came on a 20-yard pass intended for Woodger; but Augustine knocked down the pass in the end zone and the Firemen's left halfback snared the ball before it hit the ground. Blake attempted to pass to Woodger for the tying extra point, but safety man Harry Beaudin intercepted.

Berkshire Life came back strong, mixing running and pass patterns to advance the ball to the Fire team's 10-yard line. Scott hit right-half Everett Heiss in the end zone for another touchdown, but the play was nullified by an offsides penalty.

South Beats NJHS 14-8 On 4th Period Touchdown

10/13/60

WAHCONAH PARK

An 83-yard drive, culminated by halfback Bob Pinsonneault's dive over his own left tackle from the three-yard line, broke an 8-8 tie and gave South Junior High a 14-8 victory over North yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park before about 1,100 students and parents. South had taken an 8-0 lead in the first quarter, and North had tied the score in the second.

South Scores Early

South made its first score on its drive of the game. North received the opening kickoff, but fumbled on the fifth play from scrimmage and South recovered at midfield. South then drove down to the one-yard line, and Bob Lucido went over on a quarterback sneak. The big gainer on the drive was a 21-yard run by halfback Paul Noetzel.

The South team added the two points on a pass, Lucido to Phil Jacoby.

South's kickoff was taken by North fullback Art Delusky, who ran it back 14 yards to the North 43. South held and Delusky kicked, a punt that traveled 50 yards to the South 13.

South could not mount a drive, and was forced to kick. The punt was a poor one, and North took possession on the South 15. The North club was temporarily set back by a 15-yard penalty, but a run by Teddy Gardner put the ball on the 15.

Gardner Goes

On the next play, Gardner broke loose on an end run to the right and went all the way. He was almost trapped back on the 20, but shook off a couple of tacklers and tight-roped down the sideline to put his team back in the game. Delusky knotted the score at 8-8 on a plunge over tackle for the two points.

Play for the remainder of the second period and in the third quarter was of the seesaw variety. South threatened following the North touchdown, but a fumble recovered by North stopped the drive on the North 10-yard line.

North-South Statistics

	South	North
First downs	10	7
Yards gained rushing	268	130
Passes attempted	3	11
Passes completed	2	3
Passes intercepted	0	1
Yards gained passing	27	39
Fumbles	1	2
Own fumbles recovered	1	1
Opposition fumbles recovered	0	1
Yards lost on penalties	45	55

The winning TD came after a sustained drive early in the final period. South took over on its own 17 following a Delusky punt. With Lucido, Pinsonneault, Lou Sibbio and Noetzel all contributing nice gains, South ran up five first downs that put the ball on the North three-yard line, from where Pinsonneault dove over. Sibbio's try for the points through the center of the line was stopped.

The next game for North will be against Lenox Preparatory School jayvees at Lenox Wednesday. South will play the Darrow jayvees there next Thursday. The two Pittsfield junior highs will meet again at Wahconah Park on Election Day, Nov. 8.

ADAMS' FIRST TOUCHDOWN against St. Joseph's High Saturday morning was made by halfback Bobby Constant, shown flying through after the ball he had fumbled on the goal line. He fell on the ball for the TD. Constant, who scored both Adams touchdowns, drove over from the one-yard line on this one. St. Joe players pictured are Paul Procopio (14) and Gene Jordan (9). Little World Series Set for Hastings, Neb., Again Next Year

Hastings, Neb., will be the site of the 1961 Junior American Legion national baseball tournament, according to information received by the Keene (N.H.) Sentinel. It will mark the third consecutive year the Nebraska city has had the event.

According to the Keene newspaper, Atty. Kenneth Awre of Keene, chairman of the committee, which tried to get the national tourney in the New Hampshire community, received the decision this week from Sydney Schwartz of Portland, Maine, a member of the Legion Americanism Commission.

The decision was made this week at the Legion's national convention in Miami, Fla. Awre said that as far as he knew Keene, Hastings, and Billings, Mont., were the only places that bid for the Little World Series.

The Gordon-Bissell Post of Keene submitted a request for the Region 1 tournament again in 1961, at the same time the post bid for the nationals. No decision was forthcoming on the location of the Region 1 event, but local Keene Legion officials believe that Keene will again be the site of the Northeast competition.

Chasing Potter is Lee halfback Dave Zatorski (76), and chasing Zatorski is St. Joe's guard Bill Healy (16). A crowd estimated at 1,200 saw the contest.

Rams Take Sole Possession Of Warner Loop 1st Place

By LAWRENCE JACOBS 10/17/60

The unbeaten Rams took over undisputed possession of first place in the Pop Warner Football League by clobbering the Giants 28-8 in the feature game yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park. In the second game of a double header, the Browns recorded their first victory by downing the Lions 16-8.

The twin bill was played in threatening weather before a crowd of 500. Noted in the sparse gathering were several charter members of the Mutuel-Admiration Society at Berkshire Downs, which closed Saturday for the season.

Beck Stars

Burly Tommy Beck scored three times to lead the victorious Rams' attack on runs of 44, 18 and 66 yards. Beck scored his first touchdown on the third play of the game when he swung around right end and raced 44 yards into the end zone. The try-for-points was short.

A few plays later Ed Archey equalized the count with a thrilling 60-yard sprint down the left side. On the first try for the added points the Rams were penalized to the one-yard line.

So let's Face it. A short Bucc worked pretty well in the World Series. On the theory that nothing succeeds like success, Dave McNeice was sent inside guard, and he slammed over to give the Giants a short-lived two-point advantage.

The Rams scored two touchdowns in the second period. Beck climaxed a long downfield push by racing 18 yards for a score, again around right end. Beck added two more points on a line plunge. The third Ram touchdown was made by Roger Bellinger, who took a pass from Beck on the 18-yard line and fought his way along the right sideline into the end zone. The try-for-points was short.

Penalty Hurts

McNeice made a handsome 62-yard run early in the third quarter but it was nullified by a clipping penalty at the Rams 31. The Giants were unable to advance the ball, and finally had to yield possession. Neither team was able to gain consistently in the second half, except for Beck's 66-yard scoring burst. On this play Beck broke through the left side of the Giant line, and, aided by a block by John Kennedy at midfield, was able to outdistance his pursuers. Quarterback Lou Orazio added two points by sneaking through the middle.

Beck was the outstanding star for the winners. McNeice was magnificent both on offense and defense for the Giants.

Browns Make Win Column

The Browns finally won their first victory of the year by defeating the winless Lions in the second game. Last year the Browns were able to beat the opposition as easily as the U.S. Cavalry routs the Indians on TV, but this year has been a different story.

The Browns scored in the opening quarter after taking the kickoff on their own 27. After three line plays gained nine yards Mike Fiorini swung to his left and sprinted 38 yards to the Lions 26. Danny Murphy, Fiorini and Joe Borden drove to the nine in three plays. Charley O'Neil added two yards on a keeper. Borden bolted through the line from the 7 to score the touchdown. Murphy added the extra points on a line plunge.

Early in the second quarter the Browns scored again on Murphy's 15-yard slant off tackle, making the score 14-0.

On the first play of the fourth quarter Dave Kearns was tackled in his own end zone to give the winners two more points. Midway in the period the Lions finally scored on Frank Scago's brilliant 52-yard run. Joe Woitkoski sneaked over for two points.

The Rams will meet the Lions Sunday afternoon in a contest that, on comparative records, looks like a shoo-in for the league leaders. The Giants will collide with the Browns in the other half of a twin bill.

The unbeaten Rams horned into the pennant picture by trouncing the Lions 25-6 in the second game of a Pop Warner Football League double-header yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park. The once-beaten Giants blanked the Browns 12-0 in the opener.

The Rams will clash with the Browns Sunday afternoon, in one game of a double-header. The Lions will meet the Giants in the other contest.

Giants Have Chance

A week from Sunday, the Giants will meet the Rams in a closing-day feature. The Giants are the only team left with a mathematical chance of beating the Rams in the pennant race.

In overwhelming the winless Lions, the Rams ate up more yardage than an ostrich swallowing a tape measure. Directed by quarterbacks Lou Orazio and Art Dermody, the Rams' sturdy backs —Tommy Beck, Mike Chesney and Rogert Bellinger—rolled up a total of 12 first downs in addition to their four touchdowns.

The Rams scored in the first quarter on Beck's 6-yard end sweep. The scoring run climaxed a 67-yard, four-first-down push. Longest item in the drive was Beck's 24-yard end run.

In the second period, the Rams scored twice. The touchdown was set up by a pass from Beck to Wayne Teal for a 20-yard gain and a first-down on the Browns' 5. Chesney gained 4 yards off the right side, and Beck slammed over from the 1.

Three plays later, Chesney recovered a fumble on the Lions' 47, and the winners were on their way to another score. After three plays gained only four yards, Orazio rolled out to his right and sprinted to the Lions' 32. Chesney gained 7 yards at left tackle. Chesney passed to Bellinger, who rolled over for a score, a 25-yard over-all gain. The half-time score was 18-0.

The third period was scoreless, but the Lions scored early in the fourth quarter. Tony Scago intercepted a pass, and returned it to his own 33. Scago swept left end, lateraled to Joe Woitkowski along the sidelines as he was about to be tackled. Woitkowski was run out of bounds at the Rams' 37. Don Lucaroni picked up five yards at right guard. Scago swung around right end behind massed interference, and ran 32 yards for a touchdown.

The final score was set up by a nifty pass from Beck to Orazio. The play was well-timed, deftly thrown by Beck and adroitly handled by Orazio for a first down at the 8. Two plays later Orazio creashed over from the 5. Beck added the final point by placement.

First Placement Kick

Beck's placement after the fourth Ram touchdown is believed to be the only time in league history an extra-point effort was made by kicking. All extra-point tries on the other touchodnws (6 in number) were by running or passing plays. All failed.

The first game was interesting, although the first three periods were scoreless. Finally, Dave McNeice, who had threatened several times to break away on a long gainer, sliced off left tackle for 14 yards and a score.

Three plays late, McNeice recovered a fumble on the Browns' 39, and the Giants had impetus for another touchdown. Gene Milotte and little Dave Archey lugged to the 30 in two plays. A penalty set the ball back to the 35, from which point L'Hote on a neat bootleg raced around the right side into the end zone.

Touch League Double-Header Tomorrow

Water, Rainbow Play for 1st Place In Second Game

Berkshire Mutual Fire	0	3	6	44
Aardvarks	0	4	18	29

Three games high-light the action this weekend at North Junior High Field as the Pittsfield adult touch football league concludes the first half of play. The coaches have unanimously decided to experiment and play the next two rounds with six-man teams rather than eight-man teams as they have to date.

In a clash of winless teams, Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. will meet the Aardvarks this morning at 10. Bob Blake and Jinx Principe will quarterback the teams, respectively, in the battle for fifth place.

Tomorrow afternoon features a double-header. Berkshire Life Insurance Co. and the Park Jewelers will square off in a battle for third place at 2 and at 3:30 the Rainbow Restaurant meets the Water Department with first place at stake.

In last Sunday's play, Park Jewelers beat the Rainbow Restaurant 8-0 on a 35-yard pass play from Joe to Tom Ditello.

Dave Ditello added two more points on a safety as he caught quarterback Buddy Pellerin in the end zone.

Water Team Takes Touch Lead On 19-7 Win Over Rainbow

Water Department moved into first place in the Adult Touch Football League on Sunday afternoon by trimming previously unbeaten Rainbow Restaurant 19-7 at North Junior High field. The game was played in driving rain.

Al Litano opened the scoring with a 35-yard touchdown pass to Charlie Mancivalano. Jerry Doyle passed to Litano for the extra point.

Ed DeAngelo boosted the score to 13-0 minutes later when he ran 30 yards for a touchdown. Doyle accounted for the final Water Department tally, intercepting a pass and returning the ball to the two-yard line. On second down, Doyle swept the end for a touchdown.

Buddy Pellerin averted a shutout for the Rainbows. In the waning moments, Pellerin scampered 25 yards for the final touchdown.

Berkshire Life Insurance Co. remained in a tie for third place by holding favored Park Jewelry to a 12-12 deadlock.

Park Jewelry scored immediately. With the ball on the BLICO 35-yard line, Frank DeAngelis hit Al Cassidy with a short pass, and Cassidy sprinted into the end zone.

Midway through the first half, BLICO tied the score. Jim Connor faded back at his own 20, and found Harry Beaudin in the clear with a 40-yard pass. Beaudin outdistanced the safety men to the goal.

Park Bounces Back

Park Jewelry came back on a 40-yard pass play, Frank DeAngelis to Joe Ditello, to move ahead.

With five minutes left, Beaudin intercepted a pass at midfield, and ran the ball back to the one-foot line. Park Jewelers held for three downs, but then Connor threw to Jim Oulette for a touchdown.

The Aardvarks defeated Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance 19-6 in a clash of the winless. Jinx Principe and Earl Hatch led a running assault, which proved to be too much for the Fire team to handle.

After the Aardvarks took a 7-0 lead, Berkshire Mutual came back on a pass from Bob Blake to Dick Stiles. This covered the final 20 yards of a 50-yard touchdown drive.

With two minutes remaining in the first half, the Aardvarks tallied again to lead 13-6. The running attack slowed down in the second half, but Berkshire Mutual lacked reserve strength. Principe scored the final touchdown with four minutes remaining.

Warner League In Next to Last Program Tomorrow

The undefeated, league-leading Rams will be shooting for their fifth consecutive Pop Warner Football League win as they oppose the Browns in the opening game of a doubleheader tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 at Wahconah Park. It will be the league's next to the last program of the regular season.

The Browns have a record of one win and three losses.

In the second contest, the runner-up Giants (3-1) will go against the cellar Lions (0-4). The Giants are the only team with a mathematical chance to catch the Rams. They must win tomorrow to keep alive that opportunity.

The unbeaten Rams reeled off a fifth straight victory by trouncing the Browns 27-0 yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park to strengthen their hold on first place in the Pop Warner Football League. The Giants stayed a game off the pace by downing the Lions 14-6 in the second game of a twin bill.

The Rams and Giants will meet Sunday in the feature game of a double-header. The Browns and Lions will collide in the opener. Sunday's games will be the finale of a successful season. So-o-o, the Rams are in a fortunate position for the climatic contest with the Giants. Like the man of the house as Christmas approaches, the least they can get is a tie.

Rams Favored

Already the oolong swamis have installed the powerful Rams as a solid choice against the Giants. And why not? For the Rams feature a strong running game, good execution on their plays and an unbeaten season, including a previous win over the Giants.

But it is risky to predict the outcome of love affairs, presidential elections and Pop Warner football games. If any team could overturn the applecart, it would be the Giants. The Giants are a hustling crowd, an aggregation of opportunists. And the elliptical spheroid takes many a wayward hop.

It could be that the team that keeps its eye on the bouncing ball will sing the song of victory. If the Giants should win, a playoff game will be necessary. A win for the Rams (or even a tie game) will give that team the league title.

Orazio Runs 71 Yards

The Rams' well co-ordinated running attack registered four touchdowns — two in the second quarter, two more in the fourth. Tommy Beck and Lou Orazio each had two scores. Orazio's 71-yard scoring burst in the fourth quarter was the outstanding play of the game.

The Rams' first score resulted from a blocked punt late in the first quarter, recovered by end John Kennedy on the Brown 7. After a five-yard penalty, Tommy Beck lugged to the 5 in two plays. Orazio sliced inside left tackle to go into the end zone. Beck's kick was good.

Late in the quarter, the Browns were forced to kick from their 5-yard line. Roger Bellinger took it at the 40, and rambled all the way back to the 1, from which point Beck smashed over.

The third touchdown went 95 yards in eight plays, and was climaxed by Beck's 46-yard run around right end. Art Dermody added two points on a quarterback sneak. The final touchdown was Orazio's 71-yard dash. Orazio broke off the left side, quickly gathered speed, and outran the secondary to the goal line.

Dave Archey's 12-yard scoring run in the second quarter gave the Giants a 6-0 lead that looked decisive in the second contest. But both the Giants and Lions penetrated the end zone late in the fourth quarter.

The Giants registered on Dave McNeice's dash around right end, just inside the sideline. Gene Milotte added the extra points on a line smash.

McNeice's kickoff was taken by Tony Scago, who ran it back to the Lions' 48. On the first play, Scago fired a pass to Joe Woitkoski who received it on the Giants' 40 and raced for a score.

The running of Beck and Orazio featured for the Rams. Charley O'Neil directed the Browns' attack, and passed well under pressure. McNeice played a fine all-around game for the Giants. For the Lions, Scago did well on both offense and defense. Don Lucaroni tackled well.

Tripleheader Planned for Touch League

Kickoff Set for 1 Tomorrow at North; Rainbow Paces Loop

A tripleheader has been planned tomorrow afternoon at the North Junior High field by the Pittsfield Adult Six-Man Touch Football League.

Berkshire Life Insurance Co. and Water Department will open the slate at 1. Ed DeAngelo and Jerry Doyle powered Water to a previous 12-7 win over BLICO, but both Water touchdowns were scored when BLICO was playing one man short. Jim Connor and Tom Scott will quarterback the insurance team.

Park Jewelry will meet the winless Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. team at 2:30. The Jewelers, paced by the Ditello and DeAngelis brothers, have scored all three of their victories by shutouts. They will seek to repeat an earlier 12-0 whitewashing of the Fire team. Berkshire Mutual will be paced by Bob Blake, Tony Ferdyn, Don George, and John Perrone.

Rainbow Restaurant meets the Aardvarks in the wind-up at 3:30. Paul Rote, one of the league's most consistent touchdown passers, will head the Rainbow attack. Jinx Principe will try to lead the Aardvarks to their second win in six contests.

For the third consecutive week, the leading team in the Adult Six-Man Touch Football League was defeated. Sunday afternoon, Park Jewelry shut out the Water Department 9-0 at North Junior High field.

The defensive line of Dave Ditello, Joe Ditello, and Harry Ladopoulos completely contained the Water team.

Frank DeAngelis threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Joe DeAngelis to open the scoring. Joe connected with Dick Elwell for the extra point. In the second half, a bad pass from center scored a safety for the Jewelers.

Rainbow Restaurant made a pair of safeties stand up for the winning margin to defeat winless Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. 16-12. Coupled with the Water Department's defeat, the win moved the Restaurant team back into first place with a 4-2 record.

Paul Rote passed to Bob Vollinger from the Mutual five-yard line to give Rainbow an early 6-0 lead. The score became 8-0 when a Fire player was caught in the end zone after a punt for a safety.

In the second half, Berkshire Mutual cut the score to 8-6 when Bob Blake passed to Don George, in a 25-yard touchdown play. The extra point attempt failed.

Rote put Rainbow ahead 14-6, when he hit Ray Pierson at the Mutual 20. Pierson ran the 20 yards for the score. Howard Pierson scored his second safety when the kickoff was fumbled and bounded into the Berkshire Mutual end zone.

The Fire team scored again with one minute left in the game when Blake hit George with a 10-yard pass.

The contest between the Aardvarks and the Berkshire Life Insurance Co. teams was postponed because the game inadvertently had been scheduled for a working day.

Rams, Giants Play For First Place; Browns Face Lions

The Pop Warner Football League will play its final round tomorrow afternoon at Wahconah Park.

On Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 24, there will be a game at Wahconah Park between teams composed of the first and fourth teams and the second and third teams. This will be the league's big financial game. An advance sale of tickets already has started.

In the first game at 1:30, the Browns (1-4) will play the Lions (0-6). Last week, the Browns were belted by the Rams 27-0 and the lost to the Giants 14-6.

In the second and feature game, the undefeated Rams (5-0) will oppose the second place Giants (4-1). This contest could decide the title. Should the Rams win, they would be the 1960 champions. However, an upset by the Giants would tie the teams at five wins and one loss apiece and necessitate a playoff game.

All three of the top teams in the Pittsfield Adult Touch Football League withstood the elements and the opposition Sunday afternoon at the North Junior High field.

Water Department remained in second place by defeating the Berkshire Life Insurance Co. 12-0 in the opening game of a tripleheader.

Everett Heiss and Gene Welter of the insurance team were forced to retire in the second half due to injuries. The contest was ruled an official forfeit.

Park Jewelers remained in third place by crushing the Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance Co. team 35-0. It was the biggest score of the season. The Jewelers have scored all four wins by shutouts, and also have the highest scoring offense.

Berkshire Mutual, paced by Bob Blake, Dick Kiely, and Dick Stiles defensively, held the Jewelers scoreless until the closing minutes of the first half. Playing without substitutes, the Mutual club tired and the Jewelers scored five times in the 2nd half.

Frank DeAngelis threw a 30-yard pass to Al Cassidy to account for the only touchdown in the first half. In the second half, Tom Ditello threw a pair of touchdown passes, a 15-yard pass to Dick Elwell, and a 35-yard heave to Bob Woitkowski.

Weather Conditions Expected To Be Good For PHS-St. Joe's Tilt

11/10/60

A good day from the fans' viewpoint, and a pretty good day from the players' standpoint were the prospects this morning for the 41st annual Pittsfield-St. Joseph's High football game this afternoon at Wahconah Park.

The weatherman predicted sunny but seasonably cold conditions for the viewers. Supt. of Parks Vin Hebert checked the playing field and reported the surface in good shape except for a few wet spots left by the Wednesday night rain.

The ground froze slightly last night and there is the possibility that sunshine today might make the playing surface a little muddy.

Touch Game Set For Tomorrow

11/10/60

The Water Department touch football team will play the Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance tomorrow morning at 10 on the North Junior High field in an adult six-man touch football league game.

The Water team, 4-2, will be tied with Rainbow Restaurant, 5-2, for the league lead if they win.

Berkshire Mutual is winner in six starts.

McMahon, faculty business manager of athletics at PHS, and Ted Giddings, Roger O'Gara and Bill Mahan, city editor, sports editor and sports writer, respectively, for The Eagle.

The Pittsfield Adult Six-Man Football League leaders moved farther ahead last week as the top three teams took four games from the bottom three squads.

Water Department moved into a tie for first place by beating the last place Berkshire Mutual Fire Insurance team twice, 19-0 on Friday and 32-13 on Sunday. In the first game, pass interceptions by Jerry Doyle and Jim Farry counted for two touchdowns and a 12-0 lead. The final six-pointer was a pass from Ed DeAngelo to Roger Phillips.

Berkshire Mutual grabbed a 7-0 lead in the second game when Bob Blake took a 20-yard pass from Kent Woodger and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. However, Ed DeAngelo returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown and a pass from DeAngelo to Joe Sheridan knotted the score at 7-7. Water scored again later on a pass from DeAngelo to Norm Caribo, to make the score 13-7.

Water started the second half with a touchdown when Doyle swept the end on a 40-yard run. Doyle's pass to Phillips for the extra point was good. 3/9/60

Pittsfield High's 1960 football team will play five of its eight games in this city, Coach Nick Morris dsclosed today. He said he completed schedule arrangements Saturday while attending the football clinic at the University of Massachusetts.

Pittsfield will face the same opponents it met in 1959, when it was unbeaten in driving to the Berkshire County and Tri-County Conference championships.

Extra Game Considered

The only change is that the Dalton game, the season opener last fall, will be seventh or next to last. Pittsfield is slated to meet Dalton at Wahconah Park Saturday, Nov. 5.

Morris said he would like to arrange a game with a Connecticut Valley or Eastern Massachusetts power. If such a contest should be booked, it would be the season finale, a week or so after the St. Joseph's game.

Six of the games will be in the conference. Exhibition contests as usual will be played with Springfield Trade and Turners Falls. The latter contests will be on the road.

Pittsfield will open a week later than it did last fall. The first game will be with Trade, Friday afternoon, Sept. 23, at Springfield. The home and conference opener will be with Northampton at Wahconah Park Saturday, Oct. 1.

Pittsfield is expected to have a strong team. It will have nine starters returning, including the entire backfield. Tackle John Sottile and guard Dick Bard are the only regulars who will be lost by graduation next month.

THE CHANCES are you never heard of Joe Altott. Joe is one of those unsung heroes who labor behind the scenes. He's the varsity trainer at Williams College, and no less an authority than veteran football coach Len Watters thinks he's one of the best in the business.

Joe will be in our city tonight. If you're engaged in the direction of any sport on any level, you would profit from listening to his clinical demonstration of taping and wrapping methods.

The place will be the Polish Community Club on Linden Street, the time 7:30.

o—o

JOE IS COMING to Pittsfield because Ted Mezejewski, the young, veteran coach of the three major sports at St. Joseph's High, feels that he has a message. The Polish Community Club offered its facilities for free, and Ted moved quickly to arrange for Joe's appearance.

How good is Altott? Williams almost lost him not long ago to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Altott emphasizes that his clinic will not be a lot of talk. In a short note to Mezejewski, he stressed that he will not give a lecture.

He calls it, "More of a workshop set-up rather than just listening."

He'll show them with equipment, tape, wraps and special protective pads.

Nor will football be the only sport he discusses. He reasons that each sport has different physical problems, so he'll also spend some time on basketball and baseball.

o—o

THERE HAVE been many first aid clinics held here, but this probably will be the first time an authority on care of athletes will have given such a program in Pittsfield.

Altott also extends an invitation for women physical education teachers to attend.

In his letter to Ted, he says, "We have no fear of having them present."

A NICE COMPLIMENT was paid to Dale Long by Tommy O'Toole, the attendant in the visitors' clubhouse at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh. When he heard that the former Adams High athlete had been traded by the San Francisco Giants to the New York Yankees, O'Toole commented, "There goes one of the best tippers in the National League."

Beck Scores Three In Double-Header At Wahconah Park

By STEVE MOORE

Approximately 200 persons watched the opening of the sixth Pop Warner Football League season yesterday afternoon at Wahconah Park. The Rams defeated the Lions 20-8 in the first game, and the Giants downed the Browns 24-8 in the second.

The Rams' offense, good for 180 yards and nine first downs, was led by halfbacks Roger Bellinger and Mike Chesney and fullback Tom Beck. Beck rushed for a total of 125 yards and scored all three of his team's touchdowns. The first tally came after Beck dashed 19 yards through his left tackle for a first down on the Lions' nine and then swept his left end for the remaining yards. Chesney went straight up the middle on the try for the extra points.

Beck's other scores were on a five-yard dive play and a 25-yard punt runback. Frank Scago kicked from his own one-yard line out to the 25, where Beck grabbed it and ran wide to his left eluding four or five Lion tacklers for the touchdown.

Scago was the offensive leader for the Lions.

In the the second game, Dave McNeice of the Rams rushed for 197 yards and two touchdowns to lead his team. Ed Archey scored the first touchdown on a two-yard plunge over his left tackle ending a drive from the Giants' 41.

Rain Hampers County Tennis After Seeded Players Advance

9/12/60

Several first-round matches are still unplayed in all divisions in the Berkshire County tennis tournament as a result of the heavy rains which washed out a large slate of matches yesterday at the Camp Merrill courts.

A serious scheduling problem has resulted, especially if the rains wash out today's play and leave the courts unsuitable for play tomorrow, as may happen.

Most of the first-round matches in the men's singles division, the only one which has gotten off the ground, were completed between Thursday and Saturday. Top-seeded Gordon Naugle won his first two matches easily, defeating Lou Ettlinger of Pittsfield, 6-1, 6-2, and Vince Eldred of Lee, 6-2, 6-0. He thereby advanced to the quarter-finals, along with fifth-seeded Bruce Burnham of Pittsfield, who defeated Mike Cosby of Stockbridge, 6-1, 6-2 and Jack Talbot of Richmond, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1.

White, Mason Advance

Other seeded players advancing include Fay White of Pittsfield (No. 2) who downed David Lyall of Pittsfield 6-1, 6-3, and Ralph Mason of Williamstown (No. 6), who defeated Dr. Stanley Simkin of Pittsfield 6-1, 6-2, and Daniel Secunda of Pittsfield, 6-1, 6-2.

Walt Stugger of Pittsfield, unseeded due to entering at the last minute, won his first match 6-0, 6-3 over Stewart Ross of Pittsfield.

Only two men's doubles matches were played Saturday, while just one was played in women's singles and none in mixed doubles. The top-seeded entry of Naugle and White downed Eldred and Talbot 6-0, 6-3, while James Cooper and Millard Cramp were defeating Crosby and Philip Swazey 0-6, 11-9, 6-4 in Saturday's two men's doubles matches.

In women's singles, Mrs. Barbara Fickling defeated Mrs. Carl Lindh 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Pittsfield Tennis Club Teams Schedule Four More Matches

9/2/60

The Pittsfield Tennis Club "A" and "B" teams have four matches left on their schedule for the rest of the season.

The "B" team, under the direction of new chairman Alex (Sandy) Marsten, will play the GEAA tennis team Sunday at 2 at the Camp Merrill courts. The team's final match of the season will be held Saturday, Sept. 3, with the Dalton Tennis Club at the Community House courts in Dalton.

The tennis club "A" team travels to Holyoke Sunday to play the Holyoke Canoe Club tennis team. The outstanding event of this contest will be the top position singles match, which pits Berkshire County singles champion Gordon Naugle against Pioneer Valley champion Bruce Tait. Other members of the Pittsfield team are Ed Deame, Paul Voloscove, Bruce Burnham, Ronald Young, Bruce Baumert and Bill Lyall.

A return match with the Holyoke club will be played at the Camp Merrill courts on Sunday, Sept. 25.

Play Resumes at Camp Merrill In Berkshire Tennis Tourney

The Berkshire County tennis tournament finally resumed at the Camp Merrill courts last night after a three-day postponement due to Hurricane Donna. One singles match and two doubles were completed.

Dr. Robert Cowing of Williamstown downed Kenneth Hoyt of Pittsfield 6-0, 6-1. The top-seeded doubles team of Gordon Naugle and Fay White easily defeated brothers Bill and David Lyall, 6-1, 6-1. Another seeded doubles entry, Bruce Burnham and Paul Voloscove, had an even easier task, trouncing John Hitchcock and Bill Haskins, 6-0, 6-1.

Due to the unusual extent of the postponement, the tournament committee has decided to change the date for the finals of the men's singles and doubles and the mixed doubles from Sunday, Sept. 18 to the 25th.

The women's singles finals will be played this Sunday afternoon. Miss Carolyn Lewis meets Miss Eloise France in one semifinal match Saturday at 1. In the other bracket Miss Isabelle Whalen and Miss Grace Hawkins play Friday night for the right to meet Mrs. John Fickling in the other semifinal match at 11:30 Sunday morning.

White Beats Naugle To Win Singles Title

Scores 6-3, 6-3 For County Crown At Camp Merrill

9/12/60

Fay White of Stockbridge defeated Gordon Naugle, also of Stockbridge, to become the 1960 Berkshire County tennis singles champion, Sunday afternoon. The match at the Camp Merrill tennis courts went 6-3, 6-3 to White, who on Saturday had won the county doubles championship with Naugle. They defeated Bruce Burnham and Paul Voloscove 6-3, 6-2, 7-5 for that title.

White used a hard serve to advantage in the singles finals as he chopped and undercut to keep Naugle on the defense.

A near mishap occurred when White, after a sharp turn, seemed to have pulled a leg muscle. No serious damage resulted, however, and the match proceeded.

In the doubles final, White and Naugle proved superior at the net and after overcoming a 2-1 deficit in the first set, went on to win handily.

In mixed doubles play, Miss Carolyn Lewis and Voloscove, defeated Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Sandick 6-1, 6-1, and Miss Eloise France and Edward Deame defeated Miss Lynn Rose and Richard Ransford 6-2, 6-4.

The semifinal matches in the latter division will be played Saturday morning at 10 at Camp Merrill. The finals will take place that afternoon at 2.

Miss Lewis Wins Net Singles In Tourney at Camp Merrill

9/19/60

Miss Carolyn Lewis of Pittsfield defeated Miss Isabelle Whalen, also of Pittsfield, yesterday at the Camp Merrill Courts to win the Berkshire County Women's Singles Tennis championship 8-10, 6-3, 6-1.

After losing the first match 8-10, Miss Lewis came back to score a 6-3 win in the second and a one-sided 6-1 win in the third. Deep shots and long exchanges typified the first match which was the best of the afternoon.

In the semifinals of the men's singles, Fay White swept Edward Deame 6-2, 6-1, in the first match. The steady play of White made the difference as he scored on consistent drop shots and deep ground strokes.

In the other semifinal match, Gordon Naugle handily defeated Dr. Robert Cowing 6-1, 6-1 to enter the finals.

The semifinals of the men's doubles will be played next Saturday at Camp Merrill. Naugle and White will play Dr. Cowing and Ralph Mason and in the other match, Bruce Burnham and Paul Voloscove will meet Deame and Walter Stugger. The finals are scheduled that afternoon at 2:30.

PITTSFIELD PITCHER Joey Costanzo signs a professional baseball contract with the Baltimore Orioles as his parents and two scouts for the American League club watch. Joe Cusick of Cranston, R.I., chief New England scout for Baltimore, shows Joey where to affix his signature. Other scout is Andrew (Al) Molnar of Southwick, who represents the Orioles in Western Massachusetts. Signing took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Costanzo of 107 Deming St. Joey received a nominal bonus.

Saturday's game in which Pittsfield eliminated West Warwick must have made baseball founder Abner Doubleday spin in his grave. It was more like a hectic Little League contest. A total of 26 runs, 22 hits, 19 walks, and 12 errors took place. The Rhode Island team used six pitchers, but really made seven changes as Jim Conn put in two appearances at different times. Conn and Fred Angiollili played four different positions. Angiollili, the second West Warwick hurler, was doing a creditable job, but after he pitched four innings he had used up his 12 innings in three days allowed under Legion tournament rules.

Ray Woitkowski started for Pittsfield, and, after a shaky two innings in which the Rhode Islanders took a 6-3 lead, settled down and held the opposition scoreless through the sixth. Pittsfield was leading 19-6 by virtue of a 13-run sixth inning in which 18 Massachusetts boys came to bat, so Coach George (Red) Pleau brought in John Tagliaferro from left field to finish up. The move saves Woitkowski for more crucial times in the future. Tagliaferro did a good relief job. He gave up one unearned run, scattered five hits, fanned four, and walked no one in the final three innings.

Garivaltis 4 for 6

Both teams made 11 hits. George Garivaltis and Mark Belanger had seven of the Pittsfield allotment. Garivaltis feasted on the varied assortment of Rhode Island pitching with two singles and two doubles and six RBIs. Belanger had three singles and one run batted in. Pittsfield made eight errors, and, if it had not been for the wildness of the West Warwick pitching, the result might have been different. Altogether Pittsfield received 17 bases on balls.

The first inning took 35 minutes. West Warwick batted first. Leadoff man Don Addy was safe when Bob Magi bobbled his grounder. A single by Ray Dexter, a walk to Jim Benoit, a single by Conn, and a throwing error by Ronnie Kelly gave the Rhode Island champs a 4-0 lead before Pittsfield came to bat.

The Berkshire County team struck back quickly. West Warwick starter southpaw John Zielski walked Paul O'Gara and Magi, and had three balls on Gary Soldato when he was sent to left field and Angiollili came in from left. He completed the walk to Soldato, and Garivaltis inaugurated his fine afternoon with a single to center that scored O'Gara. Belanger followed with a single to the same spot scoring Magi, but Soldato was out at the plate trying to come from second on the hit. Garivaltis got to third on a wild pitch and scored on Tagliaferro's infield out to short, to make the score 4-3.

West Warwick added two more in the second on a walk, a sacrifice and a throwing error, two force outs, a double steal and an error and a single by Benoit. Pittsfield tied it up at 6-6 in the fifth off Conn and Dexter. O'Gara led off with a single and Magi sacrificed. Walks to Soldato, Belanger, and Tagliaferro forced in one run and brought in Dexter from center field to pitch. He walked Kelly to bring in another score, and wild pitched while working on Woitkowski for the third run.

In the sixth the roof fell in on Rhode Island. With one out Magi was safe on an error. Then Soldato singled, Garivaltis doubled, and Belanger singled. Dexter went back to center and Benoit came over from first to take a turn on the mound. Tagliaferro greeted him with a base hit, and Kelly was safe on an error. Woitkowski brought in Tagliaferro with a fly to left and Tom Varanka walked.

At that point Addy came in from second base to pitch. Kelly and Varanka worked the double steal for a run, and walks to O'Gara, Magi and Soldato, and Garivaltis' second double accounted for four more runs and made Addy a second baseman again. Conn came in again. A single by Belanger, bases on balls to Tagliaferro and Kelly and a two-bagger by Woitkowski added three more scores giving Pittsfield 13 for the inning and a 19 total. West Warwick got its seventh run in the seventh on a single by Dexter and two Pittsfield errors.

Pittsfield Wins 19-7; Wild One

AUG 22 1960

KEENE, N.H.—It was a time for heroes, and Pittsfield had them. The fortunate thing about this group of destiny's darlings is that they seem to take turns playing the starring roles. Last night Tommy MacCartney and Paul O'Gara were the men of the hour. This casting was fitting, for they're rooming together at the Hotel Eagle. (Coincidence, not plug.)

MacCartney's pitching against the big bold boys from New York was gritty. O'Gara excelled at bat by driving in the two runs that meant the difference with his third hit of the argument-filled contest in the ninth inning. Then, to sink the Staten Island cause, he made the defensive play of the game with a diving catch of Charley Romanolo's slicing drive to right field for the second out of the bottom of the ninth.

o—o

THERE WAS unbounded jubilation as Pittsfield rooters stormed to slap many backs after Bobby Magi threw out feared Carvin Young for the game-ending out.

Someone yelled, "They sank the Staten Island ferry."

There was laughter at that, much wild talk about what these irrepressible kids will do to unbeaten West Hartford tonight and tomorrow evening. Then the hand-shaking continued. It looked like a politician's paradise.

This was O'Gara's second crack at the hero's role. Fourteen months ago, he made a pinch hit that drove in the two runs that gave Pittsfield High the Western Massachusetts championship.

Yet this had to be bigger. For it was an all-around performance. Furthermore, it made Pittsfield the champion dispatcher of this tournament. Come what may, George Pleau's youngsters now have sent home four teams—White River Jct., Vt., West Warwick, R.I., Concord, N.H. and Staten Island, N.Y.

It was the second route-going job for the slightly built MacCartney, who weighs only 138 pounds. Staten Island chipped away at him for 11 hits, but only one was for extra bases. MacCartney had his good curve most of the way, and his fast ball frequently was bothersome.

o—o

IT WAS A tremendously popular victory, not only with the large Pittsfield crowd, but with the Keene people. Pittsfield's kids have made many friends here. The Pittsfield adults have stayed over in such large numbers they have boosted Keene business.

Tournament officials wouldn't say of course, but they seemed happy over the Pittsfield win. A larger crowd will be present with Pittsfield at Alumni Field than there would have been with Staten Island in the finals.

The proprietor of one hotel here wildly cheered the result. Pittsfield adults have been occupying most of his rooms since last Thursday. There hasn't been a Staten Island name on the register. Mine host foolishly bet on Pittsfield and gave 2-1 yesterday afternoon.

Many working people from Pittsfield have been driving back and forth every day.

A number of General Electric employes headed for Keene yesterday afternoon after coming off shifts that ended at intervals between 3:30 and 5. Everyone said he would be back tomorrow, notwithstanding short sleep.

o—o

MAYOR Ray Haughey is batting 3 out of 5 on the tournament. He saw the Friday, Saturday and Sunday contests, wasn't able to be there Thursday and last night. He telephoned immediately after the game to congratulate the boys, and to advise that he would be present tonight.

"This is the one I wanted," shouted an ardent Pittsfield adult." I didn't like the attitude of that Staten Island outfit."

Pitching pals MacCartney and Joey Costanzo like to rib each other.

Each went the route for Pittsfield in the first two tournament games. Each was reached for a home run. Carvin Young belted one off Costanzo to win for Staten Island 5-4. Jim Raymond hit one off MacCartney for White River Junction's first run, but Pittsfield went on to win 9-2.

When MacCartney walked into the dugout several minutes after Raymond's blow, Costanzo asked "How does it feel to have a home run hit off you?"

Without blinking, MacCartney replied "It's not bad if it doesn't cost you the ball game."

o—o

RED PLEAU doesn't believe in tranquilizers.

The tournament physician attended second baseman Garry Soldato in the middle innings of the Concord game. Gary was feeling nauseous.

The doctor suggested that a tranquilizing pill probably would help. He said it might make the boy a little sleepy some time later.

Red said in a horrified voice, "Nothing doing. I don't want him sleeping out there at second base."

The Pittsfield players ran out on the field, and there was a vacancy at second base. However, after a stay of several extra seconds, Soldato trotted to his position.

He proceeded to play the rest of the game without benefit of a pill.

o—o

Bill Mahan, who is doing double duty as The Eagle's game reporter and photographer, finds that work is never done. Late Sunday night, he heard the shrill blast of a fire alarm whistle. Looking from his window at the Colonial House, he saw that the sky was red.

Fire had broken out in a large wooden shed owned by the Marlboro Manufacturing Co., and the flames were shooting high into the air. Bill loaded his camera, and drove to the blaze.

His picture was so good, the Keene Sentinel used a three-column cut of it on Page 1 of Monday afternoon's edition.

Pittsfield Mayor Raymond Haughey threw out the first ball for the Saturday engagement. The Mayor and Mrs. Haughey saw Pittsfield win Friday and Saturday. Rhode Island Legion junior vice commander read the code of sportsmanship in pre-game ceremonies. Mayor Haughey also spoke briefly.

Among those in the good sized Pittsfield delegation Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bates, Atty. Anthony Ruberto, Al DiCicco, George O'Hearn, Bob Dillon, Charlie Gilson, Bob Sullivan, and Jack Rabiner.

Welcome Home Reception To Be Given Legion Team

9/1/60

Plans for a public reception to Pittsfield American Legion Post's junior baseball team on their arrival home from the national tournament in Hastings, Neb. are being made, Atty. Clement A. Ferris, post athletic officer, said today.

"A committee is being formed," Mr. Ferris said, "and we're going to try to get out some bands and drum corps and give the boys the kind of home-coming they will long remember."

Mr. Ferris said that City Council President Charles J. Kidney, acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Raymond L. Haughey who is the city's official representative at the tournament, is soliciting car dealers for the use of "convertibles to carry the players and their families" to the rallying point for the reception ceremonies.

The date and time of the reception will not be known until the Pittsfield team either wins or is eliminated from the tournament. The northeastern regional champions won their second game last night and will play New Orleans tonight. Game time is uncertain because it is the second game of two being played. However, it will be late, probably not earlier than 10:30.

Local Ace Strikes Out 17; Belanger's Homer Wins It

Two of Concord's Three Hits Are Bunts; Other Hit, Two Errors Bring Only Run; Pittsfield Meets Staten Island at 7:30

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H.—A terrific 11-inning, three-hit, 17-strikeout pitching job by Joe Costanzo, combined with an 11th inning bases-empty home run by shortstop Mark Belanger, gave the Pittsfield Legion team a 2-1 victory over Concord, N.H. yesterday afternoon at Alumni Field here before about 2000 fans. The loss eliminated Concord from the regional tournament. Pittsfield sent West Warwick, R.I. home Saturday on a 19-7 victory that became as monotonous as yesterday's contest was thrilling.

Three Teams Left

The Massachusetts champs are now one of three teams left. Pittsfield will play tonight under lights at 7:30 against Staten Island, N.Y., which was defeated for the first time yesterday in the second game by West Hartford, Conn, 3-2. The loser tonight will be out and the winner will have to play the Connecticut champs tomorrow and Wednesday to take the Northeast title.

Costanzo put on one of his greatest performances. He had a no-hitter for 6⅔ innings and only one man had reached on a walk. The one run against him was unearned and he was the only Pittsfield player with two hits. He scored Pittsfield's first run in the third inning when he got his first hit, went to third on Paul O'Gara's single to right, and scored on Bob Magi's sacrifice fly.

Pittsfield held the one-run edge until the seventh, when Concord tied it up. That was the way it remained until the Pittsfield 11th. Andy Ansaldo, who had come in from shortstop in the third to relieve starter Steve Rule, had used up all but two-thirds of an inning he could work in threee days under Legion rules, so leftfielder Bill Grady came on in the top of the 11th. Belanger led off and clouted a two-ball, one-strike pitch high over the left centerfield fence. John Tagliaferro then put the left fielder against the fence but was out, and Grady fanned Ronnie Kelly and Ray Woitkowski.

With one away in its half of the 11th the New Hampshire centerfielder Dick Kruger, dragged a nice bunt toward second for a hit, his second and the third for his team. Gary Nelder fouled out to O'Gara, who crossed the right field foul line to make a great running catch. With Catcher Don Pope at bat Kruger tried to steal second, but Belanger put George Garivaltis' perfect peg on him to end the game.

Danger Averted in 10th

The Concord boys put on another real threat in the 10th. Pope led off with a bunt single down the third line. After Grady fouled out to Garivaltis Dick Gagne walked, and all hands were safe when Gary Soldato dropped Belanger's throw at second on Tony Derocchi's ground ball. The danger was averted when Bob Grappone grounded to Kelly, who forced Pope at the plate, and Edgar Armol struck out.

Concord's run came with two outs. Kruger singled through short. Belanger bobbled Nelder's ground ball and all hands were safe. Kruger stole third and Garivaltis' throw went through to left field, allowing the Concord runner to score. Two walks filled the bases but Nelder was nailed nicely by Garivaltis when he tried to steal home on a pitch to Gagne.

A busload of Pittsfield fans arrived yesterday via Yellow Coach with Pittsfield High Coach Nick Morris at the wheel. Morris, who drives for the company during the summer, renewed some old acquaintances in Keene, where he was once a high school coach and Northern League umpire.

There were so many Pittsfield people in attendance someone remarked it looked like Wahconah Park.

Saturday's game in which Pittsfield eliminated West Warwick must have made baseball founder Abner Doubleday spin in his grave. It was more like a hectic Little League contest. A total of 26 runs, 22 hits, 19 walks, and 12 errors took place. The Rhode Island team used six pitchers, but really made seven changes as Jim Conn put in two appearances at different times. Conn and Fred Angiollili played four different positions. Angiollili, the second West Warwick hurler, was doing a creditable job, but after he pitched four innings he had used up his 12 innings in three days allowed under Legion tournament rules.

Ray Woitkowski started for Pittsfield, and, after a shaky two innings in which the Rhode Islanders took a 6-3 lead, settled down and held the opposition scoreless through the sixth. Pittsfield was leading 19-6 by virtue of a 13-run sixth inning in which 18 Massachusetts boys came to bat, so Coach George (Red) Pleau brought in John Tagliaferro from left field to finish up. The move saves Woitkowski for more crucial times in the future. Tagliaferro did a good relief job. He gave up one unearned run, scattered five hits, fanned four, and walked no one in the final three innings.

Garivaltis 4 for 6

Both teams made 11 hits. George Garivaltis and Mark Belanger had seven of the Pittsfield allotment. Garivaltis feasted on the varied assortment of Rhode Island pitching with two singles and two doubles and six RBIs. Belanger had three singles and one run batted in. Pittsfield made eight errors, and, if it had not been for the wildness of the West Warwick pitching, the result might have been different. Altogether Pittsfield received 17 bases on balls.

The first inning took 35 minutes. West Warwick batted first. Lead-off man Don Addy was safe when Bob Magi bobbled his grounder. A single by Ray Dexter, a walk to Jim Benoit, a single by Conn, and a throwing error by Ronnie Kelly gave the Rhode Island champs a 4-0 lead before Pittsfield came to bat.

The Berkshire County team struck back quickly. West Warwick starter southpaw John Zielski walked Paul O'Gara and Magi, and had three balls on Gary Soldato when he was sent to left field and Angiollili came in from left. He completed the walk to Soldato, and Garivaltis inaugurated his fine afternoon with a single to center that scored O'Gara. Belanger followed with a single to the same spot scoring Magi, but Soldato was out at the plate trying to come from second on the hit. Garivaltis got to third on a wild pitch and scored on Tagliaferro's infield out to short, to make the score 4-3.

West Warwick added two more in the second on a walk, a sacrifice and a throwing error, two force outs, a double steal and an error and a single by Benoit. Pittsfield tied it up at 6-6 in the fifth off Conn and Dexter. O'Gara led off with a single and Magi sacrificed. Walks to Soldato, Belanger, and Tagliaferro forced in one run and brought in Dexter from center field to pitch. He walked Kelly to bring in another score, and wild pitched while working on Woitkowski for the third run.

In the sixth the roof fell in on Rhode Island. With one out Magi was safe on an error. Then Soldato singled, Garivaltis doubled, and Belanger singled. Dexter went back to center and Benoit came over from first to take a turn on the mound. Tagliaferro greeted him with a base hit, and Kelly was safe on an error. Woitkowski brought in Tagliaferro with a fly to left and Tom Varanka walked.

At that point Addy came in from second base to pitch. Kelly and Varanka worked the double steal for a run, and walks to O'Gara, Magi and Soldato, and Garivaltis' second double accounted for four more runs and made Addy a second baseman again. Conn came in again. A single by Belanger, bases on balls to Tagliaferro and Kelly and a two-bagger by Woitkowski added three more scores giving Pittsfield 13 for the inning and a 19 total. West Warwick got its seventh run in the seventh on a single by Dexter and two Pittsfield errors.

Pittsfield Wins 19-7; Wild One

AUG 22 1960

KEENE, N.H.—It was a time for heroes, and Pittsfield had them. The fortunate thing about this group of destiny's darlings is that they seem to take turns playing the starring roles. Last night Tommy MacCartney and Paul O'Gara were the men of the hour. This casting was fitting, for they're rooming together at the Hotel Eagle. (Coincidence, not plug.)

MacCartney's pitching against the big bold boys from New York was gritty. O'Gara excelled at bat by driving in the two runs that meant the difference with his third hit of the argument-filled contest in the ninth inning. Then, to sink the Staten Island cause, he made the defensive play of the game with a diving catch of Charley Romanolo's slicing drive to right field for the second out of the bottom of the ninth.

o—o

THERE WAS unbounded jubilation as Pittsfield rooters stormed to slap many backs after Bobby Magi threw out feared Carvin Young for the game-ending out.

Someone yelled, "They sank the Staten Island ferry."

There was laughter at that, much wild talk about what these irrepressible kids will do to unbeaten West Hartford tonight and tomorrow evening. Then the hand-shaking continued. It looked like a politician's paradise.

This was O'Gara's second crack at the hero's role. Fourteen months ago, he made a pinch hit that drove in the two runs that gave Pittsfield High the Western Massachusetts championship.

Yet this had to be bigger. For it was an all-around performance. Furthermore, it made Pittsfield the champion dispatcher of this tournament. Come what may, George Pleau's youngsters now have sent home four teams—White River Jct., Vt., West Warwick, R.I., Concord, N.H. and Staten Island, N.Y.

It was the second route-going job for the slightly built MacCartney, who weighs only 138 pounds. Staten Island chipped away at him for 11 hits, but only one was for extra bases. MacCartney had his good curve most of the way, and his fast ball frequently was bothersome.

o—o

IT WAS A tremendously popular victory, not only with the large Pittsfield crowd, but with the Keene people. Pittsfield's kids have made many friends here. The Pittsfield adults have stayed over in such large numbers they have boosted Keene business.

Tournament officials wouldn't say of course, but they seemed happy over the Pittsfield win. A larger crowd will be present with Pittsfield at Alumni Field than there would have been with Staten Island in the finals.

The proprietor of one hotel here wildly cheered the result. Pittsfield adults have been occupying most of his rooms since last Thursday. There hasn't been a Staten Island name on the register. Mine host foolishly bet on Pittsfield and gave 2-1 yesterday afternoon.

Many working people from Pittsfield have been driving back and forth every day.

A number of General Electric employes headed for Keene yesterday afternoon after coming off shifts that ended at intervals between 3:30 and 5. Everyone said he would be back tomorrow, notwithstanding short sleep.

o—o

MAYOR Ray Haughey is batting 3 out of 5 on the tournament. He saw the Friday, Saturday and Sunday contests, wasn't able to be there Thursday and last night. He telephoned immediately after the game to congratulate the boys, and to advise that he would be present tonight.

"This is the one I wanted," shouted an ardent Pittsfield adult." I didn't like the attitude of that Staten Island outfit."

Pitching pals MacCartney and Joey Costanzo like to rib each other.

Each went the route for Pittsfield in the first two tournament games. Each was reached for a home run. Carvin Young belted one off Costanzo to win for Staten Island 5-4. Jim Raymond hit one off MacCartney for White River Junction's first run, but Pittsfield went on to win 9-2.

When MacCartney walked into the dugout several minutes after Raymond's blow, Costanzo asked "How does it feel to have a home run hit off you?"

Without blinking, MacCartney replied "It's not bad if it doesn't cost you the ball game."

o—o

RED PLEAU doesn't believe in tranquilizers.

The tournament physician attended second baseman Garry Soldato in the middle innings of the Concord game. Gary was feeling nauseous.

The doctor suggested that a tranquilizing pill probably would help. He said it might make the boy a little sleepy some time later.

Red said in a horrified voice, "Nothing doing. I don't want him sleeping out there at second base."

The Pittsfield players ran out on the field, and there was a vacancy at second base. However, after a stay of several extra seconds, Soldato trotted to his position.

He proceeded to play the rest of the game without benefit of a pill.

o—o

Bill Mahan, who is doing double duty as The Eagle's game reporter and photographer, finds that work is never done. Late Sunday night, he heard the shrill blast of a fire alarm whistle. Looking from his window at the Colonial House, he saw that the sky was red.

Fire had broken out in a large wooden shed owned by the Marlboro Manufacturing Co., and the flames were shooting high into the air. Bill loaded his camera, and drove to the blaze.

His picture was so good, the Keene Sentinel used a three-column cut of it on Page 1 of Monday afternoon's edition.

Pittsfield Mayor Raymond Haughey threw out the first ball for the Saturday engagement. The Mayor and Mrs. Haughey saw Pittsfield win Friday and Saturday. Rhode Island Legion junior vice commander read the code of sportsmanship in pre-game ceremonies. Mayor Haughey also spoke briefly.

Among those in the good sized Pittsfield delegation Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bates, Atty. Anthony Ruberto, Al DiCicco, George O'Hearn, Bob Dillon, Charlie Gilson, Bob Sullivan, and Jack Rabiner.

Local Ace Strikes Out 17; Belanger's Homer Wins It

Two of Concord's Three Hits Are Bunts; Other Hit, Two Errors Bring Only Run; Pittsfield Meets Staten Island at 7:30

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H.—A terrific 11-inning, three-hit, 17-strikeout pitching job by Joe Costanzo, combined with an 11th inning bases-empty home run by shortstop Mark Belanger, gave the Pittsfield Legion team a 2-1 victory over Concord, N.H. yesterday afternoon at Alumni Field here before about 2000 fans. The loss eliminated Concord from the regional tournament. Pittsfield sent West Warwick, R.I. home Saturday on a 19-7 victory that became as monotonous as yesterday's contest was thrilling.

Three Teams Left

The Massachusetts champs are now one of three teams left. Pittsfield will play tonight under lights at 7:30 against Staten Island, N.Y., which was defeated for the first time yesterday in the second game by West Hartford, Conn, 3-2. The loser tonight will be out and the winner will have to play the Connecticut champs tomorrow and Wednesday to take the Northeast title.

Costanzo put on one of his greatest performances. He had a no-hitter for 6⅔ innings and only one man had reached on a walk. The one run against him was unearned and he was the only Pittsfield player with two hits. He scored Pittsfield's first run in the third inning when he got his first hit, went to third on Paul O'Gara's single to right, and scored on Bob Magi's sacrifice fly.

Pittsfield held the one-run edge until the seventh, when Concord tied it up. That was the way it remained until the Pittsfield 11th. Andy Ansaldo, who had come in from shortstop in the third to relieve starter Steve Rule, had used up all but two-thirds of an inning he could work in threee days under Legion rules, so leftfielder Bill Grady came on in the top of the 11th. Belanger led off and clouted a two-ball, one-strike pitch high over the left centerfield fence. John Tagliaferro then put the left fielder against the fence but was out, and Grady fanned Ronnie Kelly and Ray Woitkowski.

With one away in its half of the 11th the New Hampshire centerfielder Dick Kruger, dragged a nice bunt toward second for a hit, his second and the third for his team. Gary Nelder fouled out to O'Gara, who crossed the right field foul line to make a great running catch. With Catcher Don Pope at bat Kruger tried to steal second, but Belanger put George Garivaltis' perfect peg on him to end the game.

Danger Averted in 10th

The Concord boys put on another real threat in the 10th. Pope led off with a bunt single down the third line. After Grady fouled out to Garivaltis Dick Gagne walked, and all hands were safe when Gary Soldato dropped Belanger's throw at second on Tony Derocchi's ground ball. The danger was averted when Bob Grappone grounded to Kelly, who forced Pope at the plate, and Edgar Armol struck out.

Concord's run came with two outs. Kruger singled through short. Belanger bobbled Nelder's ground ball and all hands were safe. Kruger stole third and Garivaltis' throw went through to left field, allowing the Concord runner to score. Two walks filled the bases but Nelder was nailed nicely by Garivaltis when he tried to steal home on a pitch to Gagne.

A busload of Pittsfield fans arrived yesterday via Yellow Coach with Pittsfield High Coach Nick Morris at the wheel. Morris, who drives for the company during the summer, renewed some old acquaintances in Keene, where he was once a high school coach and Northern League umpire.

There were so many Pittsfield people in attendance someone remarked it looked like Wahconah Park.

FIRST PITTSFIELD run is scored by John Tagliaferro in the second inning of yesterday's game at Keene, N.H., won by the local Legion team 8-6. Tagliaferro scored on an error by Staten Island third baseman Joe Palmieri, and Ray Woitkowski tallied on the same play to put Pittsfield ahead 2-1.

Pittsfield Remains Unbeaten at Hastings With 9-5 Win Over Billings

GARY SOLDATO puts Pittsfield ahead to stay in the third inning of last night's 9-5 victory over Billings, Mont., sliding safely into home plate around the attempted tag by Billings catcher Wayne Bell. The play was a double steal begun by Mark Belanger, and it put Pittsfield ahead 2-1. Pittsfield and New Orleans, La., the two remaining undefeated teams in the American Legion tourney at Hastings, Neb., meet tonight in the second game of a double-header, beginning at approximately 10:30. (Associated Press Wirephoto)

MacCartney Pitches Six Relief Innings To Record Seventh Straight Victory; Pittsfield Meets New Orleans Tonight

By BILL MAHAN

HASTINGS, Neb. — The Pittsfield Legion Junior Baseball team used four hits, 12 walks, a hit batsman and two opposition errors to good advantage to take a 9-5 victory over Billings, Mont., at Duncan Park here last night and remain undefeated in the American Legion Little World Series. Pittsfield has now won twice.

New Orleans Next Opponent

The next game for the Northeast regional champions will be tonight in the second contest of the night doubleheader. Its opponent will be New Orleans, La., which upset Hastings 4-1 last night. The contest will probably start about 8:30 Hastings time or 10:30 Pittsfield time. It will begin immediately following the first half of the twin bill. Last night's paid attendance was a record breaking 6,470.

A six-run inning was the margin of victory for the Massachusetts team. Billings had taken a 1-0 lead in the second, but Pittsfield went ahead 3-1 in the third. In the fourth inning Pittsfield received five of its 12 walks and two of its four hits to build up a 9-1 lead the Montana team kept chipping away but could never overcome.

Costanzo Tires

Joe Costanzo started for Pittsfield but tired after three innings and was removed by Coach George (Red) Pleau in favor of southpaw Tommy MacCartney. MacCartney held the opposition scoreless for three innings, but he appeared to tire in the later stages and was reached for two scores in the seventh and single runs in the eighth and ninth. He hung in there, however, and emerged with the decision, his seventh straight in the playoffs.

Righthander Steve Huntsberry started for Billings and lasted until the third. Chuck Muller came in, but after giving up a bunt single, two walks, and throwing two balls to the next batter, was relieved by left hander Paul Highland, who finished up. Huntsberry was charged with the loss.

In Pittsfield's large fourth inning, Ronnie Kelly and Ray Woitkowski walked. Miller came in, and MacCartney laid down a nice bunt toward third. By the time Miller Paul O'Gara walked to force in ran it down every one was safe. Kelly, and Bob Magi strolled to bring in Woitkowski. Miller threw two balls to Gary Soldato, and was lifed for Highland. Highland finished up the base on balls to Soldato, forcing in MacCartney.

Garivaltis Hits

George Garivaltis then belted a line drive to centerfield that scored O'Gara after the catch. Mark Belanger dropped a double inside the right field line to score Magi and send Soldato to third. The Pittsfield second baseman came across a minute later when, on an attempted theft of the plate, Highland balked, allowing the sixth run of the inning to score.

Pittsfield's first three runs in the third were made possible by two walks, a hit, a hit batsman, some sharp base running and Billings' two errors. Costanzo led off with a base on balls, and went to second when Billings' catcher Wayne Bell threw the ball into right field on an attempted pick-off. Costanzo went ot third when O'Gara grounded out to first.

Magi received a base on balls. Soldato singled to left scoring Costanzo and putting Magi on second. Garivaltis hit a fly ball to right field but Magi made third after the catch. Soldato and Magi then tried the double steal and Magi was safe at the plate when Bell dropped the ball. Belanger was hit in the arm by a pitched ball, and he and Soldato, who had gone to third on Bell's error, worked a successful double steal, which scored Soldato with the third run.

Fox Triples

Billings' second inning run came off Costanzo when Ed Bayne, safe on Kelly's error, crossed the plate on Rick Fox's triple.

Billing's next two runs came in the seventh off MacCartney on two walks, a single and an error. Three singles and an error accounted for the one Billings run in the eighth. The fifth Montana run in the ninth inning came on a base on balls, a single and a fielder's choice when Pittsfield missed the second part of a possible double play.

The single was hit to right center by Ed Bayne and O'Gara made a nice back hand grab on the first hop to cut off the ball and hold Bayne to one base.

The play set up the force by preventing extra bases.

Bayne made a spectacular play on John Tagliaferro's ground ball in the seventh. He fielded the tough chance but fell. From a lying-down position he tossed the ball to pitcher Highland, who was coming across the bag to make the putout.

No Pittsfield batter had more than one hit. Belanger's double was the only extra-base blow for the East Coast boys.

O'Gara and Kelly each walked three times and Magi and Soldato scored twice apiece. Centerfielder Bob Fry and rightfielder Bill McIntosh each had two hits for Billings. One of McIntosh's was a double.

Young's Ninth-Inning Home Run Defeats Pittsfield Legion Team, 5-4

Staten Island Post Erases 4-0 Eighth-Inning Deficit

Pittsfield Faces White River Jct. (Vt.) Today at 1 in Battle for Survival; Costanzo Goes Route, Allowing Seven Hits

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H. — A towering two-run, home-run smash over the left-field fence, with nobody out in the ninth inning, by Staten Island right-fielder Carvin Young snatched victory from the Pittsfield Legion baseball team yesterday afternoon in its first appearance in the regionals at Alumni Field here. Pittsfield held a 4-0 margin going into the last of the eighth inning, but three runs in the last of the eighth by the Huttner-Pasqualini Post of New York and Young's climactic blow gave the New York State champs a 5-4 victory.

Locals Play At 1

The loss puts Pittsfield in the first game today against White River Junction (Vt.) in a battle for tournament survival. The Vermont team dropped a 6-3 decision to Portland, Maine, in the opening game yesterday. The team that loses today goes home, and its suits go to the cleaners in preparation for next year.

The winner of the contest today will meet West Warwick, R.I. tomorrow afternoon in the first game of the day at 1. If Pittsfield wins that one it will play the first game Sunday afternoon at 1:30. One more loss would put the Berkshire County team out of the tourney. (West Hartford, Conn. defeated West Warwick 16-14 last night).

Pittsfield right-hander Joe Costanzo went all the way yesterday and was complete master of the Staten Island club until the eighth inning. He had given up only two hits and no walks and had fanned eight. Only one runner had reached second base, and the Pittsfield ace had retired 17 men in a row.

Trouble started right away in the eighth. Young, the hero of the New York squad's win, reached safely when third baseman Bobby Magi bobbled his ground ball. Four successive singles by pinch hitters Dan McDermott and Tom Killeen, relief pitcher John Mandia and third baseman Joe Palmieri accounted for two of Staten Island's three scores.

Woitkowski Stars

All this happened with no outs and the bases still loaded. Drew Kelly then sent a long fly to center that scored Palmieri easily, but after the catch Pittsfield centerfielder Ray Woitkowski threw a perfect one-bounce peg to third to cut down Mandia, who tried to go to third after the catch. After a walk to Sollazzo, another fly to Woitkowski ended the inning, with the Massachusetts champs still leading 4-3. Walks to Paul O'Gara and Gary Soldato in the top of the ninth raised the hopes of the many Pittsfield fans that the Berkshire County team might add to its total, but a double play on George Garivaltis' ground ball to short ended the rally.

The climax came quickly in the Staten Island half of the ninth. The count went to three and two on leadoff hitter Charlie Romanolo, but Costanzo lost him and he walked. Young did not wait. The first pitch was letter high and to his liking, and he rode it out of park, clearing the 330-foot left field fence easily.

Pittsfield jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the second inning. With two out, John Tagliaferro singled to left for Pittsfield's first hit of the game. Ronnie Kelly followed with a hit up the middle. A line single to left on a three and one pitch by Woitkowski scored Tagliaferro. Romanolo's throw went high over the catcher's head and Kelly kept on coming. Pitcher Len Olsen, backing up the play, retrieved the ball, and fired to catcher Frank Fernandez at the plate. Kelly was called out, but the catcher dropped the ball, and the verdict was changed to safe.

The second two Pittsfield runs came in the sixth. Soldato led off with a walk and after Garivaltis flied out, Mark Belanger received a base on balls. Tagliaferro reached on an error and the bases were full. Soldato scored when Staten Island could only get the force on the attempted double play on Ron Kelly's grounder. Kelly and Belanger then worked a pretty double steal, and Belanger came in with Pittsfield's fourth score.

Mandia Stifles Pittsfield

After Woitkowski walked, relief pitcher Mandia came in and finished up. He allowed only one hit the rest of the way, and although giving up three walks, he held Pittsfield scoreless.

Paul O'Gara was the only player in the game with two hits. He had an infield hit in the fifth and a Texas leaguer to right center in the seventh. He also drew a walk in the ninth. Young's game-winning homer was the only extra base blow of the contest. The defensive gem was Woitkowski's throw to third that broke the Staten Island rally in the eighth.

Mayor Charles Coolidge of Keene welcomed the tournament to his city. He was refreshingly brief.

Thirteen major league scouts were there. They included Joe Cusick of the Orioles, Harry Hesse of the Yankees, George Kissell of the Cardinals, Ernie Pizetti of the Senators, Hank Swazey of the Braves, Bill Enos of the Athletics, Billy Stewart of the Indians, Whitey Piurek and Bill Kearns, both of the Dodgers, Lennie Merullo of the Cardinals, Ron Northey of the White Sox, Stan Benjamin of the Phillies and Jack Onslow of the Red Sox.

Cusick, who roomed with Pittsfield High Coach Nick Morris at Holy Cross, said Red Daughters, former Cross third baseman, now is general sales manager for the plastic division of the Goodall Fabric Company in New York City. Red lives in Noroton Heights, Conn. Veteran Berkshire fans will recall that Daughters played briefly with Troy's Garage of West Stockbridge in the middle 1930s.

Ex-Red Sox pitcher Joe Dobson came over from nearby Munsonville, N.H., for the game. Joe was interviewed by Roger O'Gara over WBEC.

Marty O'Gara, ex-Dalton High athlete, who lives in Framingham, attended. Harry Brennan of Dalton and his grandson, Bob Pratt, were there. So were City Solicitor William Flynn and Ward 7 Councilman John Fraser.

Among others noted were Boys' Club Superintendent Fred Fahey, John Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. James Mazzer, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Woitkowski, Lou Pia Sr. and Jr., John (Skinny) Saveruka, Ollie Berzohini, Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Sohles, Pittsfield High football players Jimmy Hickey and Jimmy Fassell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Hickey, Pat Flynn, Clem Ferris, Mrs. Mary Daligian, John Shaughnessy, Dr. Thomas Norton, Jack Maguire, Bill Hynes, Earl Marshall, Dr. Charles Fasce, Clement M. Farrell, Charles C. Kelley, Mrs. Stephen Trepacz and daughters Rosemary and Susan, Miss Susan Szymanski, Miss Christine Scelsi, Billy McKeever, Sandy Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furciniti, Mr. and Mrs. John MacCartney and daughter Lois, Mrs. Ed Belanger, Legion Cmdr. Edwin McLaughlin, Thomas Lynch, former State Rep. Arthur Milne, John Donna Jr., Alfred Barscz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Varanka, Joseph Hazzard of Great Barrington, Mis Terry Keyes, Mrs. Roger O'Gara, Miss Colleen O'Gara, Judy Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck of North Adams, Jack Farr, County Treasurer John Shields, Ted Nandevck, and Leo Gleason, Jr.

Frank Flies In

Aviator Jim Frank flew down from Pittsfield in 18 minutes, then required 25 minutes in a taxicab to go from the Keene Airport to the ball park. With him were John Keye, Herb Martin and Tom Rose, new owner of the Berkshire Restaurant.

Also attending were: John Noonan and sons, Jackie and Tommy, John (Bud) Doyle and sons, Jack, Tommy and Terry, and Bob Doyle and Bob Jr.

Besides big league scouts there were Boy Scouts of Troop 19, Steve Kotski, Shaun Kirby and Robert Oakes, with Scoutmaster Bill Hunter.

Ceremonies preceded both games. Keene Mayor Charles Coolidge welcomed the gathering and past National Comdr. James O'Neil of Manchester, N.H., read the sportsmanship code before the first game. Massachusetts Department Adj. Peter Pappas threw out the first ball to start the Pittsfield-Staten Island contest.

John Freitas, who got in at first base for the White River Junction team in the first game, is the son of Tony Freitas of football fame at Boston College about 25 years ago, and the nephew of Ben Freitas, football, baseball and track athlete at the University of Massachusetts about 20 years ago.

Pittsfield, With MacCartney, Tops Staten Island 8-6 for Fourth in Row

Local Legion Team Avenges Defeat by New York Post

O'Gara Stars at Plate and in Field— Pittsfield Must Beat West Hartford Tonight and Tomorrow To Win Title

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H.—The Pittsfield Legion baseball team dispatched another bus last night, this one for Staten Island, N.Y., with the Huttner-Pasqualini Post team that the Massachusetts champions turned back 8-6 at Alumni Field here in the North East regionals. It was sweet revenge for Pittsfield as the Staten Island team was the club that beat the Berkshire County boys in their opening game last Thursday by a score of 5-4.

Locals Meet West Hartford

The tournament is now down to two teams, Pittsfield and West Hartford. They will meet tonight under the lights at Alumni Field at 7:30. The Connecticut champions have yet to be beaten so Pittsfield must win tonight and tomorrow night in order to take the Northeast crown. A victory by West Hartford tonight would give that club the title.

Southpaw Tommy MacCartney and right fielder Paul O'Gara were the stars of last night's win. MacCartney pitched all the way for Pittsfield, and although reached for 11 hits and four walks, he was tough when he had to be. He struck out nine. O'Gara had three hits in six trips to the plate, drove in two runs and scored once himself. He made a beautiful running catch near the right field foul line for the all-important second out in the last inning. He tumbled after the grab but held the ball. His two RBI's came in the top of the ninth. With Pittsfield leading by a single run 6-5 the bases loaded and two away, he drilled a shot to left field that gave Pittsfield the winning cushion.

Staten Island came back with a run in the ninth when catcher Frank Fernandez doubled to the center field fence, and scored when two balks were called against MacCartney.

Staten Island jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning when with two out, Joe Sollazzo drew a walk, stole second and scored on the first of Fernandez' three hits. Pittsfield went ahead in the second on a walk to John Tagliaferro, a single to left by Ray Woitkowski and an error by Staten Island third baseman Joe Palmieri on MacCartney's ground ball, which scored both runners. The Massachusetts team added another in the third on a base on balls to Gary Soldato and a double by George Garivaltis.

Staten Island Pulls Even

Staten Island tied it up in the sixth on an infield error, and singles by pitcher John Mandia and Palmieri. Pittsfield broke the deadlock in the top of the seventh with three runs. O'Gara led off with a single and went to second on a base on balls to Bob Magi. Soldato singled to right to load the bases, and O'Gara and Magi scored on Garivaltis' ground ball to third that went through Palmieri. Belanger then hit a line drive to center that scored Soldato. The ball was trapped by center fielder Den McDermott. Garivaltis, on first, thought it was caught in the air and held first. He was forced at second.

Staten Island came back with two in its half of the seventh. Singles by Joe Sollazzo, Frank Fernandez and Carvin Young and a sacrifice fly by McDermott accounted for the two scores and made it 6-5. O'Gara's hit in the ninth made it 8-5 and Fernandez' run in the last inning brought the score to 8-6.

McDermott started for Staten Island but was lifted in the third inning. Mandia finished up and was charged with the loss.

Sollazzo and Fernandez had six of Staten Island's 11 safeties, with three apiece.

Ray Woitkowski was the only other Pittsfield batter with more than one hit. He had two singles.

HEROES' ACCLAIM is given to Joe Costanzo, at left and Mark Belanger, who combined yesterday to lead the Pittsfield American Legion team to a 2-1, extra-inning victory over Concord, N.H., to remain in contention for the Northeast regional title. Costanzo, in one of his greatest performances, struck out 17 and allowed only three hits, two of them bunts. Belanger led off the 11th inning with a homer for the winning run. The Pittsfield team will take on Staten Island, N.Y., for the second time tonight at 7:30 at Keene, N.H.

Tom MacCartney Hurls 5-Hitter as Legion Beats White River Junction 9-2

Soldato's Three-Run Homer Clinches Game for Pittsfield

Coach Red Pleau Names Ray Woitkowski To Pitch Against West Warwick, R.I.— Loser This Afternoon Is Out of Tourney

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H.—The Pittsfield Legion baseball team stayed alive on the five-hit pitching job of lefthander Tom MacCartney and eliminated the Vermont champion, Hartford Post of White River Junction, from the Northeast regionals at Alumni Field here yesterday afternoon. The score was 9-2. MacCartney walked only two and struck out eight. A three-run homer by Pittsfield second baseman Gary Soldato in the sixth put the Massachusetts champions ahead 6-2 and pretty much determined the outcome.

1 p.m. Starting Time

Pittsfield plays the first game this afternoon against West Warwick, R.I. Game time is 1 p.m. The Rhode Island representative was defeated in its opener Thursday night 16-14 by West Hartford, Conn., in a long, wild and woolly affair. The loser of the Pittsfield-West Warwick contest will be out of the tournament, as both have been defeated once. Coach George (Red) Pleau has named Ray Woitkowski as his starting pitcher. If the Berkshire County team triumphs today, it will go into action in a 1:30 game tomorrow afternoon.

Although Pittsfield downed the White River Junction club by quite a substantial margin, the outcome definitely was uncertain for the first five innings. The Massachusetts boys took a 2-0 lead in the second on singles by Mark Belanger and Ronnie Kelly and a wild and ill-advised outfield throw to the plate on Kelly's hit. The Vermont club broke the scoring ice in the third on catcher Jim Raymond's bases-empty home run over the left field fence.

Tied in Fourth

White River Junction tied it up in the fourth at 2-2. Lead-off man Mike Laramie got all the way to second when his grounder went through third baseman Bob Magi and shortstop Mark Belanger threw it wildly to first. After Ed Brehout and John Freitas went out, Ray Johnson doubled down the left field line to score Laramie.

The deadlock did not last long. In the top of the fifth, Pittsfield added a single score when Magi was hit by a pitch, Soldato and Belanger walked and Vermont shortstop Larry Lord bobbled John Tagliaferro's ground ball.

The Massachusetts champs gave their rooters a little more comfort in the sixth inning. MacCartney reached when Freitas dropped a throw at first and Paul O'Gara walked. Magi fouled out but Soldato laid on the fi[illegible]ch and sent it far over the left centerfield fence to make the score 6-2.

With the four-run cushion and MacCartney's fine pitching, Pittsfield was never threatened again. The slim Pittsfield pitcher drove in another score in the seventh following walks to Tagliaferro and Woitkowski and a fielder's choice on Kelly. Soldato added another in the eighth when he singled, stole second, continued to third when the throw went into centerfield and came in on a balk by Ray Johnson, the third Vermont pitcher. Woitkowski made the final run in the ninth. He singled, went to second on a wild pitch, and came all the way in when the White River Junction catcher was slow in going after a second wild heave by pitcher Johnson.

Three Pitchers

The losers used three men on the mound. Southpaw John Freitas started and went to the fifth. He was charged with the loss. Bob Poirier came over from first base and pitched the last out in the fifth and the sixth inning. Johnson came in from center field to hurl the last three.

Soldato and George Garivaltis were the hitting stars for the winners. Soldato had his home run and a single and three RBI's. Garivaltis had a single and a long double which followed Soldato's homer and was just a little short of duplicating it. Raymond and Johnson had four of the Vermont club's five hits. Raymond had a home run and single and Johnson rapped out a double and single. The defensive sparkler of the con-

In opening ceremonies Vermont Legion State Dept. Comdr. Raymond Crosier of Readsborough, Vt., read the sportsmanship code.

Mayor and Mrs. Raymond L. Haughey were present for yesterday's game. Other Pittsfield people spotted for the first time yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Russo and family, John Goswell, Harry Kiligas, Mrs. August Kiligas, Mass. Legion Auxiliary president, and Harry Tyler.

The early innings were played in a light misty drizzle. Although the skies were overcast during most of the game, the weather brightened some toward the end of the contest.

Pittsfield Legion Commander McLaughlin Is Excellent Host To Brockton Visitors

AUG 8 1960

By ROGER O'GARA

Outgoing Pittsfield Legion commander Edwin McLaughlin was a hospitable host for Brockton's visitors after the home team decisively squared the state junior baseball final series yesterday afternoon. McLaughlin requested Harry Tyler, chief of the Pittsfield exchequer, to advance $200 to Brockton to cover overnight arrangements.

Then he made dining and sleeping commitments for Brockton. Approximately 75, including players, their parents, coaches and officials dined at the White Tree Club, which is the food affiliate of the Legion. Fred Pittman, manager of the club, was about to close, but McLaughlin asked him to put on a dinner for the visitors.

McLaughlin made arrangements for most of the visitors to spend the night at the Hotel Berkshire.

The Brockton team was scheduled for a workout this morning at 10 o'clock at Wahconah Park. After their disastrous showing there yesterday afternoon, Coach George (Scoop) Gustafson felt this would be time well-spent.

Gustafson is 43 years old. He's a foreman for a shoe manufacturing plant in Brockton. He was high in praise for Joe Costanzo, although he well realized that Joe had an off-day in the series opener at Brockton.

Thirty members of the Brockton party were slated to eat luncheon early this afternoon at the Brass Rail Restaurant.

Captain Gary (Red) Soldato redeemed himself for fielding deficiencies in the series opener at Brockton. The star second baseman had three gems. The first was a glide-over gloved handed stop on Mike Clifford's hot grounder in the first inning. The second was the most spectacular, a leaping stab of Denny Yannone's liner in the second. He turned that into a double play, throwing to shortstop Mark Belanger for a double-up of Rollie Hicks at second base. The third was an over-the-shoulder running catch of Jay O'Leary's sinking fly ball in short right center in the fifth.

MacCartney's curve was dazzling. He went full count on several hitters early in the game, but once he found the range he was the complete master. He walked only one man, and retired the last 14 batters. In that long span, only one man hit a ball out of the infield.

On his sixth trip to the plate yesterday, Paul O'Gara finally broke his Wahconah Park jinx. His solid single to right center in the eighth drove in two runs. It was his first hit in five home playoff games. On the road in the playoffs, he has made seven hits in 13 times at bat.

Umpire Jim Sullivan has a bad swelling in his left leg after being struck by a ball thrown by right fielder Ed Butler in the eighth inning of the game at Brockton. Butler took George Garivaltis' liner, and tried to pick off Bobby Magi at first base.

Soldato was hit in the shoulder by a tomato thrown by a Brockton fan after the game ended Saturday. Red said it didn't hurt.

Don Valentino, sportscaster for Radio Station WBET of Brockton, had automobile trouble en route to Pittsfield. This writer was an emergency replacement for the play-by-play account back to Brockton. Lee Fierman of WBEC handled the color.

This was Pittsfield's fifth game in five days, its seventh in the last eight days.

The objectives will be double tonight for each team — Keene and keen.

Gus Thompson, a Brockton rooter, told Commander McLaughlin that he was impressed by Pittsfield hospitality for the second time. The first was in June, 1959, when he was stricken with an attack of kidney stones while attending the state Legion convention here. He said a Pittsfield doctor treated him, and never sent a bill. McLaughlin is sure he knows the name of the doctor.

There were two volunteers for the Pittsfield pitching assignment in the rubber game of the semi-final series with Somerville.

Coach Red Pleau put the job up for bid.

"Who wants it?" he asked.

Joey Costanzo said he did. Red hesitated because he didn't want to use his little ace with only one day of rest. He didn't make any decision then. He merely ordered all pitchers to start throwing.

Romolo (Slo) Magi told Red that Ray Woitkowski also had volunteered for the assignment. Ray is soft-spoken, and Red hadn't heard him. After receiving the tip from Magi, Red asked Ray how he felt. Ray said his back was better, and he thought he could pitch. So Red dispatched him to the mound corps.

Ten minutes before game time, Red gave a lineup to Eagle sports writer Bill Mahan. Costanzo was listed as the pitcher. Just before play began, Red called Bill from the grandstand, and said Woitkowski would start.

Pittsfield's last baseball relationship with Brockton was in 1949. That was the year the high school teams of the two communities met for the state title at Braves Field in Boston. Pittsfield won 3-0 behind the fine pitching of William (Bobo) Quadrozzi.

Mrs. Howard Kelly, mother of Pittsfield first baseman Ronnie Kelly, suffered a back injury shortly after the game ended in Brockton. She lost her balance and fell to the ground after a boy jumped out of the low bleachers, and collided with her. She was released after emergency treatment, and returned to Pittsfield with her family.

Since both teams split the profits in the third game of each series, Somerville brought home $175 Friday night. That was almost three times the total gate for the Pittsfield-Somerville contest at Somerville. It represented one-half of the net receipts. There were 815 paid admissions, 630 adults and 189 students. The total gate was $538, and expenses were $182.

Coach George (Red) Pleau of Pittsfield observed that a $1.85 ball was being used in the opening game of the series at Brockton. He said his team uses $3 balls for all of its home contests.

Lloyd Hill, former line coach of the Pittsfield High football team and now head coach of the sport at Canton High, attended the game at O'Donnell Field. Lloyd, a native of Brockton, had a four-four record in his first season at Canton. He expects a stronger team next fall. He is working as a real estate salesman during the summer.

Eddie Connolly Jr., the former St. Joseph's High and American Legion pitching star, was at the game. He came up from Yarmouth, where he is playing for that community's entry in the Lower Cape Cod Baseball League. He was on the 1957 legion team that went to the Eastern finals at Elkton, Md.

Tom Tole, who probably is the oldest regular follower of the Pittsfield Legion team, suffered his second successive road injury at Brockton. He was struck on the chest by a ball hit by a Brockton player during batting practice. Two days before, he received cuts on his leg when the car in which he was riding crashed into another vehicle at Waltham.

In the Pittsfield delegation at Brockton were Mr. and Mrs. John MacCartney, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Belanger, Mr. and Mrs. James Tagliaferro, Mr. and Mrs. Nazerano Soldato, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Costanzo, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hickey and sons, Jim and Bob, Robert Dillon, Nado Cianfarini, August Kiligas, Harry Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelly, Mrs. Stephen Trepacz and daughter, Rosemary, Benjamin Bates, Deborah Sohles and Colleen O'Gara.

Blind sports enthusiast Irvin Rossi sat in the press box at Wahconah Park yesterday. Friends assisted him as he climbed up the ladder, and walked across the ramp atop the grandstand. He thoroughly enjoyed it, commenting, "It was a new experience. I could follow the game better up there, because I didn't have to listen to all of the crowd noise."

Ray Gavoni, manager of the Brockton team, returned to his home city last night to check on the condition of his 24-year-old son, who recently was stricken with polio. Ray planned to make the long trip back to Pittsfield today.

Nick Outchcunis, Brockton's shortstop, received treatment last night at the Pittsfield General Hospital for a bruised calf.

Brockton Legion has the only woman commander in the state. She is Miss Alice Price, who is an employe of the Veteran's Administration. Brockton fans estimate that Miss Price is in her middle 30s. She sent word that she will try to arrange her work so that she can attend tonight.

The third and deciding contest, with the state championship as the prize, will be played tonight starting at 5 at Wahconah Park as Pittsfield won the coin toss Saturday for the fourth straight time in the play-offs.

Woitkowski To Pitch

Ray Woitkowski, who made his first mound appearance in a month in his two-hit 12-1 victory in the rubber game with Somerville Friday night, will be Pittsfield Coach George (Red) Pleau's choice to take the big one tonight. Brockton Coach George (Scoop) Gustafson has announced he will start Dennis Yonnone, a hard throwing righthander, who plays left field when not on the mound.

Surviving an inauspicious start in which Pittsfield went out to a 3-0 lead in the first two innings Saturday, Brockton righthander Don Antonangeli shut out his opponents without a hit the rest of the way, while his teammates made use of Pittsfield errors and hard hitting off battle-weary Joe Costanzo to run up an eight-run total before the game was over. Pittsfield had only three hits.

The seventh hole-in-one of the day afternoon when Southpaw Tommy MacCartney tossed a six-hitter and walked only one batsman as the Pittsfield boys bombed four pitchers for 15 hits and drew 11 bases on balls.

reached on an infield hit, and went to second when Soldato was hit by a pitched ball. After Garivaltis flied deep to left, Belanger rapped a two-strike pitch inside the third base bag. The ball got by Yannone in left and both Magi and Soldato scored and Belanger wound up on third.

MacCartney stepped in and greeted Johnson with a single inside the third base bag that scored Woitkowski. Paul O'Gara came up for the second time in the inning and grounded to first for the final out.

Pittsfield added two more in the second. Magi led off with a single, went to second on Soldato's base hit, but was out at the plate, Yannone to Hicks, on Garivaltis' single to left. After the play at the plate, Hicks threw to second base trying to get Garivaltis who went for another base on the throw-in. Hicks' throw was high and rolled all the way to the centerfield fence. Before it was retrieved and returned to the plate, both Soldato anad Garivaltis had scored.

Ray Woitkowski made Pittsfield's ninth run in the third. He led off against Hicks, now pitching, with a walk, stole second and continued to third on catcher Ed Butler's throw into the dirt at second, and came in on a passed ball.

After MacCartney and O'Gara struck out, Magi walked and stole second. Soldato was at bat when the passed ball occurred, and Magi advanced to third. Soldato walked, and, with Garivaltis at the plate, Soldato and Magi worked the double steal, Magi scoring. Soldato came across on Garivaltis' double to rightcenter.

Pittsfield's final two runs were scored in the eighth by Kelly and Woitkowski on O'Gara's line single to right-center.

Substitute Scores

Brockton's run came in the fifth. With one out, Jack Thomas singled, went to second on Outchcunis' hit, to third when Clifford walked, and came across the plate after Orlando lined out to Woitkowski in deep center.

Pittsfield racked up a weird play in the sixth when lead-off man Yannone fanned on a sharp breaking curve that went into the dirt. Garivaltis scooped up the ball without dropping it, and Yannone went back toward the dugout.

Garivaltis snapped the ball to Magi to be whipped around the infield. The ball went from Magi to Belanger to Soldato at which time it occurred to someone that the last strike had hit the dirt. Soldato ran over to first to make the putout, and Garivaltis, Magi, and Belanger were credited with assists.

Antonangeli retired the side in order in four innings—the fourth, sixth, seventh and ninth. He struck out seven, walked four, and hit one.

Costanzo was losing for only the second time this year. His other defeat came April 22 when he pitched a two-hitter, but bowed to Springfield Classical 3-1. In the interim, he had pitched 18 consecutive victories.

Making his fourth start in 10 days, Joey looked tired. His curve wasn't behaving, and he often was wild high. Still, he wasn't as bad as the final score made him appear. He allowed only eight hits, but three errors in the sixth inning enabled Brockton to put on the clincher with four unearned runs. Costanzo struck out seven, passed four.

Bunting Helps

Good bunting helped Brockton as it tied the score in the second. Clean-up man Rollie Hicks walked as a starter, and stopped at second base on Denny Yannone's line single to left. Then Eddie Butler's intended sacrifice was so good, it rolled by first baseman Ron Kelly for a hit. Hicks scored. Ken Stevens sacrifice bunt moved the runners into scoring position, and Antonangeli brought them in with a line single to left.

Marty Orlando's fly single just inside the right field line, his theft of second, an infield out and a wild pitch sent Brockton ahead 4-3 in the third.

Mark Belanger drove in Pittsfield's run in the first with a single to left. It scored Gary Soldato, who reached on a fielder's choice and moved to second on shortstop Nick Outchcunis' miscue of Garivaltis' grounder.

Antonangeli's wildness set the stage for Pittsfield's two-run splurge in the second. He hit Ray Woitkowski and walked Costanzo with one out. Then Paul O'Gara singled to right center to score Woitkowski. When the throw-in rolled through catcher Hicks, Costanzo came all the way in. A big inning appeared in the making, but Antonangeli braced to fan Bobby Magi and get Soldato on a fly to left.

A base on balls started more woe for Costanzo in the sixth. Butler drew it with one out. Stevens' grounder to Soldato had a double play label, but the Pittsfield second baseman kicked it. Butler started for third on the error, and didn't stop there when Soldato threw into the dirt. Stevens went to third, and scored on Belanger's error on Jay O'Leary's grounder. Then consecutive doubles by Outchcunis and Mike Clifford each brought a run

Fine-Fielding Staten Island Will Be Pittsfield's Opponent at Keene, N.H.

Buffalo Is Defeated 4-3 In Finals at Cooperstown

Winners Profit by Loose Defense, Score Three Unearned Runs; Reversed Decision Gives Them Margin of Victory

By ROGER O'GARA

Staten Island, a team that fields and runs well, will be Pittsfield's opponent in the opening round of the Northeastern American Legion junior baseball tournament Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in Keene, N.H. It earned the right by edging hitherto undefeated Buffalo 4-3 Saturday afternoon before 300 at Doubleday Field, Cooperstown, N.Y., in the New York state championship game.

Radigan Stars Afield

Defense wrote the story. Only one of Staten Island's runs was earned as three of Buffalo's four errors figured in the scoring. The winners give big right-hander Lennert Olsen almost flawless support. Their one miscue led to Buffalo's first run, but from there in shortstop Edmund (Mickey) Radigan, who was charged with the boot, was the fielding star.

Actually, a reversed decision at first base in the fourth inning provided Staten Island with its margin of victory. Umpire Joe Tudico called Dan McDermott out at first base, then changed his mind when he noted that first baseman Mike Denisco had juggled shortstop John Wegrzyn's low throw. It would have been an inning-ending play with no score, but two runs came over as the result of the reversal.

Until this inning, stocky right-hander Alan Cooper of Buffalo appeared to own the premises in this community that was christened in honor of his distinguished namesake, James Fenimore. He retired 10 of the first 11 men he faced. McDermott, who reached on a base on balls in the second inning, became the first part of a double play.

With two out in the fourth, Cooper's trouble started when he walked Charley Romanolo. Frank Fernandez singled to center, and took second on the unsuccessful throw to third on Romanolo. Then came the big play. McDermott hit a slow roller toward second base. Wegrzyn charged the ball and threw hurriedly to first. Tudico gave the out sign, then switched. Romanolo scored easily, and Fernandez also counted when Denisco, thinking the side had been retired, gave up the ball and started in toward his dugout.

Olsen had a slight edge over Cooper. Leaning heavily on his curve that alternately looked sharp and then hung, he yielded eight hits, struck out seven, passed three. Cooper was reached for nine hits, fanned six, and walked four.

It was scoreless until the fourth. After Staten Island's tainted runs, Buffalo rallied. A run in the bottom of the fourth came on singles by Jim Mastrodicasa and Paul Feltman, Radigan's error on Hugh Levick's sharp one-bounder, and Tom Lenegan's forceout of Levick on a grounder to Radigan.

Buffalo tied the count in the fifth on three successive singles after two were out. Wegrzyn lined into left. Cooper had a hit on a high-bounding grounder on which first baseman Joe Sollazzo made a superb stop. Then Mastrodicasa blazed a single into center to score Wegrzyn.

Mastrodicasa went from hero to goat in a few minutes. A walk to Fernandez, his theft of second, and Carvin Young's hard shot single to right gave Staten Island a chance with one out in the sixth. Fernandez scored when Mastrodicasa dropped catcher Feltman's pickoff throw after it appeared the runner had been trapped off third base. Then successive doubles by Tony Manzella and Radigan brought another run.

Best Homers

Jerome Best, Buffalo's No. 9 batter, homered far over the left field fence 346 feet from home plate with two outs in the ninth. Then Olsen braced to get Denisco on a high fly to Young in right. Best's circuit clout came as a complete surprise He had fanned twice and grounded to shortstop in three previous appearances.

Radigan made the play of the day when he leaped high to spear Lenegan's liner in the sixth, and threw to first to double up Levick, who had singled. Young, the only colored boy in the game, pulled a fielding gem when he went deep for Cooper's drive near the right field wall with two out in the seventh.

Pittsfield Legion Officials Making Final Plans for Keene, N.H.

Team Leaves Tomorrow at 1, Will Stay at Eagle Hotel

National Rules Call for Pittsfield Trip Thursday; Local Committee To Pay Expense For Extra Night; First Game Thursday

By BILL MAHAN

Pittsfield American Legion athletic officials and Coach George (Red) Pleau are making final preparations today for the Pittsfield team's trip to the Legion regional competition at Keene, N.H. The local club's first game will be Thursday afternoon at 3:30 against the New York state champion Huttner-Pasqualini post of Staten Island, N.Y.

Rules List Thursday Arrival

Pittsfield will go through with its original plans to leave for Keene tomorrow by bus, even though receipt of the rules and regulations from the Legion national committee calls for Thursday as the arrival day for the local team. The Pittsfield committee will pay the expense of the extra night. The departure time tomorrow will be 1 p.m. from the Legion Home.

Pleau preferred to make the trip tomorrow as it will give his players time to get settled, and possibly get a workout at Alumni Field, where the tournament will be played. The Massachusetts state department pays the bill for the state champions during the tourney.

The Pittsfield club's scheduled drill last night was rained out. Weather permitting, the team will practice tonight at Clapp Park. Two sessions were run last week. The practices are confined mostly to hitting to keep the local players' batting eyes sharp. The pitchers also get a chance to loosen up and work on control.

Staying at Eagle Hotel

The Berkshire County club will be housed at the Eagle Hotel in Keene. The Concord team, the New Hampshire champion, and White River Junction, the Vermont titlist, have been advised by the national committee that, because of the relatively short distances involved, they will not be housed at Keene and are expected to commute from their home cities.

The event at Keene is one of eight regionals being run all over the country. The winner of each of the regionals will advance to the national tournament in Hastings, Neb., Aug. 28-Sept. 3. The winner in Nebraska will be the Legion national champion of a program which embraces about 23,000 teams.

DECISIVE THREE-RUN HOMER in the sixth inning by Gary Soldato, about to be congratulated by his teammates upon crossing home plate, put the Pittsfield American Legion team ahead of White River Jct., Vt., 6-2 yesterday. Somerville Evens

Rubber Game Set Tonight At 5 at Wahconah Park

AUG 5 1960

Jerry Harrington Has Grand Slam Triple, Five RBIs for Somerville; Friel Belts 3-Run Homer; O'Gara Raps Out 3 Singles

By BILL MAHAN

The Somerville Legion baseball team evened up the semifinal round of the state playoffs with Pittsfield at a game apiece last night at Lincoln Park, Somerville, with a decisive 9-4 victory. The win for Somerville makes a third game necessary. The contest will take place tonight at 5 at Wahconah Park. The defeat broke the local team's winning streak at nine games.

Pittsfield Pitchers

Pittsfield Coach George (Red) Pleau was undecided last night as to who his starting pitcher would be for today. It could be left fielder John Tagliaferro, who has been the third pitcher on the staff for the latter part of the season or it could be Ted Friel, the big right-hander, who pitched four innings in relief last night. The five o'clock starting time is 30 minutes earlier than previous games here, but it practically assures enough daylight for nine full innings.

Pittsfield led Somerville in all statistics last night except runs. The local team outhit its opposition 10 to seven, drew more bases on balls, six to four, and the two Pittsfield pitchers, Tommy MacCartney and Friel, had more strikeouts, 13 to seven.

The Hampden-Berkshire champs also had more men left on bases, 12 to four, and more errors five to two. Pittsfield's surplus in these departments had much to do with the result.

MacCartney the Loser

MacCartney started and was charged with the loss. Friel came on in the fifth with the score 7-1 and went the rest of the way. He struck out seven batters, getting two in the fifth, three in the sixth and two in the seventh. He gave up three hits and two walks and was responsible for two runs.

The big Lenox School pitcher also struck a big blow in his own behalf, a three-run homer in the eighth.

The ball was slashed just inside the third base bag and ran clear out of the all-dirt park. On base at the time were Ron Kelley, who had walked and Ray Woitkowski, who had singled.

The first Pittsfield run came in the fifth in the person of Paul O'Gara, who had a great night with three clean singles and a walk in five trips to the plate. O'Gara had singled, gone to third on Bob Magi's second base hit of the game and scored on Gary Soldato's sacrifice fly.

Somerville Scores First

Somerville opened the scoring in the third with four runs on center fielder Jerry Harrington's bases-loaded homer. The drive was a line smash to right center that rolled through the parking lot and out in the street. Scoring ahead of Harrington were Jim Lally, who had reached on MacCartney's throwing error, Bob Baldacci who had singled and Bob Taylor who got on with a walk.

Somerville added three more in the fifth. Baldacci led off with a walk. Taylor grounded to Mark Belanger at short, but Gary Soldato couldn't hold Belanger's throw to second and Taylor was safe. Baldacci went to third.

Harrington, the main trouble maker from the Pittsfield point of view, then hit a fly ball down the right field line. O'Gara got a glove on the ball, but could not make the catch, and Harrington made third with a triple. He scored a minute later on a wild pitch. It was then Friel came in to stop the scoring until the eighth.

In the eighth, pitcher Shaun Quinlan led off with a single. John Corbett bunted right back to Friel, but the Pittsfield pitcher threw wild to second in an effort to get Quinlan. Quinlan continued to third. Corbett stole second with Sam Greenwood at bat. Greenwood rapped out a hit to center, scoring Quinlan and sending Corbett to third.

With Ed Mackey batting, Greenwood stole second, and Corbett came in when catcher George Garivaltis' peg went into center field.

Harrington was the offensive star with his grand slam and triple and five RBIs. He also made some excellent catches on long balls to center field. Quinlan was the only other Somerville man with more than one hit. He had two singles.

Quinlan pitched a courageous game. He gave up 10 hits and six walks, but he put the pressure on with men on the bases, proof of which was Pittsfield's 12 stranded base runners.

Woitkowski was the third local batter with more than one hit. He had a triple in the second and a single in the eighth, in addition to a walk in the sixth.

Six-Run 5th Gives

Costanzo Scatters Six Hits, Fans 10 Defending Champs

Second Contest of Quarter-Finals Tonight At 5:30 at Milford; Pleau Wins Coin Toss, Rubber Game, If Needed, Here Tomorrow

By BILL MAHAN

A six-run fifth inning enabled the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team to coast to a 10-0 victory over the defending state champion Milford Post 59 yesterday afternoon before a crowd of about 1,600 at Wahconah Park. It was Pittsfield's ever reliable ace right-hander Joe Costanzo, who held Milford to six scattered hits, struck out 10 and walked only three in turning back the strong visiting club.

The Quarter-Final Opener

The contest was the first of the quarter-final two-out-of-three series. The second game will be tonight at 5:30 at Fino Field in Milford used two pitchers. Ernie (Red) Pleau made it two straight play-off wins in the coin toss ceremonies, so if a third contest is necessary, it will be at Wahconah Park tomorrow night.

Milford used two pitchers, Ernie Kapatoes, the regular shortstop, who has done some effective pitching during the season, started and went to the fifth. He was relieved by Fran Bilodeau, who finished. Kapatoes was charged with the loss.

Pittsfield made nine hits and received nine bases on balls. Five of the walks, four of the hits and one of Milford's three errors came in the local team's fifth inning rally. Every one of the 15 hits in the contest was a single. Every man in Pittsfield's starting line-up received a base on balls except Bob Magi. John Tagliaferro was passed twice. Only one Pittsfield batter went down on strikes, and that was in the first inning.

Wildness Caused Trouble

It was Kapatoes' control that started the explosion in the fifth. Pittsfield held a 4-0 lead at the time. George Garivaltis, Mark Belanger and Tagliaferro walked in succession. Bilodeau relieved Kapatoes, who went to short. Bilodeau had trouble locating the plate and passed Ron Kelly forcing in Garivaltis. It was the only walk Bilodeau gave.

Ray Woitkowski hit a ground single to left that scored Belanger and Tagliaferro. Costanzo followed with a base hit to center, which drove in Kelly and sent Woitkowski to second. Paul O'Gara grounded to Kapatoes at short, but everyone was safe when Paul Lombardi dropped the throw at second on an attempted force out of Costanzo.

After Magi lined back to the box, Gary Soldato belted a hit to center that brought in Woitkowski and Costanzo. This ended the scoring for the inning and the game. Garivaltis grounded into a force out at third. Belanger's smash to third was knocked down by third baseman Frank Tieuli filling the bases and Tagliaferro hit back to the box. Twelve men batted in the inning.

Joe Blazed the Trail

Costanzo scored Pittsfield's first run as well as its last. He led off the third inning by reaching on shortstop Dick Feen's error. O'Gara walked, and both runners moved up on Magi's sacrifice. Costanzo scored on a wild pitch, and O'Gara came in on Garivaltis' single.

Tagliaferro started things in the two-run fourth with a base hit to left, and a theft of second. Kelly flied out and Woitkowski grounded out, but Costanzo drew a base on balls on O'Gara loaded the bases, when his grounder hopped away from Feen. Magi drove in both runs with a line single over third.

Both sides made some sparkling defensive plays. Milford left fielder Bob Foley set the pattern in the first inning with a sensational running catch in left center field on lead-off man O'Gara's long smash. It was Foley's first game in left.

Tieuli also had a fine day at third with three putouts and four assists. He was especially tough on Belanger. The third baseman turned Belanger's ground shot into an out in the third, and knocked down his smash in the fifth that, if it got through, would have meant at least one more Pittsfield run.

Belanger Strikes Back

The Pittsfield shortstop got his share of revenge. He made a great one-hand grab on the short hop of Dick DiLegge's screaming liner and threw out the runner in the seventh. Again in the eighth, he ended the inning by going into the hole to glove Feen's bid for a base hit and flipping to second for a force on Lombardi. Belanger also started a neat double play on Tieuli's ground ball in the fourth.

Tagliaferro looked like a big leaguer on Feen's long drive to left in the sixth. The local left fielder turned at the crack of the bat and headed west at top speed. He turned at just the right moment, reaching up and grabbing the ball on the run.

Southpaw Tommy MacCartney will take the mound for Pittsfield tonight in Milford. MacCartney won two and lost one during the season and beat East Side at Worcester Friday night in the second game of the play-offs. Bill Beaudette, the big right-handed ace of the Milford staff, will try to save his team from elimination.

THE FOURTH RUN for the Pittsfield Legion in its 10-0 victory yesterday over Milford at Wahconah Park was scored by pitcher Joe Costanzo in the fourth inning. Costanzo made three of the Pittsfield runs. He is pictured bringing in the second run of the inning, both of which came on Bob Magi's bases-loaded single. Shown are Milford catcher Ken MacLean, plate umpire Lloyd Wands, and, in the background, on-deck batter Gary Soldato, left, and John Tagliaferro, who had scored ahead of Costanzo. Both are giving Joe the stay-up signal.

THE TYING RUN in Saturday's Pittsfield-Brockton Legion game at Brockton was scored by Ed Butler, shown sliding across the plate, on a single by pitcher Don Antonangeli. The run made the score 3-3. Also pictured are, left to right: Denny Yannone, who had scored ahead of him on the same play; plate umpire Vin Harrington, and Pittsfield catcher George Garivaltis. Brockton added four more before the game ended, to make the final 8-3.

Lead Puts Pittsfield Out of Danger

The Pittsfield Legion baseball team made it apparent early in the afternoon yesterday that it did not intend to let the state crown go by default just because it had lost the first contest. The local team sent 11 men to the plate in the first inning, scored six runs and chased Brockton starter Wayne Richardson. The Berkshire County boys added two more in the second, three in the third and two in the eighth for a total of 13. Brockton averted a shutout with a run in the fifth.

Pittsfield southpaw Tommy MacCartney collected his third victory in the state playoffs. His stuff was good and his control was sharp, and, with the large early lead, which increased as the game went on, and the sensational defensive play of his mates, the slim southpaw was never in any danger.

Consecutive singles in the fifth, which were Brockton's fifth and sixth hits, a walk and a sacrifice fly prevented MacCartney from registering a shutout. He breezed the rest of the way getting the last 14 batters in order.

Everybody Hits

Every player in Pittsfield's starting line-up had at least one hit. Catcher George Garivaltis was the top cannoneer. After flying out to deep left in the first inning, Garivaltis rapped out a single, a double and two more singles in succession, before hitting into a fielder's choice his sixth time at bat. He had one RBI.

First baseman Ronie Kelly contributed three singles and drove across one run in the Pittsfield cause. Third baseman Bobby Magi was the only two-hit performer in the local line-up. Magi was on base five times by virtue of his hits and three walks. The Brockton hits were all singles. Shortstop Nick Outchcunis was the only man with two.

It was the defensive play of Pittsfield that thrilled the crowd as much as the relentless offensive attack. Two real sparklers were turned in by second baseman Gary (Red) Soldato and left fielder John Tagliaferro.

In the second inning with leadoff man Rollie Hicks on second by virtue of Pittsfield's only two errors, left fielder Den Yannone lined a terrific shot toward right center. Soldato timed his leap just right, went high in the air, glove-handed the ball and flipped to shortstop Mark Belanger, who cut over to second to double up Hicks, who had started for third at the crack of the bat.

Tagliaferro's bit of larceny also came in the second. Following the double play Ed Butler reached on an infield hit into the shortstop hole. Center fielder Ken Stevens caught hold of the second pitch and lined it to deep left center. Tagliaferro got a good jump on the drive and one-handed it on the dead run going toward center.

Soldato robbed Mike Clifford in the first inning when he went into the hole toward first to glove Clifford's grounder on the grass and snap it to first for the out. Belanger had five assists and two putouts at short. His play in the hole on Marty Orlando's ground ball and his grab of Stevens' one-hop hotshot, both coming in the fourth inning, were good examples of shortstopping the way it should be done.

Pittsfield wasted little time in mounting its offensive. With one out in the first inning, Magi

MacCartney Holds Milford to Five Hits, Fans 12, Walks Eight—Belanger Hits Two-Run Triple—Soldato Has Two Safeties

By BILL MAHAN

The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team moved up another notch in the state play-offs by eliminating defending champion Milford 4-1 last night at Fino Field in Milford. The contest was called after eight innings because of darkness. The defeat was the second for Milford by the local team. Pittsfield triumphed 10-0 Sunday afternoon at Wahconah Park.

Semifinals Next

The victory puts the Berkshire County team in the semifinal round which will start tomorrow night at 5:30 at Wahconah Park with Somerville as the opponent. The second contest will be at Somerville Thursday night. A coin toss before the first game will determine the site of a third game if one should be necessary.

Southpaw Tommy MacCartney was the winning pitcher last night. He allowed only five hits, three of which were made by Milford third baseman Frank Tieuli, and struck out 12. He caused himself trouble by giving up eight bases on balls, but bailed out, single-handedly most of the time, with strikeouts.

Tommy MacCartney

Wild but wonderful

Pittsfield had enough runs to win before Milford ever came to bat. Paul O'Gara led off with a sharp single up the middle and moved to second on Bob Magi's sacrifice. Soldato reached on a ground ball to Ernie Kapatoes when the Milford shortstop threw low to first.

After George Garivaltis flied out to second, Mark Belanger hoisted a long high drive to left for three bases and two runs. He was left on third when John Tagliaferro flied out to center.

Milford Scores in Second

Milford made its only run in the second on a single by Tieuli, a wild pitch, a walk to Jim Webber and a single to right by pitcher Bill Beaudette. The 1959 champs mounted a strong threat in the third when they loaded the bases with none out on a single by Kapatoes, a sacrifice and fielder's choice to Dick Feen and a bunt single by Tieuli.

MacCartney got Joe Crisefulli and Nick DiLegge on strikes, and the inning ended when Kapatoes was nailed trying to steal home. Milford left 11 runners stranded in the game.

Pittsfield added another run in the fifth on a base on balls to O'Gara, a sacrifice by Magi, a single to left by Soldato, an intentional pass to Belanger and a very unintentional walk to Tagliaferro, forcing in O'Gara.

The local team's final score came in the seventh. Soldato led off with his second hit, and went to second on Garivaltis' infield hit. Soldato reached third while Kapatoes was turning Belanger's hard shot into a double play. The Pittsfield second baseman came in on a wild pitch.

Has Five Hits Too

Pittsfield had only five hits off the big right-handed, hard throwing Beaudette, but he too had control trouble and gave up seven bases on balls. He got just one batter by the strike-out method.

Soldato was the only two-hit man for the local club, and Belanger's triple was the only extra base blow. Soldato scored two of the runs, and O'Gara, who had a perfect night with a hit and three walks, scored the other two.

Tieuli was the offensive standout for Milford with three hits. He scored the run. He also made a fine defensive play in the fifth, when, with one out and runners on second and third, Garivaltis drove a smash at the third baseman's feet. Tieuli blocked the shot, pounced on the ball, and threw the Pittsfield catcher out at first without the base runners advancing.

Milford Memorandums

By ROGER O'GARA

It was Milford's darkest hour in Legion competition. Even the oldest settler couldn't recall when and if Milford had lost two straight before in a playoff series. Milford's last tournament loss at Fino Field was to Brightwood in 1955.

Coach Pep Morcone of Milford said his team suffered from jitters in both games of the Pittsfield series. However, he called Pittsfield a "solid team," and wished Coach George (Red) Pleau well in the coming games.

Pittsfield fans grumbled when Milford players twice put extremely hard tags on Bobby Magi as he ran down the first base line on sacrifice bunts. Pitcher Bill Beaudette and first baseman Nick DiLegge were the boys who punched Bobby with the ball.

Catcher George Garivaltis was Pittsfield's defensive standout. He made a neat block of home plate as Ernie Kapatoes tried to steal in the third inning. And his throw to shortstop Mark Belanger for a pickoff of Jim Webber at second base in the fourth was a big league play.

Jack Onslow, former manager of the Chicago White Sox and longtime scout for the Boston Red Sox, attended. He's 71. Jack said he would be at Wahconah Park tomorrow night for the opening game of the Somerville series.

Nick Morris, Pittsfield High coach, dropped in for half of the game. He was returning from Boston. Nick is driving this summer for the Yellow Coach Co.'s limousine service. Nick has a special interest in the Legion team, because most of the players were members of his state championship team.

This will be the third time Pittsfield and Somerville will have met in advanced Legion play. Pittsfield swept two games in the finals in 1949. Somerville won in a four-game semifinal series in 1950. One contest ended in a tie.

Charles Miller, a former employe of The Eagle's circulation department, now is general manager of the Milford Daily News. He started with that newspaper as an advertising salesman shortly after World War II. Charles has a fine home in the latest residential development. The Daily News is one of five papers in a small chain. Charles will be 42 years old in November. He's a 1937 Pittsfield High graduate. Like all Milford fans, he felt badly about the loss in straight games, but he derived some consolation from the fact that the representatives of his old home town were the victors.

State director Tom Murray of South Boston and John Dazele of Westfield, District 3 chairman, were at the game. They conferred afterward on arrangements for the Pittsfield-Somerville series.

The public address system announcer had a bad time with the Pittsfield names. In the first rundown, he had only two right—O'Gara and Kelly. Later, he messed up O'Gara. He murdered such as Garivaltis, Tagliaferro and Woitkowski.

The paid attendance was 1149. As usual, it was a vociferous crowd. A good-cized Pittsfield delegation was present. Several members were highly vocal. They apparently learned something from the large Milford group Sunday at Wahconah Park.

A DASH MAN'S DASH for home with larcenous intent dashed the hopes of a big inning for Milford as speedy shortstop Ernie Kapatoes, a member of the Milford High track team, was out at the plate attempting to steal home with two out and the bases loaded in the third inning. Shown are Pittsfield catcher George Garivaltis putting on the block and the tag, batter Jim Webber (7), plate umpire Joe Kelliher and part of the estimated crowd of 1,200.

HEADING HOME on his three-run circuit drive in the eighth inning last night at Lincoln Park in Somerville is Pittsfield pitcher Ted Friel (No. 6). Also shown is catcher Andy Camelio (No. 7), Pittsfield players Bobby Magi (No. 4) and Paul O'Gara (No. 13) and umpire Vin Harrington. Somerville squared the state American Legion junior baseball semifinal series by winning 9-4.

THE FINAL RUN in the big six-run first inning in yesterday's Pittsfield-Brockton Legion game at Wahconah Park was scored by Pittsfield centerfielder Ray Woitkowski. Woitkowski had doubled and was driven in by pitcher Tommy MacCartney's single. It was only the beginning for the local team, which won 13-1. Shown waiting for the ball is Brockton catcher Rollie Hicks as plate umpire Jim Sullivan has his eye on the action.

Ray Woitkowski Pitches Two-Hitter In Semifinal Rubber Game; Bottom of Order Does Most Damage to Somerville

By BILL MAHAN

The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team came roaring back last night at Wahconah Park to take the semifinal rubber game from Somerville by a 12-1 score. Pittsfield won the first game Wednesday night 1-0, but lost the second contest in Somerville Thursday night 9-4.

Woitkowski Returns

Ray Woitkowski took the mound last night for the first time since he injured his back about a month ago, and threw a neat two-hitter. He had a no-hitter for four and two-thirds innings, when Jerry Harrington's double against the center field fence drove in Bob Taylor, who had walked, with the only Somerville run.

Woitwoski, who has been playing centerfield, just got the doctor's permission to resume pitching. His return to the hurling wars at this time is like finding money in the street for the Legion team.

The victory last night brings the local club to the state finals, which will start this afternoon at 2 with the Brockton Legion on their home field. Brockton took the rubber game from Reading 4-3 last night in their semifinal set. The second game will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2 at Wahconah Park. A coin will be tossed before today's game to determine the site of a third contest if it is necessary.

Leading Their Aces

Both teams will have their aces ready to open the title series. Joey Costanzo will be on the mound for Pittsfield. Don Antonangelli, who made the Hearst All-Star club, but passed it up for the Legion competition, will start for Brockton.

It was the bottom of the Pittsfield batting order, which inflicted most of the damage on Somerville last night. Ronnie Kelly, hitting seventh had two singles,two RBIs and scored three times. Woitkowski in the eighth spot had a double and single, drove in one and scored twice. Tom Varanka, who took Woitkowski's place in center field, and batted ninth, belted out a triple and single, had two RBIs and made two of Pittsfield's runs.

The big hit producer for the local club was Pittsfield's representative on the Hearst team who also passed it up for the Legion competition, clean-up hitter George Garivaltis. The Pittsfield catcher singled three times. His line drive to right in the first inning brought in Bob Magi, who had also singled to right, with the first run. Magi had gone to second on an infield out.

Big Second

A five run second inning gave Pittsfield a nice cushion and put the pressure on Somerville. With one out Kelly walked and came all the way in on Woitkowski's double to the fence in center. Varanka then tripled down the right field line scoring Woitkowski. The three bagger was hit high and down the line. Jim Lally who was in right field at the time, got a glove on the ball after a long run but couldn't hold it and fell, the ball rolling away from him.

After Paul O'Gara walked Bob Magi bunted. Kelly held up until the play went to first and then scored. First Baseman Ed Mackay's throw to the plate was in the dirt and O'Gara continued on to third. Gary Soldato beat out a hit into the shortstop hole and O'Gara came across with the fourth run of the inning.

Garivaltis then singled to center sending Soldato to third and Somerville pitcher Harrington to center field. Lally came in from right to pitch and center fielder Shaun Quinlan went to right.

Lally's first pitch to Mark Belanger was wild and allowed Soldato to score and Garivaltis to reach second. Another wild pitch put Garivaltis on third, but Lally got Belanger on strikes to end the inning.

Pittsfield's second five-run burst in the fourth came with two outs. Figuring in the scoring were a walk to Belanger, singles by John Tagliaferro and Kelly, a base on balls to Woitkowski, Varanka's single and a throwing error by Somerville shortstop Taylor.

Kelly made the last Pittsfield run in the sixth. He reached on an error went to second on Woitkowski's single, to third on a fielder's choice and scored on another error.

Second Game of Semifinals Is Tonight at Somerville

Bob Magi Drives In Winning Run in 5th, Has 2 of Local Team's 4 Hits; Belanger Out of Action With Nail Puncture in Foot

AUG 4 1960 By BILL MAHAN

That good right arm of Joe Costanzo pitched the Pittsfield Legion baseball team into a one-game lead over Somerville in the state play-off semifinal round on a two-hit 1-0 victory last night at Wahconah Park. Bobby Magi delivered the timely hit in the fifth inning that meant the win for his pal, Joey.

Game Tonight in Somerville

The second game of the series goes on tonight at 5:30 at Lincoln Park in Somerville. For the third time in the play-offs Pittsfield won the coin toss, so if a third game becomes necessary, it will be at Wahconah Park tomorrow night. Southpaw Tommy MacCartney will be the probable starter for Pittsfield tonight. MacCartney holds wins over Worcester East Side and Milford in the play-offs.

Last night's contest sent the crowd home expressing admiration for both teams. Costanzo was great, but Somerville pitcher Bob Taylor, a big righthander, was almost as good. Costanzo fanned nine and walked four and Taylor struck out five and walked four.

Bob Magi

Hitting hero

Pittsfield made only four hits, and one of these was a bad hopper by Tom Varanka in the fifth that started things off for the local team. Taylor is the boy who was hit in the left elbow Sunday by a pitched ball and was thought to be done for the season. Fortunately for Taylor and Somerville the elbow was not fractured and the boy called Coach Tom Palumbo yesterday morning to say he was ready for the trip to the Berkshires.

Many Threats

Pittsfield had men on base in every inning except the fourth, but only in the fifth could it put anything together to produce a score. Varanka led off in the fifth with a ground ball toward the hole between third and short. The ball took a bad hop, striking third baseman John Corbett in the chest as he cut over to field it.

Corbett grabbed the ball, but his hurried throw to first got by first baseman Eddie Mackay, and Varanka went to second. Varanka could not advance as Costanzo fouled out to Mackay, but Paul O'Gara's topped roller to first moved him to third while Taylor was throwing out O'Gara.

It was then that Magi came through with a clean line single to left. It brought in Varanka with the one ever so large run. It was the second hit of the night for Magi, who slapped a grounder through the hole between third and short in the third inning.

As in most low-scoring, low-hit contests, both sides played well defensively. Pittsfield second baseman Gary Soldato made a great play in the seventh on lead-off batter Corbett. Soldato went far to his left in the first base hole to scoop up Corbett's hard grounder one-handed and throw him out at first.

A Key Catch

In the ninth, Soldato made what Coach Palumbo called the key play of the game. Taylor had led off with a Texas league single to center, when he popped a high pitch as he tried to check his swing. Catcher Andy Camelio hit a fly ball into short right field over near the foul line. Soldato was off at the crack of the bat and made the catch look easy, but in Palumbo's opinion many Legion second basemen would not have made the play.

Varanka had four putouts in left field, a couple of which were nice running catches near the left field foul line. Ray Woitkowski roamed centerfield also making four putouts on well-hit balls.

Ronnie Kelly did some classy first basing in the opening inning when Magi's throw from short on Bobby Baldacci's ground ball was a little high and wide on the home-plate side, pulling Kelly off the bag. Kelly went up, one handed the ball, and with a sweeping motion tagged the runner.

Costanzo made a great play in the sixth on Baldacci's smash back to the box. The line drive came back so fast that Costanzo was probably the only person in the park that saw it, but he held it for the out.

Taylor fielded his position well, chalking up six assists without an error. Jerry Harrington in center field and Sam Greenwood in left looked good in hauling down long drives by Soldato and Garivaltis.

Belanger Injured

Pittsfield played without its classy shortstop, Mark Belanger, who stepped on a nail yesterday on his summer job. Belanger was in uniform and willing to go, but Coach George (Red) Pleau said Belanger could not run on the painful injury. It's a question whether he will be recovered by tonight.

Pleau shifted Magi from third to short and brought Johnny Tagliaferro in from left to play third. Varanka took over the outfield post.

A crowd estimated at about 800 saw the game. Attendance was held down by the rain most of the day as many people did not think the game could be played. The field was in good shape in spite of the showers. Park Department personnel had covered the mound and the batting area with tarpaulins early in the day, and these areas were as dry as if it had never rained.

Magi's 1960 Car Badly Damaged In Waltham Crash

8/5/60

The baseball game wasn't the only loss Pittsfield's American Legion junior baseball party suffered last night in Eastern Massachusetts.

En route to Somerville for the second game of the state semifinal series, the team's automobile caravan was involved in a chain accident in Waltham.

The front of a 1960 Pontiac owned and operated by Romolo (Slo) Magi, father of Pittsfield third baseman Bobby Magi, was extensively damaged when the car crashed into the rear of a station wagon driven by Jimmy Tagliaferro, father of left fielder John Tagliaferro. Several of the Pittsfield players were shaken up, but only one person was injured. He was Thomas Tole, a long-time fan, who suffered leg cuts that required several stitches.

Plenty of Baseball Action Slated for This Afternoon

JUL 23 1960

Today is a day to make Pittsfield baseball fans drool. This afternoon in the city there are three important games scheduled, and another Pittsfield team is playing a tournament game in Lee.

At Clapp Park at 2, the ittsfield Legion junior baseball team will meet Westfield in the last game of the regular league schedule. At Wahconah Park at 2, the Pittsfield National All-Stars and the Pittsfield American All-Stars play the final game of the Babe Ruth All-Star tournament for the District 1A title and the right to meet the District 1B champ.

A nearby Wahconah Field at 2:30, a quarter-final round contest will take place between the Pittsfield West League All-Stars and the Pittsfield North League All-Stars. Others making the All-Stars were: first baseman Bill Budness, Chicopee; shortstop Art Roberts, Fairview; third baseman Jim Kuczyski, Westfield; outfielders Steve Wojnar and Tom Werbiskis, Holyoke, and Bob Beman, Westfield; pitchers Rich Piper, Westfield, and Al Boulerice, Brightwood; and utility man Bill Lodi, West Springfield.

Pittsfield Opponent Has Maturity, Experience

By BILL MAHAN 8/15/60

Mature and experienced are the words that describe the Huttner-Pasqualini Post Legion team of Staten Island, N.Y., the team that will oppose the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team Thursday in its first contest of the Northeast regional tournament in Keene, N.H. The Staten Island club took the New York State title Saturday afternoon from Kensington Post of Buffalo, N.Y., by a 4-3 score at Cooperstown, N.Y.

Has Full Complement

The Huttner-Pasqualini team carries 16 players. Thirteen of the group are 17 years old and six of them will be 18 before the end of the year. Of the other three, who are 16, two will be 17 before the end of 1960. Nine of the club have been graduated from high school and five others will be seniors this year.

The Staten Island team were the champs of the Richmond County Legion League, and defeated Kings County for the Second District title. In Section A play, which took in Metropolitan New York, Long Island and the lower Hudson Valley region, Pittsfield's first Keene opponent shut out Wautaugh, 19th district winners, 10-0, beat Yonkers, ninth district champs 4-3 in extra innings, and downed the Colonie Post 5-4 in the state semifinals.

The state crown is the second for Staten Island. The team won it in 1954 and went all the way to the nationals.

The club is drawn from New Dorp, Curtis and Port Richmond high schools.

Ray Woitkowski's Distance Triple Starts Three-Run Rally in Seventh; Only One Base on Balls in Game

By BILL MAHAN

The Pittsfield American Legion baseball team cleared the first hurdle in its quest of the Massachusetts championship and a trip to the regionals in Keene, N.H., by eliminating East Side post of Worcester last night at the Oval in Worcester. Pittsfield won its second straight in a best of three series by a 7-4 score. The local club took the opener here Thursday night 5-3.

Milford Series Starts Today

Pittsfield will take its second step along the playoff route less than 24 hours from the start of last night's contest. This afternoon at 2:30, the club will play Milford in the first game of a best of three series. A change of plans yesterday set the game for here instead of Milford. Milford clinched its opening round with two straight over South Deerfield Thursday and last night. The second Pittsfield-Milford game will be played tomorrow afternoon in Milford. Again the site of the third contest, if it is necessary, will be determined by a coin toss before today's action.

Pittsfield southpaw Tommy MacCartney was a very important figure in the victory last night. He went the nine-inning distance, striking out 12 and walking only one. He was reached for nine hits, but was tough in the trouble spots and averted what could easily have been much more damage. He also rapped out two singles that drove in Pittsfield's first run in the second and the tying run in the seventh.

It was a tight, exciting game throughout. Pittsfield took a 2-0 lead with single scores in the second and third. Worcester went ahead 3-2 with a run in the fourth and two in the fifth. Pittsfield scored what proved to be the winning runs in the seventh and added a cushion of two more in the ninth. East Side added another in the eighth to pull within one of Pittsfield's total of five at that time.

Triple Starts Rally

Ray Woitkowski started the rally in the seventh, when, with one out, he belted a long high triple to right center. MacCartney brought him in with a single to left tying the score at 3-3. Paul O'Gara drilled his second hit of the night to center, sending MacCartney to second.

Bob Magi bunted toward third. Worcester Pitcher Don Mancini elected to try for the force at third on MacCartney, but threw high into left field, allowing the Pittsfield pitcher to come in. Left fielder John Biscotte's throw to the plate could not be handled by catcher Hank Kamyck, and O'Gara made it to third and Magi to second. O'Gara scored the fifth run easily on Gary Soldato's fly to center.

The local team made its first run in the second on singles by Mark Belanger, Ron Kelly, and MacCartney. The second tally in the third was the result of George Garivaltis' base hit and Belanger's double.

Worcester got in the scoring act with a single run in the fourth. Steve Palmieri doubled into the rough in the short right field. Biscotte singled on the ground over second. Coldato knocked the ball down, but could not hold it. Palmieri rounded third and came in. MacCartney cut off Soldato's throw to the plate, and fired it to Belanger to get Biscotte, who was trying for second.

East Side Take Lead

East Side went ahead 3-2 in the fifth on a single by Tony Petrone an opposite field triple by Mancini, and a single by Kamyck. MacCartney struck out the side in the sixth, but only fine defensive play by Pittsfield thwarted more East Side scoring in the seventh.

Paul Sundstrum led off with a single and went to second when Petrone was hit by a pitch. Bob DelSignore popped a bunt out toward third. MacCartney ran it down, scooped up and flipped to Magi to force Sundstrum. Mancini grounded toward second, but Belanger was there to grab the ball, kick second and double the Worcester pitcher at first.

Kamcyk opened the eighth with a long home run to center. Mike Principe struck out, but Al Nordberg singled and Palmieri was safe when MacCartney could not pickup his topped roller out toward the mound. Then gritty MacCartney braced and fanned Biscotte and Sundstrum.

Pittsfield's two cushion runs in the ninth were set up when Magi was safe on an infield error. Soldato doubled and Sundstrum threw wildly back to the infield, allowing Magi to score and Soldato to go to third. Garivaltis poked a sacrifice fly to left to bring in Soldato.

O'Gara, Belanger and MacCartney were the two-hit men for the winners. The two battery men had two hits each for Worcester. Kamcyk had a single and homer and Mancini had a triple and single.

John Tagliaferro, Ernie Kapatoes Slated To Pitch

Right-handers John Taliaferro of Pittsfield and Ernie Kapatoes of Milford are the probable pitchers for the opening game of the state American Legion junior baseball best of three series this afternoon at 2:30 at Wahconah Park.

Tagliaferro has a record of two and nothing in Legion play. He is the regular left fielder.

Kapatoes had a six-nothing record at Milford High the past spring, but this will be his initial mound appearance for the Legion. He is the regular shortstop.

Milford agents advise that Kapatoes has a good curve, moderate speed and adequate control.

Tomorrow's Game To Be at Milford If They Play Today

Pittsfield and Milford will meet in the second game of their series tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Fino Field in Milford, providing today's scheduled contest at Wahconah Park isn't postponed.

If rain should prevent play thi afternoon, the series opener wil be set back to tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Wahconah. With that revision, the second contest would be at Milford Monday evening at 5:30.

Three umpires will work the games in this series.

Joe Costanzo Goes After Eighth Straight; Bob Taylor, Visiting Team's Ace Pitcher, Leading Hitter Out With Injury

By BILL MAHAN

The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team will open its semifinal round in the state play-offs tonight at 5:30 at Wahconah Park against Somerville. The second game of the series is slated for Lincoln Park in Somerville tomorrow night at 5:30. A toss of the coin tonight before the contest will determine the site of a rubber game if one should be necessary.

Costanzo Elected

Coach George (Red) Pleau will send his ace righthander Joe Costanzo after the first game. Costanzo has won seven games this season without a loss. Five came during the regular schedule, and two have been in the play-offs. He won over Worcester East Side 5-3 and over Milford 10-0. He fanned 16 in the Worcester game and 10 of the Milford hitters.

The Somerville team received a bad break Sunday when its ace pitcher and leading hitter, Bob Taylor, was struck in the left elbow by a pitched ball in the first quarter-final game with Walpole, and is probably out for the rest of the season. According to Coach Tom Palumbo, the doctor thinks the injury may be a hairline fracture.

Taylor was the No. 1 pitcher of the squad and was batting .426. He played in the outfield or at shortstop when he was not on the mound.

Somerville, which draws its players from Somerville High and Somerville junior high schools, has a record of 17 and six. The team finished strong, winning 13 games and tying twice in its last 16 ball games. The club defeated Framingham in a play-off contest for the Zone 5A title.

Consecutive Victories

Somerville took two straight from Walpole, the post with the best record in the state of 11-1 in the regular season. Its other pitchers are Shaun Quinlan, who plays short when not hurling, Joe Harrington, who doubles as an outfielder, and Jim Lally. Coach Palumbo rates them about even in ability. They are all righthanders.

Harrington will probably start tonight with Andy Camelio doing the catching. Ed Mackay is at first, Bob Baldacci on second, Quinlan at short, and John Corbett will play third. Sam Greenwood John Mountain and Ed Hardy will be in the outfield. The Somerville coach describes his boys as "fair hitters."

Pittsfield goes into the semi-finals with a record of 17 victories and two losses, and an eight-game winning streak. The local club won its last four in the Hampden-Berkshire League, and has taken four straight in the first two rounds of the play-offs.

If play-off pressure has affected the batting of the Pittsfield players, it has been to help. The team average has increased five points from .231 to .236. George Garivaltis has brought his average up to .296 from .273 with six hits in 16 times at bat.

Mark Belanger has come from .267 to .288 on five hits in 14 at bats. Pitcher Tommy MacCartney has come up to .235 from .200 with two hits in seven trips to the plate, and Costanzo's two hits in seven times up has brought his average to .258. Gary Soldato still leads the regulars with .362, a slight decrease of 15 points in the play-offs. Pitcher Ted Friel, who has not appeared yet in the play-offs, is batting .500 with three safeties in six times at bat.

Batting records of the Pittsfield players follow:

Player	AB	H	Ave.	RBIs
Ted Friel	6	3	.500	3
Gary Soldato	69	25	.362	13
George Garivaltis	71	21	.296	11

Reading at Brockton Tonight in 1st Game Of Other Semifinals

Brockton and Reading go into the semifinal round in the Massachusetts American Legion junior play-offs tonight at Brockton. Brockton has a record of 18 wins and two losses. Reading has a like number of victories and five defeats.

The winner of this series will meet the winner of the Pittsfield-Somerville semifinals for the state championship. The finals will probably start this weekend. The state champion advances to the eight-team regional tournament in Keene, N.H., which is slated for late next week.

According to observers who have seen the semifinalists play, Pittsfield and Brockton are favored. Brockton is strong all around with good pitching depth, and has used four different pitchers in its four play-off wins.

Baseball Twin Bill Set For Sunday at Wahconah

JUL 8 1960

An amateur baseball double header has been scheduled for Sunday afternoon at Wahconah Park between the Washington Senators' Tryout Camp team and the Springfield All-Stars. Starting time will be 1.

At least one nine-inning contest is planned, according to Chip Shapiro, director of the camp. Unless the first game runs long, the second also will be over the regulation route. Otherwise, it will be limited to seven, he said.

Gary Hebert To Play

Shapiro is hopeful that the twin bill will serve to introduce the camp program to the Pittsfield area. He and Joe Talarowski, the other director, will be glad to talk to aspiring baseball players at the park, he said.

Gary Hebert, University of Delaware varsity second baseman and son of Eddie Hebert, a standout semipro player here and former Pittsfield High and Cornell University star, is with the Washington team. He led Delaware in hitting with an average of .398 as a sophomore last spring.

University of Delaware varsity pitchers Jay Lutz and Bob Gates are expected to start for the camp team. Other highly-regarded players on the roster are catcher Bob Van Ness of Hudson, N.Y., and outfielder Charley Ford of Newark, Del.

Jim Peace, former Searles High athlete, is with the camp team. Others on the list are Perley Hubbard, Carl Rice, Jim Hughes, Bruce Greene, Don Moffatt, Jim Thompson, Dick Jones, John Botkey, Bill Oles and Asa Small Jr., of Bangor, Maine, whose father and uncle Charley were Eastern League players in the 1920s.

Springfield will have Joe Sibilia, Junior McCormick, Ron Sterns, Mike Mold, Bill Sweener, Jerry Reichkard, and Ernie Hansen. Sibilia, a right-hander, and Sterns, a southpaw, are the probable pitching choices.

Ernie Pizzetti, Washington's chief New England scout, will attend the game.

Pairings Are Announced For Tournament at Keene

AUG 3 1960

Pairings for the Region 1 American Legion junior baseball tournament at Keene, N.H., next week were announced over the weekend. The winner of the Pittsfield-Brockton contest tonight at 5 at Wahconah Park will compete in the event as the Massachusetts champion.

Six other state titlists also will be entered. These will be the survivors in playdowns in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York.

The Massachusetts representative will oppose the New York champion in Game No. 2 of opening day, Thursday, Aug. 18. Starting time will be 3:30 p.m. In Game No. 1 that day at 1, the Maine and Vermont titlists will meet. The Connecticut and Rhode Island representatives are listed as the principals in Game No. 3 that night at 7:30. New Hampshire was given a first round bye.

Play will be on a double elimination basis. It will take five days to determine a champion. Final contests are listed for Monday, Aug. 22.

Triple by Kelly, Double By Costanzo Are Big Blows

Ace Righthander Pitches 6-Hitter, Fans 16 East Siders; Same Two Teams Meet Again Tonight at Worcester Oval at 5:30

By BILL MAHAN 7/29/60

A two-run rally in the last of the eighth inning gave the Pittsfield Legion baseball team a 5-3 victory over East Side Post 201 of Worcester in the first game of the opening series in the state play-offs last night at Wahconah Park. An opposite field triple by first baseman Ronnie Kelly and an opposite field double by pitcher Joe Costanzo were the big blows in the 3-3 tie-breaking spurt. The game was called after eight innings because of darkness.

Return Game Tonight

Pittsfield and Worcester go back at it again tonight at 5:30 at the Oval in Worcester. If a third game is necessary it will be played at Wahconah Park tomorrow afternoon, because Pittsfield won the coin toss before last night's contest and the privilege of staging the rubber game on its home grounds.

If the local club wins tonight and Milford, who won its opening round game over South Deerfield last night 6-4 can sweep its two-game series, Pittsfield and Milford will probably meet tomorrow afternoon at Milford in the second round opener. No matter whom Pittsfield plays, Coach George (Red) Pleau's probable starters will be left-hander Tommy McCartney tonight in Worcester and John Tagliaferro tomorrow.

The Berkshire County team's ace right-hander Joe Costanzo was the winning pitcher on a six-hit performance in which he struck out 16. Only the third Worcester run was earned. Strikeouts accounted for the three outs in the first, second, and eighth innings. He got two on strikes in both the fourth and seventh innings.

It Looked Easy

The game began as if it might be a rather easy night for the local club. Pittsfield jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the last of the first on Paul O'Gara's lead-off walk, Gary (Red) Soldato's triple to left center and a wild pitch that enabled Soldato to score.

East Side made its first run in the third when lead-off man Hank Kamyck was safe on Mark Belanger's low throw to first, and Mike Principe's triple to left center. Coach Pleau's boys nullified that run in their half of the inning on George Garivaltis' infield hit, a wild pitch and a single to left by John Tagliaferro.

Worcester's second score came in the sixth. Al Nordberg was safe when his ground ball went through Kelly, and the East Side first baseman went to second on John Biscotte's second hit of the night. Paul Sundstrum grounded to third baseman Bob Magi, who threw to Soldato at second to force Biscotte. Nordberg came in to score when Soldato threw wide past first in attempting to complete the double play.

Double Starts Trouble

With Worcester trailing 3-2 going into the eighth, Principe started the visiting team rally with a lead-off double. Norberg fanned but pitcher Steve Palmieri singled to center, scoring Principe and tying the game at 3-3.

Daylight was fading quickly and those present figured that this would be the final inning. The pressure was on both teams, Worcester to go ahead and Pittsfield to hold the East Side club to the tie.

With a two-and-two count, Biscotte punched an opposite field double down the right field line, sending Palmieri to third. Don Mancini came in for Sundstrum and struck out. Tony Petrone walked on four pitches to fill the bases, but Costanzo fanned Bob DelSignore to end the inning.

Pittsfield had preserved the tie, and it looked for a couple of minutes like a deadlock was the best it could do. Garivaltis flied out to center. Belanger received a base on balls, but was forced at second on Tagliaferro's grounder to short. Tagliaferro was safe when Principe's throw pulled Nordberg off first.

A Long Three-Bagger

With Kelly at bat the Pittsfield outfielder stole second. The count went to two and two on Kelly, before he belted an outside pitch down the left field line. The ball rolled into the corner and Kelly came into third standing up, Tagliaferro scoring the tie-breaking run on the hit.

After Ray Woitkowski walked, Costanzo slashed his double to right sending Kelly in with the fifth run. O'Gara struck out in the semi-gloom and the game was called by Umpire Jim Sullivan.

Garivaltis and Woitkowski were the big hitters for Pittsfield with three apiece. Garivaltis had a double and two singles. Woitkowski hit a single and two doubles. Tagliaferro had two singles.

Biscotte had half of East Side's six hits with a double and two singles. Principe had a triple and single for the losers.

The crowd was estimated at about 600. Legion officials reported that 275 adult and 105 student tickets were sold at the gate. Children under 12 were admitted free, and some people were in the stands before the ticket office opened.

FIRST HIT of the Pittsfield Legion's 11 was a triple by Gary (Red) Soldato in the first inning last night at Wahconah Park as Pittsfield took the first state play-off game 5-3 over East Side of Worcester. The three-bagger drove in Paul O'Gara, who had walked, with the first run. Soldato is shown sliding into third just ahead of the throw to third baseman Tony Petrone, as third base coach Tommy MacCartney gives him the slide sign.

Antonangeli Retires 20 Of Last 22

Antonangeli, a right-hander with considerable speed and a good curve, braced after yielding a 3-0 lead to Pittsfield in the first two innings. George Garivaltis' leadoff single in the third was the third and final hit off him. Garivaltis reached second on an infield out, and was the last Pittsfield runner to advance to that bag. In fact, Pittsfield put only two men on bases in the last sx innings, both on passes. Antonangeli retired 20 of the last 22 men he faced.

Somerville's scores with Walpole were 10-4 and 4-3.

Borletto Bows

Baseball Feb

FAIR OR FOUL

2/13/60

By Roger O'Gara

AFTER 19 YEARS as manager of a skillful but struggling sports organization, Joe Borletto has surrendered. In an epic epistle, he has informed us that he is "putting the name of Tyler Aces into moth balls," and definitely will not have a baseball team this year.

Now 35, Joe sounds tired and depressed when he writes, "It is too much of a strain looking for new sponsors each year and selling tickets constantly and begging the people for money to get to tournaments. The headaches and energy used were never appreciated."

Yes, sponsors, like the good man in the popular song, are hard to find.

Joe advises us that he has been offered a position as coach of a softball team.

He says, "I'm undecided about that. I don't want to give up baseball entirely, so am considering the offer."

He means invitation, not offer. There's no money in softball, any more than there is in area semipro baseball. Pittsfield softball well could use Borletto's energy and enthusiasm.

o—o

JOE ASSUMED direction of the Tyler Aces when he was 16 in 1941. The organization came into being in the early 1930s. One of the charter members was George Russo, Borletto's uncle.

Under Borletto, the Aces attained fame far beyond their home city. His baseball teams have ranged far and wide in tournament play—Wichita, Kan., Battle Creek, Mich., Dennisport, Brockton, and Canton.

Joe never tires of recalling "the wagon train trip" to Wichita in 1952. The Aces that year faced three major league pitchers in a single tournament. They beat Bob Grim, then the property of the New York Yankees, but lost to Art Ditmar and Erv Palica.

Yet while the baseball team was the best known of the Aces' representatives away from the city, by far the greatest drawing attraction was the football club of the late 1940s. That powerful aggregation beat everyone in sight except the Agawam Brownies. The Aces set all-time semipro gate receipts records in titanic duels with the mammoth Brownies. They were victims of television of National Football League games.

o—o

BORLETTO ANALYZED the Aces' demise as follows: "The end came after Wade Tate, the spark plug of the team, broke his leg at Battle Creek last year. His leg still is in a cast. The players couldn't solicit for him, as they did to go to Battle Creek. That would be too much. Coach George Morrell started to solicit, but had to quit because of too many complaints. The only help Wade has had has come from Pat Cioffi. Yet the people of Battle Creek collected $300 for Wade."

Although they made four trips to Battle Creek for the American Baseball Congress tournament, the Aces never drew respectable crowds here. Six or seven years ago, there was an occasional good turnout at Clapp Park, but that was the exception. Soon people and dogs were running neck and neck at the West Housatonic Street field.

Borletto can't be blamed for giving advice. He surely has had enough background. So we find these lines in his long letter, and who can blame him for being bitter?

Joe says, "I hope that if another team is started in Pittsfield, it will be able to get a sponsor who will back it 100 per cent and not have to beg, as we did, and really work and sweat to get where we were going. It's too bad that the so-called sports-minded people of our city can't give a little time to see their own local team play. Many of them go to big league games. Tell these people that their picture will appear in the paper, and they will be there with bells on. I do not want this to reflect in any way on the people who gave so generously to our club.

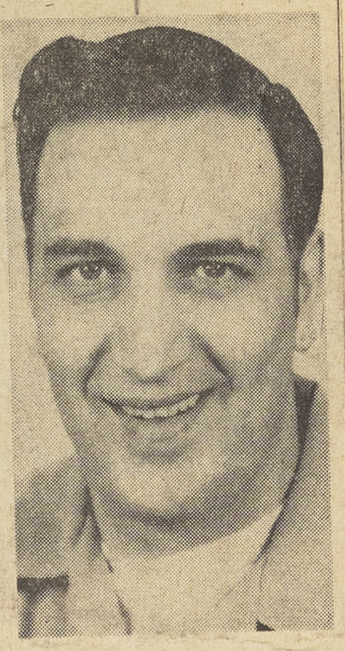
"Another disadvantage to having a local club is the large amount of rent asked for Wahconah Park. The sum of $141 must be paid to the insurance company, plus $100 for a night game, plus fees for umpires, baseballs, ticket sellers, and guarantees for visiting teams.

"It's too bad there aren't more people like Tom Kushi, who has sponsored many teams and enjoys doing it, and such organizations as IUE-CIO, who are always willing to help out."

o—o

THIS HAS BEEN a long time in coming. As far back as seven years ago, Joe had money and sponsor trouble, but he occasionally took a flight into optimism. He was in such a roseate mood when we wrote the following in our column of April 8, 1953:

"Borletto, completely oblivious to Pittsfield's indifference to semipro baseball, feels he almost has it made. He tells me that his club has more than $800 in the "kitty." This makes it the largest baseball feline Borletto ever has reared. Most of the money has come from the sale of advertisements for a program, although some was realized on season tickets.



He's Had Enough

"Meanwhile, Borletto proceeds to add players and dollars with an enthusiasm which shines like a beacon light through a cloud bank of cynicism. His latest acquisition is Milton Gardner, who pitched and batted the team all the way from Canton, Mass. to Wichita, Kan., last summer. Gardner has returned from the Philadelphia Phillies' minor league training base in North Carolina.

"Borletto says Milton decided to give up professional baseball after pulling a leg muscle. Gardner's presence in an Aces' uniform is an inspiring testimony to Borletto's persuasiveness and the recuperative qualities of Berkshire air.

"Borletto's dedication to the task at hand was emphasized to the fullest this week when a well-meaning friend suggested that he reduce the dosage. He had announced that games will be presented three times a week at Wahconah—on Tuesday and Friday nights and Sunday afternoons.

"The adviser recommended two contests a week. Joe didn't pause for a second in spurning the idea.

"What," he exclaimed indignantly, "not with nine pitchers."

"One suspects that the amplitude of mount talent could serve as a base for a psychological operation. It would be a masterful stroke to dress only four for each game, and send the other five into the stands. In a pinch, this quintet could spell the difference between a poor and fair crowd. People like company, you know."

Seven Pass Test Given by County Umpires' Assn.

4/13/60

Seven men passed the test given by the Berkshire County Baseball Umpires' Assn. last night at the Catholic Youth Center. They thus are qualified to work high school games this spring.

New members of the association are Raymond Meandro and Rinaldo Ricciarini, both of Pittsfield, Daniel Callahan Sr. of Dalton, Louis Scaramuzzi of Lee, Joseph Zavattero of North Adams, Ray Chamberlain of New Marlboro and Albert Trocchi of Ashley Falls.

In charge of the examination were Louis Airoldi of Lee and William Vickery and Shaun Meehan, both of Pittsfield. They conducted three clinics in as many area communities to prepare men for the test.

Umpire Clinic Set for Monday

4/22/60

The Parks and Recreation Department will conduct it's first umpires' clinic Monday night at 7:30 on the Common. Anyone desiring to umpire in either softball or baseball for the department is invited to attend this clinic. It will be conducted by Joseph Harrison, umpire-in-chief for the Park Department.

Decision Expected Within Two Weeks On Legion Baseball

5/10/60

After a conference in Adams Saturday afternoon on Pittsfield's request to be affiliated again with the Hampden County American Legion Junior Baseball League, it was announced that a decision would be reached within two weeks.

Atty. Clement Ferris, newly appointed athletic officer of the Pittsfield post, said the decision will be made by a committee of district representatives.

Representing the Berkshires on this committee is Joseph Roy of West Stockbridge. He, state junior baseball director Tom Murray of South Boston, Atty. Ferris and Coach George (Red) Pleau of Pittsfield attended. John Dazelle of Westfield, commissioner of the Hampden League, wasn't present.

Legion Baseball Hearing Set Tomorrow at Adams

5/13/60

The fate of Pittsfield's American Legion junior baseball team will be decided at a meeting in Adams tomorrow afternoon at 2. State director Tom Murray of South Boston will hear statements by representatives of the Pittsfield post and by John Dazelle of Westfield, commissioner of the Hampden County. It is expected that Murray will rule that Pittsfield again is a member of the Hampden League notwithstanding the fact that the majority of members don't want Pittsfield in the circuit.

4-2 Against Pittsfield

Managers voted 4-2 at a meeting in Westfield Wednesday night against Pittsfield. Supporting Pittsfield were Fairview and Chicopee. Against were Westfield, Longmeadow, West Springfield and Holyoke. Forest Park and Brightwood, the Springfield entrants, weren't represented.

Atty. Clement Ferris, newly-appointed athletic officer, Coach George (Red) Pleau and Donald Farr, a member of the athletic committee represented Pittsfield at Westfield. All plan to be at Adams.

Williamstown Interested

Williamstown also has asked for a league affiliation. This is the first Berkshire post other than Pittsfield since 1956 to vote sponsorship of the junior baseball program.

State regulations provide that a post must be admitted to the nearest district's league if there is no league in its own district. That's why Pittsfield has competed for the last three years in the Hampden League.

The conference was scheduled for Adams so it would coincide with the regular monthly meeting of the executive board of the State Department.

Murray's decision will be final.

Williamstown is expected to be granted admission into the Hampshire League, comprising Greenfield, Turners Falls, Easthampton, South Hadley and Huntington.

Dates, Details Announced For Tournament

The best high school baseball team in Massachusetts will be determined in a game to be played Saturday, June 25, between the Eastern and Western Mass champions on the home field of the western school. The dates for the Eastern section tournament were announced today by Frederick H. Pierce, executive-secretary of the Mass. Principals' Assn. Western dates were published yesterday.

The Eastern tournament starts earlier, as the leagues involved open earlier and close sooner, and there are more schools participating. The extra time is allowed to play postponements caused by bad weather.

The Eastern event involves 48 schools competing in three 16-school divisions. All games will be on neutral fields.

First round games are slated for Monday, June 6, with the quarterfinals or second round, Wednesday, June 8. Semifinals are set for Friday, June 10, with all three finals due on Tuesday, June 14.

The Western tournament will be run as one division, involving eight schools at Mackenzie Field in Holyoke. Dates for the quarterfinals are Monday and Tuesday, June 13-14, with semifinals, Thursday, June 16, and the final, Saturday, June 18.

Doubleheader Set Tomorrow At Wahconah

Senators' Camp, Springfield Stars To Be Opponents

Two amateur baseball games will be played at Wahconah Park tomorrow afternoon between the Washington Senators' Tryout Camp team and the Springfield All-Stars, drawn from amateur league teams. Starting time will be 1 p.m.

Chip Shapiro, director of the camp the American League team is sponsoring in Monterey this summer, hopes that the twin bill will serve to introduce the camp's program to the Pittsfield area.

He and Joe Talarowski, the other director, will be glad to talk to aspiring baseball players at the park any time during the afternoon, he said.

Ernie Pizzetti, Washington's chief New England scout, will attend the game. Slated to pitch for the Springfield team are Joe Sibilia and Ron Sterns.

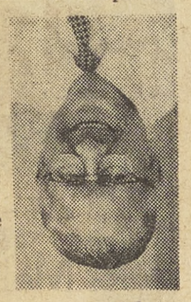
False and Foolish

FAIR OR FOUL

4/1/60

By Roger O'Gara

THE MAIL was so heavy, the office boy risked a hernia when he delivered it. The telephone rang with such regularity, you would swear you were in a Berkshire County wagering parlor before the raids. The tips were delicious. There was good meaty material in all of them.



The only question was on batting order. All screamed for attention. This truly was an excess of riches.

Every report was sensational. You couldn't file any of them for a rainy day. These wouldn't keep. You had to fire now.

o—o

PROBABLY THE most far-reaching development was the formation of a committee for the advancement of baseball in Pittsfield. Composed of men between 21 and 85 years of age, this group is determined to wage war on many fronts.

In the first place, it wants professional baseball here. A spokesman said, "The Eastern League made minor overtures to us last summer, but Pittsfield wasn't alert enough to respond intelligently. Two Springfield residents were interested in obtaining the Albany franchise and transferring it here.

"Then the bottom fell out, because Pittsfield didn't push. We propose to sell the Eastern League on Pittsfield as a member. During the winter, it became apparent that Albany was doomed. Some cities were listed as possible successors, but they didn't join. So the Eastern now is a six-team league. We're sure that this city would support Class A ball. We're ready for it now after not having professional representation in almost 10 years."

o—o

THE COMMITTEE also disclosed that it has raised approximately $5,000 to finance a representative Pittsfield semipro baseball team.

The same man said, "It's a shame that Joe Borletto had to abandon his operation. As I understand it, Joe became tired of passing the hat and knocking on doors. You can't blame him. He was at it a good many years, and had seven sponsors.

"We've had some fine teams under Joe's various backers, and I don't think we should let this die. Joe could be persuaded to return, I'm sure."

o—o

THE COMMITTEE also hopes to do something for interscholastic baseball.

The same fellow said, "We've got a defending Western Massachusetts champion here, and we should appreciate it. Pittsfield High should be in the thick of the championship fight again this year.

"Last June, people were thrilled when Pittsfield won the area title. Many of them said they were sorry they hadn't seen the boys play. This is their chance to see many of the same young men, and I know they'll storm the doors of Wahconah Park to root for the team."

This enthusiast also asked, "What about some night games when the weather is right? People really will go for these."

o—o

AN IMPROVEMENT in the operation of the Hampden-Berkshire American Legion Junior Baseball League was promised by John Dalzelle of Westfield, commissioner of the league.

"Yeh, we've got a lot of adjusting to do," Dalzelle said. He admitted that punctuality was a big concern. He also conceded that a standard interpretation of darkness was imperative.

"I know that a lot of teams were showing up at 6:20 and 6:25 last summer, and that caused a lot of trouble. We were aiming for nine-inning games, with 6 o'clock as the starting hour. We often didn't make the full nine, because one club was late in arriving. Even with the late start, though, we were shooting for nine. We probably were wrong in not settling for seven.

"Our umpires were such bears for work, they let games run with poor visibility," he said. "It caused a lot of griping. I'm going to handle this matter firmly in the coming season.

o—o

AN APPEAL for full nine-inning baseball games in the Berkshire County interscholastic play was asked by the Berkshire County Baseball Umpires' Assn.

Said a veteran umpire, "It isn't baseball if you don't play nine innings. Many of these seven inning games are over before you work up a sweat.

"I think nine is a much better test of teams and pitchers," he continued. "We umpires certainly wouldn't mind the few extra minutes. We wouldn't ask for an increase in pay. With us, the game is the thing."

o—o

PRO BOXING will return to Pittsfield early in the summer.

Sam Silverman, who lost into three figures on each of his four cards here last summer, is willing to try again. The Boston promoter said, "The trouble last year was we didn't start early enough. By the time we began, most people had their summer nights all filled. So we lost a few dollars. But now that I've given long-range notice of my plans to return to this city, I am confident that the sports-minded crowd will rally to my support.

"You know Pittsfield went without boxing for some years. Don't let it get away again or it may never come back," Silverman said.

Silverman probably will feature Harold Johnson on his first card. Johnson fought here last summer. He then was No. 1 challenger to champion Archie Moore. He retains that listing, but isn't any closer to a scrap with Moore.

o—o

THERE'LL be many night football games next fall. With a veteran team returning at Pittsfield High, all of the opponents want to meet the defending conference champions under lights. Why? Simply because they prefer to try for upsets before the largest possible crowds.

Adams High will have new all-weather football uniforms. This will mean that all games in which Adams is involved will be played as scheduled.

The two warring tenpin factions in North Adams will merge shortly, and put up a 48-lane building. This will enable Dale Long to concentrate on winning the starting first base position on the Chicago Cubs.

The Northern Berkshire Interscholastic Basketball League schedule will be revised so that traditional opponents will meet late in the season, not in the first week.

The City Softball League will play all of its week night contests under a new lighting system at Deming Field.

A semipro football team will represent Pittsfield. Order your season tickets now, lest you be shut out in the rush for seats.

If you want to bet yes on any of these, you should get fabulous odds.

Another Legion Rhubarb

FAIR OR FOUL

5/11/60

By Roger O'Gara

THE AMERICAN Legion junior baseball team at this early stage looks a great deal like Philip Nolan, the famed man without a country. The only difference is that it lacks not a nation, but a league affiliation.

That's right. Pittsfield is all ready to play, but at the moment doesn't have any mates.

The reason: Seven of eight Hampden County posts don't want Pittsfield in their league.

Thus Legion baseball continues its unbroken record of having a feud a season. Pittsfield has had a representative team since 1929, and man and boy, there has been at least one argument a year all the way. The refreshing part of it is that the teams never debate the same subject two seasons in a row. This one sets a record for early fussing.

o—o

HOW COME? Well, according to John Dazelle, the 43-year-old Hampden district commissioner from Westfield, he polled the posts in his district as to whether they desired Pittsfield as a member. Seven said nay, Dazelle reported. Only Fairview supported Pittsfield.

Dazelle has called an organizational meeting for tonight at 8 at Post 454 in Westfield. Pittsfield will be represented by Coach George (Red) Pleau and Donald Farr, a member of the Pittsfield post's athletic committee.

Farr and Pleau will demand that Pittsfield be permitted to continue in the league. Pleau, never one to speak softly, will ask point blank how Pittsfield ceased to be a member of the league.

"We were in it when the season closed last year," Pleau said yesterday. "What was Dazelle trying to do when he asked those Hampden County posts whether they wanted to invite us to return? We never left."

o—o

DAZELLE TOLD us over the telephone that he advised the teams to invite Pittsfield to compete.

"Pittsfield is a tough foe," he said. "I told them it would be a heck of a lot easier to beat Pittsfield in a league season than in a short series, say two out of three. But only Fairview seemed to want Pittsfield."

Dazelle also disclosed that the Hampshire County League recently announced that it doesn't want Pittsfield. There are five teams in that league. Dazelle said he wasn't sure what communities are represented, but he thought they were Greenfield, Turners Falls, Easthampton, South Hadley, and Huntington. Dazelle said this league recently announced that it would disband if Pittsfield should be declared a member.

o—o

PLEAU SAID that Dazelle told him some time ago he didn't want Pittsfield in the league if Pleau was going to return as coach.

Dazelle denied this report in our conversation with him.

"I never got along with Pleau," he said, "but I wouldn't keep a team out of a league because of one man. There are a lot of nice fellows at the Pittsfield post, and certainly the kids are all right."

Why is there all of this feeling against Pittsfield? The guess is that the Connecticut Valley teams don't like the long trip to the Berkshires. Yet, each group has to come here only once a season, whereas Pittsfield has to go into the Connecticut Valley to meet each opponent. A year ago, with an eight-team league in operation, Pittsfield paid Massachusetts Turnpike tolls seven times. This year, it will be eight, since the league now numbers nine, providing of course that Pittsfield is considered a member. It's possible that the Hampden County posts don't like the idea of meeting Pittsfield because this city has the best overall record in Western Massachusetts. That's right. It was New England champion in 1940, 1949, 1951 and 1957.

o—o

PITTSFIELD WON the title in 1957, in its first year of affiliation.

Why was Pittsfield in the league? Simply because it was impossible to form a Berkshire County league. No other post was interested.

In 1958, there was some discussion as to whether the Hampden County teams wanted to rub elbows with Pittsfield. At that time, Tom Murray, state director of the program, ordered the Hampden group to accept Pittsfield. He stressed that the state rule was that any team that wanted to play had to be given an opportunity. The same situation prevails now, except that Murray hasn't acted as yet.

o—o

THE LEAGUE has been no bargain for Pittsfield. Yet it must make the best of a poor thing if it wants to shoot for state, regional and national honors.

A year ago, Pittsfield was particularly dissatisfied with the league's operation. Pittsfield reported punctually for games, but several of the Connecticut Valley visitors here were tardy. Nonetheless, the umpires insisted that the teams try to play nine innings. This led to much bickering.

There was no standard interpretation of what constituted darkness. Pittsfield had several road games called in almost total sunlight, yet on other occasions had to play when visibility was poor.

Then, too, no Berkshire County men were accepted as umpires. Springfield and Holyoke officials were assigned to games in this city.

One umpire was guilty of faulty interpretation.

In a game here July 7, 1959, Longmeadow led Pittsfield 3-1 after seven and one-half innings. It still was light enough to play another half inning. Pittsfield went ahead by scoring three runs with only one out in the bottom of the eighth.

Here Coach Pleau was advised by plate umpire John Long that the runs his team had scored wouldn't count unless the inning was completed. In short, Long said the score would revert to the last completed inning if he should have to terminate play.

Long's interpretation was oil which fanned the flames of bickering. A Pittsfield batter cut aimlessly at two pitches, and Long stopped the game to advise Pleau that the boy wasn't trying. Longmeadow from here in was guilty of pitching and fielding omissions, acting as if it hoped to be saved from defeat by the reverted score provision.

Long thereupon stubbornly permitted the game to continue. It went into almost total darkness. Finally, he called play with Pittsfield leading 9-3.

Any umpire who travels more than 50 miles to work a contest should be conversant with the sport's fundamental code. This man's judgment also was bad in that he permitted boys to continue pointless play long after the sun had set.

Night Contest Heads County Baseball Card

PHS, St. Joe's (NA) In Arc-Light Game At Wahconah Park

Something a little different in the way of an interscholastic baseball contest will be offered Tuesday in the six game county baseball slate, a night attraction at Wahconah Park starting at 8:15 between Pittsfield High and St. Joseph's of North Adams. In the event of bad weather, the game will be put over until Wednesday, either in the afternoon at Clapp Park or the evening at Wahconah, depending on the condition of the playing field there.

In other Northern Berkshire action St. Joseph's of Pittsfield plays at Drury and Dalton meets Williamstown in Williamstown. Adams has the bye.

In the tight Southern Berkshire League, Williams, tied for first with Searles, will meet third-place Lee on the Lee Athletic Field. Searles is playing fourth-place Lenox in Great Barrington. Chester and Mount Everett Regional, deadlocked for fifth spot, will battle in Sheffield.

In first round games Williams had beaten Lee 4-0, Lenox had downed Searles 13-1, and Chester had edged Mount Everett 6-5.

In the Northern Berkshire League the first time around Pittsfield's Joe Costanzo and Fran Walsh of the North Adams parochial school hooked up in a fine pitching duel. Pittsfield finally won 2-1 in 11 innings. The same two boys are expected to pitch again Tuesday.

Drury squeaked by Pittsfield's St. Joseph's here 3-2 in the first round. Dalton was turned back 4-1 by Williamstown.

AIR OR F[O]

By Roger O'Gara

"Chinese homer" was popular. It gained greater favor in the World Series of 1954, when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes of the New York Giants broke up the opening game with the Cleveland Indians on a shot into the lower stand at the Polo Grounds, just inside the right field foul line. The distance was said to be less than 260 feet.

Vin Hebert, superintendent of the Parks and Recreation Department, estimated six years ago that the center field fence at Deming was about 300 feet from home plate. It hasn't been moved.

Legion Team Is Readmitted To Hampden County League

5/23/60

Pittsfield will compete in the Hampden County American Legion Junior Baseball League for the fourth successive year.

That was decided yesterday at a meeting of district athletic officers in Boston, Joseph Roy of West Stockbridge disclosed today. Roy, the Berkshire representative of a statewide committee, said the vote was 10-2 in favor of Pittsfield. The state committee was asked to act after managers voted 4-2 against Pittsfield's continued affiliation with the league.

Williamstown, returning to Legion junior baseball after a lapse of several years, was placed in the Hampshire County League. It will compete against such posts as Greenfield, Turners Falls, Northampton, Easthampton and South Hadley.

WBEC To Carry Play-by-Play Of Legion's Tourney Games

6/20/60

Radio Station WBEC will carry play-by-play accounts of all of Pittsfield's games in the Northeastern American Legion junior baseball tournament at Keene, N.H., this week. The first will be with Staten Island, N.Y., Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

Roger O'Gara, sports editor of The Eagle and former sports commentator for WBEC, will describe the game. Jimmy Archey will do color.

Sponsors will be the Fred H. Purches Insurance Agency and the Western Massachusetts Electric Company.

CSL Title On the Line At Wahconah

The City Softball League title will be at stake on Wednesday night at 6:00 p.m. at Wahconah Field in a game between the defending champs, Eagle Cafe and Berkshire Auto. Both finished the regular season with 12 and 4 records.

Berkshire Auto led the league for the majority of the season but the Eagle Cafe closed strongly enough to force the play-off.

Pitching for the Eagles will be Joe DeAngelis with either Jim Farry or Lionel Doucette hurling for the Auto team.

The second game will pit the Rainbow Restaurant, after an 11-5 win over Bernie's Sporting Goods, against Berkshire Auto, who triumphed over Little Italy of Lee by a score of 5-2.

The finals of this single-elimination tourney will be held on Monday at 2 at Wahconah Park, where all the contests are being held.

If any conflict should occur with the broadcasts of the Legion game from Hastings, Neb., there will be coverage over the public address system every half inning.

Emily's had a six-run second and threatened several times, but a single run in the third was all the Snack Bar team could get.

Madison Cafe Wins Tourney At Watervliet

9/7/60

Teddy Kachnowski Is All-Around Star in Softball

Madison Cafe of Pittsfield, reorganized especially for this event, won the Watervliet, N.Y. invitational softball tournament Sunday night by thumping the Simonian-Avakian Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars of Watervliet 11-4 in 12 innings. A seven-run splurge in the top of the 12th broke the long existing tie. Approximately 4,000 watched the contest.

The Madisons hadn't played as a unit since 1959. However, they won four straight games in dominating the field of 15 teams.

Teddy Kachnowski of Hartford, imported by the Madisons for the event, struck out 29 Watervliet batters while allowing only three hits. These raised his total of strikeouts to 98 in four tournament games. He received the most valuable player award.

Kachnowski also led the team in batting with three hits. Tommy Murphy and Bill Zimbouski had two safeties apiece for the winners.

Eagle Cafe of Pittsfield, winner of the Watervliet league's regular season race, was eliminated by Hudson Falls 11-4 in the first round.

Leading the offense for the winners were Ray Goyette and Joe Wrzesinski, each with a double and single, and Don Ostrikis and Miller with two singles apiece.

Eagle Cafe Triumphs 2-1 In Best Contest of Year

8/7/60

Eagle Cafe edged High Lawn Dairy 2-1 last night at Deming Field in the City Softball League's best played game of the season to date. Joe DeAngelis' sacrifice fly to right field scored Frank DeAngelis, his brother, from third base with the winning run in the bottom of the seventh. Frank had opened the inning with a triple.

The result tightened the three-team pennant race. Eagle Cafe's defending champions are slated to meet Linden Auto tonight at 6:15 at Deming.

Joe DeAngelis spurned the intentional base on balls that pitcher Bruce Mendel was trying to give to him. He reached out, and poked an outside delivery into right field.

That ended a neat pitching duel in which Mendel allowed only two hits, DeAngelis but three. The difference was that the Eagles capitalized on their chances and High Lawn didn't. High Lawn had nine men stranded, the Eagles two.

Mendel Retires 17

Mendel pitched superbly. He retired 17 straight hitters from the first up to the seventh. He didn't walk a man. The run in the first was unearned.

DeAngelis suffered a control lapse in the second when four passes gave High Lawn its only run. After that, Joe didn't walk a man.

The Eagles scored their first run in the opening inning. High Lawn tied the count in the second, and it remained deadlocked until the DeAngelis brothers teamed for the deciding run in the seventh.

Leading the attack for the Tilemen were Don Powers with a double and two singles and Perch Kennedy with three singles.

Although outhit 15 to 7, Bernie's was able to stay in contention by means of 14 bases on balls and two hit batsmen.

Ollie Cohen's 3-Run Homer Provides Margin of Victory

Eddie Feigner Sets Stage for His Loss By Walking Two Men From Second Base; Winners Pull Three Double Plays

By ROGER O'GARA

Ever since two lions terrorized the downtown section back in 1903, Pittsfield has been the scene of some big surprises in the field of entertainment. The Minneapolis Lakers snapped a 33-game losing steak to the Boston Celtics in the State Armory last winter. And now Eddie Feigner's touring four-man softball team has suffered one of its infrequent losses here.

Seventh Loss for Pro

It happened Saturday night at Wahconah Park, where 1576 paying fans and about 500 gate crashers watched the Pittsfield City League All-Stars dethrone the King and His Court 4-1. Ollie Cohen's three-run homer to deep center field in the sixth inning supplied the margin.

The loss was only the seventh this season for the professional club. It has won 52.

Feigner and his mates don't extend themselves all the time. If they did, they would be exhausted from a back-breaking schedule. However, they don't like to lose. Once they fall behind against the average team, they're able to rally for victory.

This time they couldn't muster anything more potent than a harmless single. Cohen's left-handed blast off one of Feigner's blazing fast balls broke the existing tie, and left the pros only three outs from defeat.

George Is Winner

In the seventh, grim Bob George, the third and last pitcher for the home club, was reached for a single by leadoff batter Ron Cooper, but retired Feigner, Al Jackson and Jerry Jones in order on two flies and a grounder. George, who yielded only the one hit through two innings, received credit for the win.

In fairness to Feigner, however, it must be recorded that his strict adherence to an announced feature of the act set the stage for his downfall. In every exhibition, he pitches with a blindfold over his eyes to the first three batters of the fifth inning. Then, in the sixth, he delivers to two men from second base.

After fanning Tommy Gagne at the outset of the sixth, he lost control when he moved back to second. He walked Joe Scherben and George (Bud) Turner, and both scored ahead of Cohen on his good wallop.

Any time an opponent is able to put one of Feigner's pitches out of the infield, he stands an excellent chance of going all the way.

Two Outfield Hits

The Pittsfield team made seven hits off Feigner, but only two went to the outfield. The other blow was Frank DeAngelis' triple to right. This brought in the first run in the opening inning. The other hits all were infield grounders. John Enright had a perfect two for two. He scored on DeAngelis' blast.

Just as he did a year ago, 43-year-old Jimmy Farry, the most aged man on the field, held the pros scoreless through the first two innings. Hard-throwing Joe DeAngelis, the loser here in 1959, allowed the solitary Feigner run in his three inning stint. The pros made only four hits.

It came in the fourth on Jones' double to right, a wild pitch and Feigner's sacrifice fly to left.

Feigner struck out 12. The three home pitchers weren't able to fan one batter.

Neither team was charged with an error. The defensive heroics all were achieved by Pittsfield. It pulled three double plays. One was a honey. After catching Al Jackson's fly in the fourth, right fielder Harold Linker made a bull's eye throw to the plate to nip Cooper, who was trying to score on a tag-up.

Scherben made a superb shoetop take on Jones' sinking liner to left in the second. Shortstop Eddie DeAngelo turned in a big league play on Jones' grounder near second base in the fifth.

Court Shorts

Feigner graciously congratulated the Pittsfield team. He called it the best of the five he has met here. It virtually was the same outfit he beat 6-3 last September.

Eddie gave his usual interesting exhibition and narration of the different kinds of pitches. Fred Shogry of the Pittsfield team was the volunteer catcher. When Feigner cut loose with his fast ball, it jarred Shogry.

Feigner has been bothered in batting by a split finger. He said that was why he bunted the first time at bat. Then he asked for a band-aid. He said it helped.

Ron Cooper, a former Chicago White Sox farm hand, was on base in each of his seven trips to the plate. He had two singles and five bases on balls. He bats left-handed.

Cohen, the game's hero, is a younger brother of Dennis Cohen, star Pittsfield High and American Legion pitcher in the early 1950s. Denny now lives in Hartford, Conn.

Art Gwinnell, a former baseball and softball player and now an official in the Babe Ruth League, was the public address announcer.

Feigner's outfit left immediately after the game in three automobiles for a double-header yesterday in Oswego, N.Y.

The game took only one hour and eight minutes.

IT'S INTERESTING to note that the three pitchers who faced Feigner's outfit last September again are members of the all-star club. They are Jimmy Farry, Joe DeAngelis and Bob George.

JUL 23 1960

Farry is the oldest at 43. DeAngelis is the fastest. George is the largest.

Whom do you think the pros hit hardest? DeAngelis, the ex-baseball pro, was their victim. They made all six runs off him, scoring thrice each in the fourth and fifth innings.

Farry made short work of the court. He retired six consecutive batters in his two innings of duty. DeAngelis followed him. He served three innings. George pitched the last two innings, and yielded only one hit.

It's likely that these three men again will be named to throw against the pros.

This should be an additional highlight. For Joe DeAngelis doesn't take kindly to anyone who is bold enough to hit him that well. He'll be blazing at these pros.

Junior League Opens Season As Lakers Win

AUG 2 1960

The Lakers took over first place in the Junior City Softball League by winning the first game played in the recently organized league, downing the Sugar Kings, 17-5 on the Common last night.

The game was close after the first inning, when Bill Brown hit a three-run homer and Bernie Rivers walloped a grand slam to spark a 10-run rally. The Sugar Kings after being shut out for four innings, finally came through with two runs in the fifth, two in the sixth, and one in the seventh. Jim Fassell, Paul Brown, Brian Jones and Joe Hopper had three hits for the Lakers. John Codey, Joe Ryan and Bill Archey had two apiece for the losers.

Joe DeAngelis Pitches, Bats 1959 Champs to CSL Victory

AUG 3 1960

Big Joe DeAngelis pitched and batted Eagle Cafe's defending City Softball League champions to a 9-6 victory over Berkshire Auto's league-leaders last night at Deming Field. Joe drove in two runs with a pair of mammoth homers, and struck out 10 men.

Berkshire Auto led 5-0 after four and one-half innings, but a seven-run outburst sent the Eagles ahead to stay in the bottom of the fifth.

DeAngelis' first circuit blast with two mates aboard tied the score at 5-all. It went over the center field fence. His second round-tripper came in the sixth with one man on base. It cleared the left center field wall.

Ed Kelly's two-run homer was the high light of Berkshire Auto's four-run first inning. Ed DeAngelis hit for the circuit with one man aboard for Eagle Cafe in the fifth.

DeAngeles was the only Eagle with two hits. The team made nine off Lionel Doucette, who fanned three. DeAngelis limited the losers to six safeties. Bobby Hunt had two of these.

SOME SPONSORS of athletic teams never see their clubs in action. Col. H. George Wilde of High Lawn Farm in Lenox isn't like that. He and his wife regularly attend the High Lawn Dairy's games in the City Softball League at Deming Field. The sponsor's interest apparently has inspired the High Lawn team to rise to great heights. An also-ran under different names in other years, it took the lead this week in a heated three-team pennant race.

LITTLE LEAGUE will be featured on cable television next week, Jimmy Mazzer, the former Pittsfield High football center, who is manager of the Pittsfield Community Antenna Inc., advises. Four games will be shown on Channel 11 (WPIX, New York), Jimmy says.

Here are the events, days and starting times: Tuesday at 7:30, Connecticut vs. New Jersey; Thursday at 2, double-header, Eastern regionals; Sunday (that will be the 21st) at 4:20, the final game of the Eastern regional.

There's a possibility of course that Pittsfield North may be seen on the Thursday or Saturday games.

JACK LANDER, coach of the North Little Baseball League's entry in the state championship tournament at East Longmeadow this afternoon, was a fine player at Pittsfield High 15 years ago. He played center field, and was an exceptionally good leadoff man. Jack covered considerable ground, hit the ball hard, and was a fleet base runner.

High Lawn Dairy had to come from behind after seeing an 8-0 lead disappear to defeat Zayre's 11-9 in the City Softball League last night. When Zayre's rallied for eight runs in the sixth inning the Dairy team had to call on their ace pitcher, Bruce Mendel, to quell the uprising. He was reached for two runs before he could get the side out. Mike Mancivalano's inside-the-park grand slam home run and Danny Connor's triple were the big blows of the rally.

High Lawn came back with three runs in their half of the sixth to win the game. Bill Wood's single drove in the tying and winning runs. Harold Linker, Wood, and newcomer Eddie O'Hearn each had two hits for High Lawn.

High Lawn Scores 2nd Win in Row

Victors Make 8 Runs in 3rd In 14-8 CSL Game

A change in name often revitalizes a person or organization. It surely has worked that way in the case of the High Lawn Dairy team of the City Softball League. Unimportant trailers under a different sponsorship in 1959, the High Lawn club today is leading the league. It gained its second successive win last night by walloping Zayre's 14-8 at Deming Field.

An eight-run third inning put the game out of reach of Zayre's, a first-year outfit in both name and personnel. Most of the positions are filled by teen-age former baseball players.

A home run by Paul Yoss and a triple by Harold Linker were high lights of the productive third. Each man had two hits. John Genzabella led the winners' attack with three hits and four RBIs.

Lou Heidel, with two hits and three RBIs, and Tommy MacCartney, with a pair of safeties, were best at bat for Zayre's.

Bruce Mendel's excellent relief pitching saved the game for High Lawn Dairy. Coming on in the fourth inning for Jim Vincent, who was troubled by wildness, Mendel held Zayre's scoreless the remainder of the way.

Dan Connors, who went the distance for Zayre's in his debut as a softball pitcher, was plagued by control difficulty. He walked 16, and hit 3.

Eagle Cafe's defending champions and Linden Auto will meet tonight at 6:30 at Deming. Each lost its opener.

The association has scheduled the Western Mass. Class B. tournament for Fairview under lights early in July. The Western Mass. industrial tournament is slated for the same park late in July. Registration for these events will be open until July 1.

The Westfield Front Page Cigar team is trying to book home night games with Berkshire County teams for Mondays, Wednesday and Thursdays. They Must Like It

FAIR OR FOUL

5/21/60

By Roger O'Gara

ONE OF THE most ambitious commitments ever attempted by a Pittsfield athletic team is the Eagle Cafe's affiliation with the Watervliet (N.Y.) City Softball League. This will mean that the Pittsfield team will be playing twilight or after-dark games in Watervliet two nights a week.

Eagle Cafe won the Pittsfield City League title last year. It plans to defend. Thus the Eagles will play a minimum of four nights a week throughout the spring and summer, barring of course weather intervention.

If postponements pile up in either or both of their leagues, it's conceivable that the Eagles will be playing six or seven nights a week at the height of the season.

HOW DID the Pittsfield team ever make such a connection?

It was easy. Watervliet is a hotbed for softball. A big tournament has been held over there for several years, and the Eagles have been regular entrants.

The Pittsfield team made an auspicious start. With sturdy Joe DeAngelis throwing a no-hitter, it defeated Boyle's 4-0, under lights Sunday night.

Pitching in softball isn't as tiring as it is in baseball. Thus a strong man like DeAngelis can pitch almost every game his team plays. DeAngelis incidentally is a former professional baseball player. He received a $6,000 bonus from the Brooklyn Dodgers a decade ago.

TONY DeANGELIS, the oldest of three brothers on the team, runs the operation. He says that the players are greatly enthused with the set-up at Watervliet.

He admits that it's quite a distance to go two times a week, but feels that his team will be better for such frequent play.

Frank DeAngelis is the third brother on the club. A fourth, Mickey, a mainstay of the team for several years, was killed while working last fall in North Adams. Mickey was a former Pittsfield High quarterback.

TONY IS A little bit worried about softball in Pittsfield.

He said he would like to see more teams in the City Softball League.

At last report, he disclosed that the Madison Cafe, long a power, isn't going to be represented in the league this year.

"That will be a big loss," Tony said. "Madison Cafe always has been a strong team."

Only five teams were in the City League a year ago.

That was a record-breaking low number. Even when softball started to gain popularity in the city 25 years ago, the City League had eight and more teams.

Rainbows Win 11-3 on Late Big Innings

6/3/60

Exploding for eight runs in the last two innings, Rainbow Restaurant stayed unbeaten in Morningside Softball League play by walloping Eaton Paper Corp. 11-3 last night at the Brown Street Field.

FAIR OR FOUL 11/2/60

By Roger O'Gara

JOEY COSTANZO's many rooters may be interested to learn that his name frequently was mentioned at press headquarters in New York's Waldorf - Astoria Hotel during the World Series.

We were lamenting the stubborn stand taken by most scouts in declining to give him a chance just because he's small.

A friend from the Middle West said, "Hold on. I want to see whether my club knows about this kid."

The speaker, a sports editor, also is a bird dog for the Milwaukee Braves.

He returned a few minutes later. He had just talked to John McHale, general manager of the Braves.

"McHale knew his name immediately," he reported. "He said that the Braves have had him checked three times by as many different representatives. The answer each time was: 'Too small.' "

o—o

HOWEVER, a man who purported to be close to a scout for the Baltimore Orioles said that they're interested in Joe, but not at his price.

Price? This was a new one. I hadn't heard any bonus demands from little Joey. He has been passed over by so many scouts, he long since hasn't been regarded as even a tiny bonus baby.

"Ten thousand dollars," the man answered. "Or at least that's what I was told."

After returning home from New York, we checked with Joey. He laughed. No, he hasn't asked Baltimore or anyone else for $10,000. In fact, he hasn't heard a thing from any scout, bird dog, or what have you since he returned from the American Legion's Little World Series in Hastings, Neb., where ex-major league star Johnny Hopp called him the best pitcher in the tournament.

Right now, Joey is a freshman at North Adams State Teachers' College. He commutes every day. He's working hard every night on mathematics and science.

A scout for another American League club said he would make a decision on Joey after he had studied his team's personnel chart. He wanted to see how the outfit was fixed on pitching. This was a strange sort of comment, but then the team he represents hasn't done well.

o—o

JOE McDERMOTT of the New York Yankees said he would be interested in providing an opportunity for the young man if Joey would forget pitching.

McDermott thinks that Joey would have a better chance to make it as a second baseman.

He reasons that the boy has a great arm, excellent speed afoot and hits well.

McDermott said that lack of size wouldn't handicap him at second base to the extent that it would on the mound.

o—o

THE SADDEST part of this case is that it's like a chain letter. One smug scout says, "Too small," and most of his colleagues in this supposedly exacting profession nod, "That's right."

What about Bobby Shantz? He's the same height as Joey.

"Don't give me that Shantz business," one fellow said. "You know he's a freak, and they are not interested in freaks any more."

If that's so, why don't they pass legislation to compel the Yankees to get rid of Shantz?

o—o

THE MOST unreasonable argument, though, was advanced by another newspaperman.

He said, "With the size of the batters today, your boy would be pitching uphill."

I couldn't believe he had said it, so asked for a re-run. He said it, all right.

He was proceeding on the assumption that the mound and the plate are the same altitude.

We submitted that he was dead wrong.

Joey wouldn't be in trouble on this score, we insisted, unless he met a batter six feet, 10 inches, and then he could compensate by pitching low to such a giant.

The guy couldn't follow my reasoning.

I cited Rule 1.04 to substantiate my claim.

In part, it reads: "The infield shall be graded so that the base lines and home plate are level, with a gradual slope from the base lines up to the pitcher's plate, which shall be 15 inches above the base line level."

You figure it. Add 15 inches to Costanzo's height, and you'll find that he wouldn't be throwing uphill to anyone under six feet, 10 inches.

MATTY GUILTINAN, dead at 69, was well-respected by several generations of athletes, as a young and talented competitor and a long-time fan. Basketball was his favorite sport to play, but he put football and baseball right up with it as far as his spectator interest was concerned.

In addition to following the Boston Red Sox in baseball and Notre Dame in football for years, he was an ardent supporter of the local interscholastic teams. He also was one of the few men who regularly attended track meets at Clapp Park.

Matty told me on North Street back in September he was thrilled by the success of the Pittsfield American Legion team in tournament play at Keene, N.H., and Hastings, Neb. Although he was in failing health, he listened to the broadcasts of all the games.

After a nine-month illness, he felt well enough to attend the big school basketball games in the State Armory last January.

He entered the hospital for the last time on the day the World Series ended.

Matty captained the famed Abbotts, a basketball team that represented the Pittsfield Boys' Club for two seasons. That club won the New England Boys' Club title in a tournament at Chicopee in 1912.

EXACTLY EIGHT weeks ago tonight, Pittsfield's fine American Legion junior baseball team was given a welcome home dinner at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood. The party was a sellout before the ink was dry on the tickets. The demand was at least comparable to requests for box seats for the Pittsburgh games of the World Series.

On Sunday night, the same boys will be tendered a recognition dinner at the same hotel. The only item that isn't identical is the enthusiasm. Tickets no longer are in short supply. You can buy as many as you want at the American Legion Home or from any member of the committee.

Victory Tonight Gives Terminal 2nd Half Crown

Terminal Diner was assured of at least a tie for the second half championship of the National Babe Ruth League by beating IUE 255 11-0 last night at Deming Field behind the one-hit pitching of Mike Reilly. Terminal can clinch the second half tonight with a victory over GEAA.

Reilly pitched his best game of the year. He fanned eight and walked only two. An infield single by Fran Spina in the third inning spoiled his no-hitter.

Paul Noetzel blasted a grand slam homer for Terminal. Dick Cadinelli had a two-run four-bagger. He was the only player with two hits.

Molding Wins BRL Title On Good Base Running

Pittsfield Molding, American League Babe Ruth League winners defeated Terminal Diner 8-2 Saturday at Clapp Park to become the city Babe Ruth Baseball League champions.

Alert base running by John Hurley and Dick Powers provided the margin for the winners.

Tom Tobin allowed six hits and five walks, as he struck out eight for the Molding team. Pete Ellsworth and Carl Boteze pitched for the losers. Ellsworth was charged with the loss.

The Dinermen erased an early 1-0 Molding lead in the third and Paul Noetzel singled and made second on an infield out. Mike Sangiovanni scored Noetzel on a single to center when Tatro dropped the ball at home. Sangiovanni went to second on the throw and later scored as an attempted pickoff went wild and rolled to center field.

Molding scored five runs in the fourth to put the game out of reach. Two walks and a bunt loaded the bases. A ground ball and a wild throw accounted for three runs. Joe Kozaka flied to right to score Rivard for the fourth run. Dick Powers crossed the plate for the final run.

Trophies Given To Ranking Teams At Dinner at GEAA

The Babe Ruth Baseball League has a balance of $1,159.86, it was reported at a dinner for officials and coaches last night at the General Electric Athletic Association clubhouse.

Parks and Recreation Department Supt. Vincent J. Hebert, who serves as treasurer of the league, noted that this was a substantial increase from the $415.79 in the treasury at the beginning of the year. Sponsors' fees of $2,100 and ticket sales of $1,282 helped to boost the figure. Operating expenses were $2,663.86.

Large trophies were presented to the Pittsfield Molding Co., American League champion and winner of the city title, and to Terminal Diner, National League titlist. Roger O'Gara, sports editor of The Eagle, turned over the trophy to the Pittsfield Molding Co.'s head coach, George Pellerin. Hebert made the award to Carl Boteze, head coach of the Terminal Diner. Assistant coaches for the championship teams were William (Bing) Miller and Don Powers for Pittsfield Molding Co. and John Callahan and Jim Curley for Terminal Diner.

Discussion was held on a proposal to institute inter-league play, much the same as it is conducted in the National Football League. Action was deferred until the league's January meeting.

President Louis Russo was in charge of arrangements. John Marchesi, director of athletics for the Parks and Recreation Department, and James J. Frank, a long-time sectional director, also spoke. Twenty-five attended.

Babe Ruth AL All-Stars Eliminated by Agawam 5-4

AUG 1 1960

AGAWAM—The Pittsfield Babe Ruth American Baseball League All-Stars were defeated 5-4 by the Agawam All-Stars in the District 1 finals here yesterday afternoon at Phelp's School Field. The winning team will go to Worcester next week to compete in the state finals.

A Good Beginning

Pittsfield started off in fine style when the first three batters walked, and Mike Twining singled up the middle, scoring Craig Bowlby. Jan Villanova was cut down at the plate, when he attempted to come in on the hit. Agawam pitcher Bob Morin braced, and got George Horton and Dick Premerlani without further damage.

Agawam went ahead in the second with two runs on a single, a walk, a wild pitch and another base hit. Pittsfield tied the score at 2-2 in the fourth when Fred Congdon singled, stole second and came in after Bowlby grounded to third. Congdon sneaked in from third as the Agawam first baseman, Bill Ferranti, stood arguing with the umpire that he did not juggle the ball.

Agawam nullified that score in its half of the fourth. Roger Brown led off with a walk, and moved to second on a passed ball. He reached third when Pittsfield pitcher Bob Pulasky threw wild in attempting to pick him off second, and scored on Jack Morin's single to right.

Clinched in Sixth

The runs that proved to be the winning margin came in the Agawam sixth. Relief pitcher Tom Tobin walked Brown. Everyone was safe when Premerlani bobbled Morin's bunt. John Mikszewski rapped a hit to right center, driving in Brown. The hitter went to second on the throw-in, which caught Morin off third when he made too big a turn. Jack Graveline sacrificed Mikszewski to third, and he came in with the fifth run on a passed ball.

Pittsfield almost tied it in the seventh. Villanova beat out a drag bunt, and reached second on a wild throw on an attempted pick off. Tobin walked, but was forced at second by Twining, Villanova going to third. George Horton lined to third for the second out.

Premerlani then smashed a long drive against the fence in right center. It was nearly a three-run homer. Villanova and Twining scored with runs three and four. The game ended as Fran Reardon flied out to center.

Villanova, Twining and Premerlani each had two hits for Pittsfield. Premerlani's double was the only extra base hit. Mikszewski and Dave Alvigini had two safeties apiece for the winners. Mikszewski had three RBIs.

Suspended Game In Ruth Play-Offs Will Be Resumed

Pittsfield Molding and Terminal Diner will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:15 at Clapp Park in the second game in the best two-out-of-three series for the Babe Ruth League city championship. Pittsfield Molding holds a one-game edge on a 4-3 victory last Saturday.

Pittsfield Molding was awarded a forfeit win over St. Mary's in the scheduled second game of a doubleheader when only eight players appeared for the church team.

The clothiers scored all three runs with nobody out in the seventh. Faisel Ali walked, Jack Doyle singled, and Darryl Rustic walked to load the bases off losing pitcher Jerry Luz.

Doyle scored the tying run by stealing home on an attempted squeeze play, and after another walk had loaded the bases again, Rustic escaped a rundown after being caught off third to score the winning run.

GAME TODAY

Pittsfield Molding vs. Adams Supermarkets.

The Optimist Club clinched the second half championship of the Babe Ruth League last night at North Junior High Field with an 8-5 win over Adams Supermarkets. Dick Premerlani went the route for the Optimists to get his fourth victory against one loss.

In a National League contest at Deming Field, Pastime Alleys came from behind with three runs in the fourth inning to down IUE 255 7-5. Billy Smith's single drove in the winning run.

Dick Falkenbush pitched all the way for Adams Supermarkets. The loss was his second against five wins.

A four-run fourth inning was the margin of victory for the Optimists. The big hit was Len Spiewak's two-run double. Spiewak had a total of four RBIs on two hits.

Premerlani and Al Francis also hit safely twice apiece for the winners. Dennis Conry had two hits for Adams.

Pastime pitcher Brian Sullivan went all the way giving up five hits and seven walks. He survived a shaky third inning when IUE scored four runs.

Smith and Jim Buckley had two hits apiece for Pastime. Dan DeSantis, Smith and Ray Sarosy each drove in two runs. Leading the losers' attack were Ron Clerici with a triple and Jim Carlo with two singles.

Terminal Diner defeated GEAA 9-3 in a Babe Ruth National League game at Deming Park yesterday. The winners scored seven runs in the first two innings, mainly through the wildness of the GEAA mound staff.

Mike Reilly pitched all the way for the winners, giving up just three hits, although walking seven. Ray Risley's fourth inning infield single was the first hit off him. Mike Sangiovanni led the winners at the plate with two singles and two RBI's.

Babe Ruth AL All-Stars Eliminated by Agawam 5-4

AUG 1 1960

AGAWAM—The Pittsfield Babe Ruth American Baseball League All-Stars were defeated 5-4 by the Agawam All-Stars in the District 1 finals here yesterday afternoon at Phelp's School Field. The winning team will go to Worcester next week to compete in the state finals.

A Good Beginning

Pittsfield started off in fine style when the first three batters walked, and Mike Twining singled up the middle, scoring Craig Bowlby. Jan Villanova was cut down at the plate, when he attempted to come in on the hit. Agawam pitcher Bob Morin braced, and got George Horton and Dick Premerlani without further damage.

Agawam went ahead in the second with two runs on a single, a walk, a wild pitch and another base hit. Pittsfield tied the score at 2-2 in the fourth when Fred Congdon singled, stole second and came in after Bowlby grounded to third. Congdon sneaked in from third as the Agawam first baseman, Bill Ferranti, stood arguing with the umpire that he did not juggle the ball.

Agawam nullified that score in its half of the fourth. Roger Brown led off with a walk, and moved to second on a passed ball. He reached third when Pittsfield pitcher Bob Pulasky threw wild in attempting to pick him off second, and scored on Jack Morin's single to right.

Clinched in Sixth

The runs that proved to be the winning margin came in the Agawam sixth. Relief pitcher Tom Tobin walked Brown. Everyone was safe when Premerlani bobbled Morin's bunt. John Mikszewski rapped a hit to right center, driving in Brown. The hitter went to second on the throw-in, which caught Morin off third when he made too big a turn. Jack Graveline sacrificed Mikszewski to third, and he came in with the fifth run on a passed ball.

Pittsfield almost tied it in the seventh. Villanova beat out a drag bunt, and reached second on a wild throw on an attempted pick off. Tobin walked, but was forced at second by Twining, Villanova going to third. George Horton lined to third for the second out.

Premerlani then smashed a long drive against the fence in right center. It was nearly a three-run homer. Villanova and Twining scored with runs three and four. The game ended as Fran Reardon flied out to center.

Villanova, Twining and Premerlani each had two hits for Pittsfield. Premerlani's double was the only extra base hit. Mikszewski and Dave Alvigini had two safeties apiece for the winners. Mikszewski had three RBIs.

Pittsfield Molding was awarded a forfeit win over St. Mary's in the scheduled second game of a doubleheader when only eight players appeared for the church team.

The clothiers scored all three runs with nobody out in the seventh. Faisel Ali walked, Jack Doyle singled, and Darryl Rustic walked to load the bases off losing pitcher Jerry Luz.

Doyle scored the tying run by stealing home on an attempted squeeze play, and after another walk had loaded the bases again, Rustic escaped a rundown after being caught off third to score the winning run.

Walger Hurls One-Hitter For 2nd Time in Tourney

JUL 25 1960

Armand Walger, hard-throwing righthander of the Pittsfield American League Babe Ruth All-Stars, pitched his second one-hit game in the Babe Ruth All-Star tournament Saturday afternoon at Wahconah Park. Walger's team defeated the Pittsfield National club 4-1. The local moundsman shut out Great Barrington Sunday, July 17, 6-0, with a single base hit.

Americans Take Title

The victory Saturday gave the American All-Stars the championship of District 1A, which covers Berkshire County. The local champs will now meet Agawam, which won the 1B title yesterday by downing Holyoke 11-6. The game will be Saturday afternoon at 2:15 at Phelps School Field in Agawam. The winner of that contest will enter the state tournament, which will take place at Norton Field in Worcester Aug. 6-7. The city of Worcester, through their their cochairmen of the sports committee, Cosmo E. Mingolla and Joseph M. Stacey, have arranged special entertainment for the visiting teams. The high light will be a civic reception and dinner, given by the Worcester area Chamber of Commerce, at Holy Cross College, Saturday evening, Aug. 6 at 8.

Walger came about as close as you can come to a no-hitter and yet miss. The lone safety came in the sixth inning when National centerfielder Tom Potter hit a hard shot into the hole between third and short. Third baseman Dick Premerlani got his glove on the ball, and knocked it down, but could not make a play to first.

Coach Ray Meandro's American Leaguers broke the scoring ice in the second inning. George Horton and Fran Reardon walked. Jan Villanova singled to left scoring Horton, but Reardon was out at the plate, when he tried to come in after the throw from the outfield got by the catcher.

Deadlocked in Third

The National team tied the score in the top of the third when Keith Hover walked, stole second, went to third on Carl Boteze's infield out and came across on a passed ball.

The American All-Stars clinched the contest with three runs in the third. With one away Craig Bowlby made two bases on an infield throwing error. Tom Tobin walked and Bob Pulasky beat out a bunt to fill the bases.

Boteze, working carefully on clean-up hitter Premerlani, lost him on a 3-2 pitch forcing in Bowlby with the second run. National coach Bud Pellerin brought in Ronnie Ladd to pitch to Horton. The American shortstop fouled off two pitches with a two and two count, and then lined a solid double to right center scoring Tobin and Pulasky. Ladd got Twining on a ground out and Reardon on a pop-up. Ladd held the American club scoreless for the rest of the game.

Villanova was the only player with more than one hit. In addition to his one-run single in the second, he dragged a perfect bunt for a base hit in the fourth.

AUG 15 1960

Diner Gains Game By Winning 8-1 Over Marine Team

Terminal Diner defeated the Marine Reserves 8-1 and IUE 255 upset first-half championship Pastime Alleys 6-3 in a Babe Ruth National Baseball League doubleheader at Deming Field yesterday afternoon. In a game played Friday night Union Federal defeated the GEAA 11-3.

Pete Ellsworth pitched a three-hitter yesterday to keep the Diner team in contention for the second-half title. He received a three-run cushion in the first inning, as his teammates opened with three singles, a walk and a sacrifice. Jim Zorbo accounted for the lone Marine run with a seventh-inning homer.

Jim Carlo scattered five hits and walked only three in pitching IUE to its surprising victory, allowing just two hits after the first inning. Joe Delphia led the winners' attack with a long ground-rule double and a run-scoring single. Bill Kozack and Dan DeSantis socked doubles for Pastime.

The Optimist Club moved a step closer to the Babe Ruth American League second half title last night with a 4-3 win over Pittsfield Molding. In the National League Terminal Diner rallied with four runs in the last inning to tie IUE 255 5-5. The game was called because of darkness.

In the American loop the Optimists broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth. The big blow was Mike Twining's triple to right. The finish was a thriller when Molding came back with a run in the seventh. The game ended with the bases loaded, when Twining caught Dick Powers' short fly, and then collided with second baseman Mike Murray. Both fielders went down but Twining held the ball.

Twining had two hits for the winners as did Dave Tatro of Molding. Dick Premerlani got the win, his third against one loss. John Hurley was charged with his second loss against three victories.

In the National League it was Ed Grady's bases-loaded triple that sparked the big Terminal Diner sixth inning. Paul Noetzel's single brought in Grady with the tying run.

IUE had gone ahead with a run in the first and four in the third. Joe Delphia and Gary Van Jura both tripled in the third. Terminal scored once in the fourth.

Sullivan in 1-Hitter; Victor Bests Mooney In American League

Brian Sullivan pitched a one-hitter in the Babe Ruth National League last night as Pastime Alleys defeated Union Federal, 5-2 at Deming Park. Wayne Lemanski had the only hit off Sullivan, a sharp single in the fourth which drove in both the losers' runs. In another National League game, played Thursday night, Terminal Diner walloped IUE 255, 13-4.

Lemanski's single in last night's game tied the score at 2-2, but Pastime came back with two in the fifth and one in the sixth to win. Bill Kozack, Mike Touhy and Jim Buckley all had two hits for the winners.

VFW Post 448 downed St. Mary's 3-2 last night in an American League game, as Bill Victor outpitched Jim Mooney. The winners scored once in the second, when John DeLuce drove in Mike Ewing with a single, and twice in the third on Joe Powers' bases-loaded single.

St. Mary's got a run in the fourth when Fred Congdon singled, stole second and scored on two infield outs, and another in the sixth on a walk and two singles.

Optimists Take 1st In AL Victory Over Supermarkets

Pete Ellsworth was the hero last night in Terminal Diner's 3-2 victory over Pastime Alleys in a National Babe Ruth League game at Deming Field. Ellsworth pitched a four hit game and drove in the winning run in the seventh with a single.

In the American League at North Junior High Field the Optimist Club, behind the four hit pitching of Dick Premerlani, shutout Adams Supermarkets 8-0. Optimist Club took over sole possession of first place in the second half and the Adams team dropped from a tie for first to third on the loss.

In the National game losing pitcher Barry Sullivan pitched well giving up only three hits and walking three. The winning Terminal boys did not have a hit until the sixth when Ed Grady belted out a long homer.

Seven Runs Unearned

Bob Pulaskli, the losing hurler in the American loop contest, allowed only four hits. A combination of eight walks and nine errors by his teammates led to his downfall. Seven of the Optimist runs were unearned.

Pulaski's 11-game hitting streak was stopped by Premerlani.

Al Francis of the Optimists hit a long triple in the third for the only extra base blow of the game.

Two make-up games in the National League will be played Sunday. The Marines will meet Pastime at 1:30 and Union Federal will play IUE at 3:30.

Although Pete Rilla pitched a two-hitter, VFW Post 448 had to score a run in the eighth inning to defeat Optimist Club 7-6 in a Babe Ruth American Baseball League contest last night at North Junior High. Seven errors of commission and a few more of omission almost led to his downfall.

Dick Premerlani went the route for the losers, allowing 12 hits, several of which were tainted. He managed to hang in the game with 14 strikeouts, many of them coming at crucial times.

The loss was the first of the second half-season for the Optimists, and the victory evened the Vets' record at 3-3.

The winning run scored after two were out in the eighth. Joe Bressett was credited with a double when two outfielders allowed his high fly to drop between them. Fran Reardon was given an intentional pass, and Dave Reilly walked to load the bases. Armand Walger then bounced one off the pitcher's glove, and beat it out for a base hit that scored Bressett with the winning run.

The win was the third against one loss for Reilla. Premerlani is even at one and one.

There will be no games tonight or tomorrow night because of All-Star play. Adams Supermarkets will meet VFW Post 448 on Thursday.

In a National League contest at Deming Field, Terminal Diner and Union Federal played to a 10-10 tie. The game was halted after five innings because of darkness.

There were 10 errors and 14 walks in the contests, as the teams made only 13 hits between them. Dick Cardinelli was the only player with two hits.

Cardinelli's single in the fifth inning drove in the tying run for the Dinermen. Union Federal had scored six runs in the first inning and the Diner three, all nine of them unearned.

St. Mary's, Marines Win BR Contests

JUL 27 1960

Unearned Runs, 6-Run Inning Figure In Decisions

The Marine Reserves defeated IUE 6-3 last night in a National Babe Ruth League game at Deming Field, and St. Mary's turned back Besse-Clarke 6-5 in an American division contest at North Junior High.

Marines' pitcher Roger Ladd threw a three-hitter. The Marines were helped by three unearned runs in the fourth inning, when the IUE team was guilty of three errors after two were out.

Jim Carlo was charged with the loss. He went five innings and gave up only three hits, but was the victim of poor support. Al Cook had two singles for the winners. Joe Delphia, IUE catcher, belted a long double in the third for the only extra base hit of the contest.

Ed McConnell pitched all the way for St. Mary's. The victory was his third of the season against no losses. He was reached for eight hits and four walks.

A big six-run third inning was the clincher for St. Mary's. St. Mary's was trailing 4-0 at the time. Singles by Fred Royal, Jim Downey, Joe Mooney, Bernie Carmel and Tony Fassell, a triple by Fred Congdon and two throwing errors were the ingredients for the rally.

Bill Mason started for Besse's was charged with the loss. His season record is two wins and three losses. Pete Sullivan turned in a strong relief job, allowing only three hits and no runs over the last three and two-thirds innings.

Carmel was the only three-hit man in the game. Downey, Sullivan had two hits for St. Mary's. Alan Mendel led the loser's attack with two safeties.

Pastime Alleys and the Optimist Club scored victories in Babe Ruth Baseball League play last night. Pastime Alleys, behind the five-hit pitching of Ray Sarosy, defeated GEAA 8-2, while the Optimists, leading the American League, had to come from behind to edge St. Mary's, 8-7.

With the score tied 6-6 going into the sixth inning of the American League game at North Junior High Field, St. Mary's scored a run on two infield errors and a single off the pitcher's foot by Bernie Carmel.

The Optimists scored the tying and winning runs in their half of the inning. With two outs, Sam Russo singled to right and scored when two outfielders collided under Len Spiewak's high fly. Spiewak ended up on third, and scored on Dick Premerlani's single. Collin Garstang picked up the win, his third without defeat, in relief.

Pastime scored four runs in the first inning and three more in the third to take a substantial early lead. Bill Kozack, Jim Buckley and Sarosy all had two hits for the winners, while Paul Procopio led the GEAA attack with a double and a single.

GAME TODAY

Optimist Club vs. St.Mary's.

VFW Post 448 jumped off to an early lead with five runs in the first two innings and coasted to an easy 8-4 triumph over Adams Supermarkets in a Babe Ruth American Baseball League contest at North Junior High Field last night. The win put the Vets in a virtual tie with the Marketmen for second place, though they still trail by 29 percentage points.

Bill Victor started for the winners and picked up the victory, his fifth against two losses. He was relieved in the seventh by Armand Walger after walking the lead-off man.

Dick Falkenbush went the route for the losers, suffering his first setback after amassing five victories.

Leading the Vets at bat was Dave Messer, with a long home run to left and a single, and four runs scored. Fran Reardon, Walger and Victor each chipped in two singles.

Denny Conry and Tom Donahue had two hits each for the losers.

National All-Stars Win Suspended Contest 7-6

JUL 22 1960

The Pittsfield National League Babe Ruth All-Stars held off a last minute rally to defeat the Adams All-Stars 7-6 last night at Wahconah Park. Pittsfield came up with four runs in the sixth inning to break the 3-3 tie that existed when the game was suspended by rain Tuesday night.

Tournament final

The Pittsfield all-star teams of the National and American Leagues will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 at Wahconah in the District 1A tournament final.

Adams opened the scoring in the game Tuesday night in the third inning with three runs. Joe Calizio singled and Chet Zajac beat out a bunt. Dave Skorupski doubled Calizio home and Zajac and Skorupski scored on Chuck O'Haggerty's sacrifice fly and a throwing error.

Pittsfield made two in the last of the third on a walk to Paul Procopio, Mike Touhy's single, Joe Delphia's single and a bad throw to the plate. Touhy came in on Tom Potter's sacrifice fly.

The Pittsfield team tied it up in the third when Jimmy Carlo singled, moved to second on Carl Boteze's sacrifice and scored on Procopio's base hit.

Last Night's Finish

Play was resumed last night with Dan DeSantis batting for Pittsfield in the sixth. He walked and Dick Cadenelli, who ran for DeSantis, stole second. Carlo and Boteze both walked filling the bases. After Procopio fanned, Ray Sarosy executed a perfect squeeze bunt and Cadenelli scored.

Adams pitcher Billy Roberts ran into a streak of wildness and walked Touhy, Delphia and Potter to force in three more scores. Relief pitcher Larry Frederick came in and retired the side without further damage.

Adams bounced back in the seventh with three runs on two errors, a walk and a long double by O'Haggerty. Pittsfield pitcher Barry Sullivan bore down and got the last two hitters on infield grounders to end the game with the tying run on third.

Skorupski and O'Haggerty had a double and single apiece for the losers. No Pittsfield batter had more than one hit. O'Haggerty had three RBIs for Adams and Potter drove in two for the winners.

Terminal Diner Beats Pastime's 1st Half Champs

The first forfeit of the Babe Ruth Baseball League season occurred last night at North Junior High Field, where the Veterans of Foreign Wars received credit for an American Division win when Pittsfield Molding reported with only seven players.

In the National Division at Deming Field, Terminal Diner handed the Pastime Alleys' first half champions their third loss of the second half 12-4.

Terminal scored four runs in the first on just two hits. Losing pitcher Ted Brutnell was the victim of shaky support.

Carl Boteze, Paul Noetzel, Mike Sangiovanni and winning pitcher Peter Ellsworth all had two for the winners. Danny DeSantis drove in two runs for the Pastimes.

Pittsfield Molding assured itself of at least a tie for the first-half championship of the American Babe Ruth Baseball League with a 13-8 win last night over the Optimist Club at North Junior High Field.

Molding pitcher John Hurley chalked up his third win against no defeats. Tom Hunt was the big gun for the winners with a double and triple and five RBIs.

Sam Russo of the Optimists continued his hot hitting pace with two singles.

Tonight's game brings together VFW and Besse-Clarke.

In the National League at Deming Field, Terminal Diner downed GEAA last night 9-7. A good relief job by Diner pitcher Pete Ellsworth stopped a GEAA rally in the seventh. Ellsworth came in with two on and one out and fanned the next two men.

Mike Reilly started for the Terminal team. He allowed only four hits, two of them by Ray Risley, but poor support and lack of control got Reilly in trouble.

Mike Sangiovanni, with a home run, and Carl Boteze, with a double and single, were the batting stars for the winners.

National League make-up games, which will be played over the weekend are; tonight, Pastime vs Terminal Diner; tomorrow morning at 10, IUE vs Marine Reserve; Sunday afternoon, at 1:30, IUE vs Union Federal; at 3:30, GEAA vs Marine Reserve.

The Union Federal blasted the IUE No. 255 13-4 in the National Division Babe Ruth League at Deming Field. Hover, Hubbard and Hall were the big Federal hitters. The trio drove in nine runs. Hubbard was the winning pitcher. He had an easy time, as his mates had their hitting clothes on. Ten walks by IUE pitcher Poulton helped the Federal team.

The Marine Reserve outslugged IUE 13-10 yesterday. IUE made 13 errors, which accounted for six unearned runs.

The GEAA defeated the Marine Reserve 10-6, behind the two-hit pitching of Hamilton and Orazio. Risely's three-run triple was the GEAA big hit. The Marines opened the game with five runs in the first inning, but the victors overcame the lead with four in the third and five in the fourth.

St. Mary's Splits Over Weekend, Optimist Club Wins

St. Mary's split two games in the American division Babe Ruth Baseball League at North Junior High Field over the weekend as the hitters took the spotlight. It was trounced Saturday morning by Adams Supermarket 13-7, and came back to down Besse-Clarke 7-2 yesterday. The super market team also split, as the Optimist Club scored six runs in the third inning and 10 in the sixth for an easy 16-4 victory.

In Saturday's game, Bob Pulaski of Adams Supermarket drove in five runs with three singles.

There were 25 hits in the game. Adams had 13 and St. Mary's 12.

Dick Falkenbush was the winning pitcher.

Yesterday, behind the steady five-hit pitching of Ed McConnell, St. Mary's defeated Besse-Clarke. McConnell, in registering his first win of the year, walked one and struck out six.

Fred Congdon paced the winners at the plate with a perfect three for three day, including a home run.

The Optimists eliminated the Adams team from any mathematical possibility of the first-half championship, by unleashing an 11-hit attack. Mike Murray with a double and a single, and Dave Lucaroni with two singles led the victors at the plate.

Frank Murray received credit for the win. He relieved starting pitcher Sam Russo.

In the longest and one of the most exciting games of the Babe Ruth American League season Armand Walger pitched VFW to a 10-inning 5-4 victory over St. Mary's last night at North Junior High Field. In a National League game at Deming Field Pastime Alleys trounced Union Federal 9-1 behind the one-hit hurling of Brian Sullivan.

Walger went the full 10 innings scattering three hits, striking out 15, and walking five, one of which was intentional. St. Mary's pitcher Joe Mooney fanned 11 and walked four. Both pitchers were hurt by poor support.

John Deluce was the VFW batting hero with a one-out single to right field in the 10th to drive in Dave Messer with the winning run. Messer had reached on a fielder's choice, and stole second.

St. Mary's Scores Three

St. Mary's big inning was the sixth when it scored three runs. Fred Congdon walked, stole second and scored on Mooney's bunt single. After the next two men fanned, Fred Royal walked and Paul Charow was hit by a pitched ball. Charlie O'Neil, who went in to run for Charow was trapped off first and Mooney and Royal scored while O'Neil was being caught in the run-down.

Messer, Deluce and Dave Reilly had two hits for the winners. Mooney hit safely twice for St. Mary's.

In the National loop contest the only hit off Pastime pitcher Sullivan came in the sixth. He walked Tommy Hall, who went to second on a balk. Mike Rohlfs then belted a line drive over third to bring in Hall.

Sullivan was also the game's hitting star with a triple and single and three RBIs. Bill Dawley had a one-run double for Pastime.

Ronnie Ladd started for the losers, Rohlfs came in in the third inning, and Dave Nicklaw took over in the fifth to finish up.

Tonight the Marine Reserves play GEAA.

Adams, St. Mary's Play to 13-13 Tie; Optimists Win 12-9

Forty-seven runs were scored in two Babe Ruth American League games last night as Adams Supermarkets and St. Mary's battled to an eight-inning 13-13 tie at North Junior High Field, and the Optimists downed Besse-Clarke 12-9 at Clapp Park.

St. Mary's made 15 hits off Adams pitcher Bob Pulaski. The Supermarket team rapped out eight hits, six off Bill Daligian and two off Jim Washburn, who turned in a good relief job, giving up only two runs over the last four innings. He fanned nine and walked seven.

Denny Conry of Adams had three hits. It was the third extra-inning game of the week in the American loop.

The Optimists went ahead of Besse Clarke with seven runs in the sixth inning. The rally was helped by three Besse errors. The big blows were Al Francis' long home run to right-center and Dick Premerlani's second double of the night. Collin Garstang got the win in relief. Pete Sullivan pitched well for the losers, and also drove in four runs with two singles and a double.

Steal of Home Wins Game

Marines Beat Diner By 5-4 Score; Adams Triumphs

Ray Bell stole home with the winning run to give the Marine Reserves a 5-4 victory over Terminal Diner last night in the Babe Ruth National League at Deming Field. In the American League at North Junior High Field, Adams Supermarkets scored an easy 7-0 triumph over VFW.

In the National contest, Mike Reilly pitched a four-hitter for the losing Terminal team, but wildness and poor support led to his downfall. Winning pitcher Rick Jones allowed only six hits. Jerry Vella led the Marines' attack with two singles.

The Diner boys scored all their runs in the fourth inning. Dick Cadonelli and Paul Noetzel had two hits apiece for the losers.

Adams Supermarkets gained its second win of the American League second half behind the two-hit pitching of Bob Pulaski. Pulaski was in trouble several times as he walked five and hit three batsmen, but he fanned 10, a fact that helped get him off the hook more than once.

Armond Walger struck out 12, but infield errors accounted for four unearned runs for the Adams team.

Jan Villanova of the Supermarkets was the only player in the game with more than one hit. He had a single and double. Pulaski singled in the first inning to run his consecutive-game hitting streak to 11. He has hit safely in all his team's contests.

Pulaski's record is three wins and one loss. Walger has dropped four decisions and is yet to win.

The next American League action will be Tuesday night when St. Mary's plays the Optimist Club.

In the longest and one of the most exciting games of the Babe Ruth American League season Armand Walger pitched VFW to a 10-inning 5-4 victory over St. Mary's last night at North Junior High Field. In a National League game at Deming Field Pastime Alleys trounced Union Federal 9-1 behind the one-hit hurling of Brian Sullivan.

Walger went the full 10 innings scattering three hits, striking out 15, and walking five, one of which was intentional. St. Mary's pitcher Joe Mooney fanned 11 and walked four. Both pitchers were hurt by poor support.

John Deluce was the VFW batting hero with a one-out single to right field in the 10th to drive in Dave Messer with the winning run. Messer had reached on a fielder's choice, and stole second.

St. Mary's Scores Three

St. Mary's big inning was the sixth when it scored three runs. Fred Congdon walked, stole second and scored on Mooney's bunt single. After the next two men fanned, Fred Royal walked and Paul Charow was hit by a pitched ball. Charlie O'Neil, who went in to run for Charow was trapped off first and Mooney and Royal scored while O'Neil was being caught in the run-down.

Messer, Deluce and Dave Reilly had two hits for the winners. Mooney hit safely twice for St. Mary's.

In the National loop contest the only hit off Pastime pitcher Sullivan came in the sixth. He walked Tommy Hall, who went to second on a balk. Mike Rohlfs then belted a line drive over third to bring in Hall.

Sullivan was also the game's hitting star with a triple and single and three RBIs. Bill Dawley had a one-run double for Pastime.

Ronnie Ladd started for the losers, Rohlfs came in in the third inning, and Dave Nicklaw took over in the fifth to finish up.

Tonight the Marine Reserves play GEAA.

Forty-seven runs were scored in two Babe Ruth American League games last night as Adams Supermarkets and St. Mary's battled to an eight-inning 13-13 tie at North Junior High Field, and the Optimists downed Besse-Clarke 12-9 at Clapp Park.

Steal of Home Wins Game

Marines Beat Diner By 5-4 Score; Adams Triumphs

Ray Bell stole home with the winning run to give the Marine Reserves a 5-4 victory over Terminal Diner last night in the Babe Ruth National League at Deming Field. In the American League at North Junior High Field, Adams Supermarkets scored an easy 7-0 triumph over VFW.

In the National contest, Mike Reilly pitched a four-hitter for the losing Terminal team, but wildness and poor support led to his downfall. Winning pitcher Rick Jones allowed only six hits. Jerry Vella led the Marines' attack with two singles.

The Diner boys scored all their runs in the fourth inning. Dick Cadonelli and Paul Noetzel had two hits apiece for the losers.

Adams Supermarkets gained its second win of the American League second half behind the two-hit pitching of Bob Pulaski. Pulaski was in trouble several times as he walked five and hit three batsmen, but he fanned 10, a fact that helped get him off the hook more than once.

Armond Walger struck out 12, but infield errors accounted for four unearned runs for the Adams team.

Jan Villanova of the Supermarkets was the only player in the game with more than one hit. He had a single and double. Pulaski singled in the first inning to run his consecutive-game hitting streak to 11. He has hit safely in all his team's contests.

Pulaski's record is three wins and one loss. Walger has dropped four decisions and is yet to win.

The next American League action will be Tuesday night when St. Mary's plays the Optimist Club.

TOMORROW'S GAME

VFW 449 vs. St. Mary's.

Fifteen-year-old Bob Pulasky recorded the first no-hitter in the Babe Ruth Baseball League this season as he pitched Adams Supermarket to a 6-2 victory over Pittsfield Molding in the American Division last night at North Junior High Field. Pulasky, a three-year veteran of the BRL, walked 10 men and hit another, but pitched his way out of every jam, so that Pittsfield Molding stranded 10 men. He didn't allow a ball to reach the outfield.

Adams jumped to a quick 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first when lead-off man Craig Bowlby drew a walk and scored on Denny Conry's double to left center.

Molding tied the game in the third when Joe Kozaka circled the bases on a walk, a passed ball, a throwing error, and a stolen base. Molding even led for a while as it added a run in the fourth. Tom Hunt was hit with a pitched ball. He stole second and third, and tallied on an infield error.

Adams exploded for five runs in the fifth inning. The biggest blow was a long triple to right by Tom Donahue.

In the National Division IUE's Charlie Poulton scattered seven hits and pitched his team to a 2-0 whitewash over the Terminal Diner at Deming Field. This was the first National League game this year.

Mike Reilly of Terminal had a no-hitter going into the fifth-inning. He weakened and loaded the bases on two walks and a single, and then forced in a run by walking Jim Baranuk. Jimmy Carlo then singled to score IUE's final run.

VFW Edges St. Mary's

6/6/60

Rilla Fans 15 In 1-Hit Effort, Pitcher Scores Run

The VFW edged St. Mary's 1-0 in a tightly played American Division Babe Ruth Baseball League game at North Junior High Field. Pete Rilla pitched a one - hitter, with the relief aid of Armand Wolger. Rilla had 15 strikeouts, and was effective with men on base until the sixth inning when St. Mary's loaded the bases with one out. Wolger came in from left field and retired the side.

Dave Messer drove in the winning run with a line single to left in the first inning. Jim Mooney pitched well for the losers and only gave up two hits.

In the National Division at Deming Field, the Marine Reserve was involved in two games, and it lost them both, 6-5 to GEAA, and 5-3 to Union-Federal. Twenty-four runners were stranded in the GEAA game, which featured the clutch pitching of Louie Orazio, who shut the door when the Marines threatened in the final inning. With the tying and winning runs in scoring position and no outs, he fanned two of the next three men to face him and won the game.

The Marines had a three-run lead until the fifth when Federal exploded for five runs. Al Hubbard had two doubles, his second being the long blow of the uprising. Mike Rohlfs received credit for his first win, while Al Cook suffered his first loss.

Pastime Alleys blasted IUE 12-3 at Deming Park, with seven runs in the last inning to ice the game. Brian Sullivan had two triples, and scored four runs for the winners. Mike Touhy had a double and triple in three trips for Pastime. Ray Sarosy was the winning pitcher, and Jim Carlo took the loss.

Gary Soldato To Captain PHS Ball Team

BRL

Second Baseman Is Selected As 1961 Leader

Gary (Red) Soldato, second baseman of the 1960 state champion Pittsfield High baseball team, has been elected captain for the 1961 season by his teammates. Soldato has been the regular second baseman for PHS for the past two seasons.

The new captain, a right-handed batter, had a .324 average. He hit in the No. 3 spot. He is considered by many baseball men one of the best pivot men ever seen in high school baseball in this area.

Soldato is a two-letter man. He was first string quarterback on Pittsfield's Tri-County Conference championship squad last fall, and won his letter in the 1958 season when he was used mostly as a defensive back.

The electee enters his senior year in September taking the college prep course. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nazerano Soldato of 64 Hollister St.

The Supermarket player had 16 hits in 30 times at bat for a .533 average. He was the only player in the league to bat over the .500 mark. Pulaski made eight successful thefts.

Fred Congdon of St. Mary's was the second hitter with a .483 average on 14 hits in 29 times at bat. Dennis Kelly of VFW was third at .476 with 10 safeties on 21 trips to the plate. Kelly is a 13-year-old in his first year of Babe Ruth action. Sam Russo who made the charmed circle of .300 hitters with a .303 average, is also a 13-year-old first season man.

In the pitching department John Hurley of Pittsfield Molding, Bill Victor of VFW, and Dick Falkenbush of Adams Supermarkets all won three and lost none. Other undefeated moundsmen were Tom Tobin of Pittsfield Molding with two victories, and Dave White of the Molding club and Ed McConnell of St. Mary's with one apiece.

Bowlby, Donahue Homer To Lead Adams To Win

The Adams Supermarket scored in every inning but one to defeat Besse-Clarke 16-1 in the American Division of the Babe Ruth Baseball League at North Junior High Field last night. The game was called after five innings because of a league rule halting action when a team is ahead by 15 runs.

Craig Bowlby had a home run, a triple and a single for Adams, Tom Donahue a home run and a single. Dick Falkenbush breezed through five innings, giving up three hits and two walks. He struck out two. Six Besse-Clarke errors aided the victors.

Jack Doyle, John Dawley and Darryl Rustic pitched for the losers, but none could contain the Adams bats.

40 Babe Ruth League Boys To Serve as Solicitors

6/9/60

Ditmar, Frank, LaBlue and Litano Make Arrangements—Benefit Skating Show Set Sunday at Broyles Arena

By ROGER O'GARA

Officials of the Dan Healy fund today hailed a plant-gate collection at the General Electric Co. as the biggest single development in the drive for the benefit of the family of the late sportscaster. The solicitation is scheduled for Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 at 17 of the company's gates.

Fund Hits $1,252.89

At mid-morning today, the fund had climbed to $1,252.89, according to J. Howard Fryer, treasurer. One hundred fifty canisters have been distributed throughout Berkshire County, and a fund spokesman said offers of help continue to pour in from communities all over the area.

The committee will meet tonight at 7:30 at the American Legion Home. Organizations and individuals wishing to join the effort should be present.

Arrangements for the plant-gate collection were made yesterday afternoon at a meeting in the office of Local 255 of the IUE. Attending were Arthur LaBlue and Albert F. Litano, business agent and president, respectively, of the union, George Ditmar, representing the committee, and James J. Frank. Ditmar will be in charge of the solicitation at the east plant, and Frank will serve in a similar capacity at the main plant.

Forty Babe Ruth Baseball League players will be the collectors. Frank and Paul Brindle, long-time secretary of the league, are arranging for their appearance. Frank said last night Supt. of Schools Edward J. Russell has cooperated with the drive by agreeing to dismiss the boys Friday afternoon at 2 upon presentation of approval of their parents. Frank also said that the union has cooperated to the fullest in making arrangements for the solicitation.

The boys will receive contributions from groups of workers who either leave or enter the plants at 3, 3:30, 4, 4:30 and 5. The youngsters will be dismissed at 5:15. Transportation will be provided for them to and from the gates.

The senior and junior skaters of the Broyles Arena at 555 Dalton Ave. will present a special show for the fund Sunday night at 8 at the arena. Precision skating, dancing and novelty numbers will be featured. The Hi-Fi Club of WBRK is co-sponsor of the program.

Tickets will be $1. Outlets are Wood Brothers, the Rosa Restaurant, the House of Flowers, Besse-Clarke, Marsten's, the American Legion and Sammy Vincent's.

Contributions of $25 each were voted last night at meetings of the American Legion and the Berkshire County Baseball Umpires' Assn.

Ralph Giannone of Pittsfield and Frank Brundage and George (Hap) Milne, both of Pittsfield, have been added to the fund committee.

IUE catcher Joe Delphia had two of his team's five hits, a two-run homer in the third and a double in the fifth. Paul Procopio started for the losers and was relieved by Orazio in the fifth.

Doubleheader Sunday

No National game is slated for tomorrow, but a make-up doubleheader will be played Sunday. Pastime Alleys and GEAA will meet at 1:30 and IUE will play Marine Reserve in the second game.

In the American League game VFW scored the winning run in the last of the eighth when Jim (Herman) Mahan walked with two out and came all the way from first on Pete Rilla's hard single that got through the outfield.

The Veterans jumped off to a 3-0 lead with two runs in the second on singles by Fran Reardon and Steve Forsyth, a double by Denny Kelly and a squeeze play and a single score in the third on Armand Walger's double and Reardon's single.

The Optimists got five unearned runs in the fourth without a hit. The scores came on five walks, a fielder's choice and an error. The Optimists added two more in the sixth.

VFW scored three times in the sixth to tie the score. Rilla starred for the winners. He went to right field for the fifth and sixth innings when Dave Reilly came on, but returned in the seventh and got credit for the win.

The Pastime Alleys and the G.E.A.A. will play a make-up game tomorrow morning at 10 at Deming Field in the National division of the Babe Ruth Baseball League.

Molding Team Wins Twice Over Weekend

6/13/60

George Horton Stars With 6 Batted In, White Hurls Shutout

Pittsfield Molding won two American Division Babe Ruth Baseball League games over the weekend at North Junior High Field. It defeated St. Mary's 11-7 Saturday, and 3-0 in the first game of a doubleheader yesterday. Adams Supermarket edged VFW Post 448 in the second game 4-3.

George Horton was the big hitter for Molding, going four for seven and driving in six runs in the two games. He had two triples and a single in the first St. Mary's game, and a single in the second. Tom Hunt also had a pair of triples in the first game.

Dave White pitched the shutout yesterday. He gave up three hits, and four walks. He struck out four.

Adams Supermarket knocked the VFW out of first place, as Bob Pulasky outdueled Armand Walger. Adams scored three runs in the first inning and held on as VFW rallied for single runs in the sixth and seventh. Pulasky helped his own cause with a triple.

The Marine Reserve won from Terminal Diner 9-4 in a National Division game Friday night, behind the four-hit pitching of Rick Jones. Gary Vella led the Marine attack with a pair of singles, while losing pitcher Mike Reilly led Terminal with a single and a double. Johnny Rilla was outstanding in the field for the winners, making several fine catches and throwing out two runners.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Game this morning—Pittsfield Molding vs. Besse-Clarke.

Early darkness halted both Babe Ruth League baseball games last night before their completions. In the American League at North Junior High Field Besse-Clarke and St. Mary's were tied 3-3 after seven innings when the game was called. In the National League at Deming Field Union Federal downed GEAA 6-2 in a contest terminated at the end of five innings.

In the American League 3-3 contest Besse-Clarke outhit St. Mary's 10 hits to two, but walks, stolen bases, an error and an interference play along with the two safeties enabled St. Mary's to come up with the three runs.

Ron Ladd of Union Federal held GEAA to five hits and fanned five. Matt Giardini led the Union Federal attack with a single and double and two RBIs. Dave Palmeri had two hits for the losers.

The Marine Reserve defeated the I.U.E. 225 5-3 in the National Division of the Babe Ruth Baseball League at Deming Field. Allen Cook went all the way for the win. He was not in trouble until the fifth when he began to tire, but he held on and only allowed single runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh. He struck out 13, and was able to come up with the strike out pitch whenever the I.U.E. threatened.

The Marines took advantage of Charlie Poulton's wildness in the second inning and scored three runs on one single, four walks, and two errors by Poulton.

Pittsfield Molding, behind the steady four-hit pitching of Tom Tobin, strengthened its hold on first place in the American Division as it defeated second place VFW No.; 448 4-1 at the North Junior High Field. The loss dropped the Vets into a tie with Adams Supermarket for the runnerup spot.

The Molding team overcame an early 2-0 VFW lead with three runs in the third. George Horton banged a two-run double down the left field line for the big hit of the inning.

Catcher Dave Tatio of Pittsfield Molding picked three runners off first base.

Babe Ruth League Sets New Tryout For Wednesday Night

6/14

A new tryout for 14 and 15-year-old boys has been set by the Babe Ruth Baseball League for Wednesday night on the Common. All boys who tried out at the beginning of the year are eligible for the new session, as are other boys in that age group who will be coming out for the first time.

The tryout will begin at 6:15. Its purpose is to fill some vacancies left by boys who have left the league.

Pittsfield BR Team Playing District Title Game Today

JUL 30 1960

For the first time in the history of Babe Ruth play in Pittsfield a local team will face an opponent from Agawam. The Pittsfield American League All-Stars will meet the Agawam All-Stars this afternoon at 2:15 at Phelps School Field in Agawam. The contest is for the championship of District 1. The Pittsfield team took the 1A title, and Agawam was the winner in District 1B.

The winner will advance to the state tournament at Worcester Aug. 6 and 7. The regional tourney will be played at Fitchburg this year Aug. 12, 13 and 14, with the Massachusetts champion drawing a first-round bye. This state's winner will meet the winner of the Rhode Island-Connecticut game in the second round. Pittsfield teams won state crowns in Fitchburg in 1955 and 1956.

Bob Pulasky will pitch for Pittsfield. Pulasky hurled a two-hitter against Williamstown, shutting that club out 3-0 last week. Armand Walger, who threw two one-hit games in the District 1A tournament is not allowed by the rules to pitch today.

The probable starting pitcher for Agawam will be either Bob Morin or John Mikszewski. John Nacewicz, who pitched the District 1B title win over Holyoke, like Walger, is ineligible to pitch this game.

In three tournament games, the Pittsfield All-Stars allowed only one run and four hits in 21 innings. In two mound appearances, Walger fanned 22 and walked six. Pulasky struck out 11 and walked two in one game.

Probable starting line-ups are:

Pittsfield Molding split two games over the weekend, but managed to hold on to first place in the American division, Babe Ruth Baseball League. Both games were won by lopsided scores. National League pace-setters, Pastime Alleys downed second-place Union Federal 5-1.

Saturday, Pittsfield Molding came up with 11 runs in the third inning, which carried it to an easy 14-0 shutout over last place Besse-Clarke. John Hurley pitched a three-hitter for the winners. He struck out eight. First baseman Jay Kozaka was Molding's leading hitter with a triple and a single.

VFW's Bill Victor won his third game of the season Sunday, by pitching his team to a 12-1 win over league-leading Pittsfield Molding. The VFW scored in every inning except the sixth as they made 13 hits. Leading the vets was Dave Messer with a double, a single and three RBIs.

St. Mary's won over the Optimist Club 7-1, in the opening game of Sunday's double-header, behind the steady four-hit pitching of Joe Mooney. St. Mary's jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first, when Jim Washburn walked, and Jim Downey and Fred Congdon singled to load the bases. Mooney cleared the bases with a triple to left center and then tallied on an infield out. It added three insurance runs in the sixth.

The Pastime Alleys made four runs in the bottom of the seventh to break open a tight pitching duel between the Alley's Brian Sullivan and Union Federal's Mike Rohlfs, and won 5-1. Sullivan notched his fourth win of the year. He has yet to lose. Timely hitting came from Mike Touhy, Danny DeSantis and Jim Buckley. Buckley hit a two-run triple.

Terminal Diner took advantage of nine IUE 225 errors to eke out a 6-5 win in another National Division game. Dick Cadinelli, Eddie Grady and Pete Ellsworth led the winners in hitting. Ellsworth picked up the victory in relief of starting pitcher Paul Noetzel. Joe Delphia hit his second home run for IUE. He hit it with a man on in the seventh. Bill Hynes had a three-run double for the losers.

Jimmy Carlo was the losing pitcher. He hurled well but received no support from his team.

Ray Bell's sixth-inning single drove in the winning run as the Marine Reserve edged Union Federal 7-6 in the National Division of the Babe Ruth Baseball League last night at Deming Field. The Marines came up with five runs in the first inning on Tom Potter's two-run homer and Bill Tchorz' two-run triple. The winners added a run in the second, but Union Federal scored twice in the second and four in the fourth to tie it up. This set the stage for Bell's hit. Al Cook pitched for the Marines. He gave up only three hits, but was a victim of shaky support.

In a mild upset in the American League last night at North Junior High Field, St. Mary's topped the VFW 448 6-5, on a sixth-inning home run by Freddy Congdon.

Congdon had three hits and two runs batted in for the winners, while catcher, Denny Kelly led the losers with three hits including a two-run double.

Besse-Clarke Beaten 22-7 By Optimists

JUN 22 1960

The Optimist Club evened its season record at 4-4 as it unleashed a 17-hit barrage to defeat Besse-Clarke 22-7 last night in the American division of the Babe Ruth Baseball League at North Junior High Field. Scoring in every inning but the fifth, the Optimists showed the kind of offense that carried them to the championship the past three years.

Mike Twining, Sam Russo and Collin Garstang led the onslaught. Twining had a triple and three singles, Russo a double and three singles and Garstang had three singles.

In the National division at Deming Field, Bob Pinsonneault's single to right field drove in the winning run as Pastime Alleys edged I.U.E. 225 3-2. Ray Sarosy of Pastime and Chuck Poulton of IUE engaged in a duel, both pitching fine ball over the route.

Jimmy Carlo of IUE was the batting star with a triple and two singles. Mike Tuohy had the only extra base hit for Pastime — a triple.

Woitkowski's Two Triples

Scrappy St. Joseph's (NA) Frightens Unbeaten Leaders

Joey Costanzo Throws Four-Hitter, But Trails Until Sixth—Fran Walsh Pitches Superbly for Losing Cause

By ROGER O'GARA

But for one sophomore's maltreatment of another in the season's longest game last night at North Adams' Noel Field, the Northern Berkshire Interscholastic Baseball League pennant race today would be a dog fight. Yet vaunted Pittsfield High remains unbeaten at the head of the chase, because it edged scrappy St. Joseph's High of North Adams 2-1 in 11 innings of splendid plays, thrills and arguments.

St. Joe's Leads Early

A pair of solid triples by powerful right-handed Ray Woitkowski off lean, left-handed Francis Walsh averted an upset in the making. The first tied the score with two out in the sixth after the underdog home team had taken the lead with a tainted, no-hit run in the third. The second sealed Walsh's doom with one away in the 11th. Both distant blasts went to left field.

Joey Costanzo, Pittsfield's sturdy little right-handed captain, limited St. Joseph's to four hits in shading Walsh in one of the finest mound duels in years. Walsh was reached for nine safeties, but was rough in the pinches. He was bothersome because he kept his sharp-dipping curve and medium speed ball low most of the time.

Walsh tired noticeably after the seventh, but Costanzo seemed stronger in the pressure stages. Joey used few hooks in the early innings, yet leaned heavily on them in the late ones.

Fifth Win in Row

It was Pittsfield's fifth consecutive league win and St. Joseph's second loss in five starts. The setback dropped Coach Frank Matrango's good-looking club deeper into third place.

Mark Belanger, hitless in his first four times at bat, opened the Pittsfield 11th by ramming a sharp grounder by third baseman Corky St. Denis into left field. Gary Soldato bunted Belanger to second. Then Woitkowski blazed a sinking liner into left. Young Jim Robinson hesitated to try a shoe-string catch, and the momentary pause caused the ball to strike him in the shins. It carromed crazily away. Belanger scored easily, and Woitkowski reached third, where seconds later he became the victim of the hidden ball play.

St. Joseph's died hard. Little Robinson opened the bottom of the 11th with a line single to center. However, Steve Powers' bounder back to Costanzo became the game's only double play, with shortstop Belanger pivoting neatly. Then third baseman Walt McHendry made a nice gloved-hand stab on Ron Pietras' sharp grounder, and threw for the game-ending out.

Debate at Plate

St. Joseph's capitalized on Costanzo's only base on balls. It went to St. Denis, leadoff man in the third. After Walsh's intended sacrifice was popped foul to McHendry, Robinson's topped roller to the left of the plate resulted in Pittsfield's only error. Catcher Kenny King pegged wildly to first, and there were runners on second and third. Powers hit sharply to Belanger, and St. Denis was called safe in a close play at the plate.

Umpire Jim Priete ruled that King had missed his tag. Coach Nick Morris vehemently contended his catcher had blocked the plate after taking a low throw ahead of the runner.

Walsh was four outs away from a coveted victory when Soldato singled to right center with two down in the sixth. Woitkowski smashed the first pitch far over Robinson's head for three bases and the all precious run.

PHS Wastes Chances

Pittsfield wasted a two-out triple to right by Soldato in the first and leadoff singles by Dave Jacobs, McHendry and Woitkowski in the second, fifth and ninth, respectively. A fine play by St. Denis saved Walsh in the ninth. Woitkowski moved up two bases on Jacob's sacrifice bunt and McHendry's fly to right, but St. Denis took Johnny Tagliaferro's mean hopper and pegged him out.

Belanger's flashing back-hand stab for an inning-ending out on Sonny Whitney's sinking fly in short left field closed the door on a St. Joseph's run in the second. Carl Chalifoux, on with a leadoff double, would have scored.

Costanzo fanned 11, Walsh 10. Each walked only one. Their support was sharp. There was only one error on each side. St. Denis was the defensive standout with seven assists.

Costanzo set the side down in order in six innings. Walsh did it in three. St. Joseph's didn't advance a man beyond first base after the third. In fact, it had only three runners after that inning.

Woitkowski led Pittsfield with three hits. He made them in successive turns after failing to hit safely in his first two visits. Soldato had two. Robinson, a gritty little left-handed freshman, punched two hits for the losers.

BRL Games Rained Out During Play

Both games in the Babe Ruth Baseball League were called last night on account of rain. These will be played at a later date.

In the National Division, GEAA was leading Pastime Alleys 2-1 when the game was called in the third inning.

The American League has yet to get in a full game. The Optimist Club and St. Mary's were scoreless at the end of the third inning. Frank Murray was on the mound for Optimists. He had struck out six, allowed one single and two walks. Bernie Carmel, the St. Mary's pitcher, had struck out one, walked one, and had been reached for two singles.

Besse-Clarke and Pittsfield Molding will play tonight in the American Division at North Junior High. Union-Federal and IUE 255 will meet in the National Division at Deming Field.

The Besse-Clarke-VFW Babe Ruth American League game, which was rained out last night, will be played tomorrow morning at 10 at North Junior High Field. St. Mary's and Adams Supermarkets will meet tonight.

Joey's Record

FAIR OR FOUL

By Roger O'Gara

IF JOEY COSTANZO can continue his phenomenal pitching pace for Pittsfield High, he'll set a record in this area for a low earned run average. Such scientific measurements of pitching effectiveness wasn't attempted in high school circles in the olden days, but accurate records have been kept here in the last 20 years.

At the moment, Costanzo has the incredible mark of 0.216 earned runs per nine inning game. That means he has allowed about one-fifth of a legitimate run in each of his five contests. In short, the opposition has made but one earned run on him in 41 innings. That score was by Springfield Classical in the season opener April 22.

Costanzo has a perfect earned run average in the Northern Berkshire League. Yes, it's 0.000. No league team has earned a run on him. Only St. Joseph's of North Adams has scored, and that solitary run was tainted. In all, Costanzo has yielded four runs. Classical made three in beating him.

o—o

THE BEST RECORD prior to Costanzo's was achieved by Dick Pucko, Pittsfield High's sophomore sensation of 1947. Pucko's average was a magical 0.324. He allowed two earned runs in 54⅓ innings. His record was seven wins and no losses.

Pucko was the youngster who made Art Ditmar, then the senior captain, the No. 2 pitcher on the PHS staff that season. Ditmar now a mainstay with the New York Yankees, was four and two in his final school year. He was beaten 5-1 by Worcester Trade in the semifinals of the Western Massachusetts tournament at Holyoke.

Pucko was a bigger strikeout man than Costanzo, but his control wasn't as good. In his great year, he fanned 87 and allowed only 20 hits. To date, Joey has struck out 56, and has yielded but 10 hits.

Joey has hit a consistent strikeout total. He had 12 each in the Classical and Drury games, 11 against St. Joseph's of North Adams, and 10 and 11 in that order against Adams.

o—o

PUCKO STRUCK out 17 St. Joseph's of Pittsfield batters and allowed only three hits in winning 13-1 on the night of June 2, 1947, before one of the largest crowds ever to see a high school game here. The paid attendance at Wahconah Park was 1929, the receipts $893.10.

This was the much-awaited duel between Pucko and Billy McMahon, both sophomore stars. Billy, who later was signed by the Boston Red Sox for a large bonus, had tough luck that night. He was hit hard, and his support was shabby. He retired to the peace and quiet of center field after the fourth inning.

Pucko and McMahon both looked like major league prospects that year. Yet Pucko was afflicted with arm trouble before he finished high school, and McMahon came down with the dread disease for the first time as a senior.

o—o

COSTANZO'S three-year record is spectacular. He has worked in 167 innings, struck out 194. He has won 19 and lost two.

His earned run average is 1.02. He has allowed only 19 earned runs. Eleven of these were scored against him when he was a sophomore.

He stands only five, five or five, six, weighs no more than 150 pounds. Yet he is very strong. He has an excellent delivery.

Joey isn't quite sure what he will do after high school. There's a chance he may go to North Adams State Teachers College in the fall. This school, in its first season of varsity play in the sprawling New England Conference (17 teachers' colleges), has done extremly well. Think what a hit Joey would be in this league.

Another possibility is the University of Massachusetts. Athletic director Warren McGuirk was much interested when he heard several of us discussing Joey's great record the other night at the alumni sports program at the Stanley Club.

"Earl Lorden should hear about that boy," Warren said. Earl is varsity baseball coach at Massachusetts.

o—o

IF COSTANZO were six feet tall and weighed upward of 190 pounds, he would long since have been besieged by major league scouts. Yet to date he hasn't had a nibble.

Most little fellows have to lean heavily on junk pitches, but Joey is an exception. His fast ball will compare favorably with that of any heavyweight.

o—o

OVER THE YEARS, several area boys of lesser ability have received attractive professional contracts.

A decade ago, many scouts spent the greater part of the summer in Pittsfield. That's when prospects were numerous. Of course Joey may be paying the penalty for Pittsfield's high casualty rate in that era.

Or it could be that the scouts aren't reading the newspaper sports pages as closely as they did in the late 1940s.

You almost wonder whether some of the scouts can read. A Pittsfield woman just this week told us of her experience last June at the Belmont-Pittsfield state championship game in Newton.

A scout for the Boston Red Sox happened to be sitting near her. She and friends asked the man what he thought of Joey Costanzo.

She said that he replied he had been watching "that kid for five years."

She advised him he was wrong, pointing out that Costanzo, then a junior, had been at Pittsfield High only two years.

The scout insisted he first had seen Costanzo pitching for Pittsfield four or five years ago.

Technically, he was right, but the Costanzo he was referring to was Frank, who was graduated from PHS in 1957. If the man thought that Joe and Frank were the same pitcher, he wasn't paying close attention.

Williamstown, Pittsfield Meet In District Babe Ruth Game

JUL 19 1960

The defending champion Williamstown Babe Ruth All-Stars will meet the Pittsfield American League team in a second round game in the District 1A tournament at Wahconah Park tomorrow night at 6.

The Williamstown team, which drew a bye in the first round, will be playing their first tournament game against a team which looked very good in defeating Great Barrington 6-0 on Sunday.

Pittsfield will probably field the same team that played Great Barrington, with the exception of pitcher Armand Walger, who may see some service in another position. Walger hurled a one-hitter against Great Barrington.

The tentative lineups:

AL All-Stars, Barrington Play Tomorrow

JUL 16 1960

BR Tourney Game Scheduled for 2 At Wahconah Park

A Pittsfield entry will be making its first appearance in this year's Babe Ruth All-Star tournament tomorrow afternoon at 2 at Wahconah Park when the American League All-Stars meet the Great Barrington All-Stars. In case of rain the game will be played Monday night at 6 at Wahconah.

Pittsfield is participating in the tourney for the ninth year and has won three state crowns. In 1956 the local entry went to the semifinals of the New England Regional event only two games away from the Babe Ruth World Series which took place in Portland, Ore.

The American team is coached by Ray Meandro, assisted by Tony Nugai and Charlie Pansecchi. The National League team, which drew a first-round bye, will open Tuesday night at 6 at Wahconah Park against the winner of today's game in Lee between Lee and Adams. The Nationals are coached by Bud Pellerin, assisted by Lou Orazio and Dom Mazza.

The probable starting lineups for tomorrow's game are:

PITTSFIELD AMERICAN ALL-STARS
Craig Bowlby, rf; Jan Villanova, lf; Fred Congdon, cf; George Horton, ss; Dick Premerlani, 3b; Mike Twining or Buddy Collins, c; Fran Reardon, 2b; Tom Tobin, 1b; Bob Pulaski or Armand Walger, p. Reserves—Joe Kozara, Joe Mooney, Dave Tatro, Collin Garstang.

5/22/60

THE CEREMONIAL BATTERY for the traditional first ball throwing that opened the Babe Ruth American League yesterday at North Junior High field was Mayor Raymond Haughey, right, pitching, and Park Commission Chairman Francis Nichols, catching. The city officials are shown getting their signals set before the pitch, which was a letter high curve ball. The National League had its official opening Saturday at Deming Field. Both loops have games tonight.

Triple Play Is Feature Of Opening BRL Games

A triple play featured the opening of the American Division of the Pittsfield Babe Ruth League yesterday at North Junior High Field. Besse-Clark made the play to end the game, and won 4-0 over the Adams Supermarket. In the first game of the double-header, the Optimist Club downed the VFW 6-3. The National Division opened its season Saturday with a twin bill at Deming Field. Pastime defeated the Marine Corps Reserve 3-0 in the opener and Union-Federal tripped the Terminal Diner 5-2 in the nightcap.

Although outhit 5-3, Besse-Clark scored four runs in the fourth inning to defeat the Adams Supermarket in the second game yesterday. It was a defensive battle as the winners' infield played well and Adams stranded 11 men.

The game ended dramatically. With runners on first and second with no outs, Lou Petithory of Adams hit what looked like a Texas Leagurer, only to have shortstop Al Mendel make a superb over-the-shoulder catch. Mendel then turned and threw to second baseman Phil Heidel to double up Jan Villanova, who in turn threw on to first where Bob Lear completed the triple play as he tagged Bob Pulasky for the final out.

Optimists Rally

The Optimist Club overcame an early three-run VFW lead and went on to win by scoring three runs in the fourth and sixth innings. The VFW opened the scoring in the first when Dave Messer singled and Armand Walger tripled. They added two more in the second on Paul Mancivalano's single, John DeLuce's walk, a sacrifice by Jim Mahan, and an outfield error. Then Optimists roared back to tie in the fourth. They loaded the bases on two errors and a walk. Pitcher Walger walked in a run, and the other two scored on Fred Taliaferro's single. In the sixth, the Optimists' Spiewak reached third on two errors and a stolen base. Ricky Vaccaro hit a bad hop single by second baseman DeLuce to score Spewak. After two walks filled the bases, Sam Russo unloaded a two-run double.

behind pitchers Mike Reilly and Pete Ellsworth. Poor support accounted for most of Union's runs.

Charles Kidney, president of the City Council, threw the first ball to Vincent Hebert, superintendent of parks and recreation, for the National Division. Mayor Raymond Haughey and Park Commission Chairman Fran Nichols performed the same duties yesterday for the American Division.

Brian Sullivan pitched a six hit shutout, striking out 11, and in beating the Marine Corp Reserve team in an abbreviated 5½-inning game. Ray Sarosy led the Pastime hitters with two doubles. The Reserves threatened in the top of the sixth. With one out, three singles loaded the bases, but Sullivan bore down and fanned the next two batters. Loser Roger Ladd had two singles, and Al Cook had a double and sparkled defensively for the Marines.

In the nightcap Saturday, Union-Federal downed the Terminal Diner. Ronnie Ladd pitched superbly, not allowing the losers a hit until two were out in the fifth. Then pinch-hitter Paul Noetzel beat out an infield roller. Ladd weakened some in the seventh, but held on to win. He struck out 10 and walked only one. Federal made six errors

Hitters Star In Babe Ruth

5/28/60

Adams Supermarket, Terminal Diner Are Victorious

The hitters stole the show in Babe Ruth Baseball League play last night as the Terminal Diner and Adams Supermarket scored victories. The Diner team defeated the Pastime Alleys 8-7 in National Division play at Deming Field and Adams won over the Optimist Club 9-5 in the American at North Junior High Field.

Adams scored twice in the second inning. Bob Pulasky reached second on a two-base error, was sacrificed to third, and scored on a throwing error. Four walks accounted for the second run. Craig Bowlby drew the fourth pass to force in the run. Adams' big inning was the fourth when it scored four times. Singles by Bowlby and Jan Villanova were the big blows.

The Terminal Diner, after seeing a five-run lead evaporate, came up with three in the seventh to eke out the win. Hitting stars for the diner team were Dick Cadinelli with two singles, and Ed Grady with a single and double.

The longest hits were made by Pastime. Losing pitcher Brian Sullivan hit a home run, and Denny DeSantis had a triple and a single, and was two for two on the evening. Pastime's Art Sarosy drove in three runs with a double.

No games are scheduled over the holiday weekend.

Ruth League Has Election

1/27/60

Vice Presidents Chosen for 2 Loops For First Time

Louis J. Russo was re-elected president of the Pittsfield Babe Ruth League for the coming season at an organizational meeting at Springside House. Also re-elected were treasurer Vincent J. Hebert, players' agent Paul E. Brindle, and directors Colin A. Keegan, Samuel J. Quadrozzi, and John C. Matchesi.

Two vice presidents were elected this year, one for the National League and one for the American. James J. Frank, vice president of both last year, will have the post for the National, and U. Joseph Premerlani, secretary last year, was chosen for the American post.

Brindle, secretary for many years until last season, returns to that position, in addition to being players' agent. Joseph J. Harrison was elected to the board of directors for the first time to succeed Louis Heidel. All officers are also members of the board.

HIT 'EM LOU . . . When Willie Pep, one-time featherweight champion of the world, came to Pittsfield last week, he dropped in at the Brass Rail to see old friend Pasquale Cioffi, owner of the restaurant. It wasn't long before Lou (the original bench-warmer) Russo was in there trading quips with the champ. Quips led to more quips, and eventually, the above. Russo's second is Dominic Cimini, (PT supplies). At far right is Cioffi, who was a professional boxer in the late twenties and early thirties. Said Russo: "I'd taken him if my lunch hour hadn't ended so soon."

Babe Ruth Registration Opens for Both Divisions

3/31/60

Registration for the Babe Ruth Baseball Leagues is open, it was announced today by league secretary Paul Brindle. Registration blanks are printed in today's Berkshire Eagle, and also will be carried tomorrow and Saturday.

There will be no registration conducted at the fields this year. All candidates must mail their applications to the Parks and Recreation Department prior to the tryouts, which have been set for Monday night, April 25, at 6 at the Common and Deming Field.

Boys living inside the North and East Little League boundaries will try out at the Common. Residents of the South and West Little League territory will try out at Deming Field. Boys not sure where to report should go to the tryout nearest their homes, and they will be placed in the correct group.

All Candidates Welcome

All candidates will be welcome, regardless of whether they have played in the Little Leagues.

"Many of our players in the past did not play Little League," Brindle pointed out.

Babe Ruth League ball is for boys born on or after Sept. 1, 1944 and prior to Sept. 1, 1947. Attendance will be taken at each practice, and, in order to be picked for a team, a candidate must attend a minimum of two-thirds of the tryout sessions.

The National division will open the season at Deming Field with a double-header Saturday, May 21. The first game will be between the 1959 champion Optimist Club and the runner-up VFW team. The second game will be between the Terminal Diner and Union Federal.

The American division will begin play the following day, Sunday, May 22, at Wahconah Park, with the Optimist Club, last year's champs, meeting the second place VFW in the first contest, and Adams Super Market and Besse-Clarke finishing up the double-header. American division twilight games will be played at the North Junior High field. Some Sunday double-headers are scheduled for Wahconah Park. All National games will be at Deming.

Parents Can Plan

The 1960 schedule has been made up for both leagues to assist parents of players to make vacation plans. No games will be plyaed May 28-29-30 and July 2-3-4. League action will suspend for one week from Thursday, July 28, through Thursday, Aug. 4. Any player who is out of the city during these weeks will probably not miss more than one game.

League officials feel, although this scheduling may make the season longer, it will eliminate some of the forfeits that occurred last summer.

Babe Ruth Tryouts Resume Tonight

Babe Ruth League tryouts resume tonight at 6 at both the Common and Deming Field after being rained out last night. Tonight and tomorrow night will be the final tryouts, with players being selected tomorrow night after practice.

Babe Ruth League Officials Plan Season Ticket Sale

The directors of Pittsfield Babe Ruth baseball will finance the league this year by the sale of season tickets, the same plan that was used last year. The plan eliminates the passing of the hat at the games.

The ticket sale will be by the boys in the league. Prizes will be awarded for the sale of specified numbers of tickets. All boys selling 10 tickets will receive a Babe Ruth League baseball. Twenty tickets will win a Louisville Slugger bat.

Boys selling 35 tickets will get a $9 pair of spiked shoes, and the sale of 50 tickets will win a $20 glove. Any player who sells 75 tickets will receive a $35 gift certificate.

Boys To Receive Letters

Letters from the officers, directors and coaches, signed by league president Louis J. Russo, explaining the necessity and workings of the plan, will be given to the boys. The tickets will be given out by the coaches in lots of 10, and when the player returns $10 he will be given more tickets.

A record will be kept of the number of tickets sold by each of the boys. The campaign will close June 15.

In his letter Pres. Russo explained that the league needs the help of the boys, and that it will be the only time their assistance will be sought in a financial way.

He also reminded the ticket sellers of their obligation to conduct themselves in a gentlemanly manner. Russo wrote as follows:

"When you are selling tickets always remember that you are a representative of the Babe Ruth League and the Department of Parks and Recreation, which sponsors the league by providing umpires, baseballs and field facilities. Be a gentleman at all times. Be courteous and polite and tell people how much you appreciate a chance to play, and how anxious you are to make it possible for other boys to have the same opportunity.

VFW, Marine Reserve Win Babe Ruth League Games

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDING

The VFW edged Adams Super Markets 6-5 and Marine Reserve trounced Terminal Diner 11-7 last night in Babe Ruth League games. St. Mary's plays the Optimist Club tonight in the American League at North Junior High field, and GEAA meets Pastime Alleys in the National League at Deming. Both games start at 6.

A triple by Armand Walger and a single by Pete Rilla with one out in the last of the seventh gave VFW the win over Adams Super Markets last night in an American League game at North Junior High field. VFW had a 5-0 lead after four innings, but the Adams Markets' team tied the score with five in the sixth.

Adams tied the score on a combination of four VFW errors, two walks, and a single to center by Denny Conry. Walger's triple for VFW in the seventh went to deep center. After Fran Reardon had walked, Rilla, with two strikes on him, belted a line drive into left center. The hit was recorded as a single as it scored the winning run from third, but it probably would have been a triple under ordinary circumstances.

Readon was the only player in the game with two hits. The defensive play of the contest was VFW rightfielder Dave Reilly's shoestring catch of John Reed's sinking line drive in the third.

In the National League game at Deming Field the Marine Reserve club capitalized on errors and loose playing behind Terminal Diner pitchers Pete Ellsworth and Carl Boteze in the second inning, as it scored 10 runs on 6 hits, 2 walks and 5 Diner errors.

Al Cook, assisted by fine support, especially by shortstop Ray Bell, got his first win. Bell had a good night at bat with a double and two singles. Tom Potter had a double and a single and Jerry Vella two-run double.

Jerry Norton with two singles and Dick Cadinelli, with a triple led the Terminal Diner attack.

Stugger, Naugle Battle Today For County Singles Title 8-26-61

By BRUCE BURNHAM

Walter Stugger and Gordon Naugle will clash today at 2 o'clock in the finals of the men's singles event of the Berkshire County tennis tournament at the Camp Merrill courts, Pontoosuc Lake.

The final in the women's singles will be played tomorrow at 1 o'clock, followed by the men's doubles final at 2.

Stugger reached the finals by defeating Ron Young, University of Virginia player, 6-2, 7-5, in a thrilling match halted twice by rain. Naugle reached the finals by defeating Bruce Burnham, 6-0, 6-2, last Sunday.

At stake in today's singles match is the giant silver bowl put up eight years ago by the city's Department of Parks and Recreation, sponsor of the tournament. Stugger won the event in 1955 and '56, and a win today will give him permanent possession of the trophy. Naugle won the event in 1959.

Best Tennis

Last night's match between Stugger and Young produced the best tennis so far in this year's tournament. Young first attacked Stugger's backhand, with dire results. In minutes Young was behind 0-4. He switched to Stugger's forehand, and picked up two games before losing the set, 6-2. Young continued to play Stugger's forehand, and went into a 5-3 lead in the second set, and was within a point of winning it to tie the match at a set apiece. But Stugger held, aided by two lucky let-cord shots and some fine backhands, and took the game and three more to win the set, 7-5.

In the mixed-doubles event Dudley and Mary-Lou Bell defeated Carl and Ingrid Lindh, 8-6, 6-4 to go into the semifinals. The semifinal between Paul Voloscove and Mrs. Frank Paddock vs. Martin and Gale Klop was halted by rain and postponed to today at 10 o'clock. The Bells' next opponents will be the winners of a match at 11 today between Art and Edna Dugas vs. Sidney Anderson and Barbara Fickling.

In the women's singles Marian Wisniewski upset second-seeded Isabelle Whalen, 6-2, 6-4, and Barbara Fickling won over Gale Klop, 6-1, 6-2. Wisniewski and Fickling will meet in the finals Sunday.

County Tennis Tournament Resumes Tonight at Merrill

Play will resume tonight in the Berkshire County Tennis tournament at the Camp Merrill courts, Pontoosuc Lake, with continuation of a hotly contested match between junior Eugene Marsten and Dave Krym. Darkness halted play last evening with the score tied at 5-all in the third set. Marsten won the first, 8-6, but then dropped the second, 6-0. The winner will meet Art Dugas.

Today's feature match will pit Ron Young, University of Virginia player, against Dudley Bell, pro at the Country Club of Pittsfield. Second-seeded Gordon Naugle will also go into action at 5:30 when he meets McAlister Brown, winner yesterday by default over Ralph Mason of Williamstown. And Bruce Burnham, former county doubles titleholder, will meet Alex-Marsten, Eugene's father, winner by 6-4, 6-4 over John Burdett, president of the Pittsfield Tennis Club.

In other first-round matches yesterday, Eugene Eliasoph won over McDermott, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5, and Felix Wisniewski polished off Mat Matzkin, 6-0, 6-4. Wisniewski will meet former singles titleholder Ed Deame tonight at 6.

Play in the men's and mixed doubles matches will begin tomorrow. Pairings will be announced in tomorrow's Eagle.

Walt Stugger Retires Count

Fay White, Naugle Triumph In Five-Set Doubles Final

Paul Voloscove, Mrs. Frank Paddock Take Mixed-Doubles Event; Mrs. Wisniewski Is Women's Singles Titlist on Marathon Win

By BRUCE BURNHAM

It was a netful of tennis yesterday at the Camp Merrill courts, Pontoosuc Lake, with four finals in the annual Berkshire County tennis tournament.

Walter Stugger retired the silver Revere Bowl in the men's singles, Fay White and Gordon Naugle won the men's doubles, Paul Voloscove and Mrs. Frank Paddock triumphed in mixed doubles, and Mrs. Felix Wisniewski won the women's singles.

Third Leg For Stugger

Stugger ranked 34th in New England, and making his sixth try, won his third leg on the silver bowl put up by the city's Department of Parks and Recreation eight years ago by defeating Gordon Naugle, 6-3, 8-6. The bowl had previously been won by Fay White, Gordon Naugle, Ed Deame, Vt. of which he is president The new trophy will also be retired by the first person to win the tournament three times.

Fay White and Gordon Naugle will continue to wear the doubles crown, but it will rest a little more shakily than during the past four years after the close match they finally won yesterday. After and Williams College tennis coach Clarence Chaffee, who had two legs on it.

Burnham

Walter Stugger

The first game was an indication of the closeness of the match to follow, and of how it would be determined in the end. Stugger opened with service, and after two double-faults, began to get his powerful first ball into play. The game went to deuce three times, then Stugger won it with a fine passing backhand down the line.

Naugle's inability to hold his own well-placed but comparatively weak service in the end lost him the match, as Stugger was able to take the offensive even when receiving service. Stugger was also sharper at the net, frequently winning exchanges when both men were close in.

In the eighth game Stugger served his first ace, and after losing the next game to Naugle, took the ninth game with his powerhouse serve, to win the set 6-3.

Naugle tried harder in the second set to take the offensive, and it paid off. He also took some of the sting out of Stugger's volleying by lobbing. Stugger began to hold back somewhat from the net to protect his overhead, and Naugle caught him short with drop-shots. But Stugger's greater steadiness and more powerful service won in the end, as he took the set on service, 8-6.

After receiving the trophy, Stugger announced that he will donate a new one, in the name of the Carinthia Ski Slub, West Dover two hours, they beat Paul Voloscove and Ronnie Young, 6-1, 2-6, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3.

After a lackluster first set, the match turned into an exhibition of sparkling volleys, and almost classic doubles play. Young, a varsity player at the University of Virginia, made up in speed on the court for any lack of experience, and kept his team in the match with spectacular saves and sharp volleying. Voloscove, former county singles and doubles titleholder, was at his best with his forehand return of service. Up to the last set, it was anybody's match. However, White and Naugle, who reached the semifinals two years ago in the Western New England championships at the Country Club of Pittsfield, finally prevailed with smoother team play and more consistent volleying.

The women's singles was a marathon, with Mrs. Felix Wisniewski finally winning, 6-8, 8-6, 6-4 over Mrs. John Fickling. Mrs. Wisniewski, a left-hander, hits fine forehands and backhands and kept Mrs. Fickling on the defensive.

Voloscove and Mrs. Frank Paddock won the mixed doubles 6-2, 6-3 over Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dugas. The Voloscove-Paddock team won by virtue of better balance and Mrs. Paddock's good forehand.

Entries will close Wednesday night at 8.

Young, Stugger Meet Tonight In County Tennis Semifinals

In tonight's feature match in the Berkshire County tennis tournament, Ron Young and Walt Stugger will tangle in a men's singles semifinal contest at Camp Merrill at 5:15. Stugger is a former champion in the event, while Young, playing at the top of his game after a good season with the University of Virginia team, has already knocked off Dudley Bell, pro at the Country Club of Pittsfield, and defending champion Fay White of Stockbridge.

The winner will meet Gordon Naugle of Stockbridge, another ex-champion, for the title tomorrow afternoon at 2.

In yesterday's only match, Mr. and Mrs. Bell defeated Matt Matzkin and Toby Kovitz 6-2, 6-2. They meet Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindh today in a quarterfinal mixed doubles match. In a semifinal match tonight at 6, Paul Voloscove and Mrs. Franklin Paddock play against Mr. and Mrs. Martin Klop.

In women's singles, Mrs. Felix Wisniewski will play Miss Isabelle Whalen, last year's runner-up, in a semifinal match at 5:30. The other semifinal match is scheduled for late today between Mrs. John Fickling and the winner of a match between Mrs. Klop and Miss Eleanor Smith of Lenox.

Entries To Close Tonight for County Tennis Tournament 8/10/61

Entries for the Berkshire County championship tennis tournament will close tonight. Contestants may indicate their intentions of playing by telephoning to meet director Vince Eldred at the Camp Merrill courts 7-9220 or at his home 3-5154.

First round play will start tomorrow at Camp Merrill. Players will be notified by telephone.

Walter Stugger, 1957 champion in the event, entered last night.

Fast Field Is Expected For County Net Tourney

8/12

The strongest field in years is indicated by early entries for the annual Berkshire County tennis tournament, which will begin next Thursday at the Camp Merrill courts, Pontoosuc Lake.

Conducted by the Pittsfield Tennis Club and sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, the tournament will include men's singles and doubles, mixed doubles, and if enough entries are received, women's singles.

All Berkshire County residents are eligible. Players should file their entries with the attendant at the Camp Merrill courts, or use the blank printed on this page. Entry fees are $2 for men's singles, and $3 per team for doubles events. Fees must be paid before first-round matches are played. Entries will close Wednesday night at 8.

All players are to report for first-round-matches with one new set of balls. Winners will keep the unused balls, losers the used balls.

Players will be notified when to report for their first match.

Cochairmen are Vincent Eldred, former Lee High basketball coach, who has been serving as tennis coach fo rthe parks' department this summer, and Arthur Dugas. Paul Voloscove is chairman of the mixed doubels event. Bruce Burnham is chairman of oficiating and publicity.

An innovation is the offering of a wide selection of merchandise prizes in addition to the traditional trophes to winners and runners-up.

Opposition for White

Fayette White of Stockbridge, last year's winner of both the men's singles and doubles events, will have new opposition. Ron Young, a member of the varsity tennis team at the University of Virginia is ranked the chief threat. Ron was semifinalist in the Western New England doubles championships three years ago in the annual Labor Day tournament at the Pittsfield Country Club, and he has had an excellent singles record this year.

Tough opposition is also expected from co-chairman Arthur Dugas, former varsity player at the University of Massachusetts, and a former member of the Worcester Tennis Club.

Dugas and Eldred are playing together in the doubles. They are a real threat to the longstanding doubles supremacy of White and Gordon Naugle, another Stockbridge resident, who was runner-up in singles to White last year. Eldred has coached many tennis teams, has had a good record in doubles play in the Western New Englands, and is considered the finest doubles player in Pittsfield.

No word has yet been received as to whether Walter Stugger, former county singles winner, will enter. However, his entry would further strengthen the field since he has been playing the tournament circuit this summer, and is in good condition.

Howard Jones, Painter, Dies in Fall From Roof

10/10/60

Howard W. Jones, 49, of 293 Lenox Ave., a self-employed painter and carpenter, died Saturday afternoon in Pittsfield General Hospital as a result of injuries received in a 20-foot fall from the roof of a house he was painting on Wilson Street.

Associate Medical Examiner Dr. Clayton B. Nesbit said death was due to a skull fracture.

Mr. Jones was born in Pittsfield May 28, 1911, the son of Robert E. and Matilda Dunlap Jones. He attended Pittsfield schools and was employed for a short time by the General Electric Co. He was employed by Hathaway Bakery here from 1932 until 1955.

He was interested in sports, and was active in Little League baseball. He had coached the Dick Moon entry in the North Little League for the past five seasons. He was a member of Pilgrim Memorial Church.

Besides his wife, the former Mary E. Brooks, he leaves a daughter, Miss Eunice M. Jones of Pittsfield; three sons, Richard H., with the Army in Germany, Bryan T. and Howard W. Jr., both of this city; five sisters, Mrs. Elvira Bishop, Mrs. Eliza Grace and Mrs. Freda Shea, all of Pittsfield, Mrs. Harriet Allen of Bethel, Conn., and Mrs. Paul Maynard of Stamford, Conn.; a brother, Robert E. of this city.

Services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Wellington Funeral Home, with the Rev. J. Alan McLean, pastor of Pilgrim Memorial Church, officiating. Burial will be in Pittsfield Cemetery.

The family will meet friends at the funeral home today from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9.

Defending Champion Fay White Faces Strong Field in County Tennis Event

8/17/61

Fay White, defending titlist in the men's singles event of the Berkshire County tennis tournament opening tonight at the Camp Merrill courts, Pontoosuc Lake, will face a much stronger, if smaller, field of contestants than last year. This was the conclusion following the draw last night.

A strong field also has entered the men's doubles event, where White and Gordon Naugle will defend the title they won last year by defeating Paul Voloscove and Bruce Burnham in straight sets.

A new winner in the women's singles is certain. Carolyn Lewis, one of the city's promising juniors and winner last year, will be away.

The time for making entries for the mixed doubles event has been extended to tonight at 8. However, early entries indicate the usual keen competition in this event.

The tournament is conducted by the Pittsfield Tennis Club and sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation. Finals in all events are scheduled for the weekend of Aug. 26 and 27.

21 In Men's Singles

Only 21 players have entered the men's singles, but the list includes three former winners, and three new strong contenders for the coveted silver Revere bowl trophy donated eight years ago by the Department of Parks and Recreation. The bowl must be won three times for permanent possession.

Seeded behind White is Gordon Naugle, runner-up last year, followed by Walt Stugger, who already has two legs on the trophy. Seeded No. 4 is Ed Deame, a former winner, fresh from a tennis jaunt in Europe.

Then come three new entrants, any one of whom is capable of causing a major upset: Ron Young, Art Dugas, and Dudley Bell.

A member of the University of Virginia tennis team, Ron is a better doubles than singles player. But he is younger than the rest of the field, and capable of staying through a long match should he elect to wait out any of the veterans instead of fighting a slugging match. He was able to enter the tourney this year because of the earlier tourney dates.

The big serve in the tournament will be that of Dugas. Standing six feet, two inches and weighing close to 200 pounds, Art cracks the ball hard enough for Fay White to hear it way down in Stockbridge. A former member of the University of Massachusetts varsity, Art has played considerably in England and Germany, where he won a doubles tournament last year.

Also new is Bell, tennis pro at the Country Club of Pittsfield, now permitted to play in amateur tournaments under the revised rules of the American Lawn Tennis Association. A graduate of Springfield College, Dudley is in superb physical condition, and his steady game can cause trouble for harder-hitting veterans.

Players Should Schedule Matches

All players are urged to get in touch with the court attendant at the Camp Merrill courts to schedule their matches as soon as possible. The telephone number there is 7-9220.

First-round matches tonight are as follows:

At 5:30, Cort McDermott vs. Eugene Eliasoph; Gene Marsten vs. Dave Krym.

At 6, Dudley Bell vs. Tony Ehrlich; Felix Wisniewski vs. Mat Matzkin.

At 6:30, John Burdett vs. Alex Marsten; McAlister Brown vs. Ralph Mason of Williamstown.

First-round pairings for the men's doubles, and mixed doubles, and women's singles will be announced tomorrow.

PAIRINGS FOR MATCHES in Berkshire County tennis tournament were made last night by drawing names out of the silver bowl, first-place trophy in the men's singles event. Making drawing is Edna Dugas, wife of Art Dugas, tournament cochairman, while Gene Marsten assists. Edna was born in India of English parents. She will play in mixed doubles event with her husband. Marsten, one of the city's promising juniors, will play in both men's singles, doubles.

Little League Baseball

JUL 8 1960

Eagles clinched first place for the first half of the West Little League season yesterday at Clapp Park by edging Union Federal 3-2. The game remained a 2-2 tie after the third inning until the Eagles pulled it out with a run in the bottom of the sixth. Fred Sangiovanni gave up four hits for the winners, and Joe Williams five for the losers.

Nichols Bros. held on to defeat Dick Moon's 8-7 in the North League as a four-run rally by the losers in the sixth inning fell just short. Hynes had two singles and a double for the winners and Strizzi and Murray had a single and a double for the losers.

St. Mary's defeated Western Mass. Supply 7-5 in the East League, scoring four runs in the fifth inning. Chesney had a home run for the winners. Each team made just three hits, but there were 18 walks in the game.

City Savings bombed Ed Johnson's 23-2 in the South League. Ed Bates pitched a three-hitter, and Storie and Kevin Connolly had three hits apiece for the winners, who scored 12 runs in the first inning.

Ned Evans pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Pittsfield North as it gained the District 1 Little Baseball League finals last night by defeating Lee 6-0 at Lee. Williamstown edged Adams 6-5 at Adams. So Pittsfield North will oppose Williamstown for the district title and the right to continue in tournament play tomorrow night at 6 at Wahconah Field.

Evans also was one of the hitting stars of the game as he drove in two runs with a homer and a single.

North had three circuit drives. Russo and Kruczkowski were the others who put the ball out of the park.

North did all of its scoring in the first two innings, making four runs in the first and two in the second.

Evans struck out 10, and walked three.

Pittsfield North, Lee Enter Area Little League Semifinals

JUL 25 1960

Pittsfield North Little Baseball League put a quick damper on the hopes of Pittsfield South to repeat as District One Area champions, winning 6-4 at Deming Park Saturday afternoon. Meanwhile, at Lee, Pittsfield West became the third of the city's four leagues to bow out of the area tournament, losing 5-2.

The semifinal round in the 10-team draw will be played tonight at 6, with Pittsfield North facing Lee in Lee and Williamstown meeting Adams in Adams. Williamstown reached the semifinals with a 10-0 walloping of Great Barrington, as Ken Chapman pitched a no-hitter. Adams topped North Adams South, 3-1.

Pittsfield North scored two runs in the seventh inning to win after Tom Grieve had hit a home run in the sixth to force the game into extra innings. Dave Allen singled and moved to second on a fielder's choice by Cliff Nilan. Both moved up on a passed ball. Allen scored on a perfect squeeze bunt by Ken Marshall and Nilan came home on a poor return throw from catcher Dave Storie to relief pitcher Grieve.

Ned Evans had put North ahead with a two-run homer in the first and a solo circuit clout in the third inning. South tied the game 3-3 with a run in the second and a two-run home run by Patrick Bonavitacola in the third.

Lee took a 3-0 lead in the first two innings and another pair in the fourth to clinch the contest at Lee. Gallagher and Sinopoli had solo home runs for Pittsfield West in the fifth and sixth innings, but there were only four other hits off winning pitcher Terini, who walked only one and received good support. Naventi had three singles for Lee and Fontana had a two-run homer in the fourth.

Eagles Win To Tie Civitan In West League

JUL 29 1960

The Eagles came up with a run in the bottom of the seventh to edge Civitan, 3-2, in a West Little League game at Clapp Park last night. With the win the Eagles created a first-place tie with Civitan, for both teams have finished their second-half schedule with 6-1 records. Eagles won the first half of the league.

The two teams play off tonight at 6:15 at Clapp Park to determine the second-half champion. If Civitan wins, there will be a best-two-of-three series to select an overall league champion.

In last night's game Fred Sangiovanni was the winner in relief, after teammate Norman Cheevers and Bill Woodson had been locked in a pitchers' duel through six innings. Both Cheevers and Woodson struck out nine. Dave Kearns had two triples for the losers.

Pittsfield Club In 13-1 Victory Over Williamstown

The Pittsfield North Little League All-Stars took the District One championship last night at Wahconah Field with an easy 13-1 victory over the Williamstown All-Stars. Pittsfield will meet the District Two winner Wednesday night at 6 at Wahconah Field. The District Two champion will be decided in a game tomorrow afternoon. The Massachusetts state finals have been set for Aug. 12-13 at East Longmeadow.

A fine six-hit performance by Dave Allen was all the North team needed as it blasted out 15 hits. First baseman Ned Evans, third baseman Paul Pierce and shortstop Cliff Nilan each had three hits for Pittsfield. Pierce's included a home run and a double and Nilan had a double. Allen had three RBIs.

The Williamstown hits were all singles. Bob Field and Dick Agnew each had two. Kim Chapman started for the Northern Berkshire club. He went three-and-a-third innings and was charged with the loss. The score:

North LL Team, Westfield Meet Tonight

AUG 3 1960

Winner Advances To State Event at East Longmeadow

The North Little League All-Stars will meet Westfield's North Division All-Stars tonight at 6 at Wahconah Field for the championship of the western end of the state, and the right to go to the state tournament next week at East Longmeadow. Pittsfield is the District 1 champion, and Westfield clinched the District 2 title Monday night by beating Agawam 7-2.

Pittsfield North won four games in capturing its district title. Eliminated by the champs were Pittsfield East, Pittsfield South, Lee, and Williamstown. Pittsfield drubbed Williamstown 13-1 last Thursday in the district final, behind the six-hit pitching of Dave Allen.

Southpaw Ned Evans will start on the mound for the local boys against Westfield. Evans threw a no-hit, no-run game against Lee in the semifinal contest in Lee. He also blasted a home run in that game. Others, who have hit well in the play-offs are Pete Russo, Paul Pierce, Steve Kruczkowski and Cliff Nilan.

Bobby Jachym will probably start for Westfield North. He is also a good sticker, and plays the outfield when not pitching. He had two hits in the play-off game with Agawam. Alan DeMastrie, Westfield third baseman, is another of the Valley players who will take careful pitching. He belted two home runs in his first two times at bat Monday night.

North League Ends Season This Evening

8/10/60

The final North Little League baseball game of the season will be played at Wahconah Park tonight at 6, between the Pittsfield Fire Department and Dick Moon's.

Little League Baseball

Three home runs, including a grand slam by Buddy Reddington, constituted a six-run rally in the sixth inning that just fell short as Pittsfield Electric lost to Western Massachusetts Supply 9-8 in an East Little League contest last night. Two fine innings of relief by Vittone were also wasted.

In the South League Crescent Creamery came from behind with two runs in the fifth and two more in the sixth to edge Berkshire Trust, 4-3. Beck was the winning pitcher in relief of Demolino.

Pittsfield Co-operative Bank walloped Colt Insurance 16-7 in the North League. Dermody had a grand slam home run and two singles as Kane pitched all the way for the easy victory.

The Eagle's finally topped Gull Oil & Coal 5-4 in the ninth inning in a West Little League contest. With the game tied 3-3 at the end of six innings, both teams scored a run in the seventh, and played a scoreless eighth before the game was finally decided in the ninth.

Little League Baseball

Curletti's came up with a run in the ninth inning to top Pittsfield Electric, 8-7, in one of the longest games of the season in the East Little League over the weekend. In another weekend contest the Electric team was more successful, however, winning over St. Mary's 8-6 on the strength of a grand slam home run by Kopychak in the fourth inning. In losing to Curletti's they outhit their opponents 11-10; but in winning over St. Mary's they were outhit 14-8.

Eagle's topped M & B Electric 6-4 in the West Little League Saturday. Cheevers limited the losers to four hits, which were bunched in two-run rallies in the second and fourth innings. Delmolino gave up only five hits for the losers.

In the North Little League, Rogers pitched a five-hitter as Pittsfield Co-operative Bank handed Royal Discount its first loss of the season, 6-2 Sunday. Royal took a 2-0 lead in the third inning, but the Bankers came back with two in the fourth and four more in the fifth for the victory. Colt's stopped a four-run rally by the Fire Department to win another North contest 8-5. Sykes pitched all the way for the winners, striking out 10.

Evans, Beck Pitch Shutouts, Boyd's Wins 2-1 in Fifth

Two close games and one with a score like that of a football game highlighted Little Baseball League play last night. Boyd's topped M&B Electric 2-1 in the West League, Royal Discount shut out the Pittsfield Fire Department 5-0 in the North League, and Crescent Creamery swamped the Optimist Club 21-0 in the South League.

Boyd's toned down for a pitching duel yesterday after their wild 12-11 win the day before. Gerald Kozack gave up only three hits to outpitch Jim McDonough and Mike Delmolino, who allowed only five hits. Boyd's took a 1-0 lead in the first. M&B tied it in the fourth when Massery doubled home Delmolino, but Boyd's scored the winning run in the fifth.

Evans pitched a two-hitter as Royal Discount won. The game was a scoreless tie for three innings before Royal made two runs in the fourth and three more in the fifth off Kruczkowski. Evans struck out 10 and his opponent seven, and Kruczkowski allowed the only walk.

Crescent Creamery went wild after a scoreless first inning in its win over the Optimists. Beck pitched a three-hitter, striking out 10, and led his team at bat with three for four. Delmolino was three for three for the winners. Lonabocker had a double for the losers.

Gatasso Pitches Shutout; Grieve Leads Elks To Win

A slugfest, a tight pitcher's duel, and a decisive shutout provided variety in yesterday's Little League play. Civitan topped Boyd's Market 14-10 in the West League, Pittsfield Fire Department shut out Nichols Brothers 10-0 in the North League, and the Elks edged the Optimists 4-2 in the South League.

Civitan came up with a nine-run rally in the fourth inning after Boyd's had scored eight times in its half of the inning. Frank Selva had a grand slam home run for Boyd's and Chris Gallagher one for Civitan to highlight the outbursts.

Gattasso pitched a four-hitter for the Firemen, striking out eight. Five of his teammates' 11 hits were doubles.

The Elks came up with three runs in the fifth inning to beat the Optimists. Tommy Grieve pitched a two-hitter for the winners and had two of his team's five hits, driving in two runs.

The scores:

Eagles Win West League Contest, 11-6

JUL 12 1960

The Eagles, scoring in the final five innings, downed M&B Electric 11-6 in a high-scoring but low-hitting contest in the West Little League yesterday. The rest of yesterday's schedule was rained out.

Tom Sinopoli pitched for the winners, giving up only three hits and striking out ten. Richard Arienti and Stephen Barry had home runs for the winners, Arienti's coming with two men on base. Fred Sangiovanni had a pair of doubles and Norman Cheever one as five of the Eagles' seven hits went for extra bases.

Lou Massery had a triple and Jim McDonough a double for the losers.

Doyle Wins For Electrics, Beating Russo

JUL 16 1960

Bob Doyle outpitched Tom Russo in a tense battle in the East Little League yesterday, as Pittsfield Electric Shop edged Moldmaster's 2-1. In another close battle waged in somewhat more epic proportions, Union Federal outlasted Gulf Oil and Coal 12-10 in the West League. The Bankers scored eight times in the fourth to obliterate a 4-0 deficit.

The outcome of a South League game between Royal Discount and Colt Insurance was never in doubt, as the Discount team ground out a 17-2 triumph. They, too, scored eight runs in the fourth, to go ahead 14-2.

Good Pitching Highlights LL Games

JUL 19 1960

Two fine pitching performances highlighted yesterday's Little League play. Andrew Anthony threw a one-hitter as the Optimists beat Berkshire Trust 10-1 in the South League. Anthony had a no-hitter until with one out in the sixth Billy Winslow hit a home-run to spoil both the no-hitter and the shutout. Pete Ricciarini had three hits for the winners, who scored eight runs in the fourth inning.

In the East League Bob Camacho scattered seven hits as St. Mary's shut out Pittsfield Electric, 6-0. Camacho had nine strategic strikeouts. Courtney Olds had three hits, including a home run, and scored three times for the winners. Craig Leslie and Chuck Reddington each had two hits for the losers.

Gull Oil & Coal edged Boyd's Market 5-4 in the West League. Each team had five hits as Bill Buckley outpitched Gerald Kozack. Four runs in the first inning put the Oilers off to a good start. Tim McDonough batted in two of the runs with a single.

Civitan, Elks, Firemen Take League Games

JUL 13 1960

Gatasso Pitches Shutout; Grieve Leads Elks To Win

A slugfest, a tight pitcher's duel, and a decisive shutout provided variety in yesterday's Little League play. Civitan topped Boyd's Market 14-10 in the West League, Pittsfield Fire Department shut out Nichols Brothers 10-0 in the North League, and the Elks edged the Optimists 4-2 in the South League.

Civitan came up with a nine-run rally in the fourth inning after Boyd's had scored eight times in its half of the inning. Frank Selva had a grand slam home run for Boyd's and Chris Gallagher one for Civitan to highlight the outbursts.

Gattasso pitched a four-hitter for the Firemen, striking out eight. Five of his teammates' 11 hits were doubles.

The Elks came up with three runs in the fifth inning to beat the Optimists. Tommy Grieve pitched a two-hitter for the winners and had two of his team's five hits, driving in two runs.

Good Pitching Highlights LL Games

JUL 19 1960

Two fine pitching performances highlighted yesterday's Little League play. Andrew Anthony threw a one-hitter as the Optimists beat Berkshire Trust 10-1 in the South League. Anthony had a no-hitter until with one out in the sixth Billy Winslow hit a home-run to spoil both the no-hitter and the shutout. Pete Ricciarini had three hits for the winners, who scored eight runs in the fourth inning.

In the East League Bob Camacho scattered seven hits as St. Mary's shut out Pittsfield Electric, 6-0. Camacho had nine strategic strikeouts. Courtney Olds had three hits, including a home run, and scored three times for the winners. Craig Leslie and Chuck Reddington each had two hits for the losers.

Gull Oil & Coal edged Boyd's Market 5-4 in the West League. Each team had five hits as Bill Buckley outpitched Gerald Kozack. Four runs in the first inning put the Oilers off to a good start. Tim McDonough batted in two of the runs with a single.

Eagles Win West League Contest, 11-6

JUL 12 1960

The Eagles, scoring in the final five innings, downed M&B Electric 11-6 in a high-scoring but low-hitting contest in the West Little League yesterday. The rest of yesterday's schedule was rained out.

Tom Sinopoli pitched for the winners, giving up only three hits and striking out ten. Richard Arienti and Stephen Barry had home runs for the winners, Arienti's coming with two men on base. Fred Sangiovanni had a pair of doubles and Norman Cheever one as five of the Eagles' seven hits went for extra bases.

Lou Massery had a triple and Jim McDonough a double for the losers.

Doyle Wins For Electrics, Beating Russo

JUL 16 1960

Bob Doyle outpitched Tom Russo in a tense battle in the East Little League yesterday, as Pittsfield Electric Shop edged Moldmaster's 2-1. In another close battle waged in somewhat more epic proportions, Union Federal outlasted Gulf Oil and Coal 12-10 in the West League. The Bankers scored eight times in the fourth to obliterate a 4-0 deficit.

The outcome of a South League game between Royal Discount and Colt Insurance was never in doubt, as the Discount team ground out a 17-2 triumph. They, too, scored eight runs in the fourth, to go ahead 14-2.

Pittsfield Co-op Bank defeated Colt Insurance 6-5 and Dick Moon's 12-4 in the North Little Baseball League over the weekend. M. Kane, Gavin, and Rogers led the victors in pitching and hitting. Kane drove in five runs with two homers, and was the winning pitcher in the Colt Insurance game. Gavin hit a triple and was the other winning pitcher. Rogers had two doubles.

In a four and a half inning South League game called on account of rain, Crescent Creamery thumped the City Savings Bank 14-8. Beck led the winners with a home run and a double. A big nine-run fourth inning made things easy for winner Delmolino.

Ed Johnson's Wins 4-3 Over Elks

6/14/60

Ed Johnson's eked out a 4-3 win over the Elks Club in the South Little Baseball League last night at Deming Field.

L'Hote stopped a last-inning rally as the Elks came up with one run, but could score no more.

It was a good game. Both teams played errorless ball. Ed Johnson's had seven hits, Elks six. Brennan and Goodwin doubled for the winners.

The Civitan Club scored 10 runs in the sixth inning, and defeated Union-Federal 19-2 in the West League at Clapp Park. Winning pitcher Woodson had an easy time, as he struck out 11 batters.

Civitan catcher Kearns had three hits in six trips to the plate, including a double. Gallagher had a double and a single in four at bats. He drove in three runs.

JUN 21 1960

T. Doyle of Moldmasters pitched a no-hitter, but lost the game 1-0. The heart-breaking defeat came at the hands of Pittsfield Electric in an East division Little Baseball League game last night at Allendale. His teammates made six hits off R. Doyle but could not score.

In other games, Union-Federal downed Gull Oil & Coal 13-4 in the West League, Royal Discount won from Colt Insurance 2-1 in the North League. There were two Southern League games over the past weekend—Berkshire Trust defeated Ed Johnson's 9-8, and the Optimist Club triumphed over Ed Johnson's 12-0.

Reddington's Grand Slam Wins Game

Charles Reddington hit a grand slam home run in a game highlighted by homers to lead Pittsfield Electric to a 10-7 victory over Besse-Clarke last night in the East Little Baseball League at Allendale. The Electrics pounded out 14 hits. Reddington had a perfect night at the plate with three singles besides his home run.

Billy Winslow drove in five runs with a home run, a double, and two singles for the Berkshire Trust in its easy 14-2 thumping of the City Savings Bank in the South League at Deming Field.

Dick Moon's team tallied eight times in the first two innings, and coasted to an 11-5 triumph over Colt Insurance in the North League at Wahconah Field.

In a battle of McDonoughs, Tim outpitched Jim, as the Gull Oil & Coal Co. defeated M&B Electric 5-3 in the West League at Clapp Park.

Fire Department, Optimists Win in Little League Play

6/24/60

Pittsfield Fire Department and the Optimist Club won close games in Little League play last night, while good pitching performances caried Civitan and Curletti's to victories.

In the West League Lombard pitched a five-hitter to lead Civitan to a 6-1 win over Boyd's Market. He also knocked in a run with a double, while batterymate Kearns was driving in two runs with a double and a single. Lombard struck out nine.

The Fire Dept. edged Nichols Brothers 6-5 in a North League contest, staving off a late rally by the losers, who scored two runs in the fifth and sixth innings. Kruczkowski and Woitowski starred for the winners with two hits apiece, while Goyette hit a two-run homer for the losers.

Curletti's topped St. Mary's 8-4 behind Mark Mitchell, who hurled well after giving up three runs in a shaky first inning. The winners broke the game open with five runs in the fifth inning, as four different players had two hits apiece.

The Optimist Club defeated the Elks 10-7 in the South League, coming back from a 6-4 deficit with three-run rallies in the fifth and seventh innings. The winners had 16 hits, all but two of them singles, including three by Lonabocker. For the losers Tommy Grieve had three hits, including a home run.

Civitan Downs Union Federal 2-1 in L.L.

Evans' Home Run Paces Royal Discount In 7-3 Triumph

The Civitan Club scored one run in the top of the sixth inning to nose out Union Federal 2-1 in the West Little Baseball League last night at Clapp Park. Woodson then slammed the door in Union Federal's face as he cut short a one-run rally.

Woodson struck out eight. He allowed one hit, a double by Schermerhorn which drove in the lone Federal run.

Joe Williams pitched well for the losers, allowing only three hits, and striking out eight.

Evans went three for three at the plate for Royal Discount to lead his team to a 7-3 win over Pittsfield Fire Dept. in the North League at Wahconah Field. He had a home run and four RBIs. Pierce hurled for Royal.

Shutouts Feature LL Games

Two shutouts featured Little Baseball League games last night, with Pittsfield Fire Department winning 4-0 over Pittsfield Co-Op in the North League and the Elks' Club nipping Crescent Creamery 2-0 in the South League.

The North loop contest was a pitchers' battle between Joe Woitkowski and Rogers. Woitkowski gave up only one hit and Rogers was reached for two. Shuts' double with the bases loaded was the big blow for the Fire Department.

In the South contest, winning pitcher Tom Grieve scored both runs in the game. Masino's double was the only extra base hit and good for an RBI. Grieve limited the Creamery Club to three hits.

Tommy Beck went all the way for Crescent and gave up only five safeties. Grieve fanned 10 and Beck 9.

In a tight game in the West League, Civitan outlasted the Eagles 5-4. A three-run third inning turned the trick for Civitan. Gallagher and Kearns shared the pitching duties for the winners, with Gallagher getting the win.

Boyd's Market edged Civitan 6-5 last night in seven innings in a West Little Baseball League game at Clapp Park. The winning run was forced in when Dennis Harrison walked with the bases loaded.

In the South League at Deming Field, Elks Club defeated the Optimist Club 6-2. In two high scoring contests Curletti's Market downed St. Mary's 14-10 in the East League at Allendale Field, and Pittsfield Fire Department swamped Nichols Bros. 12-2 in a North League game at Wahconah Field.

Francis Selva was the star of the Boyd's Market victory with two hits, including a three-run homer. He pitched six-hit ball over the six innings allowed him in Little League rules and fanned four.

A three-run second inning and a one-run third proved to be the margin of victory for the Elks over the Optimists in the South loop. Tommy Grieve led the winners' attack with three hits including two doubles. Pete Ricciarini had two doubles for the Optimists in two times at bat.

Ten runs in the final two innings gave Curletti's Market the win in the high scoring East League game. Catcher Phelps hit a home run for Curletti's and centerfielder Wilk belted one over the fence for St. Mary's.

Joe Woitkowski and Kruckowski shouldered the big part of the offensive load of the Pittsfield Fire Department in the North League game. Each of the players had three hits including a home run and four RBIs apiece. Gattasso pitched well for the winners scattering six hits and fanning eight.

Union Federal Suffers First Loss to M&B

6/10/60

Thomson Homers In Losing Cause, Royal Discount Wins

Mike Delmolino of M&B Electric pitched his team to a 7-0 victory over Union Federal in the West Little Baseball League at Clapp Park. It was Federal's first loss of the season after four wins. M&B now stands 3-1.

Delmolino had two singles and Dan McDonald had two doubles for M&B. The Electric team scored its runs in the first, 3; in the third, 2; and in the fifth, 2.

In the North Division at Wahconah Field, Royal Discount Store downed Dick Moon's team 4-1. Pero went all the way for the win. He gave up two hits, struck out 10 batters. Four errors by Dick Moon's enabled the winners to score half their runs.

Thomason of Ed Johnson's hit a home run and drove in three runs but his team lost to the City Savings Bank 8-7. Savings had a 7-0 lead after two innings, but had to hang on to win. The Johnson team came up with four runs in the last inning but the rally fell short. Farrell, the third City Savings pitcher, received credit for the win.

Little League Said To Distort Development

4/18/60

CHICAGO—Little League baseball presents a situation that can prove harmful to the health of participating youngsters, say two physicians in the current Today's Health magazine.

Drs. Thomas E. Shaffer, Columbus, Ohio, and John L. Reichert, Chicago, said there were many undesirable features in organized midget baseball, but neither disagreed with the underlying theory that the leagues can promote healthy competition.

"No informed person will deny that competition is an essential part of every child's education and growth," Dr. Reichert said in the American Medical Assn. magazine.

Drives Wrongly Aimed

"But it is equally true that competitive drives must be allowed to develop normally and not be overstimulated or suppressed, so that as the child matures, competition and cooperation are balanced forces in his personality," he said.

"A child can best be developed in respect to posture, coordination, strength and control, and emotional balance by a process of gradual training during the years of physiological immaturity, not by the forced developments of special athletic skills."

With regard to injuries, Dr. Reichert said, " Preadolescent and adolescent children are at a vulnerable age.

"During this age there are periods of rapid growth with temporary maladjustments and weaknesses. During these periods, the child is particularly susceptibile to dislocation of joints and to bone injuries."

Too Much Pressure

Dr. Shaffer said athletic competition for children is undesirable when organized along adult patterns. In such cases, he said, the unavoidable emphasis placed on winning puts too many pressures on children.

". . . competitive physical activities for this age group are desirable provided they are conducted with due regard for developmental characteristics such as short attention span, variations in physical skills, and a natural tendency to disregard need for rest and relaxation," he said.

"Most of the undesirable features of the little leagues could be eliminated by discontinuing sponsorship of teams by business organizations, by eliminating tournaments except on a community-wide championship schedule, by requiring medical examination at the start of a season and during the season if accident or illness occurred, and by requiring trained, experienced individuals in positions of leadership."

Pittsfield Pair Killed In Auto Crash at Lenox

5/6/60

LENOX—Two Pittsfield youths were killed last night after their car failed to make a curve on the lower end of Cliffwood Street and crashed into a tree. The accident was the second fatal one in South Berkshire within 24 hours.

Leroy (Lee) Schilling Jr., 20, of 78 Boylston St. and William Fox, 18, of 17 Forest Pl., were pronounced dead upon arrival in St. Luke's Hospital. Their car went off the road leading to the Pleasant Valley Sanctuary. Death in both cases was due to head and internal injuries, according to Medical Examiner Dr. Antonio P. Desautels of Pittsfield.

Lenox Police Officer Anthony W. Romeo, who assisted in the investigation of the accident this morning, said the car had crushed bushes for some 115 feet alongside the road before flipping over on its side against the tree.

Pinned Under Car

An unidentified woman telephoned the fire house about 10:30 last night to report the accident. When Officer William Gorman arrived last night at the scene, he found the motor still running and

Billy's Hitting Spree

F

5/7/60

BILLY FOX, who was killed at the age of 18 in an automobile crash Thursday night in Lenox, long will long be remembered for his sensational batting spree just a year ago. Playing first base for St. Joseph's High, he made nine hits in his first 14 times at bat for the phenomenal average of .643. He led the Northern Berkshire League through the early weeks. However, he slumped in the late games, finishing 11th with .318.

Billy was a nice, pleasant boy and an earnest competitor. Baseball and football were his varsity sports at St. Joseph's. He was a good end in football. He tackled efficiently, and was a reliable pass catcher.

He came right up through Father John Murphy's basketball system, starting as a bantam and playing as a junior and senior.

He first attained city-wide athletic prominence as a home run hitter in the East Little League.

Dates, Chairmen For Winter Sports Events Announced

The winter carnival queen contest is scheduled to begin Dec. 28 when contestants will start selling 15,000 buttons to help defray carnival expenses.

Miss Patricia A. Norton, 1959 queen, and Miss Linda Syrett, 1960 lady-in-waiting, are chairmen of the contest. They were named at the first winter sports committee meeting, held last night at Springside House.

This year's carnival buttons will be designed with a white polar bear on a red field. The polar bear will set the basic theme for all carnival events, including the sculpture in Park Square.

Other Events Announced

William S. Litty, general chairman of the sports committee, also announced dates and chairmen for a number of other events.

Mrs. George Maynard and Mrs. Eleanor Wilde will head the winter sports equipment sale, scheduled for early December at dates to be announced. The sale annually provides an opportunity for equipment owners to sell outgrown items and buy used skis, skates and sleds in new sizes.

Sumner Gamwell and James Tobin were named chairmen of the Berkshire Hills Speed Skating Championships, to be held Jan. 28 and 29. The competitors' dinner will be held the first night, followed by a teen-age dance.

With Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peaslee making the arrangements, the winter carnival ball is tentatively scheduled for Feb. 10.

Frank Heads Fishing Derby

James H. Frank will again head a committee for the ice-fishing derby Feb. 5, with the city sled racing scheduled for the same day. Willard Bridgham is chairman of the Berkshire Interscholastic Ski Meet on Feb. 10 and 11, with Mrs. Ida Fosty heading the local ski meet Feb. 4.

Working with Austen P. Gaylord of the Berkshire County Square Dance Association, the winter sports committee has scheduled the carnival square dance for Feb. 4 at the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, Gamwell and Tobin were placed on a nominating committee to select an assistant chairman for Litty.

The committee will hold its next session at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Springside house, and interested volunteers are invited to join the group.

Bash Bish 3-State Park Pushed by N.Y. Planners

9/26/60

A new recommendation for a 40,000-acre tri-state park, including the Bash Bish area in the Berkshires and adjoining tracts in New York and Connecticut, has come as a result of a two-year study in New York state.

The Taconic Tri-State Park is one of 10 major sites proposed in the study for development at a cost of nearly $2 billion. The study was sponsored by the Regional Plan Assn., a nonprofit citizens' group, and the Metropolitan Regional Council, made up of top elected officials of cities, towns and counties in a 22-county area.

Over all, 860 square miles of new parks are recommended, including 649 square miles of smaller ones to be developed through local and county funds. Nine of the projected big parks in a three-state area would use state funds; the tenth, at Delaware Water Gap, would be a federal project.

A tri-state park, where Massachusetts, New York and Connecticut meet, was discussed as early as 1922, the study report notes. It says that New York's Taconic Park Commission has acquired that state's share, 9,000 acres, "but very little has been purchased of the proposed 31,000 acres in Connecticut and Massachusetts," the report says.

"The area," it says, "has some of the finest mountain scenery and recreation potential in, and adjacent to, the New York (City) region. The remaining acreage should be acquired without delay by Connecticut and Massachusetts and improved access should be provided from the Taconic Parkway and the proposed Route 7 expressway."

Road Under Way

(The expressway is one designed by Connecticut but not yet started. To tie in with it, Massachusetts is well along with work on a new highway east of the existing Route 7 from the state line at Ashley Falls to a point near the Blue Belton Inn in Sheffield, where the new road would cross the old one to swing northwest around Great Barrington.)

A full page in today's New York Times details the park proposals and their connection with existing programs, including the $75 million New York state bond issue for park-land acquisition going before the voters in November. Among illustrations in the Times is a photograph taken from the pinnacle above Bash Bish Falls, in the Massachusetts state park in the Berkshire town of Mount Washington, looking west into New York State.

TALLEST 'BUILDING' in Pittsfield these days is a 90-foot steel tower in Park Square, erected by U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey for use in locating survey points in Central Berkshire area. Tower went up yesterday for about a week.

90-Foot Tower in Park Square Is Geodetic Survey Project

A 25-man crew from the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey erected a 90-foot temporary steel tower in Park Square yesterday as a survey point in a large-scale triangulation job in this area.

Lt. Cmdr. Herbert R. Lippold, chief of the field party, said the tower is centered over a triangulation disc placed by the state Department of Public Works in 1939. The structure, made of light steel sections bolted together, actually is two towers, one inside the other.

Men stand on the outer tower while instruments are placed on the inner one. The two are completely separate in order to insure accuracy.

Takeoff Point

The Park Square disc is to be the takeoff point for surveys to locate other triangulation discs throughout the area. The discs are to be approximately at the intersections of lines on a five-mile grid, according to Cmdr. Lippold.

The discs provide fixed points at known elevations, latitudes and longitudes, used as the bases for local survey work. Eventually, Cmdr. Lippold said, the discs will be placed every five miles on a grid radiating outward from the approximate geographical center of the United States at Meade's Ranch, Kan., so that all local surveys may be tied to that one fixed point.

There are already a number of discs in the Berkshire area but they are scattered rather thinly, according to Cmdr. Lippold. The present program is filling in the gaps in a belt running on an east-west line from Lebanon Springs, N.Y., to Mt. Holyoke, and on a north-south line from Windsor to Westfield.

Other survey towers have been placed in the center of Lenox, in Washington, and on Weston Mountain north of Dalton.

It is expected that the 90-foot tower in Park Square will enable the survey party to get above all trees and buildings in Pittsfield in order to see other towers and existing points at such locations as Perry's Peak in Richmond.

Should the 90-foot height prove inadequate, an additional 10 feet can be added.

Cmdr. Lippold said the party expects to be working from the Park Square point for a week to 10 days, and to be in the Berkshire area for about two months. The survey team will work at night, using lights to signal between survey points.

Permission to erect the tower in Park Square was obtained from the Park Commissioners.

Christmas Tree Up in Park Square

11/30/60

The 40-foot Christmas tree raised in Park Square yesterday was donated to the city by Kelly Neiderjohn of 50 Putnam Ave., according to Park Superintendent Vincent J. Hebert.

The tree is one of six offered the city by various individuals, and is a Colorado spruce. The date for the decoration and lighting of the yuletide symbol will be announced later.

Cerebral Palsied Children Swim in Girls Club Pool

12/16/60

Mrs. Fred Spyker Is Supervisor of Weekly Program

By DIANE HILKER

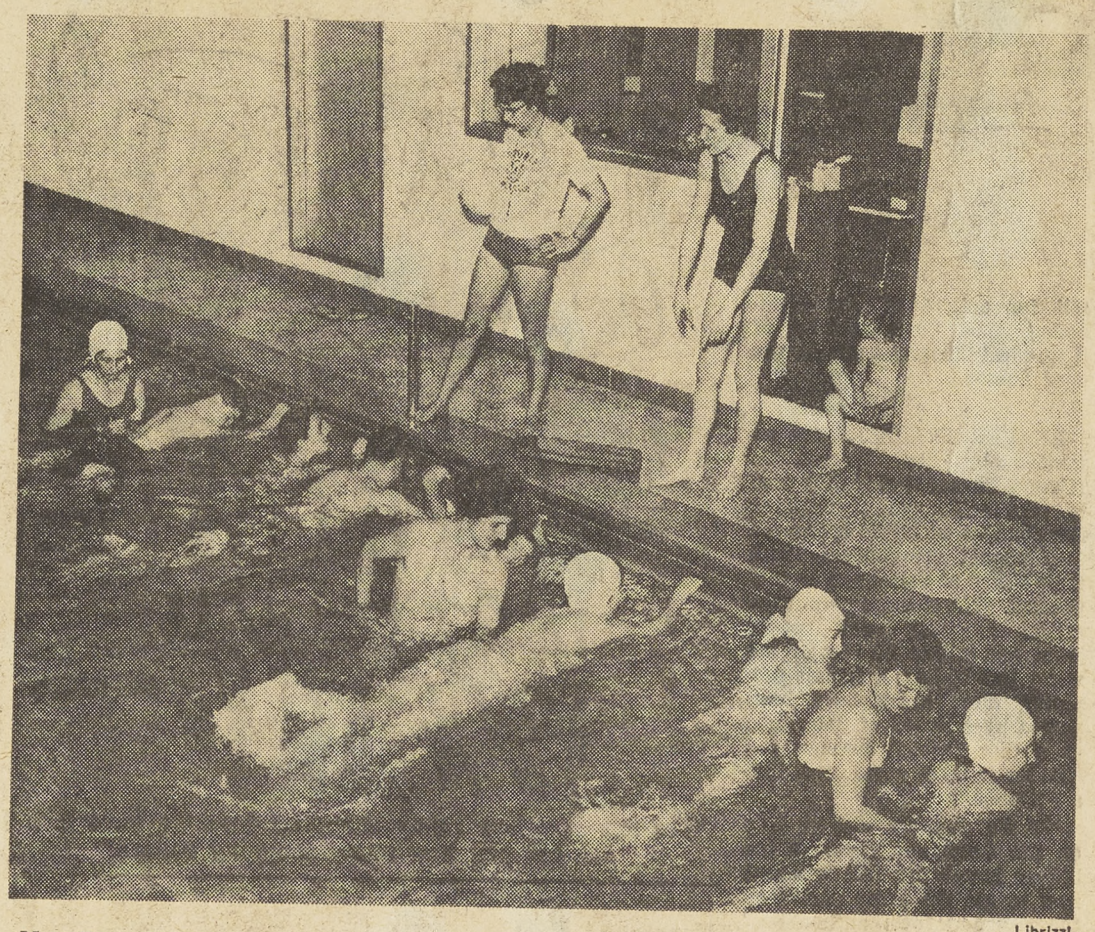
If the shouts and splashes from the Girls Club pool every Tuesday afternoon are any indication of the success of the cerebral palsied swimming program, the class must take top honors. Thirteen youngsters and young adults from all over Berkshire County, plus 11 trained volunteer instructors are the source of the clamor.

The swimming program, under the direction of Mrs. Fred B. Spyker, was initiated in February, 1959, it is sponsored by the Berkshire affiliate of the United Cerebral Palsy Association, an active Red Feather agency and member of six community chests in the county. Red Cross, another member of United Community Services, also makes an important contribution to the program—that of providing transportation of handicapped youngsters to and from class.

Three-Fold Program

The pool program is three-fold: Recreational, therapeutic and skills-instructed. Races, relays and games are introduced to encourage social development and independence. Exercises similar to those recommended by therapists help develop crippled limbs and strengthen muscles. Kicks, arm strokes, controlled breathing and floating are practiced in unison, to music, to improve co-ordination and swimming skills. A problem common to many youngsters, fear of the water, is overcome, and some are now able to manage without support in the pool.

The class consists of 10 cerebral palsied youngsters, one spinabifida and two multiple sclerosis patients, all of whom join enthusiastically in recreational and play periods, as well as in the exercise and skill-training sessions with their individual instructors. Among cases of outstanding progress is that of a shy 12-year-old girl, who spent the entire first year in class clinging frightened to the side of the pool. Now she jumps into the water herself, has mastered the dog paddle and is working on the crawl with controlled breathing.



Librizzi

Mrs. Ervin R. Winn, Girls Club swimming director, and Mrs. Fred B. Spyker, supervisor of the swimming class for cerebral palsied children, give directions to volunteer instructors and their pupils during the weekly class at the Girls Club.

Staff Members Named

The trained staff is ably supervised by Mrs. Spyker, herself the mother of five healthy youngsters. Her husband, minister of the Great Barrington Congregational Church, also is a frequent staff participant, lending the necessary man's hand to the program, working with the older boys. Mrs. Ervin R. Winn, Girls Club swimming director, is always pool-side to help during instruction. Other staff members are Mrs. George D. Hayden, Mrs. Thomas J. Gilligan Jr., Mrs. Richard N. Hawkes, Mrs. William S. Webber, Mrs. Fred Laramee and Mrs. John J. Dakin of Great Barrington, Mrs. James O. Saunders of Sheffield and Mrs. Dean P. Amidon of Monterey.

Other plans of the swimming group include a short educational film, to be shot during class time and available to the public at a date to be announced soon, reports Mrs. Herbert M. Short, executive vice president of the Berkshire affiliate of UCP. Mrs. Short, volunteer worker with the organization for 4½ years, attends every session to encourage the youngsters and to kee up to date on their individual progress.

The Tuesday class from 1:30 to 2:30 is open to handicapped youngsters and adults other than cerebral palsy patients, if recommended by their physician. Wheel chair patients may be accepted. Further information may be obtained by notifying Mrs. Short at the UCP office, 16 South St.

Drum Corps Event Sunday

9/10/60

PITTSFIELD — The Pittsfield Boys' Club Cavaliers junior drum corps will be hot today for a "Youth On Parade" competition in Wahconah Park Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

The contest is the third of the season for the new Hudson-Berkshire junior circuit and several New York State groups will appear, including the Valiant Crusaders of Rensselaer, Continental Cadets of Catskill and Hudson Legionnaires. The Cavaliers will present an exhibition of precision drill and maneuvers and the Imperials of Pittsfield will also exhibit their prowess.

Healy Fund Totals $6,303

Given a substantial boost by a $161 contribution from the town of Lenox, the Dan Healy fund climbed to $6303.30 last night.

William (Duke) Lahart, chairman of the Lenox solicitation, said there will be more contributions from his town.

Donna Litano, Vera Litano and Pamela Beuth gave a neighborhood "big show" for the fund. They netted $3.50.

Donations still are welcome. Money or checks may be sent to J. Howard Fryer at the Berkshire County Savings Bank.

The fund committee will meet Monday night at 7:30 at the American Legion.

Dan Healy Fund

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

I would like to thank all the wonderful people who have contributed so wholeheartedly in time, effort and money to the Dan Healy Fund.

I want to express our thanks also to WBRK for many kindnesses over the years and for ever ready help during the weeks of Dan's illness.

But especially to the Dan Healy Fund organizers and committee members, to the clubs and organizations participating and to the public in general, we, the Healy family, are most grateful, and we accept this wonderful gift as it is offered—a tribute to Dan and the principles for which he always stood.

(Mrs.) WINIFRED I. HEALY.

GE Gift Adds to Springside Park

JUL 9 1960

Springside Park yesterday was augmented by 300 square feet, a parcel of land which has belonged to General Electric for the past 50 years. The land was donated by GE.

The parcel is located on Morningside Heights. It was acquired early in the century and a small reservoir was built as an emergency water supply for the GE plant. In a letter offering the land to the city, GE Vice President Robert L. Gibson said the facility is no longer of service to the company and the company feels it would make for a community betterment.

In answer Mayor Haughey said. "I must tell you that this is another indication that the GE is vitally interested in Pittsfield's record as an outstanding city." The mayor has also ordered City Solicitor William F. Flynn to make the necessary legal steps for formal acceptance of the parcel.

The Rev. Paul D. Riedl, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church for the past 18 years, has been named rector of the American College at Louvaine University, Belgium, where he studied for the priesthood.

The appointment was made by the bishops' committee for the college. The Most Rev. Christopher J. Weldon, bishop of the Springfield Diocese, in announcing the appointment, said it meets with his wholehearted approval and he has agreed to release Father Riedl from his duties in the diocese so that he may take up his new post.

A native of Worcester, Father Riedl came to Pittsfield from Our Lady of Hope parish in Springfield in 1942. He has been director of athletics for St. Joseph's High School since 1944. Father Riedl is an avid sports fan and has been a familiar figure at most of Pittsfield's sports events.

Dan Healy Dies at 40; Veteran Sportscaster

6/3/60

By ROGER O'GARA

The voice that uttered more words than any other in Pittsfield radio history was stilled late last night. Dan Healy Jr., 40, long-time sportscaster for WBRK, died at Pittsfield General Hospital after a long illness with a heart ailment.

Highly popular and extremely able, Dan had touched every phase of area sports since he became affiliated with WBRK in 1941. He conducted a 15-minute sports program six times a week, gave play-by-play accounts of important interscholastic basketball games, served as public address announcer at hundreds of athletic contests, and coached and officiated in baseball and hockey.

At the time of his death, he was sports editor and staff announcer for the station. Some years ago, he was program director in addition to carrying on his multiple sports duties.

Dan Healy

Last Play-by-Play

His last play-by-play account was of Pittsfield High's game against Smith Academy of Hatfield in the finals of the Western Massachusetts basketball tournament at Springfield College early in March. Two nights earlier, he had narrated Pittsfield's thrilling upset conquest of heavily favored Holyoke in the semifinals.

Notwithstanding a heart ailment that stemmed from a severe attack of rheumatic fever at the age of 9, Dan gave heavily of himself in his coverage of games. He was effective and enthusiastic, but his many friends said he was too excitable. They feared that he was drawing too greatly on his dwindling supply of stamina.

Most of the city's great athletes played baseball under Dan in his long career as a coach. Art Ditmar, the New York Yankees' pitcher, received his opportunity to play professional baseball when he pitched for the Brass Rail team that Dan coached in the All-American amateur tournament at Johnstown, Pa. in 1947. That was the city's first entry at Johnstown.

Directed Championship Team

Dan directed the Majestic Restaurant team of this city to the championship at Johnstown in 1952. At that time, he shocked tournament observers by electing to send his team to bat first. He reasoned that it was good strategy at this particular age level because a fruitful first inning would demoralize the opposition.

Dan also coached teams for the Hollywood Grill and the E. D. Jones & Sons Co. He handled the Tyler Aces in the American Baseball Congress tournament at Battle Creek, Mich., in 1958, and he was coach of the Dalton Papermakers last summer. He assisted the late Gene Murphy in directing the Pittsfield American Legion teams in the middle 1940s.

A rundown of his play-by-play contests veritably is a history of Berkshire athletics for the past 15 years. He was at the microphone for Adams High's New England tournament basketball games in 1945, 1950 and 1953. He gave accounts of Dalton High and Pittsfield High in state championship baseball games at Boston in 1943 and 1949, respectively. He described Pittsfield American Legion team's games at tournaments in Augusta, Maine, and Trenton, N.J., in 1949, at Milford and Washington, D.C., in 1951, and at Barre, Vt., and Elkton, Md. in 1957. He also narrated important Pittsfield games in Canadian-American Baseball League play from 1946 through 1951.

Spent Boyhood in Vt.

Dan became a student of baseball and hockey in his boyhood city of Rutland, Vt. As a highly enthusiastic but by his own admission, a not effective participant, he came to know those sports very well.

Leo Keefe, his baseball coach at Mount St. Joseph's High of Rutland, made him a baseline coach. That's all Dan did in most of the games. He said he was too small and too weak to play much, but he was classified as reserve second baseman. So highly did Keefe respect his knowledge of all sports, he used to send him on scouting assignments.

Dan was the sixth winner of the Knights of Columbus sports plaque in 1954. This award, now defunct, was given annually to a person "who has done most to further the welfare and future of Pittsfield athletes."

Honored by Community

Dan was honored at a testimonial dinner Nov. 1, 1959 at Masonic Temple for his long service to community sports. Among those present were the area's only major league baseball players, Art Ditmar and Dale Long.

Dan became interested in radio as a high school boy. When he attended the University of Vermont, he handled play-by-play assignments for most of the major sports events in the Burlington and Rutland areas. He was with WTIC in Hartford for a short time in the middle 1940s, but returned to WBRK. In the early 1950s, he worked broadcasts of home games of the Springfield International League team.

Attended U. of Vt.

He was born in New Haven June 11, 1919, was a graduate of Mount St. Joseph's Academy in Rutland, Vt., and attended the University of Vermont. He was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church.

He leaves his wife, the former Winifred I. Huard, two sons, Christopher P. and Daniel J. III, and three daughters, Mary K., Maureen A. and Kathryn E., all of this city; his parents, Mayor and Mrs. Daniel J. Healy Sr. of Rutland, Vt.; four brothers, Frank C. of Rutland, Vt., Charles E. of Montpelier, Vt., Robert D. of San Francisco, and Joseph M. of Albany, N.Y.; a sister, Mrs. James C. Thetford of Montpelier, Vt.; and several nephews and nieces.

The family will meet friends at the Dery Funeral Home tonight from 7 to 9 and tomorrow from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9. The body will be removed to the Clifford Brothers Funeral Home, Washington Street, Rutland, Vt., Sunday, where calling hours will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9. The family requests that donations be made to the Heart Fund in Mr. Healy's memory.

The funeral will be held Monday morning at 8:15 from the Rutland, Vt., funeral home, followed by a Solemn High Mass of Requiem at 9 in St. Peter's Church there, with burial following in Calvary Cemetery.

Stone Tossers Cost City $250 For Broken Windows

Mayor Haughey and Donald E. Farr, superintendent of public buildings for the city, think some boys should play more baseball.

They reported that since the start of school vacation more than 75 school windows have been broken, with Crane School the hardest hit. They said this cost the city $250 and warned that police action will be taken against any youngsters caught throwing the stones.

The city officials asked parents to instruct their children to stay away from school buildings. "We feel," they said, "that parents should direct these boys' interests to the many junior baseball leagues and organized activities on the playgrounds conducted in the city."

VANDALISM

Acts of Vandalism Continue

Several windows were broken in various parts of the city last night, and considerable damage was done at Abby Lodge School Tuesday, detectives reported today.

A window and pane of glass in a door were broken at Central Junior High School, a window was smashed at the medical center at Second and East Streets and another window was broken at Abby Lodge.

Damage done at Abby Lodge Tuesday night included tearing down the playground swings just put up this week by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Vandals threw the swings in the bushes, broke a hatchway door on the school building and smashed the spindles in the porch railing, police said. The matter was still under investigation today.

Over the weekend there was a rock-throwing spree resulting in broken windows at Centrall Junior High and Rice School and three stores.

Healy Fund Soars to $408.75; More Contributions Expected

The Dan Healy fund soared to $408.75 at midmorning, according to J. Howard Fryer, its treasurer.

Weekend giving to committee members was heavy, and there were many donations from all parts of Berkshire County.

The money will be turned over to the family of the WBRK sportscaster, who died late Thursday night at the age of 40. He left his wife and five children.

Largest contributions were the $178 from spectators at the Pittsfield High-St. Joseph's High of North Adams baseball game Friday night at Wahconah Park. The board of directors of the Pop Warner Football League gave $100. Individual gifts ranged from 50 cents to $25.

One hundred fifty canisters are being distributed today throughout the county in bars and sports places. It is hoped that many coins will be dropped into these.

The canisters were donated by Dave Northwood of the C. T. Brigham Co. Labels were printed through the courtesy of Gollan Root of the Eagle Printing and Binding Co.

Dalton residents may take their contributions to George Ditmar or Bob Boyd.

Dan Healy Benefit Fund Jumps All Way to $942

6/7/60

He would like to meet at that time all who are interested in serving as solicitors for funds. Atty. Edwin F. McLaughlin and Irvin F. Rossi are assisting him in the drive.

Dan, now 41, suffered an attack of rheumatic fever when he was nine years old. He has had recurring attacks of heart trouble over the years. He is married, and has five children.

Dan Healy Benefit Drive Is Scheduled for 2 Weeks

6/2/60

The Dan Healy fund drive is on today following an organizational meeting last night at the American Legion Home. The effort to raise money for the benefit of the stricken sportscaster's family moved toward the $100 mark as members of the soliciting committee contributed and turned in early donations they had received.

The drive will last two full weeks. Thursday, June 16, has been designated as the final day.

Healy, 41, father of five children, is seriously ill with a heart condition at the Pittsfield General Hospital. He has been there almost two months.

Individual contributions may be made today. J. Howard Fryer of the Berkshire County Savings Bank has accepted appointment as treasurer of the committee. Donations may be sent to him or may be given to any member of the committee.

One hundred fifty canisters will be distributed throughout the area early next week. Other special solicitations are being planned. Announcement of one or more of these will be made within several days.

The largest single donation today was $100 from Cranwell School. Dan often worked as an official at Cranwell baseball games and hockey matches.

Fund officials are hopeful of a generous response tomorrow afternoon at the plant gate collection at the General Electric Co.

James J. Frank and George Ditmar, who will be in charge of the solicitation at the main and east plants, respectively, today released a list of the Babe Ruth Baseball League players who will serve as collectors. They are as follows:

A collection is scheduled for today at all General Electric plant gates. The collection is being made through the cooperation of the Babe Ruth Baseball League and IUE 255.

The drive will be conducted for another week. It has been in progress since last week.

Record-Breaking GE Total Hikes Healy Fund to $3,574

6/11/60

Approximately $1634, the largest General Electric plant gate collection in history, according to officials of Local 255 IUE, last night raised the Dan Healy fund figure to $3574.89.

"We're overwhelmed by the generosity of GE workers," George Ditmar, a member of the fund committee, said in disclosing the amount. "People gave freely. It was a wonderful tribute to Dan."

Ditmar also praised union officials for their co-operation in the effort. He also said that the Babe Ruth League players did "a great job."

"Many commented on how courteous they were," Ditmar said.

Earlier in the day, it was announced that the Pittsfield High School faculty had contributed $174.

The fund will run through Thursday night. Contributions may be sent to J. Howard Fryer, fund treasurer, at the Berkshire County Savings Bank.

Healy Fund Is Expected To Go Beyond $4,000 Today

6/13/60

The fund for the benefit of the family of Dan Healy, the late WBRK sportscaster, is expected to move beyond the $4,000 mark today.

In mid-morning, it stood at less than $30 from that figure. J. Howard Fryer, fund treasurer, disclosed the amount as $3,970.89.

Included was more than $200 from a benefit roller skating show last night at the Broyles Arena. Bruce Broyles and Miss Joan Miller were the feature performers in "Roller Skating Varieties of 1960." The event was sponsored by the WBRK Hi-Fi Club. Jack Ryan was master of ceremonies.

The drive will continue through Thursday night. Officials have set $5,000 as the minimum goal. They're confident that 150 canisters throughout the county may yield enough to put the solicitation above that figure. In the meantime, of course, individual contributions will be welcome. These may be sent to treasurer Fryer at the Berkshire County Savings Bank.

Polish Club, NJHS Teachers Push Fund Above $4,000

The Dan Healy fund moved to $4,174.89 today, thanks to substantial contributions from the Polish Community Club and the North Junior High School faculty.

Ted Mezejewski, coach of athletics at St. Joseph's High, a North Junior High teacher, and a member of the PCC, disclosed both amounts. He said two canisters at the PCC netted $71. He also revealed that he and John Lyons, ex-St. Joseph's coach and a North Junior High department head, received $60 in a solicitation at the school.

Walker Combs, general chairman of the drive, stressed that Thursday night will mark the formal closing of the two-week effort in behalf of the family of the late WBRK sportscaster. He emphasized that persons who are interested in helping should make contributions by that time. Fund officials are optimistic that the total will exceed $5,000.

Healy Fund Totals $5,310

6/16

The Dan Healy fund has passed the $5,000 mark, and still is moving. At mid-morning, the total was $5,310.53.

Included among contributions in the last 24 hours were personal checks for $100 and $50.

J. Howard Fryer, treasurer of the fund, said every mail brings checks and money.

Contributions to the fund for the benefit of the late sportscaster's wife and five children may be sent to Fryer at the Berkshire County Savings Bank.

Tonight marks the completion of the second week of the solicitation.

Healy Fund Nears $6,000

5/24/60

Leagues Are Slated To Open June 27, All Games on Common

Registration for the Flea and Midget Baseball Leagues, sponsored and supervised by the Parks and Recreation Department, will be held on the Common, Saturday morning from 10 to noon. The league is starting its eighth season, with the primary aim to give instructions to all boys who want to play ball. The ages are 8 to 12 for the Flea and 13 to 15 for the Midget. The league will open it's season Monday morning, June 27 at 10. Every boy who registers and attends practices will be placed on a team. Regulation Flea and Midget League games consist of seven innings, played within the two-hour time limit.

The Flea League is divided into two divisions, the American and National, with the eight-nine-year-olds in the National and 10, 11, and 12-year-olds in the American. The Midget League is one division. There are six teams to a division. Any adult who would like to be a volunteer coach of these teams is asked to call John Marchesi of the Parks and Recreation Department at 8-8274 or 8-8275.

MOUND MAGICIAN Eddie Feigner is leading man in the four-member softball team that will oppose the Pittsfield City Softball League All-Stars Saturday night at 8:15 under lights at Wahconah Park. Feigner's outfit, billed as the King and His Court, has been on tour since 1946. Part of the proceeds will go to the Pittsfield Little Baseball League.

Four-Man Team Traveled 110,000 Miles in 1959

Eddie Feigner's four-man softball team, which will face the Pittsfield City League All-Stars under lights Saturday night at 8 at Wahconah Park, traveled 110,000 miles in 1959. Its record was 135 wins and 15 losses.

Billed as the King and his Court, the touring club is rated one of the outstanding sports novelty attractions in the nation. Organized in 1946, it has won 1395 and lost 141.

The Pittsfield Little Baseball League will receive 20 per cent of the tickets it sells. The young players have been selling tickets for the past three weeks. If the advance sales passes 2,000, the league will be given a percentage of the gate sale.

Feigner, the originator, manager and one-man pitching staff, is the leading draw. Now 34 years old, he has a career record of 1,782 victories and 170 losses.

33,638 Strikeouts

He has fanned a total of 33,638 batters. He has thrown 121 perfect games, 402 no-hit, no-run games and 705 shutouts.

Feigner pitches blindfolded for part of each game. He has struck out 2,600 men while delivering this way. His longest game was a 34-inning affair, which he won 7-6. He had 73 strikeouts.

Feigner also is quite a hitter. In 1954, he hit 83 home runs, ranking second only to teammate Mike Meilicke, who had 86. In one game that season, Eddie was nine for nine. Six of the hits were homers.

A native of Walla Walla, Wash., where he conceived the idea of the four-man team shortly after he had been discharged from the service following World War II, Feigner stands six feet, one inch, and weighs 205 jounds.

Baseball Men Write

FAIR OR FOUL

9/20/60 BRh

By Roger O'Gara

PUNGENT COMMENTS were made in letters addressed to this department during the height of the American Legion junior baseball excitement.

Two were so good, we want to share them with you, albeit both lost some of their timeliness during the many days they gathered dust on our desk.

Jimmy Tripodes, manager of the Great Barrington American Legion senior baseball team, wrote on the semipro situation in Berkshire County.

Jimmy Frank, long-time sectional director, had interesting observations on the Babe Ruth Baseball League.

o—o

TRIPODES SAID in part, "The other evening, I really got a big laugh, reading your column in reference to why the Dalton Papermakers were chosen to play in the Holyoke Knights of Columbus tournament. This is funnier than the funnies. I suppose that next year they'll require the teams to wear tuxedoes.

"This really stems from 10 years ago. We had the Holyoke Allies down for a Sunday game. The tourney director had sent me an application to sign and told me he would come down that Sunday and pick it up along with the entry fee. We really walloped the Allies. So we were rejected as a tournament team for some flimsy excuse.

"For the past 10 years no teams from the Springfield area have been paired against each other in the opening round. Real buddy, buddy. Borrowing a phrase from Red Pleau, they are a bunch of yo-yos.

o—o

"AS THE PROPOSED Berkshire County tournament plan has fizzled, I believe that the Dalton Papermakers, the leading team in the Northern Berkshire area, should play the Barrington Legion for the Berkshire County semipro title. This could be either a two-out-of-three series or one game on a neutral field.

"I believe that the Barrington Legion has a strong claim to the Southern Berkshire title. We have beaten Sheffield, Lenox and the Pittsfield Moldmasters three times each against no defeats.

"I have written to Tom Murray and Bill Feeney, both of Dalton, in reference to this, but I haven't heard from them.

"I think that if we should have an established county champion, we would go a long way toward reviving semipro baseball in this county."

o—o

JIMMY HAD a good idea.

His team certainly was the busiest, if not the best, in the Berkshires.

However, he made the mistake of arranging a holiday series with the Cheshire Town team. Cheshire won two games to one.

So where does that leave us? Right in the early weeks of the football season, we're afraid. The only baseball that will draw between now and next spring will be the World Series.

o—o

FRANK SAID in part, "In regard to your recent column in which you asked several questions concerning the Ruth League, I would like to answer. This isn't a criticism. Nor are the views set forth those of the league or of any other group, but the writer's own personal opinions.

"Is Pittsfield slipping in the Babe Ruth League or is the rest of the state improving? The answer is no. Pittsfield teams for the past five years (I have been with the league five years as sectional director), have been pretty close to average; the same applies to the state. Last year, the Pittsfield Americans had a team we all expected to go places. The coaches and players had the opportunity to watch Williamstown play the Pittsfield Nationals, one of the few chances we had to observe another team in a tournament. Pittsfield Nationals lost 11-10; Pittsfield Americans lost 1-0. The reason is overconfidence. The Pittsfield Americans thought they had the game won before they got to Williamstown.

"Could it be that Pittsfield has been weakened by the doubling of the number of teams? To some extent ,yes. It has been worth any sacrifice because 90 more boys are playing ball.

"The Pittsfield Americans lost to Agawam this year 5-4. As you no doubt know, they lost their No. 1 player to the American Legion. He is the first boy to leave the Ruth League. His team in the league and also the tournament team were greatly affected by his decision. Several boys who played in the league in past years were asked to join the Legion team, but upon advice from their fathers, and especially their coaches, did not take the step. Among the most vociferous of coaches against a boy leaving the league before his three years were up was George (Red) Pleau, the present Legion coach.

"I have not seen any tournament teams that Pittsfield was not capable of beating in a two out of three series. Unfortunately, league rules are sudden death, in other words, lose one game and you are out."

o—o

THIS SEEMS to be a fair analysis by a Ruth League official.

The No. 1 Ruth League player who went to the Legion was Ray Woitkowski, an athlete far ahead of his years. There was much discussion at the time he made his move, and there will continue to be.

Each interest group thinks it is right. According to Frank, Pleau was opposed to an early exit from the Ruth League. That was when he was a coach in the league .This year, as a Legion coach, Pleau welcomed Woitkowski. He contended that Ray was so big and capable, he would be wasting his time in the BRL.

Football Status

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

Roger O'Gara, in his "Fair or Foul" column [Nov. 11], said he would like the "uninformed" to stop talking "disparagingly" about the strength of Pittsfield High School's football schedule. Who is uninformed? Readers of The Eagle's sports pages? And, if so, whose fault is that?

Up until now, Mr. O'Gara has been fairly successful in bamboozling the local fans into believing Pittsfield is the Western Massachusetts football champion. He has done this by maintaining a boycott on all Class AA League games and standings.

But the article [Eagle, Dec. 2] telling of Pittsfield and Northampton being invited to join the Western Massachusetts AA Football Conference should enlighten both the public and Mr. O'Gara. If Coach Morris thinks the invitation is a compliment, and if Northampton's Coach DeFillipo thinks it is asinine because his team can compete better in the A Conference, then which league must be the stronger?

I do not mean to imply that Pittsfield's team was not of championship calibre. My quarrel is with Mr. O'Gara only. The team itself was excellent, but the victim of the fact that it did not belong to the higher classed league.

In the previously mentioned "Fair or Foul" column, Mr. O'Gara, commenting on the possibility of Pittsfield becoming a Class AA member, said if that were to happen, two present members would have to drop out. I wondered why. Now that league has proposed to expand to 10 teams. Where did Mr. O'Gara get his idea?

It seems that he feels the fans should be interested in what he is interested in, and that he attempts to accomplish that in his column. When the Harlem Globetrotters were in town, he complained that attendance would be greater there than at the professional exhibitions.

So what? Can't he watch what he wants to and let other people do the same? And then after doing that, can't he endeavor to report all sporting events which might be of interest to all the fans?

By this, I refer mostly to some coverage of Western Massachusetts sports other than Berkshire County. Mr. O'Gara has said, in answer to letters in the past, that if people are interested in that, they should read the Sringfield Union. But suppose they don't read it, how are they going to ever be interested or informed?

Legion Age Limit Raised; Pittsfield Gains 4 Players

10/25/60

The age limit for eligibility in American Legion junior baseball play was raised eight months at the annual national convention of the servicemen's organization last week in Miami, Fla., it became known here today.

This means four members of Pittsfield's national tournament team will have another year of eligibility. They are second baseman Gary (Red) Soldato, right fielder Paul O'Gara, and pitchers Tommy MacCartney and Ted Friel.

Thus nine of the 13 young men who represented Post 68 at Hastings, Neb., will be eligible to play again. Also returning will be first baseman Ronnie Kelly, shortstop Mark Belanger, left fielder-pitcher Johnny Tagliaferro, center fielder-pitcher Ray Woitkowski and second-string catcher Mike Bates.

Lost, notwithstanding the extension in age, will be ace pitcher Joey Costanzo, catcher George Garivaltis, third baseman Bobby Magi and reserve outfielder Tommy Varanka.

Under the old rule, no boy who would have attained his 18th birthday prior to Sept. 1 in the year of competition would have been eligible. The new rule makes Jan. 1 the dividing line.

Since Soldato, O'Gara, MacCartney and Friel all were born between Jan. 1, 1943 and Sept. 1, 1943, they thereby gain an extra season of eligibility. Costanzo, Garivaltis, Magi and Varanka all were born in the last four months of 1942.

Tickets To Be Sold at Door For Legion Baseball Dinner

11/5/60

Any person, who was unable to attend the first dinner at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood for the Pittsfield Junior American Legion baseball team because of a shortage of tickets will not be faced with that problem tomorrow night when the team will be honored again. The first dinner followed a North Street parade of players and their families in open convertibles, while thousands lined the sidewalks.

According to a report of the Pittsfield American Legion committee a substantial number of tickets are still available. The tickets will be sold at the door or may be obtained from any member of the committee. The affair will start at 7 p.m.

A number of state, district and county Legion officers will be present to congratulate the boys, and make various presentations. There will be no "main speaker" and the program is expected to be short. Gifts from Pittsfield Post 68 and the Painters' Union will be presented.

Past Cmdr. Edwin McLaughlin, who headed the local post during the triumphs of the Pittsfield team, will be toastmaster.

Expected for the dinner are Dept. of Massachusetts Cmdr. William McGinnis, Dept. Adjt. Peter Pappas, District 3 Cmdr. Thomas Houldsworth, District 3 Athletic Committeeman James Denver, Berkshire County Cmdr. Francis Rowley and County Athletic Officer Joseph Roy.

Numerous Gifts, Citations Presented to Post 68 and Legion Team Personnel Given Watches, Jackets, Wallets

Players Praised for Accomplishments, Spirit, Exemplary Conduct by Officials Of Department, District, Post, City

By BILL MAHAN

The presentation of gifts and citations in recognition of their accomplishments was the main order of business last night at the banquet at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood in honor of the members of the Pittsfield Junior American Legion baseball team and the coaches. The gifts included wrist watches, jackets, wallets and pictures. The citations came from the Massachusetts American Legion state department in the form of a resolution, and a plaque from District 3.

Framed Resolution for Post

The department resolution consisted of a framed copy for sponsoring Pittsfield Post 68 and individual copies for each player and coach. It commended them for the part they played in the team's winning of the District 3, state and Keene (N.H.) Regional championships, and in the fine showing in the nationals in Hastings, Neb. where Pittsfield was eliminated in the semifinal round.

A leather-bound folder containing the team picture and a certificate recognizing the team's winning of the state crown, gift of the Ford Motor Co., also was presented. The state department provided wallets for each of the boys. Berkshire County Cmdr. Francis Rowley distributed the state gifts in the absence of Dept. Cmdr. William McGinnis. McGinnis sent a telegram of congratulations and expressed his disappointment at being unable to attend because of a previous commitment. Garry Brown of the Springfield Union, who covered the team through the state, regional and national tournaments also telegraphed his regrets at being unable to attend.

Ferris Presents Jackets, Watches

The gifts of the local post were presented by athletic officer Clement Ferris. The gifts were three-quarter length, two-tone leather and navy blue jackets with the post name, and gold wrist watches.

The plaque, which came from District 3, the Hampden County district, was given by District Cmdr. Lou Windholz, and accepted by Pittsfield Past Cmdr. Edwin McLaughlin, who also was master of ceremonies last night.

Wallets also were presented to the team by Robert Danis, representing Painters' Local 94 of Pittsfield.

No main speaker was engaged for the affair. Called upon for a few words were Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, Cmdr. Rowley, Cmdr. Windholz, Massachusetts athletic chairman Tom Murray of Boston, vice chairman Jim Denver of Springfield, Berkshire County athletic officer Joe Roy, Eagle sports editor Roger O'Gara, this writer, Danis, Post 68 athletic officer Clement Ferris, and team manager Gus Kiligas, who presented a baseball, autographed by all members of the team, to Windholz.

Called upon to take bows were state Senator Robert Cramer; longtime Pittsfield sports fan Walker Coombs; Mrs. Dan Healy, widow of sportscaster Dan Healy, who did so much for youthful athletes in Pittsfield; Pittsfield Post 68 Cmdr. Joe Madison; Pittsfield Legion athletic committeemen Harry Tyler, Donald Farr, Samuel Quadrozzi, and Jack Maguire, longtime sports fan and staunch follower of the Legion team, Clement Farrell, and baseball umpire Jim Sullivan of Springfield, who handled many of the Pittsfield games in state play.

Good Behavior Praised

The speakers lauded the team for its good record, fighting spirit, and exemplary conduct in the tournaments. Mayor Haughey told of how the behavior of the Pittsfield boys had won the admiration and support of the people of Hastings, who hope Pittsfield will be back next year.

State director Murray told how national baseball director Lou Brissie said that Pittsfield did more to raise the prestige of the eastern section of the country, than any other representative ever has done. Brissie said the local club was the best behaved team in the national tourney and that it changed his opinion of the eastern section of the country.

Murray also warned Pittsfield to go slow on the reported raising of the age limit for Legion ball. He said it was reported upon favorably at the national convention and probably will be passed, but still must meet the approval of the major leagues next month.

County Loop Possible

Berkshire athletic officer Roy promised to attempt, with the help of Kiligas, to form a county league next year, a plan that would eliminate much travel for the Pittsfield team in league play. Pittsfield athletic officer Ferris put in a word later in the program with District 3 and state officials present that, should the county loop not work out, he hoped Post 68 "would be welcomed back in District 3 next season."

New York State baseball director Dick Connors of Albany stopped in to offer his congratulation to McLaughlin and the team, but was unable to remain for the dinner. McLaughlin also acknowledged receipt of a scrap book of the Post 68 team's feats, sent by former District 3 athletic officer John Dazelle.

A crowd of about 100 Legion members and officials, parents, friends and Legion baseball fans attended the dinner.

Capt. Gary (Red) Soldato was unable to attend because of a back injury suffered in the Pittsfield High-Dalton High football game Saturday. Team personnel present were players, Mike Bates, Mark Belanger, Ted Friel, Joe Costanzo, Ron Kelly, Bob Magi, Paul O'Gara, Ray Woitkowski, George Garivaltis, Tom Varanka, John Tagliaferro, and Tom MacCartney; coaches George (Red) Pleau, Nato Cianfarini and Romolo (Slo) Magi, and trainer Harold (Huddy) Huddleston.

HONORED GUESTS at the Pittsfield American Legion Post 68-sponsored dinner last night were the members of its district, state and regional championship junior baseball team that finished third in the national tournament. The boys are shown displaying samples of the gifts of jackets, wrist watches and wallets they received at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood affair. Crowd of 10,000 Gives Legion Ball Club Rousing Welcome Home at Midnight 9/7/60

Pittsfield's American Legion junior baseball team returned to a rousing welcome at midnight Sunday as a crowd of 10,000 cheered the weary players through the city streets.

An official welcome home party will be held tomorrow at 7 p.m. at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood under the auspices of the Pittsfield Rotary Club. The main speaker will be Bill Summers, former American League umpire.

A parade down North Street will precede the reception and dinner. Tickets for the dinner, limited to 400, can be purchased at the American Legion Home on Wendell Avenue or at the Bridge Lunch on North Street.

When the players arrived in Pittsfield on Sunday night, they had been traveling for almost 24 hours. Immediately after losing to New Orleans, La., Saturday night, the Pittsfield players boarded a train to Chicago. They flew from there to Bradley Field, and were driven on the final leg of the trip to Pittsfield, arriving here about 11:45 p.m. Sunday.

Police Escorts

The team was met at the Lee Interchange of the Turnpike by Sgt. Stanley J. Bower of the State Police, Dalton barracks. Sgt. Bower escorted the team to Pittsfield, where city police cruisers joined the cavalcade to the Legion Home on Wendell Avenue.

From there, the players and their parents rode down North Street in convertibles, to the accompaniment of music by the Monarch Drum and Bugle Corps, the Eagles Military Band and the Union-Federal Savings & Loan Assn. carillon. The Eagles Band was provided through the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industry.

Police Chief Thomas H. Calnan rode at the head of the parade. Mayor Raymond L. Haughey, Sheriff J. Bruce McIntyre and Joseph Madison, commander-elect of the American Legion, led on foot.

Behind them came the Legion post colors, carried by the Legion color guard. The team members followed in alphabetical order, each being driven in a convertible with his family.

After the parade, a crowd of about 1,000 outside the Legion Home heard Mayor Haughey and other officials welcome home.

The mayor commended the boys for their performance in Hastings, Neb., where the American Legion's Little World Series was played. He also said the Pittsfield players were the finest good-will ambassadors ever to represent Pittsfield and praised Coach George (Red) Pleau for his part in training the northeastern regional champions.

Legion athletic officer Clemen A. Ferris, master of ceremonies a the homecoming celebration, tol the boys there were more festivi ties to come and extended officia invitations to the Rotary dinner o Wednesday.

After Sunday night's reception team members and their familie were invited into the Legion Hom for a buffet supper.

Baseball Post-Mortem

9/19/60

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:

As the immediate past commander of Berkshire County American Legion, I must refute the false assertions made by Paul Brindle Jr. [Eagle, Sept. 6] on the American Legion junior baseball program.

Coaches of both District 2 and District 3 voted not to accept the Pittsfield and Williamstown teams to play in their respective leagues. They were within their rights for reasons too numerous to mention, but not the least of which was the perennial conduct of overenthusiastic Pittsfield fans such as Mr. Brindle.

At this stage of the proceedings I sent my district athletic officer, Joseph Roy of West Stockbridge, to lay the matter before the state committee in Boston. The committee voted to instruct both District 2 and District 3 that Williamstown and Pittsfield were to play in their respective leagues. At this time because Pittsfield was in the play-offs for the state high school championship, District 3 set up a special schedule for Pittsfield so they could finish and still play Legion ball. Although they could have designated a neutral field, as they do in most states, the state officials set up the finals so that the two finalists were to have one game each on a home field. In the event of the need for a third game, it would be settled by a draw, which Pittsfield won, thereby having the good fortune to play two games at Wahconah Park.

During the games at Keene there were many rooters for the Pittsfield team present from District 3 including county Legion officials. This refutes Mr. Brindle's contention that District 3 and the state officials placed obstacles, to use Mr. Brindle's own words, in the way of the Pittsfield team.

At the national tournament in Hastings, Neb., where Mr. Brindle insinuates that the national officials had the contest fixed, the schedule or play was set up long before the officials knew what teams would be playing in the tournament. As to the bye, it was determined by a drawing made by the managers of the three remaining teams. I have talked with Pittsfield people present who inform me it was all fair and above board.

None of the above reflects in any way on the conduct or ability of the team. We in the American Legion were proud to have been represented at the national tournament by such an outstanding team as the one representing Pittsfield Post 68.

One of the primary objects of Legion junior baseball is to teach the players to win magnanimously and lose gracefully, so why not let them lose gracefully as I am sure every player on the team wishes to do?

FAIR OR FOUL 9/13/60

By Roger O'Gara

"WHY WAS IT I couldn't find out even what the score was?"

This was the question that many Pittsfield people asked following their return to the city after stays in New York and Boston. They were referring of course to the results of Pittsfield's games in the American Legion's Little World Series in Hastings, Neb.

"I went to every newspaper office in New York," one man said. "They not only didn't know how we had done. They hadn't even heard about the series."

Similar statements were received from people who happened to be in Boston while the games were being played. Only one paper, the Globe, showed any interest, a friend reported.

"They didn't have the score," he said, "but they told me they would get it in half an hour if I cared to call back. I did, and they gave it to me. Every day from there in, they carried a few lines on the tournament."

o—o

WHY IS it that this big event is given a cold shoulder by most newspapers in the nation?

The answer is simple. Most newspapers, not directly involved to the extent of having a home town entrant, are dependent on the wire services for stories. And no one apparently ever has bothered to sell Associated Press and United Press International on the magnitude of the project.

Furthermore, the Legion does little to help itself. This extremely worthwhile activity is administered by a full-time commissioner, operating from the Legion's national headquarters at Indianapolis, Ind.

Legion baseball started in 1926. That makes it at least two decades older than Little League. Yet Little League receives 10 times the nationwide publicity that the Legion does.

Why? No, it isn't only that the toddlers are cuter and therefore better human interest stories than the Legion players. It's because Little League has sold its program to the press, radio and television right from the outset.

o—o

IF EVER there was any doubt that the Legion's great baseball project has been under publicized, it was dispelled the other evening when the wire services tapped out the news that Dave McNally of Billings, Mont., had received the second highest bonus ever given by the Baltimore Orioles.

The Eagle's acount of the story went into detail about McNally's participation in the Little World Series at Hastings with the Billings team. This was written right here in Pittsfield by one of the two men this paper sent more than 1,500 miles to cover the event.

However, the man who wrote the top part of the story in Baltimore never mentioned McNally's affiliation with the Billings Legion team. The reference was merely to a 17-year-old left-handed pitcher.

o—o

THE LEGION needs publicity offices on national, regional, state and even district levels. It well could take a page from Little League.

Of course there are exceptions in the Legion program. In New York state, Dick Conners of Albany, a highly successful insuranceman, also happens to be a baseball bug and a man conversant with the needs and wants of newspapers.

So Conners, state director of Legion baseball for the past 10 years, has done an effective selling job on the newspapers of the big state. From Albany to Buffalo and just about everywhere but New York City, the sports desks know that Legion baseball is important. And Dick Conners never lets them lose sight of the fact. He often writes dispatches for them, advising in what round the state playdowns are and doing the job that a good full-time news man would be proud to do.

That doesn't happen in many other states. It certainly doesn't occur in Massachusetts, notwithstanding the fact that teams from this state almost always are regional champions.

At the regional tournament in Keene, N.H., the tournament directors used to walk into the Western Union office late every night to file the scores for a big wire service. That was the extent of co-ordination between the tournament and a major agency of news dissemination.

o—o

THE LEGION shouldn't be in such a poor position.

After 34 years, the flow of news should be almost automatic. Of course the Legion isn't entirely at fault. Some newspapers must take part of the blame, because many of their sports department employes have been afflicted with delusions of grandeur.

These lazy men regard anything that happens within their community as unimportant. Therefore they turn up their noses at such events as American Legion tournaments. When this indifference spreads to countless communities across the nation, it becomes a large force, second only in power to a well-concentrated enthusiastic drive.

Something beats nothing in a head-on clash, but too often these days nothings are scoring victories by default.

The Legion won't win this battle by passing a resolution at its next convention. Much more than that must be done.

Legion Team Wins, Remains Undefeated 9/7/60

By BILL MAHAN

HASTINGS, Neb.—The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team continued to take advantage of the mistakes of its opposition as it downed New Orleans, La., 4-1 for its third straight win in the American Legion Little World Series at Duncan Park here last night. Pittsfield had only two hits but used four New Orleans' errors to get its runs.

The Massachusetts team is now the only undefeated club in the national tournament. Pittsfield meets Billings, Mont., tonight in the second game of the evening. The contest will probably start between 8:30 and 9 Hastings time, which is 10:30 to 11 Pittsfield time. The Berkshire County team defeated Billings 9-5 Wednesday night. A loss tonight would put the Montana team out of the tournament. A loss by Pittsfield would mean three teams would be tied at one defeat and the finals would not take place until Sunday.

The first game tonight will bring together New Orleans and Miami, Fla., with the loser being eliminated.

Pittsfield right hander Joe Costanzo won his second game of the national event with a great, four-hit performance in which he struck out 13. He walked four. The one New Orleans run was unearned. All the hits were singles.

Pittsfield had only two hits, both doubles, the first was by Paul O'Gara in the third inning and drove in Costanzo with the first Pittsfield run. The second was by

This was the question that many Pittsfield people asked following their return to the city after stays in New York and Boston. They were referring of course to the results of Pittsfield's games in the American Legion's Little World Series in Hastings, Neb.

"I went to every newspaper office in New York," one man said. "They not only didn't know how we had done. They hadn't even heard about the series."

Similar statements were received from people who happened to be in Boston while the games were being played. Only one paper, the Globe, showed any interest, a friend reported.

"They didn't have the score," he said, "but they told me they would get it in half an hour if I cared to call back. I did, and they gave it to me. Every day from there in, they carried a few lines on the tournament."

o—o

WHY IS it that this big event is given a cold shoulder by most newspapers in the nation?

The answer is simple. Most newspapers, not directly involved to the extent of having a home town entrant, are dependent on the wire services for stories. And no one apparently ever has bothered to sell Associated Press and United Press International on the magnitude of the project.

Furthermore, the Legion does little to help itself. This extremely worthwhile activity is administered by a full-time commissioner, operating from the Legion's national headquarters at Indianapolis, Ind.

Legion baseball started in 1926. That makes it at least two decades older than Little League. Yet Little League receives 10 times the nationwide publicity that the Legion does.

Why? No, it isn't only that the toddlers are cuter and therefore better human interest stories than the Legion players. It's because Little League has sold its program to the press, radio and television right from the outset.

o—o

IF EVER there was any doubt that the Legion's great baseball project has been under publicized, it was dispelled the other evening when the wire services tapped out the news that Dave McNally of Billings, Mont., had received the second highest bonus ever given by the Baltimore Orioles.

The Eagle's acount of the story went into detail about McNally's participation in the Little World Series at Hastings with the Billings team. This was written right here in Pittsfield by one of the two men this paper sent more than 1,500 miles to cover the event.

However, the man who wrote the top part of the story in Baltimore never mentioned McNally's affiliation with the Billings Legion team. The reference was merely to a 17-year-old left-handed pitcher.

o—o

THE LEGION needs publicity offices on national, regional, state and even district levels. It well could take a page from Little League.

Of course there are exceptions in the Legion program. In New York state, Dick Conners of Albany, a highly successful insuranceman, also happens to be a baseball bug and a man conversant with the needs and wants of newspapers.

So Conners, state director of Legion baseball for the past 10 years, has done an effective selling job on the newspapers of the big state. From Albany to Buffalo and just about everywhere but New York City, the sports desks know that Legion baseball is important. And Dick Conners never lets them lose sight of the fact. He often writes dispatches for them, advising in what round the state playdowns are and doing the job that a good full-time news man would be proud to do.

That doesn't happen in many other states. It certainly doesn't occur in Massachusetts, notwithstanding the fact that teams from this state almost always are regional champions.

At the regional tournament in Keene, N.H., the tournament directors used to walk into the Western Union office late every night to file the scores for a big wire service. That was the extent of co-ordination between the tournament and a major agency of news dissemination.

o—o

THE LEGION shouldn't be in such a poor position.

After 34 years, the flow of news should be almost automatic. Of course the Legion isn't entirely at fault. Some newspapers must take part of the blame, because many of their sports department employes have been afflicted with delusions of grandeur.

These lazy men regard anything that happens within their community as unimportant. Therefore they turn up their noses at such events as American Legion tournaments. When this indifference spreads to countless communities across the nation, it becomes a large force, second only in power to a well-concentrated enthusiastic drive.

Something beats nothing in a head-on clash, but too often these days nothings are scoring victories by default.

The Legion won't win this battle by passing a resolution at its next convention. Much more than that must be done.

Legion Team Wins, Remains Undefeated 9/7/60

By BILL MAHAN

HASTINGS, Neb.—The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team continued to take advantage of the mistakes of its opposition as it downed New Orleans, La., 4-1 for its third straight win in the American Legion Little World Series at Duncan Park here last night. Pittsfield had only two hits but used four New Orleans' errors to get its runs.

The Massachusetts team is now the only undefeated club in the national tournament. Pittsfield meets Billings, Mont., tonight in the second game of the evening. The contest will probably start between 8:30 and 9 Hastings time, which is 10:30 to 11 Pittsfield time. The Berkshire County team defeated Billings 9-5 Wednesday night. A loss tonight would put the Montana team out of the tournament. A loss by Pittsfield would mean three teams would be tied at one defeat and the finals would not take place until Sunday.

The first game tonight will bring together New Orleans and Miami, Fla., with the loser being eliminated.

Pittsfield right hander Joe Costanzo won his second game of the national event with a great, four-hit performance in which he struck out 13. He walked four. The one New Orleans run was unearned. All the hits were singles.

Pittsfield had only two hits, both doubles, the first was by Paul O'Gara in the third inning and drove in Costanzo with the first Pittsfield run. The second was by

Loose Talk Should Stop

FAIR OR FOUL

"I KNOW I'M a little dumb, but I'm not completely stupid."

Thus did Coach George (Red) Pleau of the Pittsfield American Legion junior baseball team express his reaction to the criticism he has received since he returned from the Little World Series at Hastings, Neb.

"Many of them keep telling me that I must have been 100 per cent stupid to permit the tournament officials to do what they did," he said.

o—o

WHAT DID they do?

Red of course was referring to the pairing of unbeaten Pittsfield against once-defeated Billings, Mont., in the fourth game for each.

Red stressed the point that it wasn't up to him to quibble about the identity of Pittsfield's next opponent in the tournament. He's right. He was busy with other important decisions, such as who would pitch next or whether or not a morning or afternoon practice would be beneficial or detrimental in that blazing Nebraska sun.

This could become a cause celebre, but we hope not.

For there wasn't and isn't any evidence that Pittsfield was set up as a fall guy.

If Pittsfield had an argument, it was only a question. In short, Pittsfield could have inquired after the end of the third round why it had to face a loser when other losers were available for that purpose.

At the conclusion of Thursday night's play, only four teams remained. These were Pittsfield, undefeated, and New Orleans, Billings and Miami, one defeat apiece.

o—o

THERE ADMITTEDLY was no consideration for an all-conquering team at Hastings, such as there was at Keene, N.H., site of the regionals. Just about everyone knows by now that West Hartford, Conn., won three straight games and then sat back to wait for an opponent.

When Pittsfield had eliminated White River Junction, Vt., West Warwick, R.I., Concord, N.H., and Staten Island, N.Y., West Hartford was sent into battle. By that time, Pittsfield had played two more games than West Hartford. Going into its first meeting with West Hartford, Pittsfield had a record of four wins and one loss. West Hartford was three and nothing.

If the same principle had been applied at Hastings, Pittsfield would have been sitting pretty with three and nothing.

o—o

THERE HAD to be a bye somewhere along the line at Hastings.

We submit it should have been after a winner had been crowned in the winners' bracket. So, instead of setting up a plan that would send one team into the finals simply on the basis of luck, we think that the proper place for such a bye would have been after Pittsfield had established itself at three and nothing. In other words, Miami, New Orleans and Billings should have been asked to meet for the right to face Pittsfield in the finals.

It didn't work out that that way. Pleau said a book of predetermined step-by-step games was available at Keene, but he saw no such publication at Hastings.

o—o

MANAGER GUS KILIGAS of the Legion team and Paul Brindle, Mr. Babe Ruth League in this community, have been involved in a torrid exchange of opinion as to whether Pittsfield received a bad deal out there.

We don't like to see two such good guys at odds, particularly when each has only one thing in mind. That is, what's best for Pittsfield? Paul knows the subject of boys' baseball from A to Z. Gus is an authority on Legion policy.

So here he was at the nationals, with Pittsfield on the verge of becoming the top team in the country. And he was advised by Commissioner Lou Brissie that Pittsfield would oppose Billings the next night. Only a career dissenter would have protested at that point.

Several of us out there didn't like it when we heard that the opponent would be Billings. For the report was that if Pittsfield should defeat New Orleans in its third game, it would face the winner of the Miami-Hastings contest. That would have been Miami.

However, at no time, was there any announcement of a pre-arrangement to give a break to the winner of three straight contests.

So Kiligas, with the national title in front of him, didn't want to put any tarnish on it by complaining that Pittsfield was being rooked.

He was much like those embattled soldiers of whom Tennyson wrote back in the mid-19th century, "Their not to reason why; theirs but to do or die."

Keene Post Bids For Legion Nationals, Regionals in 1961

Legion Team To Be Honored At Public Banquet on Nov. 6

The celebrated American Legion baseball team will be given a banquet and reception by American Legion Post 68 at 7 p.m. Nov. 6 at the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel.

In an open letter to sports fans, Clement A. Ferris today announced that tickets for the dinner would be sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

Chairman of the Legion's athletic committee, Mr. Ferris invited individuals and local firms to participate in the official celebration with a "suitable remembrance."

Third in Nation

The Legion team placed third in the nation, winning the state and regional titles and then losing to New Orleans and Billings, Mont., in competition at Hastings, Neb.

Mr. Ferris pointed out that the Legion had been happy to accept the Rotary Club's offer for a reception dinner at the time of the team's return from Nebraska because the post could not give an official reception until after the American Legion National Convention in Florida next week.

Reservations may be made until Oct. 26 at P.O. Box 441. Other members of the athletic committee are Donald C. Farr, Harry A. Tyler, John V. Maquire and Samuel Quadrozzi.

Pittsfield Legion Baseball Team Finishes as Third Best in the Nation

Massachusetts Champs Lose In Semifinal Round Game

Louisiana Pitcher Bubby Winters Limits Berkshire Boys to Four Hits—New Orleans Goes On To Win Final From Montana Club

By BILL MAHAN

HASTINGS, Neb.—The Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team wound up its season as the third best in the nation when it was beaten by New Orleans, 6-1 in the semifinal game Saturday night at Duncan Field here in the American Legion Little World Series. New Orleans went on to take the title Sunday night by downing Billings, Mont., 9-3.

Second Straight Loss

It was the second defeat for Pittsfield in two days after taking three straight wins in its first three appearances. Billings, Mont. won Friday night's contest 8-2. Pittsfield had beaten both these teams previously.

New Orleans' pitcher, tall right-handed Henry (Bubby) Winters, was just too good for the Massachusetts boys, with the exception of Gary Soldato and Ronnie Kelly. They had two hits apiece and that was all Pittsfield could get. Soldato singled to right in the first and to center in the eighth. Kelly's blows also were singles, one in the fourth and one in the seventh. Both were opposite field shots through the shortstop hole.

Southpaw Tommy MacCartney started for Pittsfield. He pitched until the sixth when Johnny Tagliaferro came in from left field for the second night in a row to slam the door on the opposition.

The loss was MacCartney's first in tournament play. He was credited with three triumphs at the Keene regionals and one at Hastings. The slim lefty gave up five hits and six walks to New Orleans and was responsible for all the runs.

A Good Start

The Berkshire County team started out Saturday as if it might be a happy night, with a run in the first inning. Paul O'Gara led off with a base on balls and was moved to second by Bob Magi's bunt. Soldato made his first base hit, and O'Gara held up at third. With George Garivaltis at bat, Soldato stole second. New Orleans shortstop Charlie Grey cut off the threw, but dropped the ball and O'Gara came in with the only Pittsfield score.

In the third inning, MacCartney ran into his first serious trouble. He had walked batters in the first and second innings, but a double play in the first and a choice force out at second in the second averted any real threat.

In the third, Winters led off with a single and Grey walked. Taylor Walet sacrificed them along. After Chuck Staub fanned, Harry Morel hit a Texas Leaguer to center for two bases and two runs. Centerfielder Ray Woitkowski gave it a real battle, trying for a shoestring catch, but the ball got by him.

A walk to Rusty Staub and a single by Lou Triche loaded the bases and Joe McMahon's first single of the night brought in Morel and Staub. McMahon was cut down, however, trying to go for two, O'gara to Soldato to shortstop Mark Belanger.

Staub Doubles

It was Rusty Staub, who started the two-run uprising in the seventh with a lead-off double. After giving up successive walks to Triche and McMahon, MacCartney was relieved by Tagliaferro. Dick Roniger hit a drive to left. It took a big hop over Tom Varanka's head and went for a double. The blow scored Staub and Triche, and put McMahon on third.

The runners held as Winters grounded out to Soldato. Tagliaferro got out of the inning when Grey's safety squeeze bunt was turned into a double play, Tagliaferro to Kelly to Gavivaltis, who nailed McMahon sliding in.

The double play was the third of the contest for Pittsfield. Belanger, Soldato and Kelly made their second in the fifth inning on Morel's ground ball with Chuck Staub on first after having been hit by a pitch.

McMahon was the hitting star for the winners with two singles and two RBIs. Rusty Staub and Roniger also had two runs batted in with their doubles.

The Pittsfield second base combination had a busy night. Soldato had six assists and five putouts and Belanger had three assists and two putouts. Woitkowski had the only outfield putout.

Hastings' Handouts

The paid attendance for Saturday's game was 2,581, and brought the paid attendance for the tournament at that point to 41,367.

Massachusetts baseball director Tom Murray was commenting after the game that Pittsfield's nine straight wins in tournament play was probably some kind of a record. Pittsfield had won its last six games at Keene and its first three at Hastings.

Paul O'Gara racked up one windshield with a foul ball back over the stands in the seventh inning. The vehicle was the station wagon of Hastings radio station KHAS.

The umpires all came to the Pittsfield dugout after the game to shake hands with Coach George (Red) Pleau and to compliment the Pittsfield team for its performance and exemplary conduct during the tournament. All the arbiters said they had enjoyed working the Massachusetts champions' games.

A CLOSE PLAY at first base nipped Pittsfield Legion pitcher Tommy MacCartney in the second inning of Saturday night's game against New Orleans. MacCartney had grounded to third baseman Harry Morel. Making the stretch for the putout is first baseman Rusty Staub. The Louisiana team's 6-1 win over Pittsfield eliminated the Massachusetts champions.

A WARM WELCOME HOME was accorded the members of the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team Sunday night by a crowd estimated at 10,000. Following a parade up North Street in open convertibles, the entourage was taken to the American Legion home on Wendell Avenue, where a short welcoming ceremony took place. The players and coaches and their families were then served a buffet supper at the Legion home. Pictured above is part of the crowd at Legion headquarters as the team disembarked from the cars.

Third Place No Disgrace

FAIR OR FOUL

By Roger O'Gara

THE LEGION baseball team's excellent showing in the national tournament at distant Hastings, Neb., was the greatest athletic experience the city of Pittsfield ever has had.

Although only 40 local residents were in the stands, the achievements of these spirited kids fired the imagination of the entire community. Residents who didn't know a baseball from an apricot or Gary Soldato from George Garivaltis were radio rooters.

It's regrettable that the youngsters couldn't have been champions, but third place is no trifling honor. When one considers that approximately 30,000 teams started play back in June, he concludes that all eight in the Little World Series already had accomplished wonders.

o—o

THIS TEAM went farther than any of its predecessors in Pittsfield's 31-year affiliation with the program. It overcame obstacles of scheduling that would have flattened a less courageous group.

Some have commented cynically that Legion tournaments should have standard incentives. We concur. For instance, West Hartford gained certain big advantages when it won its first three games in the regional play.

Pittsfield received no such reward for doing the same thing at Hastings. This isn't sour grapes, but rather a recitation of facts. Pittsfield would have profited greatly from a bye after its third win. Instead, it received no more consideration than Billings and New Orleans, both one-time losers.

o—o

IT WAS REFRESHING to hear that sedate Pittsfield could become so excited about 13 baseball-playing teen-agers. For a tension-packed week, Pittsfield was a normal American city, thrilling to the wins and almost going into mourning on those dreadful two nights of loss.

It well could be that the spirit which was engendered by this baseball team will mark the beginning of a new era of sports here. That is a possibility, but a remote one, admittedly. Yet it is reasonable to suppose that there'll be a general quickening of interest all along the way on the athletic scene.

There even could be a carry over value. For instance when Pittsfield High's football team goes forth to battle this autumn, not a few may recall that Soldato, Garivaltis, Ray Woitkowski, Paul O'Gara, Tom Varanka and Mike Bates were big late summer radio names.

o—o

MANY PITTSFIELD adults put in hundreds of lobby-sitting hours in the Hotel Carter at Hastings. A lobby is a great place for information, and the reports that these people heard left them with the impression that their city is far behind most of the nation in its promotion of Legion baseball.

Hastings, a reasonably prosperous farm center city of 22,000, recently purchased a new automobile for its coach, Earl Applebee, who also is paid $500 a month for handling the team. Applebee coaches at Hastings High.

Billings fans advised they had started a solicitation for funds with which to provide Ed Bayne, their coach, with a new car. Bayne, a lieutenant in the Billings Fire Department, merits the gift for what he has done for the boys over the years.

In addition to directing the Legion team, Bayne annually arranges for big college baseball scholarships for one or more of his boys. Most go to Washington State College, where Bayne was a football star.

In order to get time off during the summer, Bayne works many double shifts in the other seasons.

What does the Pittsfield Legion or the community do for Red Pleau? He is paid the small sum of $300 a summer. For that compensation, he gave double duty during much of the season. He had to handle many of the small details of equipment and transportation until capable Gus Kiligas finally was named to relieve him of those headaches.

o—o

WHAT HAPPENED to Pittsfield in the final stage at Hast ings?

That's a question which has been asked often, and it will continue to be posed through the Hot Stove League months.

The team looked weak at bat in all five of its games. The answer of course was two fold. Like all young teams that have come this far, it was pressing like mad. The other explanation is that it was facing better pitching than it saw in Massachusetts or at Keene.

That stands to reason. This was the cream of the nation.

Of course Pittsfield had little chance to hit in the first two games, the opener with Berwyn and the first meeting with Billings. That was because the opposing pitchers were so wild. When you're drawing 22 bases on balls, your hitting opportunities have been sharply cut.

After that, Pittsfield ran smack into superb jobs by Dick Roniger and Henry Winters, both of New Orleans, and Steve Huntsberry of Billings. Each boy had an excellent curve.

With all due respect to Pittsfield, it hasn't been a good curveball hitting team all season. For that matter, what team of 16 and 17-year-olds is? Most boys who belabor fast balls look like astigmatism victims when they're swinging against really good hooks.

o—o

DICK CALEY of West Hartford made Pittsfield look weak in the final at Keene. What did he have? His fast ball wasn't much, but that thing the scientists used to call an optical illusion did tricks.

Roniger, Huntsberry and finally Winters further exploited that weakness. In kid ball, a player who shows that he can't hit a curve receives a steady diet of them. Major league pitchers don't throw nearly as many benders as Legion boys do for two good reasons. They don't want to put needless strain on their arms, and they feel that it's smarter to mix up their offerings.

o—o

THE TRIP AND the record are something that Pittsfield never will forget.

Pittsfield hustled all the time. That was shown by the mileage the club received from bases on balls and errors in the first three games. The base running was excellent.

The pitching generally was good. In fact, Joey Costanzo was cited by ex-major leaguer Johnny Hopp as the most capable pitcher he had seen in the tournament. Hometown hero Hopp, appearing as my guest in a pre-game radio interview over WBEC, said Joey had shown him two important things he hadn't observed in any other pitcher.

"He puts his full body into the pitch," Hopp noted. "That helps him to get so much speed. And he hides the ball smartly. Most pitchers here don't know how to go about that."

So, although our dreams of empire are over, our heads should not be bowed. This team went a long distance in more ways than one.

American Legion Age Limit May Be Raised Eight Months

The age limit for participation in American Legion junior baseball may be raised eight months, The Eagle learned over the weekend at Hastings, Neb., from a source close to Lou Brissie, national commissioner of the program.

This official said it's practically definite that the new regulation will provide that any boy who hasn't reached his 18th birthday on Jan. 1 will be permitted to play the following summer. Under the existing rule, players who were 18 prior to Sept. 1 were not allowed to participate.

If the new proposal should be adopted, three members of Pittsfield's national tournament team will have an extra season of play. They are second baseman Gary Soldato, right fielder Paul O'Gara and pitcher Ted Friel. Soldato will be 18 Jan. 11, O'Gara and Friel won't attain that milestone until June and July, respectively.

Pitchers Joey Costanzo and Tommy MacCartney, catcher George Garivaltis, third baseman Bobby Magi and outfielder Tom Varanka will be lost because of over-age, regardless of whether or not the new regulation is adopted. They all were born late in 1942.

First baseman Ronnie Kelly, shortstop Mark Belanger, left fielder Johnny Tagliaferro, center fielder Ray Woitkowski and second-string catcher Mike Bates are eligible for play next summer.

Pittsfield Legion Team Sees Hastings Grid Drills

(Delayed)

By ROGER O'GARA

HASTINGS, Neb. — What does an undefeated tournament baseball team do as it awaits the next call to battle? It goes out to watch football practice. At least that's what Pittsfield's high-riding American Legion juniors did Thursday as they killed time before their second meeting with strong Billings, Mont. They were spectators at the Hastings High team's drill.

For six members of the squad, the workout was a reminder that they'll move from one sport to another early this week. Legion regulars Gary Soldato, Ray Woitkowski, Paul O'Gara and George Garivaltis comprise Pittsfield High's holdover first-string backfield. Reserve outfielder Tom Varanka also is an important back. And second-string catcher Mike Bates is expected to make a strong bid for the second-string quarterback's job.

Ruff Hopp, a member of Hastings' leading sports family, won the hearts of Pittsfield fans and players for his highly vocal support of the team. Before Mayor Raymond Haughey left for home to direct the funeral of Mrs. Gregory Young, his wife's aunt, he appointed Hopp honorary mayor in charge of tournament rooting. Haughey presented Hopp a certificate in a ceremony in the lobby of the Hotel Carter.

Ruff drove Haughey to the Hastings airport, where the mayor boarded a plane for Omaha at 10:30 CST. When the flight started, the score was tied at 1-1 in the seventh inning. Ruff telephoned to the airports at Lincoln and Omaha to try to break the news of the victory to Ray.

Shortly after the plane landed at Omaha, Haughey called the Hotel Carter, and Gus Kiligas, manager of the Pittsfield team, gave him the result. Just before leaving for Chicago, Ray called again, and asked for a breakdown on the scoring in the eighth and ninth innings.

Coach George (Red) Pleau said that the players decided on the bus on their way to Duncan Field that they would win the New Orleans game for the mayor.

Hopp announced that his vending machine business place was a secondary Pittsfield headquarters. He invited fans to stop there any time, not to buy something, but to partake of refreshments.

Dick Hill, former Dalton High and William & Mary athlete, flew in from Wichita, Ka., for the New Orleans game to visit an old friend, Harry Brennan. Dick is a sales executive for the Chevrolet Motor Company. He lives in Denver, Colo. Lester Frazey of Wichita, also a Chevrolet official, was pilot of the plane that carried Dick to Hastings.

Dr. Bob Golonka, ex-Adams High, Berkshire School and Creighton University athlete, saw Pittsfield for the second successive time Friday night. He made the 91-mile trip from Columbus, Neb., with a neighbor.

Bob gave a softball jacket to Coach Pleau. He also promised jackets to the assistant coaches.

Bob Golonka Jr., was graduated in June from St. Bonaventure High of Columbus, where he starred as a halfback in football. He stands five feet, 10 inches, and weighs 155 pounds. He'll probably be in the backfield this fall at Berkshire School.

Messages from home veritably were devoured by the Pittsfield party here. Copies of the Eagle were read thin. Charley Gilson's photographs of the Sunday meeting of the Rooters' Club at the Warwick Street home of John G. W. Mahanna made a big hit. John put on a party for the radio broadcast of the tournament opener with Berwyn. Fifty copies of the General Electric news were flown to Hastings. The edition featured pictures of five GE parents of Legion players and a poem about the team by sports columnist Louis Russo.

Saturday was Coach Pleau's 46th birthday. Players and fans contributed to a collection for a gift. He shortly will be presented with a set of luggage. Assistant Coach Al Bianchi was in charge of the solicitation. Women fans bought a large birthday cake. Garry Brown, Springfield Union sports writer, also celebrated his birthday Saturday. Pittsfield fans gave a pen and pencil set to him.

Bye System In Tourney Is Criticized

9/6/60

To the Sports Editor:—

I realize this letter will be late, and our Legion team probably will be home, and getting the fine welcome it deserves before it gets in the paper.

After seeing every member of the Legion team participate in the Babe Ruth League in approximately 60 or 70 games in the three years they were in the Babe Ruth League, I scored every game Joe Costanzo pitched in the league—and every game each boy played in while in the league. Accordingly, I'm proud and happy over the fine job this team has done against every obstacle that the Berkshire-Hampden League and state tournament Legion officials have put in front of them, but now it's the national tournament officials who at the time this letter is being written, have placed Pittsfield, a team that has won three games and lost none, "in a losers bracket," by making them play Billings, Mont., tonight.

By all tournament rules, Pittsfield should not play until a winner has been decided among New Orleans, Billings and Miami. Two of these teams should be eliminated, with Pittsfield playing the team that is left.

In other words, the way it is set up Pittsfield can win the national title by winning two games.

But the correct way, and the way it was run in the regionals at Keene, N.H., Pittsfield should have to win only one game to be national champ.

Now, if, and it's a big if, Billings beats Pittsfield tonight and for instance New Orleans beats Miami, there will be three teams left in the tournament, to play for the championship. Who decides which of them plays one another while the third team automatically will play for the championship?

I'm for tournaments if they are run right, but if the Legion officials who figured this one out, think they are right, I'd like to see how they did it. Or maybe they had the winner all picked, but didn't reckon with our Pittsfield team. One way or the other I think there are enough Legionnaires in Berkshire County to raise the devil about it.

NATION'S THIRD BEST JUNIOR BASEBALL TEAM was given a rousing reception last night by a grateful citizenry. More than 8,000 cheered the Pittsfield American Legion team, their parents and coaches, as they passed down North Street in open cars to the Wendell-Sherwood Hotel. They were guests at a Rotary Club-sponsored dinner. Story on Page 27.

Shameful Scoring

FAIR OR FOUL

9/8/60

By Roger O'Gara

EVERYTHING was big league at the American Legion's Little World Series except the scoring. Commissioner Lou Brissie, who seemed to be genuinely concerned about the physical welfare of the players, should do something to improve this important phase of the competition before another season starts. For these young men have feelings, and none should be subjected to the indignities that many experienced in the recent tournament at Hastings Neb.

The home town scorers were brutally harsh, particularly toward infielders. Big league first, second and third basemen and shortstops would attack the press box if they were treated as shabbily as many of these 16 and 17-year-old kids were.

Hard ground shots into the hole at shortstop almost invariably were labeled as errors if the ambitious infielder put a small part of his glove on them. It was a manifestation of the old hard-shelled theory that an error should be charged on anything that a defensive man touches. We have seen some bad scoring in 25 years as a professional newspaperman, but this made some of our section's bumblers look good by contrast.

o—o

STAR SECOND baseman Gary Soldato probably was the victim of the worst call against any Pittsfield player. In the first New Orleans game, Joe McMahon hit a screaming line drive that landed inches in front of Soldato. Gary, as always, gave it a try, but the ball was by him before he could bend. It almost took off one leg.

On some plays, the scorer hesitated before making a decision. On this one, he didn't. He immediately flashed the error sign. When a play is a 50-50 proposition, most spectators don't comment on the scorer's decision. However, this call brought a large chorus of boos, and the singers weren't all from Pittsfield.

Decisions like that hurt two players, the infielder and the batter. And no conscientious pitcher likes to receive exemption when a ball hit off him almost maims one of his teammates.

Third baseman Bobby Magi was another Pittsfield player who was a victim of exceedingly poor judgment. In an early tournament game, he went far to his right to knock down a torrid ground ball beyond the bag and only inches inside the foul line. Many third basemen wouldn't have touched it. For his pains, Magi was charged with an error.

He also was accused of a boot when he flawlessly handled a slow roller to his left. He had to field the ball on the run. Then he straightened to make the throw. It was a good one, but it arrived at first base a split second behind the runner. For exerting himself, he was charged with an error.

o—o

MARK Belanger was robbed of a hit in the tournament opener, not by a member of the fielding team, but by an ill-advised call by the scorer. His slow roller was well to the left of Berwyn third baseman Arnie Vesely. Vesely made a running grab of the ball, and threw off balance to first base. Belanger, a fleet runner, was by the bag when Vesely started to peg. Most scorers take the position of the runner into account on that kind of play. This fellow didn't.

Joey Costanzo also lost credit for a hit. His ground ball in the New Orleans game was hit between the first and second basemen. First baseman Rusty Staub went way out, knocked down the ball, recovered quickly, and flipped to pitcher Dick Roniger, who moved over to cover the vacated base. Costanzo beat the throw. The scorer ruled an error on Staub.

These are only a few of the Pittsfield plays that we thought were called incorrectly. We aren't saying that the man had a special grudge against Pittsfield. Far from that. He made the same kind of rulings against most of the other teams because he apparently didn't know any better.

o—o

POSSESSION OF a score book and a pencil doesn't make a man a competent scorer. In far too many instances in amateur baseball, the man entrusted with the book doesn't begin to know the rules of scoring and doesn't have good judgment. Persons with those deficiencies can cause a lot of damage.

For, particularly in such a tournament, a boy's batting and field records are of extreme importance to him. Yet incompetent scorers can and often do make a good player look bad, solely because they don't bother to learn the truly complex job that they unconcernedly have accepted.

Actually, scoring a baseball game in which more than five persons are interested, is a public trust. What a team or individual does in games interests the entire community. So if the report or official box score is prepared by a man totally unqualified, how can an overall accurate picture be given?

o—o

TOMMY MacCartney will be the fourth Pittsfield American Legion junior baseball player to benefit if the national age limit should be extended eight months. Our story the other night said Gary Soldato, Paul O'Gara and Ted Friel would be the only ones to receive a break. MacCartney was born March 1, 1943. This means he would be all right by two months.

So Pittsfield shouldn't be hurting for pitching next year. If MacCartney and Friel should make it, the Legion also would have Ray Woitkowski, Johnny Tagliaferro and Ronnie Kelly.

o—o

MYRON WHITING, Pittsfield jeweler, made the trip to the American Legion's Little World Series at Hastings, Neb., alone on the train. He stayed at the Hotel Clarke, which was tournament headquarters. Myron was under doctor's orders not to get excited. He suffered a heart attack some time ago. He had a supply of pills with him.

Nat Valenti of Pittsfield saw all except the last game of the tournament. He received a telegram to report back to work at the General Electric Company on Tuesday, so left.

Bob Boland, Pittsfield High teacher, and Tony and John Sottile, recent PHS football players, were at Hastings. When Pittsfield had two successive days off following the win over Berwyn, Ill., they took a 2,500-mile motor trip through the Rocky Mountains.

MOST HIGH SCHOOLS and some small colleges in Nebraska will open their football seasons Friday night or Saturday afternoon. The squads have been working out since mid-August.

8,000 See Parade, 400 at Reception for

Rotary Donates Toward Fund To Give Club Recognition

Bill Summers, Main Speaker, Praises Local Players, Joe Costanzo; Team Gets Messages From Ike, Mass. Senators

By BILL MAHAN

A reception, probably proportionately greater, considering the size of the cities involved, than the one given the Milwaukee Braves on their return to the Wisconsin city after being squeezed out of the National League pennant on the final day in the mid-50s, was accorded the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team last night at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood. The reception consisted of a dinner for the players and coaches and a program headed by retired American League umpire Bill Summers.

Parade First

The dinner was preceded by a parade from Wahconah Park to the hotel down North Street. Each player accompanied by his family, rode in an open convertible. An estimated 8,000 people lined the streets to cheer the automobile caravan. Marching in the parade were the Eagles and Turnverein bands, the Pittsfield High band and Cadettes, the Imperial and Boys' Club Cavaliers' drum crops and an American Legion detachment and color guard led by outgoing Comdr. Edwin McLaughlin and the new commander, Joseph Madison.

Fred Fahey, master of ceremonies and program director of the Pittsfield Rotary Club, which sponsored the reception in cooperation with the Pittsfield American Legion Post 68, pretsented Legion athletic officer Clement Ferris with a check. Fahey expressed the hope that the check will be the start of a fund which something will be done to give the boys fitting recognition for their accomplishments.

Summers, the main attraction of the speaking program, was high in his praise of the Pittsfield Legion team in its opening game of the Little World Series in Hastings, Neb. Summers was present for that contest in which Pittsfield defeated Berwyn, Ill. 9-6. He also told many humorous stories of his years as an umpire.

The long-time umpire had special accolades for pitcher Joe Costanzo. He told of watching Costanzo pitch great ball for seven innings against Berwyn, and then appear to tire. Summers said he watched the little Pittsfield right hander pitch the last two innings on heart alone, and get the win.

The main speaker advised Costanzo to "eat like hell for the next few years and put on some weight." Summers reminded the assembly that Bobby Shantz is not very big either.

A Pittsfield Fan

The retired American League arbiter praised the team for playing great ball in that one game he was able to see. He said when he was in the stands Pittsfield had one more fan as he worked his first professional game in Pittsfield in 1921.

Summers acknowledged his other Pittsfield connections. He said he umpired with Dr. Charley (Pep) Fasce, who Summers said would have been a major league umpire if he had not turned to medicine, and PHS coach Nick Morris who once coached Summers' four boys. The speaker is a resident of Upton.

The ex-major league umpire concluded with good luck wishes for the boys and the advice to keep playing baseball, because the big leagues need players. He pointed out that 15 or 20 years ago there were more than 300 leagues, but now there are only 23. He stated he thought that quite a few of the boys would have a chance in organized ball.

Players Introduced

The players were introduced by Berkshire Eagle sportswriter and photographer Bill Mahan, WBRK sportscaster Tom Kirby, and Eagle sports editor and WBEC tournament sportscaster Roger O'Gara. Mahan introduced third baseman Bob Magi, outfielder-pitcher John Tagliaferro, and pitchers Ted Friel, Tommy MacCartney and Joe Costanzo.

Kirby introduced shortstop Mark Belanger, outfielder Paul O'Gara, outfielder-pitcher Ray Woitkowski, and outfielder Tom Varanka. O'Gara did the introductions for catcher Mike Bates, first baseman Ronnie Kelly, catcher George Garivaltis, and captain and second baseman Gary (Red) Soldato.

Coach George (Red) Pleau made the introductions for the members of his staff. They were assistant coachess Nato Cianfarini, Romulo (Slo) Magi, Al Bianchi, trainer Harold (Huddy) Huddleston and team manager August (Gus) Kiligas, whom Pleau called "as much a member of the team as anyone." The coach thanked the parents and relatives of the players for those fine boys.

The speaking program was presented to a capacity audience of 400 in the hotel ballroom. Rotary president David W. Northwood gave the welcoming address on behalf of the Rotary Club. The American Legion color guard presented the colors and Legion chaplain Donald Palmer gave the invocation.

Northwood introduced master of ceremonies Fahey. Mayor Haughey, the first speaker, expressed the collective congratulations on behalf of the city. He said the boys had done a "terrific job in bringing the name of Pittsfield far and wide." The city's chief executive told of the compliments he had received on the good conduct of the local team members.

Comdr. McLaughlin read a resolution of congratulations from the Massachusetts House of Representatives. The resolution was introduced by Rep. Thomas Wojtkowski. He also had a message from President Dwight Eisenhower, whose attention had been drawn to the exploits of the local team by Congressman Silvio Conte. McLaughlin told of how the good sportsmanship of the Pittsfield team had won the hearts of the people in both Keene, N.H. and in Hastings. He complimented the parents, for he said those qualities were born in the boys and taught before they ever reached Legion ball.

Ferris Thanks Cooperators

Athletic officer Ferris expressed appreciation to Pittsfield radio stations WBEC and WBRK, to New York state stations WPTR and WTRY and to the Berkshire Eagle and Springfield Union for their coverage and cooperation, to local uniform sponsors, car donators, bands and drum corps which marched in all the parades, Sheriff Bruce McIntyre, Park Superintendant Vincent Hebert, members of the Legion athletic committee and sponsors of the tournament broadcasts.

Ferris also read messages of congratulations from Springfield Mayor Thomas O'Connor, Frederick Noyes, Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, and Senator John Kennedy. Ferris closed with his thanks to the Rotary Club for sponsoring the reception.

Others at the head table besides the speakers were retired Berkshire Eagle sports editor John Flynn, Legion athletic committee members Donald Farr and Harry Tyler, and Dr. Thomas Norton, J. Edward Dery and John Lynch, all members of the Rotary arrangements committee.

A half a broiler dinner was served. Music during the meal was furnished by Morton Wayne's orchestra.

Pittsfield Legion Begins Quest for Northeast Title Tomorrow at Keene

Local Team Departs at 1 This Afternoon by Bus

Staten Island Will Be First Opponent Of Mass. Champions; Regional Survivor Advances to Nationals at Hastings, Neb.

By BILL MAHAN

The Pittsfield Legion baseball team boarded its Yellow Coach bus at 1 this afternoon for Keene, N.H., for what could be either its last trip of the season or another milestone in a journey to Hastings, Neb. Pittsfield will represent Massachusetts in the American Legion Northeast regionals, which start tomorrow afternoon at Keene.

Survivor Goes to Nationals

The champions of the six New England states and New York play each other on a double elimination basis. The survivor will be the Northeast representative at the national tournament in Hastings Aug. 28 through Sept. 3.

Accompanying the team, in addition to Coach George (Red) Pleau, are Nato Cianfarini, his assistant, and Manager August (Gus) Kiligas. Lou Perachi, one of the Legion's most loyal rooters, is driving the bus. The trip figures to be about three hours.

Coach Pleau was in hopes of having a drill at Keene's Alumni Field where the regionals will be played, but a check yesterday revealed that no teams are allowed to practice there except in pregame warm-ups immediately preceding their contests. State director Tom Murray of South Boston has made arrangements for another field where the local boys may work out. The team will be quartered at the Eagle Hotel in Keene.

The local club's first game will be tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 against the Huttner-Pasqualini post of Staten Island, N.Y. The regional opener, starting at 1, will be between White River Junction, Vt., and Portland, Maine. The Eastern defending champion, West Hartford, Conn., and West Warwick, R.I., will play tomorrow night at 7:30. Concord, N.H., draws a first round bye.

Seven other regional eliminations are also in the process of being played or will be played this weekend. They are at College Park, Md., Wilmington, N.C., Newport, Ark., Princeton, Ind., Bismark, N.D., Billings, Mont., and Bend, Ore.

All the Pittsfield games will be carried locally by radio station WBEC. Roger O'Gara, sports editor of The Eagle, will do the play by play and Jim Archey will handle the color.

AAA Suggests 2 Ways To Legion Regionals In Keene, N.H.

Pittsfield people who will motor to Keene, N.H., for the American Legion regional baseball tournament are given a choice of two routes by the Berkshire County AAA office. Both ways are approximately 100 miles.

The first suggested way is via Route 7 to Bennington, Vt., and then by Route 9 to Keene. The second is to North Adams, then on Route 2 to Greenfield, and by Route 10 from Greenfield to Keene.

The games will be played at Alumni Field. Ask directions upon arrival in Keene.

Pittsfield Legion Has Mark Of 30 Won, 7 Lost for Season

9/7/60

By BILL MAHAN

On July 2, the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team opened its season with a 2-1 win over Westfield in Westfield. The team, with a large nucleus of Pittsfield High state interscholastic champions, figured to be strong. It was strong.

Nine weeks later to the day, Sept. 3, the Pittsfield Legion team was eliminated from the American Legion Little World Series in Hastings, Neb., 1,500 miles away with third honors in a program that embraces 33,000 teams. Pittsfield played 37 games and finished with a record of 30 victories and 7 defeats.

Pittsfield has the satisfaction of a victory over the national champion. The Massachusetts team beat New Orleans 4-1 in their first meeting at Hastings. Louisiana took the second contest 6-1 to eliminate Pittsfield from the event. Dick Roniger, who was picked "Player of the Year," was the losing pitcher in the first game although he only gave up two hits.

Joe Costanzo, Pittsfield's right-handed pitching ace, was named the outstanding player in the regional tournament in Keene, N.H. Keene is making an effort to get the Little World Series there in 1962. It will take place in Los Angeles, Calif., in 1961. The proposal that the national competition be held at Hastings each year has been turned down. If the country-wide championships should move to Keene, the regional affair would be changed, probably to Massachusetts.

Gary Soldato was the only Pittsfield regular to finish up the season with a better than .300 average. The Pittsfield second baseman had a final mark of .325. Pitcher Ted Friel had a .500 average but had been to bat only eight times. The team average was .241.

Costanzo was the winningest pitcher with an 11-2 record. Southpaw Tommy MacCartney finished 10-3.

Costanzo, Soldato and shortstop Mark Belanger made the Springfield Union's national tournament team. The same three, and center fielder Ray Woitkowski were named to the all-regional squad.

The final batting averages are:

	AB	H	Ave.
Ted Friel	8	4	.500
Gary Soldato	123	40	.325
George Garivaltis	150	41	.273

FAIR OR FOUL

By Roger O'Gara

UNTIL A few days ago, Staten Island was only a bridge link from New York to New Jersey. Now it becomes of major importance to us as Pittsfield's opponent in the opening round of the Northeastern American Legion junior baseball tournament tomorrow afternoon at Keene, N. H.

How good is the New York state champion? Based solely on what we saw in its titular game against Buffalo Saturday afternoon at Cooperstown, N.Y., we can say that this is a sound club, but not a great one.

Like any group of New York City athletes, this team has great confidence in itself. You could say it swaggers a little. It fields well. It runs the bases intelligently. Most of its young men have good speed, and will take an extra base if an outfielder is sleeping or boots the ball.

o—o

AGAINST BUFFALO, it was a chip-hitting outfit. It didn't show any long ball potential. Four of its nine hits were doubles, but three of these stemmed from pedal speed and not power.

Catcher Frank Fernandez, right fielder Carvin Young and pitcher Lennert Olsen appeared capable of hitting the ball a respectable distance. Fernandez and Young had two hits apiece. Olsen went none for four, but drove two long flies to the outfield.

Staten Island tried to bunt three times, succeeded only once. Andy Kelly attempted to beat one out as the second batter in the first inning. He was an easy out. The sacrifice worked once, failed once. Their only steal try was successful. It was made with one out in the sixth inning and the score tied. Staten Island will go for the extra base on a hit, but doesn't seem to be a team that will be trying often to steal second base.

o—o

SHORTSTOP Mickey Radigan is a tall, thin boy who can go well to either side. He leaps well on line drives, and has a strong arm. Nonetheless, we think Pittsfield's Mark Belanger is better. Mark ranges more widely, and throws even harder than Radigan.

Alan Cooper, Buffalo's best pitcher, bothered Staten Island as long as he could control his curve ball. The New Yorkers looked weak against it even when it broke right through the middle. They also showed a tendency to blink when he threw his fast ball down the pipe.

Olsen, who undoubtedly will pitch against Pittsfield, isn't anywhere near Joey Costanzo in speed or curve. His curve isn't bad when it's breaking sharply, but it often hangs. He effectively hits the outside corner to a right-handed batter with both his curve and fast ball.

o—o

WITH A LONG REST, Costanzo should be set for one of his great games. We think he'll shackle Staten Island. We also look for Pittsfield to hit fairly well against Olsen.

Pittsfield runners should respect Young's arm. He can fire strikes from right field. He and center fielder Tony Manzella go back well on fly balls. Manzella, a left-handed thrower, seems to be loafing on deep drives, but he gets there.

Fernandez can throw. He isn't afraid to drive the ball down to second base if the runner on first goes down with a man on third. With a right-hander at bat in the Buffalo game, Radigan nonetheless came over from shortstop to take Fernandez' peg near the bag, and his good return throw to the plate cut down what would have been the tying run.

o—o

LET'S PRESENT a capsule estimate of each player:

Sollazo, first base: The team's only left-handed batter; he usually hits to the opposite field. He's a good glove man, although he stands only five feet, eight inches.

Kelly, second base: Didn't impress as a hitter. Didn't have any chance to excel in the field. Still, he must be good. He made the All-Hearst team in New York.

Radigan, shortstop: He'll reach out and hit the ball. He had two hits against Buffalo, but also fanned twice. Good curve bothers him. Better than average fielder. Strong arm. Charges rollers well.

Romanolo, third baseman: Bats third, but didn't look like much of a hitter. Blinks on the curve. Goes well to his left on grounder close to the hole. Has a strong arm.

Manzella, center fielder: Right-handed batter, but hit twice to first base or right field side. Runs well. An excellent fielder.

Young, right fielder: Considerably above average both at bat and in the field. His line shot to right field was hardest hit ball in Buffalo game. Superb arm.

Fernandez, catcher: Husky, eager hitter. Meets a ball with authority. Throws well. He also was a Hearst selectee.

Olsen, pitcher: Inclined to be shaky and wild in early innings. Looks formidable at bat. He overworks his curve. His fast ball has zip, but doesn't appear over-powering.

o—o

A BEE BITE almost kept Ray Woitkowski from pitching Pittsfield to victory over Brockton in the Legion junior baseball state championship game. Ray was mowing the lawn at home on the morning of the big contest when he suddenly was stung. A large rash developed, and he felt ill. His parents called a doctor, who administered treatment. Several hours later, Ray was as good as new.

o—o

EDDIE CONNOLLY Jr., of Pittsfield is hitting the long ball as well as pitching well for the Yarmouth team of the Lower Cape Cod League. He recently hit four home runs in two games. He had two in each. In the first contest, he drove in six runs. There were two men on each each time he hit for the circuit. Eddie plays in the outfield when he isn't pitching.

o—o

RECENT appendectomies: Marty O'Gara, former Dalton High athlete, and Dickson Scott, ex-sports writer for The Eagle. Marty is an administrative manager for Aeronutronic, a division of the Ford Motor Co., at Natick. He lives in Framingham. Dick is a desk man for the New Haven (Conn.) Register, and resides in Wallingford, Conn.

New Orleans Tops Billings For Legion Title

HASTINGS, Neb.—New Orleans, La., pulled a mild surprise by defeating Billings, Mont., 9-3 in the finals of the national American Legion junior baseball championship tournament at Duncan Field here Sunday night. It was the second national crown in 14 years for New Orleans.

Bonus baby prospect Dave McNally of Billings was the victim of a seven-run uprising in the sixth inning. He gave five bases on balls in that round, and two hits and an error also hurt. Paul Highland relieved McNally, who went to right field and committed a two-run error.

Dick Roniger went all the way for the winners, limiting Billings to six hits. Roniger was voted player of the year. He had a two and one record. His only loss was to Pittsfield, Mass. 4-1.

Bob Fry, Billings center fielder, received two awards. He won the batting championship with an average of .460, and also was voted the best sportsman.

Huddy Thanks Contributors To Trip Fund

Harold (Huddy) Huddleston, trainer for the Pittsfield American Legion junior baseball team, today thanked those who contributed to the fund from which his expenses for trips to Keene, N.H., and Hastings, Neb., were paid. More than $1,300 was raised by Local 255 IUE in a plant-gate collection at the General Electric Co. to send Huddleston and assistant coaches Nato Cianfarini, Romolo (Slo) Magi and Al Bianchi to the tournaments in those cities.

In a letter to the sports editor, Huddleston wrote as follows: "I wish to take this occasion to thank publicly each and everyone who helped to make it possible for me to attend the regional playoffs in Keene, N.H., and the Little World Series at Hastings, Neb., with the American Legion Post 68 junior baseball team. They gave me an opportunity to be a small part of a truly great baseball team, and I shall treasure the many pleasant memories which will remain with me forever."

Pittsfield America

Officials Set 10:30 Curfew For Participating Players

If Pittsfield Wins First Two Games It Will Draw a Bye on Saturday and Won't Have a Night Game Until Monday

By BILL MAHAN

KEENE, N.H.—Win or lose, the Pittsfield American Legion baseball team will have two afternoon games in its first two appearances in the regional tournament at Alumni Field here. The tournament schedule calls for the loser of the White River Junction (Vt.)-Portland (Maine) contest today at 1 p.m. to meet the loser of the Staten Island (N.Y.)-Pittsfield game, which starts today at 3:30 p.m., in the first game tomorrow afternoon at 1. The winners of the two games this afternoon will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

10:30 Curfew

At a meeting last night at the Keene American Legion home tournament chairman Karl (Gubby) Underwood announced that a 10:30 p.m. curfew will be enforced for all players during the regional. The ruling received the hearty endorsement of the coaches and officials. It probably will meet with the approval of the parents at home, though it probably is not popular with the boys.

The Pittsfield club left the Legion home on Wendell Avenue shortly after 1 yesterday afternoon, traveling by Yellow Coach bus, the team arrived at its quarters at the Eagle Hotel here about 4. A minor crisis developed when the hotel management said it had reservations for the players but not the adults. This was remedied by moving cots into some of the rooms.

The Berkshire County boys have no night game in prospect until Monday, at least if they are successful up to that point. The way the slate is set up, if Pittsfield wins its first two games it will draw a bye Saturday and will not return to action until Sunday afternoon at 4. There will be no night game Sunday.

Pittsfield's ace right hander, Joe Costanzo, gets the first mound assignment today against Staten Island. Lennert Olson, a six-foot, 165-pounder who pitched the win in the New York State finals last Saturday at Cooperstown against Buffalo, will be the probable New York hurler. Coach Pleau probably will go with the rotation he used through the Massachusetts playoff, and start southpaw Tommy MacCartney tomorrow.

The Maine entry is also housed at the Eagle Hotel, with Pittsfield. West Warwick, R.I., Staten Island and West Hartford, Conn. are staying at the Ellis Hotel. Concord, N.H., and the Vermont champions are quartered at the Colonial House. Most of the accommodations have been taken by now and rooms are hard to find in this city of 18,000. Assisting Underwood with arrangements are Massachusetts State Director Tom Murray of South Boston, Mass., and Sidney Schwartz of the Legion National Americanism Committee. Four New Hampshire umpires will handle the game.

Little League Day

Among special events planned for the tournament, are Little League Day today, with Little Leaguers from Cheshire County, Brattleboro, Vt., and Bellows Falls admitted free if in uniform.

Ladies' night for tomorrow night's action will permit women to be admitted for half price. Among dignitaries expected during the regional are Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire and ex-big league pitcher Joe Dobson of nearby Munsonville.

Harold (Huddy) Huddleston of Pittsfield is the oldest mascot in the tournament. The Pittsfield vocal rooter is 53. He reported that his larynx, like Joey Costanzo's arm, is well rested for the big event. Arriving yesterday, along with the 13 players, were Coach Pleau, Manager Gus Kiligas, assistant coaches Nato Cianfarini and Romolo (Slo) Magi, Al Bianchi, bus driver Lou Perachi and, of course, Huddy. The Pittsfield party stopped in Greenfield for lunch en route here yesterday afternoon. Coach Pleau said he requested Perachi to stop after most of the players insisted they were having hunger pains.

Good Field

Alumni Field looks like an excellent surface. It has a bountiful supply of grass in the infield as well as the outfield. It is level, too. The distances from home plate are 322 feet at the right field line, 350 in deep center and 330 at the left field line. The pitching mound is elevated. A wire fence runs from the right field to center field. The remainder of the barrier is a low, wooden snow fence extending to the left field line. A large grandstand is located just off the first base line. Bleachers extend along the third base line. Tournament officials say that the capacity is 1,500. However, they are prepared to erect another set of bleachers along the right field line, if such additional seats should be necessary.

Keene's Legion members are experienced tournament handlers. The New England regional and Eastern sectional events were held here last year. Milford won the regional, West Hartford the sectional. A Sunday game between West Hartford and Milford drew more than 4,000 paid admissions. Pittsfield people planning to attend the tournament would do well to purchase their tickets at an advance outlet. A book of five costs only $1.50. Prices at the gates here will be $1 for the afternoon doubleheader, and 75 cents for a single night contest.

Starting Times

Starting time through the early days of the tournament will be 1 and 3:30 in the afternoon and 7:50 in the evening. Keene boasts that it has the widest Main Street in the nation. It stretches so far that automobiles are parked in the middle of the street. Yes, it beats spacious North Street in Pittsfield. James O'Neil, editor of the American Legion National Magazine is here from New York City for the entire tournament. It's a visit home for him. A former resident of Manchester, he is the only New Hampshire man ever elected to the national commandership. At one time he was a newspaperman, and he also was chief of police in Manchester. Dick Connors of Albany, the highly confident commissioner of the program in New York State, will arrive tomorrow. He will be the house guest of Commissioner Underwood. The tournament is advertised on the outskirts of the city on a large billboard strip.

Pittsfield Legion Loses Toss, Plays New Orleans Tonight 9/3/60

Billings, Mont. drew the bye into Sunday's championship game in the American Legion World Series at Hastings, Neb. Pittsfield will meet New Orleans, La., at 10 o'clock tonight for the right to play Billings. Lefthander Tom MacCartney will start for Pittsfield.

HASTINGS, Neb. — Billings, Mont., avenged an earlier 9-5 loss to Pittsfield by scoring an 8-2 victory in an American Legion Little World Series contest here last night. Steve Huntsberry, the second half of the best pair of pitchers in the tournament, set down Pittsfield on three hits and struck out 13.

All Teams Are 3-1

The loss drops Pittsfield from the undefeated ranks in the tournament, and leaves Pittsfield, New Orleans, La. and Billings left in the tournament with similar 3-1 marks. An all-important coin toss after the game will decide which team gets a bye into the championship game Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. (EDT). The other two teams will play tomorrow night at 10 p.m. (EDT) for the right to meet the winner of the toss.

The game last night was a thriller for three innings until Billings broke the game open with five runs off Pittsfield's Ray Woitkowski in the fourth inning. That ended the scoring for the day, as Johnny Tagliaferro came in to pitch five shutout innings in relief, allowing only two hits, while Huntsberry continued to mow down Pittsfield.

Billings opened with two runs in the first inning on a triple by leadoff batter Bob Fry, a single, and two errors. Pittsfield came back with two runs in the second. A single by George Garivaltis, a hit batsman and a walk loaded the bases. Tom Varanka singled past third for one run and Paul O'Gara was hit by a pitch to force in the second run.

Then, in what was perhaps the turning point of the game, Bob Magi sent a long fly ball to left field. With two runners already across the plate, Billings leftfielder Karl Letwak made a great running one-handed catch at the last second to save probably three runs and end the inning.

Billings went ahead to stay in the third inning on Letwak's single, a sacrifice and a line single by Lito. Breaking the game open in a five-run fourth inning, Billings scored five runs. Fox walked and was forced by Bell. Huntsberry reached on a fielder's choice. Fry walked to load the bases. The first run scored when Garivaltis dropped Magi's throw to the plate on a ground ball by Letwak. Cochran singled solidly to right for two runs.

Cochran stole second. Lito hit safely, to right field, scoring Letwak, but O'Gara's fine throw to the plate cut off Cochran at the plate Garivaltis beat out an infield hit to lead off the inning for Post 68. Belanger was hit by Huntsberry to put two on and an attempted sacrifice was foiled by getting Garivaltis at third.

Dipping Fast Ball

Huntsberry's fast ball seemed to offer a problem to Pittsfield as it dipped on the way to the plate. He lost control to load the bases on a walk and bring up Ray Woitkowski with one out. He was able to handcuff Ray but Tom Varanka score one run and load the bases with the score 2-1. Paul O'Gara was then hit by a pitch to drive in the tying run. The Billings pitcher worked the count to three and two on Magi before the latter flied to left field to retire the side.

Letwak singled to right and was sacrificed to second on a bunt by Cochran. Lito hit to Varanka to Tom McCartney will start if Pittsfield plays tonight. He has six innings of eligibility, Costanzo three. Both Costanzo and McCartney will have the full 12 innings of eligibility if Pittsfield receives a bye into Sunday's title game.

Pittsfield's overall record is now 30 - 6.

The inning-by-inning score:

Bob Fry tripled as the first man up for Billings. The ball got by Tom Varanka for extra bases. Letwak then popped out to Bobby Magi at third. Chocran flied to left fielder Tagliaferro.

Lito singled to center to score Fry and make the score 1-0. Lito then stole second on the next pitch.

Bayne hit a grounder down to Mark Belanger who bobbled it and all runners were safe. This made men on first and second.

A hit by McIntosh went to Magi who threw to first but it was not in time and another run scored to make it 2-0, Billings.

Woitkowski struck out the last batter to retire the side.

O'Gara, first man up, struck out.

The second man, Magi, struck out on a called third strike.

A fly ball retired the side for Pittsfield.

The inning was opened by a line drive by Bell, Billings catcher, to Tag who made a running one-handed catch for the out.

Woitkowski retired the rest of the side with strikeouts.

Legion Urges Group Effort To Honor Team

The American Legion Athletic Committee met here last night to discuss plans to honor Pittsfield's ball team when the players return from the Little World Series in Hastings, Neb.

In an effort to forestall duplication of events and awards to the junior ballplayers and their coach, the committee urged that all plans for expressions of appreciation be channeled through the American Legion.

Clement A. Ferris, a member of the athletic committee, suggested that anyone interested in doing something for the team contact him. "Let's see if we can't coordinate our efforts," he said.

Mr. Ferris added that a meeting will be scheduled soon which will give all organizations and individuals in the county an opportunity to make suggestions for honoring the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team.

A plea was also made today for more convertibles for Wednesday's parade from Wahconah Park to the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood. Any public-spirited citizen willing to lend his convertible for the occasion should contact Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of parks and recreation, at the Park Department.

...mall burst in the second inning. Belanger reached on an error in the sixth, Kelly singled to left to open the seventh, and Belanger and pinchhitter Mike Bates walked in the ninth to become the only other Pittsfield base-runners.

Huntsberry is supposed to be only the second-best pitcher on the Billings staff, with Dave McNally taking most of the publicity spotlight. But he did the best job of handcuffing Pittsfield that has been done so far. He became the first pitcher at Hastings to exhibit control against Pittsfield, walking only three. Legion Group Calls Meeting For Monday Night

10/4/60

A meeting of all persons interested in assisting in the recognition night planned for Pittsfield's American Legion Northeastern junior baseball champions has been scheduled for Monday night at 7:30 at the Legion Home.

Preliminary discussion was held last evening at the home.

Atty. Clement Ferris, the Legion's athletic officer, said, "We would like all organizations and individuals who have planned to recognize the boys to join with us in one big effort."

Pittsfield's Unofficial Hosts

FAIR OR FOUL

By Roger O'Gara

HASTINGS, Neb. — The hospitable Hopp brothers are living athletic legends in this sports conscious city. Throughout the American Legion's Little World Series, they have been hosts without portfolio.

Fellow townsmen acclaim them as much for many acts of kindness as for considerable achievements in competition. This is indeed a rarity in an era of pampered athletes.

Ex-major league baseball player Johnny Hopp is a public relations representative for the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company. He entertained a large group of baseball men at a picnic at his home prior to the games Wednesday night. Present were major league scouts, tournament officials and newspaper and radio men.

o—o

FORMER FOOTBALL stars Albert (Ruff) Hopp and Harry (Hippity) Hopp are associated in the operation of a vending machine business.

They took it upon themselves to make the stay pleasant for several members of the Pittsfield delegation.

Johnny is the best known, because he was in the news longer. He played 13 seasons in the majors, starting with the St. Louis Cardinals, and finishing with the Detroit Tigers. In between, he was with the Boston Braves, the Brooklyn Dodgers, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees.

Johnny speaks in a subdued voice. Seated at a desk, he looks more like a business executive than a former athlete. He stands only five feet, eight and one-half inches, weighs 175 pounds. He wears a bow tie, and smokes a pipe. He was 44 years old in July.

Johnny smiled broadly when we asked about his weight.

"Not an ounce more than when I was playing," he said, "but a little softer."

o—o

"LITTLE DID I realize when I was interviewed by sports writers that I would be asking those same five questions in a few years," he admitted. "But I like it."

He was referring to his part in preparing the monthly publication for employes.

This is one of several duties he has had since he joined the company three and one-half years ago.

He makes public appearances roughout the area served by mpany. This includes parts nsas, Nebraska, Colorado klahoma. "I appear before civic clubs and at father-on athletic award ban-s," he explained.

Johnny has spent considerable time in beating the drums for the Little World Series in the two years it has been held in Hastings. He recently traveled for two days with Commissioner Lou Brissie.

How does he feel about Hastings as a permanent site?

"Naturally, I'd like it," he said. "The people of Hastings would welcome it. They have a tremendous feeling for it and desire to have it here. However, Hastings isn't selfish. We realize that it has been the policy to pass the tournament around. I don't know how Lou Brissie feels about it, but I would say that Hastings would support it year in and year out.

o—o

"AN ATHLETE is a type of entertainer," Johnny continued. "No performer likes to show before an empty theater. Actors and ball players both get inspiration from performing with many people watching them. A full park in Hastings is more help to a player than a handful of people in some big league stadium."

Johnny was in three World Series with the Cardinals and two with the Yankees. He's had a lot of thrills, but rates three as the greatest. The first was his first major league hit as a pinch-hitter late in 1939. The next was his participation in the 1942 World Series. And the third was that day in 1950 when he went six for six in a game at Chicago. He had two homers, two doubles and two singles.

He follows the major league races closely, but doesn't see many games. His work keeps him busy, and the remaining time is spent with the family and at golf and fishing.

He picked New York and San Francisco as pennant winners last spring. He's glad that he was wrong on the National League, because he feels the Pittsburgh fans deserve a winner.

His son, John Jr., who was 16 in July, is an athlete, but hasn't shown much interest in baseball. His favorite sports are track and golf. He's already bigger than his father, standing five feet, 10 inches and weighing 165 pounds. He was on Hastings High's state championship 880-yard relay team last spring.

o—o

TERRY, the only daughter, will be a senior at Arizona State College at Temple, Ariz., this fall. She's majoring in physical education. She aspires to be a professional golfer. She has been women's champion at the Hastings Country Club for three years.

Least known of the brothers from a national athletic standpoint is Ruff, the oldest. He's 46. However, Ruff is the most colorful, and alumni at Hastings College will tell you he was the greatest.

That's because he was the terror of the Plains States as a burly, fleet-running back for Hastings, where he was graduated in 1937. Johnny attended Hastings only one year, then left for pro baseball.

Ruff's nickname derives from his pugnacity, rough, you know. He was christened shortly after he arrived on campus, and now just about everyone in this part of Nebraska calls him Ruff. He's even listed that way in the phone book.

Ruff looks like a barrel. As a collegian, he packed 192 pounds on a five-foot, nine-inch frame. He hit into the line with lightning-like speed and powerful fury, old timers tell you. Ruff says he weighs no more now than he did when he was in college. This is one of his little jokes.

Ruff's legs look like tree trunks.

Ruff talks in a drawl that seems to be somewhere between the Deep South and the Ozarks. He's an inveterate story teller. Dizzy Dean anecdotes are his favorites. Johnny is the source. Ruff adds spice.

o—o

HARRY WAS known as Hippity when he was leading Nebraska to Big Six titles. He received considerable All-America mention in 1940. He played with Nebraska's Cornhuskers against Stanford in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, 1941. Stanford won 21-13.

Harry played with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League in 1941, 1942 and 1943. Then he entered the Navy. After discharge, he spent three seasons in the All-America Conference, because, as he said, "the money was much better." He was with the Buffalo Bisons in 1945 and 1946 and with the Los Angeles Dons in 1947.

Harry also showed considerable promise as a pitcher. The St. Louis Cardinals were interested, he said, but Branch Rickey didn't come close to the bid the Detroit Lions extended. So he choose football.

Harry is six feet tall. He weighs 220, which is five pounds more than he carried as a pro.

There are three other brothers. Wally is an amateur golf star. He also is an ex-Nebraska back. Cliff played football at Nebraska and Georgia, and now is basketball coach and a teacher at Columbus (Neb.) High. Willie is a machinist at Inglewood, Calif.

"Willie didn't play sports much," Ruff said, "but he was our local marble champion."

o—o

THERE ARE three sisters. The Hopps are of German extraction. Father John was born in Frank-Russia, Germany. His wife, the former Aline Schreiner, is a native of Hastings, but her parents came from Germany. Dad Hopp used to operate railroad poultry cars into both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. He now is proprietor of a package store here.

Large Crowd Will Honor Legion Team

Festivities Include Parade, Reception, Speaking Program

The advance sale of tickets indicates that tonight's homecoming reception at the Hotel Wendell-Sherwood for the Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team will be a sell-out. The festivities will begin at 6:30 with a parade from Wahconah Park to North Street to the hotel.

The parade will include the Pittsfield High band and the PHS Cadettes, the Eagles and Turnverin bands, which are playing with permission of Musicians Local 109, a motorcade of the players and their families in open cars and some Rotarians and Legionaires.

Fred Fahey, who is 1960 Rotary program chairman and is in charge of arrangements for tonight will be master of ceremonies for the dinner program. Rotary President David Northwood will make the opening remarks and lead in the singing of "America."

Pittsfield Post 68 Chaplain Donald C. Palmer will give the invocation. The welcome of the city will be extended by Mayor Raymond L. Haughey. The Legion's welcome will be given by Post Cmdr. Edwin F. McLaughlin. Post 68 athletic officer Clement Ferris will follow with brief remarks.

Players will be introduced by Bill Mahan, sportswriter and photographer of The Berkshire Eagle, Tom Kirby, WBRK sportscaster, and Roger O'Gara, sports editor of The Berkshire Eagle. Coach George (Red) Pleau will introduce his assistants.

Chairman Fahey will name the committees from Rotary and the Legion, who arranged the reception, and will then present a check on behalf of the people assembled.

It is hoped that the check will be the start of a fund which will be used to give the team suitable recognition for its great accomplishments.

Bill Summers, retired American League umpire and main speaker, will conclude the program. His talk will include many stories of his experiences as a minor and major league umpire.

Pittsfield Team Leaving Wednesday For Keene Tourney

AUG 13 1960

The Massachusetts state championship Pittsfield Legion junior baseball team will leave by bus Wednesday morning about 11:30 for Keene, N.H., for the Northeast regional tournament. Pittsfield's first game in the tourney will be Thursday afternoon at 3:30 with the New York champion.

The New York final is this afternoon at Cooperstown, N.Y., between teams from Buffalo and Staten Island.

Coach George (Red) Pleau reports that his Pittsfield team is in first class shape. Catcher George Garivaltis' spike wound, suffered in the state final with Brockton Monday night, has healed perfectly and the four stitches are being removed today.

Coach Pleau has held practice sessions Thursday night and last night at Clapp Park, and has scheduled drills for Monday and Tuesday nights. The practices are mostly confined to battling to keep the local team in good hitting fettle.

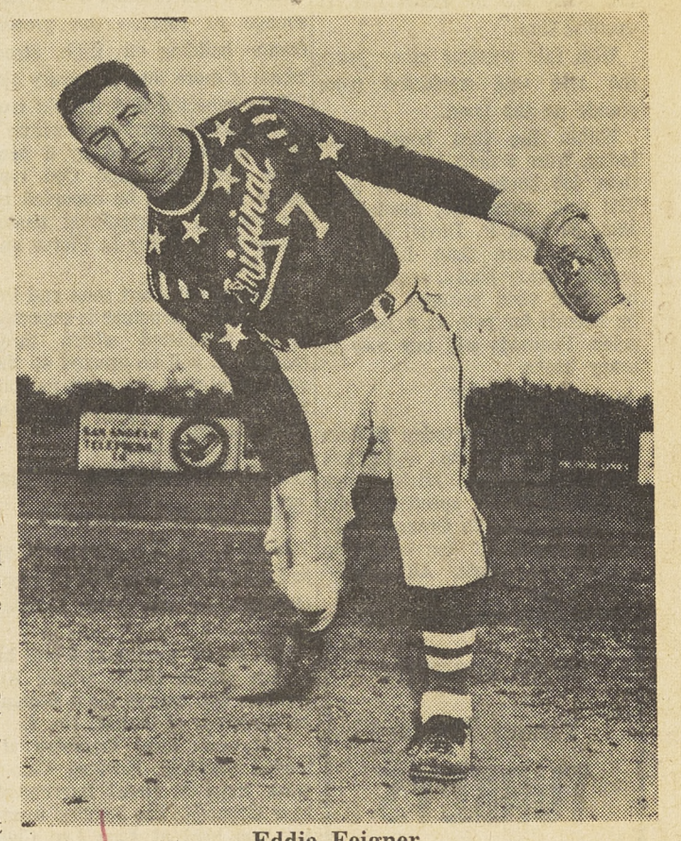
Feigner and Famed Four-Man Team To Oppose City Stars Here Tonight

Eddie Feigner, who earned considerable money and became a national sports celebrity as the result of a strange idea he had in his native Walla-Walla, Wash., back in 1946, will make his seventh appearance in Pittsfield tonight at 7 at Wahconah Park. The star softball pitcher will send his four-man team against the Pittsfield City League All-Stars. The production is known as the King & His Court.

Feigner and three associates have played before 6 million fans since he took the show on the road in 1947. He has won 2166 games, and has lost only 205. He has struck out more than 40,000 batters, and has thrown 449 no-hitters and 131 perfect contests.

The 36-year old, 200-pound right-hander has a variety of pitches, but his chief throws are a blinding fast ball, a "raise" ball and a slow curve. His "raise" pitch jumps upward as it nears the strike zone.

With only a catcher, first baseman and shortstop to support him, Feigner must be careful not to pitch any gopher balls. For a fly in the unprotected outfield almost surely is a home run.



Eddie Feigner
He throws hard

Four Gopher Balls

Four such balls have been hit off him by Pittsfield batters in the last two years. Ollie Cohen's three-run round-tripper gave Pittsfield a 4-1 win in 1960. That snapped Feigner's skein of four wins against the Pittsfield club.

Johnny Enright, Frank DeAngelis and Bobby Hunt homered off Feigner last year, but the traveling team finally rallied for five runs in the seventh and a 6-5 victory. Feigner fanned 19.

Feigner's teammates are catcher Mike Meilicke, first baseman Al Jackson and Shortstop Jerry Jones. Meilicke hit 86 home runs in one season. Feigner, Meilicke and Jones are charter members of the club. Jackson is in his fourth season.

Bob George, who was the winning pitcher for Pittsfield in 1960, is expected to work part of the game. Gene Wilson, who has pitched sensationally since moving to Pittsfield last summer from Winston, N.C., is expected to start.

The gates and ticket booths will open at 5:30. Feigner will give a post-game demonstration of pitching technique.

Play will start at 7 sharp, because Feigner must complete his duties before darkness. The Seventh Day Adventist Church, of which he is a devout member, prohibits work between sundown on Friday and sundown on Saturday.

Classes for beginners will also be held at Onota Lake and Springside and Crane pools. Courses in junior and senior lifesaving will be given at Pontoosuc Lake at dates to be announced.

Miss Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. S. Lewis, 136 Pomeroy Ave., swam competitively for the Pittsfield synchronized swim team and the Boys' Club Auxiliary swimming team for several years and assisted with swimming instruction at both Camp Marion White and the Pittsfield Girls Club.

Miss Susan L. Lewis

Mis Lewis joined the Park Department in 1959 as assistant swimming instructor at Pontoosuc Lake and in 1960 was in charge of the new Springside Pool where she also conducted swimming classes. She received her instructor's certificate at Camp Tevya, the national Red Cross aquatic school.

A 1959 honor graduate of St. Joseph's High School, Miss Lewis was active on the debating team as well as in dramatics. In the fall she will enter her junior year at Annhurst College where she has been elected chairman of the school's social committee. An English major, she served on the student council this year, was president of the sophomore class, and a member of the glee club and of a specialty singing group, the Sylvan Belles.

Fishing Platform Sought for Burbank Park

3/21/61

Petitions are being circulated through local sporting goods stores requesting the Park Commission to erect a fishing platform at Burbank Park, south of the pumping station, Onota Lake.

William L. Johnson Jr., a veteran sportsman, of 87 Montview St., who is heading the petition, said today that there is a great need for the platform, especially for the safety of children and senior citizens who fish at the park. He expects to secure the signatures of 400 to 500 licensed fishermen before submitting the petition to the Park Commission.

Copies of the petition have been left at Bernie's, 320 North St.; Dick Moon's, 114 Fenn St.; Berkshire Sports Center, Bradford Street; and Ernie's, 454 Tyler St.

Many Sign Petitions For Fishing Dock

3/29/61

Many signatures have been obtained to the petitions asking the Parks and Recreation Department to provide a fishing dock south of the pumping station at Onota Lake, William L. Johnson Sr., who is spearheading the campaign, said today.

Among the stores having a copy of the petition is the Pittsfield Sporting Goods, 369 North St. This store was inadvertently omitted from a previously published list.

Dead Deer Removed From Pontoosuc Lake

Conservation Officer Edward R. Knurow recovered the body of a large dead doe from Pontoosuc Lake yesterday. The carcass was taken today to the city incinerator.

Officer Knurow was notified by state police Saturday that a deer's body was in the north end of the lake near No-Namie Trailer Park. They had been called by Domnall Forrest Kelly, owner of the No-Namie property. Officer Knurow said he was unable to act on the complaint until yesterday because his eight hours for Saturday had been completed and he is not permitted to work overtime without specific authorization. He couldn't take the carcass to the incinerator yesterday because it is closed on Sundays.

Officer Knurow says the deer apparently broke through the ice in the late winter or early spring, as the body had started to decompose.

Causeway Hazards

To the Editor of THE EAGLE:—

It's a shame that the city administration isn't doing anything about repairing the Onota Lake Causeway. The least that they could do is to fill up the holes. They don't have far to go to draw gravel. And while they're at it, they had better fix the fence before a car or a child plunges in with tragic results.

Public Beaches Open Season Tomorrow

6/21/61

Daily Supervision To Be Provided From 8 A.M. to 10 P.M.

Pittsfield public beaches will open tomorrow for the summer season. Fifteen full-time life guards and 12 part-time guards will man the beaches at Pontoosuc and Onota lakes.

There will be daily supervision at the beaches from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., with the baby beach at Pontoosuc open from 1 to 5 p.m.

The pools at Crane and Springside parks are scheduled to open for the season Monday, weather permitting. Supervised swimming hours there will be from 10 a.m. to noon, 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. The first session of the learn-to-swim campaign begins Monday at all areas.

According to the Parks and Recreation Department, bath houses at Onota and Pontoosuc lakes will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Adult admision is 10 cents and children may change into their swim suits free of charge. Adults may check their clothes for 10 cents, children for 5 cents. Towels may be rented for a quarter, of which 15 cents is returnable.

Beach Crowds Among Largest In Recent Years

One of the largest crowds in recent years swarmed to the Parks and Recreation Department beaches, picnic areas and other recreational facilities yesterday, the department announced today.

About 8,000 persons used the Onota Lake facilities, while approximately 5,000 were at Pontoosuc. A large attendance was also reported at Springside Pool in Springside Park.

Both Onota and Pontoosuc beaches, as well as Springside Pool, will be open tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., the department said today. A new motorized life boat will be operated on Onota Lake to give swimmers better protection. The boat was used during the weekend.

Crane Pool is not expected to be in service until Thursday. The pool is being repaired, the department explained.

Weather Cuts Attendance as Beaches Open

6/23/61

Only a few swimmers braved cloudy skies and intermittent showers yesterday to attend the opening of Pittsfield's public beaches.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, said attendance at both Pontoosuc and Onota lakes was "extremely poor due to the bad weather. We're looking forward to a busy weekend," he added.

There is daily supervision at the beaches from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The baby beach at Pontoosuc is open from 1 to 5 p.m. every day.

275 Children Register for Swim Classes

6/20/61

About 275 children registered yesterday for the Parks and Recreation Department's annual learn-to-swim campaign, filling the beginner and intermediate classes at Onota and Pontoosuc lakes for the first session.

There still are openings, the department said, for both classes of swimmers at Crane and Springside pools. Registrations for these classes will be taken in person or by phone from 10 a.m. to noon through Friday at the Springside House.

The first session will run for three weeks beginning June 26. The second and third sessions start July 17 and Aug. 7, respectively.

100 at Institute

About 100 members of the Park Department summer staff attended the opening session of the Playground Institute this afternoon at the Jewish Community Center. The summer workers will be trained for their park and playground duties by Ben Solomon and Miss Ethel Bowers of Youth Service, Inc., Putnam Valley, N.Y. Mayor Raymond L. Haughey spoke to the group today.

Instructions on water safety, first aid and other life-saving phases were started yesterday for some 25 Park Department life guards. G. Clifford Adams of the Rhode Island Division of Forests and Parks is conducting the classes at the Pittsfield Girls Club.

Storm Drives Thousands From Recreation Areas

6/6/30

A pre-summer thunderstorm dropped more than one inch of rain on the Berkshires in 20 minutes late yesterday afternoon, forcing a hurried exit of thousands from area beaches, parks and golf courses.

In North Adams, a large elm was blown across a utility line, knocking power out in the eastern section of that city approximately four hours. The Western Massachusetts Electric Co. Pittsfield office reported only four minor power failures — one on Onota Street and one each in Becket, Otis and Bancroft.

The storm broke shortly after 5 p.m. George A. Bulgarelli, meteorologist at the Pittsfield Airport Weather Bureau, said 1.02 inches of rain fell in 20 minutes and the temperature dropped from 80 to 63 within about the same period. The mercury reached a high of 84 at 2 p.m. yesterday.

Mr. Bulgarelli said the forecast calls for fair weather today and tomorrow with a high of about 75. The temperature is expected to drop to the middle or upper 40s tonight.

Yesterday's hot weather brought a crowd of about 3,000 to public beaches at Onota Lake and 1,000 at Pontoosuc Lake, according to the Park Department.

A crowd of 4,200 visited Pittsfield State Forest yesterday. Francis J. Messer, supervisor of the forest, said most of the crowd came to see the azalea display atop Berry Mountain. Mr. Messer said the Pittsfield State Forest attendance starting with the Memorial Day weekend totals 11,848.

Pontoosuc Stickers Still Available

6/13/60

Very few parking stickers allowing local residents free access to lots at Pontoosuc and Onota Lakes have been issued, according to Supt. Vincent J. Hebert of the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The stickers entitle local residents to free parking at the beaches, while out-of-town people must pay a 75-cent fee.

The Park Department anticipated that 8,000 residents would seek the identifying stickers, but only about 200 have been issued so far.

Gear for Picnics, Sports

JUL 9 1960

The Pittsfield Department of Parks and Recreation offers two services to picnickers. Picnickers may rent both tables and sports equipment from the department at nominal fees.

Tables for eight at Burbank and Pontoosuc parks are available at 25 cents an hour, with a three-hour limitation on Sundays and holidays. For the same fee, two large tables, for 24 and 28, are available at Pontoosuc Park.

Advance reservations for the tables can be made at Springside House, 874 North Street. Same-day reservations must be made at the picnic area.

The Parks Department rents athletic equipment in two packages, the trunk kit, for more than 50 people, and the bag kit, for fewer than 50.

The large kit includes horseshoes, paddle tennis equipment, softballs, bats and bases, a football, volleyball and net, checkers, and a first-aid kit.

The smaller kit has softball equipment, horseshoes, volleyball and net, and a deck tennis ring. Rental for both kits is $1, which is substracted from the $5 deposit the borrower leaves when taking the equipment.

9/14/60

Eugene D. Moran, district wildlife manager, state Division of Fisheries and Game, reported today that 3,000 brown trout, "nine inches plus," were stocked in Onota Lake yesterday.

He said that Greenwater Pond, Becket, and Goose Pond, Lee and Tyringham, are on the stocking list for today but the number of trout they will receive will not be known until the hatchery trucks arrive.

Richmond Pond and possibly some other Berkshire ponds will also get trout this fall, Mr. Moran said.

Samuel S. Simonetta, president of the Pittsfield Sportsmen's Club, announced today that a work party will be held tomorrow, starting at 9 a.m., to repair damage done to the fish screen at the outlet of Onota Lake.

One grate was removed from the screen shortly after it was installed and was replaced by Mr. Simonetta. Since then three more grates have been pulled out by vandals.

The screen, provided through a city appropriation, is to prevent rainbow trout from escaping from the lake.

17 Registered In Swim Class For Retarded

Seventeen youngsters ranging in age from 5½ to 19 are registered in the Red Cross swimming class for retarded children that opened Monday evening at the Girls Club pool.

Ralph E. Anthony Jr. of Adams, water safety chairman for the Berkshire County Red Cross, today expressed confidence that a majority of those taking the course would learn to swim during the eight lessons.

Volunteer Red Cross instructors who have had special training in teaching swimming to the handicapped are assisting in the program, which is being sponsored by the Red Cross, the Berkshire County Society for Retarded Children and the Pittsfield Girls Club.

In addition to Mr. Anthony, the instructors are Mrs. Fred B. Spyker, Great Barrington; Robert F. Flanagan, Lenox; Leslie A. Burch Jr., Richmond; Mrs. W. H. Atwater and Mrs. R. F. Potter, Stephentown, N.Y.; Mrs. Albert A. Papirio, Leo J. Fiorini, Miss Gay Skogsberg, Mrs. Robert J. Fallon, Mrs. Mahlon L. Henderson and Rudolph A. Sacco of Pittsfield, and Mrs. Ervin R. Winn and Mrs. Richard Soderbom of the Girls Club staff.

Swimming Class for Retarded Children Proves That Handicaps Can Be Overcome

By JOHN STUART COX

Monday night at the Girls Club two dozen retarded children passed the half-way mark in their first organized course in swimming.

With a gallery of parents looking on, they screamed and splashed, some with glee, others in fear, and practically raised the club roof.

A few of these children have learned to swim already—in six lessons—and half may be expected to go solo before the 10-lesson course ends in May. All but a handful have overcome the terrible fear which gripped them at the outset.

First in State?

The course, in the view of the instructors, has been a success, even though there exists no basis for comparison. According to Ralph E. Anthony Jr. of Adams, water safety chairman for the Berkshire County Red Cross, this is the first class of its kind in the state, with the possible exception of a brief summer session for retarded children at Cape Cod.

All but three of the 15 instructors are volunteers trained by Red Cross safety personnel last November. Each instructor is assigned two children, one from Pittsfield or Southern Berkshire and one from the North Adams area, which he takes individually. No child is left alone at any time.

The youngsters' range of ability is wide. Some are well co-ordinated, and, though they are slow or inattentive in most things, appear to be so delighted with swimming that they are able to keep up consistent effort. Others are less attracted to the water, less bright or more insecure. Some, in addition to their mental deficiency, have physical defects. Nevertheless, Mr. Anthony believes that more than half will be swimmers by the end of the course.

Some Learn To Dive

Already instructors have graded their charges either beginner or intermediate. Some of the children have learned to dive.

The father of one of the girls said he had never been able to teach his 15-year-old daughter to swim in spite of years of efforts at Pontoosuc Lake. Now she is one of the intermediates. A parent just can't do the job, he said, since the relationship is too permissive.

The children generally are fearful of instruction. At the beginning many clung to pipes at the side of the pool and refused to go any farther than putting their feet in the water. Gradually they began to trust their own instructors, to settle down and feel at home. Still, some of the youngsters won't go near the water with any instructors but their own. One child Monday waited 15 minutes until his tardy coach, Rudolph A. Sacco, an attorney here, arrived from a late meeting.

Fun for All

Awkward situations necessarily arise, but on the whole the class has been a carnival of fun for both students and teachers. Mrs. Irvin R. Winn, one of the instructors and a staff member of the Girls Club, said she thought the teachers would go for more of the same next year.

Sponsors of the class are the Red Cross, the Berkshire County Society for Retarded Children and the Pittsfield Girls Club.

In addition to Mr. Anthony, Mrs. Winn and Mr. Sacco, the instructors are Mrs. Fred B. Spyker, Great Barrington; Robert F. Flanagan, Lenox; Leslie A. Burch Jr., Richmond; Mrs. W. H. Atwater and Mrs. R. F. Potter, Stephentown, N.Y.; Mrs. Albert A. Papirio, Leo J. Fiorini, Miss Gay Skogsberg, Mrs. Robert J. Fallon and Mrs. Mahlon L. Henderson of Pittsfield and Mrs. Richard Soderbom of the Girls Club staff.

City To Open Swim Classes On June 27

Learn-to-swim classes conducted annually by the Department of Parks and Recreation will begin June 27 at the public beaches and pools.

Three sessions are planned, running from June 27 to July 15, July 18 to Aug. 5 and Aug. 8 to 26. All children under 12 years old must have their parents' permission, and the minimum age is six.

Children may be registered at Springside House from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday next week. Youngsters participating in the initial session must be registered by Friday.

The classes will be held at Pontoosuc and Onota Lakes and Crane and Springside wading pools. Only six, seven and eight-year-olds will be accepted at the wading pools.

Junior and senior life-saving classes will also be conducted, with details to be announced at a later date.

Miss Nancy Shea is directing the swim program. She has taken part in competitive swimming meets and has served for the past two years as a swimming instructor for the Park Department.

About 800 youngsters participated in the learn-to-swim program last year.

Haughey Sisters Win Five Events, Five Other Swimmers Take Two Races in 15th Annual City-County Swim Meet

105 MED. AUG 8 1960

By JIM ARCHEY

The Haughey sisters, Sue, Kathryn and Jane, teamed up to bring home five first place medals in the 15th annual Pittsfield and Berkshire County Swim Meet, held Saturday at Pontoosuc Lake. The meet was co-sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Berkshire Eagle. The sisters are the daughters of Mayor Raymond L. Haughey who gave the opening address and presented the medals.

Sue Haughey lowered the old city intermediate girls' 50-yard backstroke record by two tenths of a second. The new mark stands at 36.6 seconds. In her record breaking swim Sue beat her nearest rival, Andrea Snell, by 11.1 seconds. Sue's second victory came in the city intermediate 50-yard freestyle, where she swam the distance in an even 30 seconds.

Kathryn Haughey took first berth in the city 25-yard and 50-yard freestyle in the junior girls' division with times of 15.7 and 33.1. Jane Haughey took first place in the city midget girls' 25-yard backstroke. She also swam in the 25-yard freestyle but did not place in that event.

Judy Harris won two events in the city midget girls' division. They were the 25 yard breaststroke and the 25 yard freestyle. In the two runs she beat the second place contenders by three and four seconds.

Susan Ris of Richmond was also a two-time winner, in county events. The 50-yard freestyle and the 50-yard backstroke in the junior division were the events for which she took gold medals.

The two strongest senior swimmers competed against eash other in two events and split the prizes. Hugh Quirk bested Dave Sykes in the city 50-yard breaststroke by nine-tenths of a second. In the second event entered by both, the 100-yard freestyle, Sykes won, beating third place Quirk by 2.3 seconds. Second in the 100-yard event was Dave White. All three are life guards for the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Edward Rushbrook won the county and the city 50-yard backstroke events. He clocked a time of 33.6 seconds in the city run, bettered his previous mark in the county event by swimming the course in 32.9.

Jim Treat faired well in the city 50-yard breaststroke and the the city 25-yard freestyle in the junior division. He won the breaststroke event 1.5 seconds in front of the second place winner. Treat's victory in the 25-yard freestyle was a little harder fought, as he beat Don Marchetto by only one-tenth of a second.

"GEE, THANKS, DAD," smiles double-medal winner Susan Haughey as she receives her prizes from her father, Mayor Raymond L. Haughey. Five other double victors await their turn, following the 15th annual Pittsfield and Berkshire County swim meet at Pontoosuc Lake Saturday. Front row, left to right: Kathryn Haughey, Judith Harris, meet director John Marchesi, the two Haugheys. Rear: Donald Wyatt, James Treat, Edward Rushbrook.

Don Wyatt was the only other two-time first place winner. He chalked up victories in the city 50-yard freestyle and the city 100-yard freestyle with times of 30.1 and 1:12.3.

Delores Watt, a Park Department life guard and swim instructor, won the county 100-yard freestyle, bettering the second-place winner by 7.1 seconds.

The county events had competitors from as far away as Hudson Falls, New York. The Hudson Department of Youth entered seven swimmers from that city's aquatic team. Berkshire County camps were were also well represented in the county events. Camp Wyoma entered fourteen swimmers while Camp Cranwell entered five, Camp Tamarac twelve and Camp Half Moon eight swimmers.

20 Scholarship Winners Announced by Foundation

6/7/60

Awards to Local High School Seniors Will Be Presented at Public Meeting Tonight at 7:30 at Museum

Twenty high school seniors will receive scholarships from the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of Pittsfield tonight in Berkshire Museum.

O'Connell To Speak

Main speaker at the public, 7:30 meeting will be Thomas E. O'Connell, director of Berkshire Community College.

The scholarships, given to 11 Pittsfield High School students and 9 St. Joseph's High School students, will range from $500 to $100. They total $5,750.

Last year, the first of the foundation's operation, the same number of awards were given, but the range was lower, $400 to $50. They totaled about $4,100.

The money was raised by a house-to-house campaign, as well as industrial and business contributions.

The scholarships were given without the foundation's scholarship awards committee being aware of their identity, Dr. William S. Fradkin, president of the foundation, said. Each applicant was given a number. Their applications were then considered on the basis of scholarship, IQ, extra-curricular and outside activities, leadership, unusual family emergency, and estimated college expenses in relation to family ability to pay. Only the chairman of the committee knew the names of the students or their schools.

The foundation received 81 applications for scholarships this year.

The scholarships were awarded as follows:

North LL All-Stars Beaten By Newton West Team 13-2

AUG 13 1960 By JIM ARCHEY

EAST LONGMEADOW—The Pittsfield North Little League All-Stars were eliminated in the state finals yesterday at East Longmeadow by Newton West 13-2. Pittsfield will play the consolation game today at 1:30.

Newton's Lowest Score

Even though beaten Pittsfield had the small satisfaction of holding Newton to the least number of runs it has made as yet in the play-offs. The strong Eastern Massachusetts club had scored 68 runs in its previous four games.

Mike Gradone pitched all the way for Newton and, despite control trouble, fanned 14. The losing pitcher was Neddy Evans, who struck out seven in the three and two thirds innings he was on the mound. Also pitching for Pittsfield were Paul Pierce and Jim Pero.

The contest started with Pittsfield which was the visiting team, going down in order. Newton scored in its half of the first when shortstop Marty Clapton scored on a fielder's choice. Newton had two hits in the first.

With one out in the second inning Steve Kruczkowski beat out an infield dribbler for a base hit, but was left on base when the Newton pitcher struck out the next two batters. Newton went down one, two, three in the inning. All three batters hit the ball, but two fine plays by Dave Allen and Neddy Evans and a good outfield catch by Mike Kane turned their bids into outs.

Pittsfield Scores

The third inning was the best for the Pittsfield boys when they scored their two runs. Cliff Nilan led off with a base on balls. Allen struck out, but two passed balls moved Nilan to third. Pete Russo then hit to the shortstop, who bobbled the ball allowing Nilan to score, and putting Russo on first. Russo moved to third on a wild pitch and a passed ball. Joe Woitkowski fanned, but while Evans was batting Russo scored on a wild pitch. Evans walked, but Paul Pierce grounded out to third.

Newton scored another run in the third. Kim Britt, the first man up, reached on an error. Three walks pushed him across and tied the score at 2-2.

Pittsfield had two baserunners in the fourth but couldn't score. Newton unleashed its offensive might in the last of the fourth scoring six runs on six hits and two walks.

Russo Singles

The fifth inning started with Russo hitting a clean single to right center. He was left on base as Gradone struck out the next three men. The eastern Massachusetts team then scored five run in its half of the fifth on three home runs the first by Hollis Perry, the powerman for the team, with two men on.

A crowd of about 600 watched the game which was played at Center Little League Field. A large number of Pittsfield fans attended.

All members of all the teams were the guests of the Springfield Giants at the night game last night at Pynchon Park. The teams are being housed at Springfield College.

Eagles Take West League Championship

AUG 1 1960

Fire Department, Royal Discount Win Other League Games

The Eagles edged Civitan, 5-4 in a playoff game for the second-half title of the West Little Baseball League yesterday afternoon at Clapp Park. The victory gave the Eagles the league championship, for they had already won the first half of the season.

Tom Sinopoli went the route for the winners, walking three and striking out nine. His opponent, David Kearns, also walked three, but struck out 11. Both teams had seven hits, with Fred Sangiovanni and Norm Cheevers getting two apiece for the winners.

In other Little League games over the weekend, the two winners were decisively outhit by the losers. In the North League, the Fire Department, outhit 11-5, squeezed out an 8-7 win over the Pittsfield Co-operative Bank, scoring two in the fifth and one in the sixth. Royal Discount, outhit 9-6, still trounced Dick Moon's 10-5 in an East Little League contest.

Youth Killed As Bike Hits Dump Truck

8/23/60

Funeral Services To Be Thursday For John F. Jones

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning for a 13-year-old boy who was instantly killed when his bicycle struck a dump truck here yesterday afternoon.

John F. Jones

The victim was John F. (Ricky) Jones, son of Frederick I. and Phyllis M. (LeFave) Jones of 86 Doreen St.

The boy's bicycle struck the side of a 1½-ton truck driven by Melvin R. Bliss, 58, of 100 West Housatonic St., police said. The accident occurred near the corner of Newell and Elm Streets.

Thrown to Pavement

Ricky was thrown to the pavement and suffered a fractured skull, which caused his death, according to Dr. A. P. Desautels, medical examiner.

Capt. Camille L. Marcel of the police traffic bureau said this morning that the fatal accident was still under investigation. He said police had determined that the truck had not run over the boy.

Police said the victim had been bicycling along the Elm Street sidewalk heading east toward Newell Street with a companion, Allan A. Lemone, 12, of 838 Williams St.

The pair turned down Newell Street, and Ricky started to cross the road in front of the Norwood store. Mr. Bliss was operating east on Elm Street and had stopped to let traffic pass before making a turn into Newell Street, police learned from eye witnesses.

Police said a car was parked in front of Norwood's, and the bicycle rider came from behind the car, striking the left side of the truck just after it turned into Newell Street.

Heard Thump

Mr. Bliss, a self-employed truck driver, said he heard a thump on his side of the truck and stopped to find the boy's body in the street. His truck was loaded with plaster and wood from a store undergoing remodeling.

The last rites of the Catholic Church were administered by the Rev. Henry M. Burke, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, of which the boy was a communicant.

An active athlete, Ricky played five years in the Pop Warner Football League and four years with the Phil Sable Little League baseball team. He played Babe Ruth baseball for a year.

South Jr. High Pupil

A South Junior High School pupil, Ricky would have been 14 years old on Sept. 26. Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Janice M.; a brother, Stephen A.; and his grandmothers, Mrs. Nettie LeFave of North Adams and Mrs. Katherine Jones of Pittsfield.

Funeral services will be held at the Meehan Funeral Home at 8:15 a.m. Thursday, followed by a Solemn High Mass of Requiem at 9 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church. Burial will be at St. Joseph's Cemetery.

The family will meet friends at the funeral home today and tomorrow from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Pittsfield North Wins 7-2 To Enter State Semifinals

AUG 5 1960

A pair of big innings carried Pittsfield North into the state Little League semifinals last night, producing a 7-2 victory over Westfield North League at Wahconah Field. The Pittsfield team, which has won four straight contests in tournament play, will oppose Paxton at Paxton in a semifinal game tomorrow afternoon.

Both Score in 1st

The home team was set back in the first inning when Frank Genovese, the third batter of the game, sent one of Ned Evans' pitches high over the left-center-field fence. Pittsfield came back with three runs in its own turn, however. Joe Woitkowski Jr. walked and Evans singled to right center. Paul Pierce's single down the right field line brought home Woitkowski, and Evans scored on an error by the catcher. After a pass to Mike Kane, Pierce stole home.

Westfield cut the 3-1 deficit in half in the third inning. Bob Jachym walked, went to second on Al DeMastrie's single to center, and scored when Frank Popiewicz lined a single to right.

Four runs in the fourth inning clinched the game for Pittsfield, as the Westfield infield committed two costly errors. With Pat Bassi and Cliff Nilan on second and first, a double by Woitkowski scored a run. Evans then drove in Nilan and Woitkowski with a line single.

Evans walked none and struck out eight. He was reached for seven hits. Shortstop Cliff Nilan starred in the field for Pittsfield, throwing out three men at first after good fielding plays.

Newton West Takes State Championship; 2,000 View Contests

EAST LONGMEADOW — The Pittsfield North Little League All-Stars defeated the Danvers Little Leaguers 3-1 in the consolation game of the Massachusetts state tournament Sunday afternoon at Center Field. Newton West, the team that eliminated Pittsfield in the semifinals Friday, edged Weymouth 2-1 to take the state title. A crowd of about 2,000 saw the games.

Dave Allen hurled the consolation win for Pittsfield. He allowed six hits, fanned nine and walked only one. Joe Woitkowski got the big hit for Pittsfield in the second inning, a two-run double. Woitkowski scored the third run, when the relay from the outfield went by the catcher.

The Berkshire County club was outhit by Danvers 6-4, but Pittsfield received four walks. Each team committed one error. Pete Russo had a perfect day with two singles in two trips to the plate.

The four teams that participated in the tournament stayed at Springfield College and were transported to and from East Longmeadow by bus. All the players were the guests of the Springfield Giants at the night game Friday at Pynchon Park.

Newton West now goes to the New England playoffs at Woburn where play begins today.

John Duda Pitches Three-Hit Shutout For Seventh Win

Curletti's Super Market clinched the championship of the East Little Baseball League last night, downing Besse-Clarke 3-0 at Allendale Field. Pitcher John Duda shut out the losers on three hits to pick up his seventh victory without a defeat.

Losing pitcher Bill Carey gave up just two hits and struck out 11, but got into trouble in the first inning, when Curletti's scored the only runs of the game. He walked seven and hit two men, both of whom scored in the first inning.

Newton West, Pittsfield's LL Opponent, Has Compiled Great Record

North Stars Play Tomorrow In Tourney at E. Longmeadow

Easterners Have Smashed 11 Home Runs In Five Games; Star Pitcher Gradone Has Fanned 25 Batters in 12 Innings

Newton West, the first round opponent for Pittsfield North in the four-team finals of the Massachusetts championship Little Baseball League tournament tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in East Longmeadow, has compiled a phenomenal offensive record thus far in all-star play.

In winning five straight tournament games, Newton West has hit 11 home runs, and has gone into double figures four times. Only Newton East, a 6-2 victim in the first round, was able to make a respectable showing. After that, in order, Newton West trounced these opponents: Wellesley Central 18-0, Wellesley East 14-1, Winchester American 21-1 and Chelsea National 15-4.

Newton Calls It Best

Newton fans are almost unanimous in agreeing that this is the best team their city has had in Little League history. They rate it above the 1953 club from the same league. That outfit went all the way to the World Series at Williamsport, Pa., where Newton was eliminated in the opening round in a nine-inning game by Schenectady, N.Y.

The team has three big power hitters. They are center fielder Brad Haywood, catcher Joe Luchette and first baseman Hollis Perry. Haywood, a colored boy, is the son of ex-Newton semipro star Bob Haywood. In five tournament games he has hit four home runs and three doubles. His average for the tournament is .588.

Luchette beats him in the average column with a stratospheric .688. He has hit three homers and one double. Perry's mark is only .444, but he has homered twice and tripled twice.

Ace Mike Gradone, a husky right-hander, is ready to pitch against Pittsfield. In 12 innings of tournament duty, he allowed but three hits, struck out 25, and walked only two. He is said to have considerable speed and a good curve.

Second baseman Kim Britt and third baseman Jeff MacLaughlin are rated smooth fielders.

In the second game tomorrow afternoon at 5:30, Weymouth Federal will oppose Danvers. The winners will meet Saturday afternoon for the state title and the right to continue in play. The losers will be paired in the consolation round.

Pittsfield North Wins 4-0 Enters State Semifinals

AUG 8 1960

Pittsfield North Little League, on the strength of their fifth straight win, a 4-0 triumph over Fitchburg Saturday, entered the semifinals in the state playoffs. They will meet Newton West League Friday at 2:20 at Center Field in East Longmeadow.

Also at East Longmeadow Friday, Weymouth Federal will oppose Danvers at 6. On Saturday, the losers will play a consolation game at 1:30, and one-half hour after that game is over, the winners will meet for the state championship and a berth in the New England playoffs at Woburn, beginning Monday, August 15.

Allen Pitches Shutout

Dave Allen, a husky right-hander, allowed only four hits and struck out 11 in pitching Pittsfield to the win on Saturday in Worcester. His mound opponent, Ricky Smith, got all but two of the 15 Pittsfield outs by strikeouts, but the local boys utilized timely extra-base hitting to make all their five hits good for four runs. Both pitchers kept the ball low, for 32 of 33 putouts were made by the two catchers and two first basemen.

A double by Ned Evans was the important blow as Pittsfield took a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Joe Woitowski walked, went to third on Evans' belt off the centerfield wall, and scored on a wild pitch.

Fitchburg threatened to break the game open in the first two innings, but the plucky Allen escaped both times, striking out two men with the bases loaded in each inning. A single to right, a walk, and an infield single loaded the bases in the first, and a walk, an error and another infield base hit put three men on in the second.

Pittsfield gave Allen some breathing room with a pair of runs in the fourth. After Evans had grounded out, Paul Pierce singled down the right field line, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored on a double by Steve Kruczkowski. Mike Kane then scored Kruczkowski with a single to center.

Pete Russo supplied the clincher in the fifth, leading off with a towering home run over the left field fence.

Meanwhile, Fitchburg had threatened again in the third, as Allen walked two men, but Woitowski handled Smith's grounder easily for the third out. The Pittsfield hurler settled down in the final three innings, leaving one on in the fourth and two in the sixth.

Matter of Credit

FAIR OR FOUL

AUG 18 1960

By Roger O'Gara

"WHY DON'T you give a little credit to the North Little League team?" the voice on the telephone angrily demanded.

He went on from there to excoriate us for giving a big writeup to the Newton West League, the opponent of Pittsfield North in the opening round of the state Little League finals at East Longmeadow.

We'll say this for the man. He identified himself.

His main gripe was that we had been guilty of treason because we publicized the excellent record of the Newton team. He implied that such feats would have been best left unmentioned.

During an exchange of caustic opinions, we tried to persuade him that any newspaper worthy of the name always tries to present information about a tournament opponent from a distance. This is exactly why we published the Newton team's record and pertinent data concerning its outstanding players. We certainly had no thought of trying to scare the Pittsfield boys, as our complainant strongly hinted.

o—o

THIS POLICY is nothing new. We have followed it for years. So has any newspaper that is trying to keep the public informed.

This has been done on any level—Little League, Babe Ruth, Legion, high school, semipro, what have you?

Although complaints are numerous in the business, this was the first of its kind we ever have received. So it shows that man was ingenious enough to come up with a new kind of protest.

o—o

THROUGHOUT a somewhat lengthy tirade, he kept returning to the matter of a "little credit."

This grates on your nerves when you hear it more than three times. So we asked how extensively he read our paper. He read it all right, he insited, but he hadn't seen much about the North League team.

By his own admission, he counted as not much a four column picture of the team, several good-sized two column head stories, and a number of substantial one column head stories.

The story in which the Newton team's feats were chronicled appeared under an eight-column headline. That apparently wasn't counted in the Pittsfield North's credit ledger, because the caller didn't like what it said. In short, give us good news or nothing.

o—o

WE ASKED this fellow on what basis he qualified as an appraiser of news.

He gave his usual answer, "Give them a little credit."

Shortly thereafter, we asked to be excused. We told him he had called right in the middle of dinner. He said he was sorry about the interruption to our nourishment, but he remained adamant on the original score. He pleaded that we "give them a little credit."

All of which leads to a general observation on Little League in this city.

When we assumed direction of this department in 1952, we started to print Little League box scores. This public service was provided for all Little Leagues that could qualify. In short, we set certain standards for accuracy, legibility and punctuality. These were all explained to designated Little League representatives. We wanted the boxes to have the correct number of putouts. We wanted every space filled. We insisted that the figures be readable so our compositors could convert them into print. Finally, we demanded that the box scores be left here before deadline time.

One spring, we conducted a clinic for Little League scorers, giving up several evenings to the cause.

In 1952, we personally covered the Pittsfield East (now the South League) games across the state and in Naugatuck, Conn. In 1957, we assigned a man to travel with Pittsfield North's fine team. And this year we dispatched a man to East Longmeadow to cover the North League's semifinal contest.

o—o

WE HAVE BEEN Little League boosters over the years, in our column and on our news pages.

So you can imagine our surprise when this free-swinging critic told us that an out-of-town newspaper had done more for Little League than we had. We gave no answer to that, because it is futile to extend debate when one's opponent proves beyond any doubt he is misinformed.

Of course we could have asked him how many regular season box scores the out-of-town journal printed from any of the Pittsfield leagues.

o—o

THE TROUBLE with most Little League officials is that they show nothing but devotion to their children and temporary enthusiasm for the sport.

One league this year brought in its averages. The man said he wasn't sure whether we could use them, but thought he would offer them any way. We advised him this was exactly the material we were happy to receive, and printed all of it.

This man knows the score. The countless noisy ones don't. If they did, they would work instead of wail. By paying big fat lip service to the kids, these adults who never grew up aren't helping themselves, their boys or the cause of Little League baseball.

City Tennis League Expands From Four to Six Teams

JUL 1 1960

The City Tennis League has expanded to six five-man teams from the original four four-man teams. The great interest on the part of county tennis players made the expansion necessary. The league is organized with rules and regulations, and a schedule that calls for every team to meet every other team.

The matches are played at the Camp Merrill tennis courts, which are under the supervision of Timothy Sullivan of the Parks and Recreation Department. Matches which are played Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights are limited to an hour so the courts will be available to the public.

The club's "A" team has scheduled a series of matches, the Ridgefield Tennis Club of Albany, N.Y., the Brattleboro, Vt., Outing Club and the Holyoke Canoe Club to be played during July and August. A match with the newly formed Eastover tennis club has been tentatively set for July 10.

The Berkshire County singles champion, Gordon Naugle, plans to participate in several of the Pittsfield matches.

A club "B" team has been organized under the chairmanship of Mark Selkowitz and matches will be arranged with the GEAA and Dalton tennis clubs on a home and home basis.

Any tennis player in the county interested in participating in the activities may contact Sullivan at the courts by phone or in person.

Naugle Gives Exhibition, Tennis Clinic

AUG 8 1960

Gordon Naugle, Berkshire County tennis singles champion, gave an impressive exhibition of ability and then conducted a clinic at the Camp Merrill courts Saturday afternoon under the sponsorship of the Pittsfield Tennis Club and the Department of Parks and Recreation. About 50 people, mostly youngsters, watched the display.

Naugle began by winning a close 7-5 singles set from Ron Young of Pittsfield, a varsity player for the University of Virginia. Young won the first three games, but Naugle, by steady play and accurate placements, fought back to go ahead 5-4. After Young tied the set 5-5, Naugle ran out the set with errorless tennis.

In his clinic, the former University of Michigan player demonstrated the proper grip and stroking for forehand, backhand, and service, and the volley position at the net. He concluded by stating what his own play emphasizes, that the most important accomplishment for a tennis player is to keep the ball in play, regardless of grip or form.

Concluding the afternoon, Naugle teamed with Paul Voloscove to win a doubles match 6-4, 6-1 over Young and Bruce Burnham.

Civitan Club Honored for Aid to Retarded

JUN 21 1960

Plaque Presented At Dinner of Berkshire Assn.

At the annual dinner meeting of the Berkshire Assn. for Retarded Children last night at the Stanley Club a special plaque was awarded to Civitan Club for the outstanding work that organization had done for the association. The presentation was made by Edward F. Touhey, and Peter C. Giftos, president of Civitan, accepted the award.

The plaque read in part "Certificate of appreciation awarded to Civitan Club in grateful recognition of outstanding and dedicated service to the mentally retarded."

A further expression of interest on the part of Civitan came when John H. O'Connell of Great Barrington, lieutenant governor of the New England district of Civitan, presented a substantial check to Courtland L. Rawling president of BCARC, for the work of the Berkshire association. The money was earned from the sale of fruit cake at Christmas.

Mayor Speaks

Mayor Raymond L. Haughey addressed the more than 50 members and friends of the association who attended the meeting and assured them of his interest in the work the group was doing for the children. He spoke particularly of the support given the association in its recreational program by Vincent J. Hebert, park commissioner, in the summer program at the Crosby estate. Mayor Haughey indicated that a place would be found for a continuation of the program now that it is no longer possible to use the Crosby estate.

In his comments Mr. Hebert stated that when the summer program for the retarded children was started in Pittsfield he was not certain how successful it could be but that it proved to be decidedly so. He introduced Miss Jean Loveland, the general recreational supervisor for Pittsfield.

Installation of President Courtland L. Rawling and other officers followed with Charles H. Amidon of Westfield, region one vice president of MARC as the installing officer. Among those present at the meeting were Miss Audrey Lengrin of the Massachusetts State Mental Health Office, and Miss Madeline Lord, assistant director of the Visiting Nurse Assn.

The Lively Mother of a Playground

When 75 youngsters band together to give a 77-year-old lady a birthday party as they did for Mrs. Emil (Mae) Wechter at Wahconah Playground last week, it's news.

When the little old lady lives next door to a noisy playground and loves every minute of it, it's doubly noteworthy.

The secret is that Mrs. Wechter loves life, sees the best in everyone, and finds each new event an adventure.

Mr. Wechter, who looks upon his wife's activities with fond indulgence, teases her, saying that its the candy and cookies that she passes out (in little paper sacks with three twists of the top to secure them) that makes her so popular with the young fry.

However, it is with good reason that Mrs. Wechter is called "mother of the playground" at Wahconah. She has been assisting the leaders and the children for years.

'Every Playground Needs One'

"Every playground needs a Mrs. Wechter," one of the former supervisors of Wahconah said. "She makes the job so much easier. There are so many things that you need to work with that aren't standard equipment."

Mrs. Wechter has loaned Wahconah youngsters and leaders everything from hammer and nails to her kitchen teakettle. "They always take care of things and bring everything back," she says. "If a day passed that they didn't need my help I'd be lost. I hate to see the end of the season approaching. I do hope the Lord spares me another year so that I can enjoy them all again," she added.

Special events at the playground are as exciting to Mrs. Wechter as to the children. Her yard has been the scene for the creation of many floats and her cellar the repository for the materials as they were taking shape.

The head for the 20-foot dinosaur for this year's parade was stored in the Wechter's front hall so the papier maché would dry properly. The youngsters and leaders spent about two weeks constructing the float in the Wechters' yard.

Branches were needed for trees on the float and they came from a large tree in the yard. "It had too many limbs anyway," Mrs. Wechter said.

Mrs. Wechter has a yard full of beautiful flowers and she points with pride to the fact that nothing has been disturbed and not a flower broken by the youngsters who have descended on her in droves all summer.

Liberty in the Cellar

Mrs. Wechter has done a thousand things for the park over the years. She had a statue of liberty 16 feet tall in her yard one year and the paint to decorate it with stored in her cellar. Hundreds of cases of soda have been in and out of the cellar for special events.

She is certain that the best supervisors in the city are sent to Wahconah and that their work is most remarkable. "They don't just sit around and watch, they work right with the children. And the things that they can do!" she enthuses. The creations that emerge from sticks, chicken wire, paper, paste and paint are a constant wonder to the little lady.

The Wechters have four children of their own, Joseph of Hinsdale, John of Pittsfield, Mrs. William Kirby of Lenox and Mrs. Jessie Parks of Dalton, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Clarence Loretti of Holyoke. They have 11 grandchildren.

They adopted Helen (Mrs. Loretti) in 1906 when St. Charles' Church was sponsoring a group of children for adoption.

Mrs. Wechter still informally "adopts" special people. She loves all of her playground people and "adopts" her favorites.

Librizzi

Mrs. Wechter: She scared the duff out of the doctor.

Her hobbies are crocheting edges on handkerchiefs and making aprons and potholders, all of which she passes out to friends and relatives.

Her family warned her not to become too excited about the birthday party. "The first thing you know we will have to take you to the doctor's," they cautioned. "That would be nice," she said. "It would be another event."

How To Scare a Doctor

She loves her doctor too. "I scared the duff out of him one day when I told him I loved him and that he was going to be my fourth husband," she laughed.

"I hope you don't mind if I use a little slang," she said. "My daughter tells me I should watch my English as I let out a wild word once in a while."

Dolls and teddy bears decorate the Wechter living room and hall. They were the cuddle toys of their grandchildren — all except "Wahconah," a huge teddy bear that was a present from the park children.

Mrs. Wechter said the cuddle toys came to her when mothers insisted that they be cleaned out of the house. "Give it to Grandma. She'll love it," they say. And she does. "The joy of it is they don't bother me. I don't have to feed them," she added.

Husband Emil comes in for the greatest share of Mrs. Wechter's vast store of love. "He's wonderful," she says. "He does the cooking and most of the housework. The children say I'm his stooge. He cooks and I fetch and carry for him. If he does a repair job, I get the hammer and nails. I love it."

They both get up early in the morning and get the housework out of the way before the park opens so they can sit on the porch and greet the youngsters as they go by.

Mardi Gras Parade Set For August 9

Playgrounds Making Plans For Annual Event

The Department of Parks and Recreation has announced that the annual Mardi Gras parade will be held on Tuesday night, Aug. 9. Starting time is set for 7.

The theme for this year's event is "Comic Strip Carnival." Each playground makes a float and provides a delegation for the parade. Money is raised at each area for their float.

An example of the way playgrounds raise funds is the project being planned by Mary K. Cunningham of Lakewood playground. The area will have a carnival Friday night, July 22. A minimum of 20 booths will be set up with games and other entertainment. Door prizes being offered include Red Sox baseball tickets and free car washes. A pony ride is also being planned.

The feature of the carnival program will be a pizza booth. It is being suggested the whole family come to Lakewood for supper. Soda and other food will be available to complete the meal.

Home Run Hitting Contest

A new event is being planned this year by Tom Farley, supervisor of sports. It is a home run hitting contest. The preliminary elemination is to be conducted on four consecutive days starting Tuesday.

The preliminaries will be held at the four Little League fields with area playgrounds compete at the fields. On Tuesday the contest will be conducted at Clapp with Osceola, Lebanon, Clapp, Coolidge and Pitt in attendance. On Wednesday at Deming for Root, Deming, Lakewood and Abbey Lodge. Hebert Reports

Playground Attendance Up But Beach Patronage Down

The summer's cool, sunny days brought a big jump in playground attendance this year, but the weather simultaneously sent public beach statistics into a nosedive.

Vincent J. Hebert, superintendent of the Department of Parks and Recreation, reported last night that 112,000 children had been counted on the city playgrounds during the recently completed season.

That was an increase of 15,000 youngsters over last year's totals, despite the fact that the number of playgrounds dropped from 20 to 19 with the closing of the Francis Avenue area. Abby Lodge was also closed for the final two weeks of the season.

The cool temperatures, a marked contrast to last summer's weather, were apparently responsible for a drop of 120,000 persons at the Pontoosuc and Onota Lake public beaches, Mr. Hebert said.

In 1959, about 277,000 persons flocked to the two beaches during the summer. But only 158,000 were numbered in the 1960 estimates.

A total of 2,754 non-residents contributed $2,065.50 for use of Pontoosuc parking facilities.

Tennis Courts Open

Park Department crews were taking in the beach equipment and docks this week, and the only remnant of the department's summer activities was at the Camp Merrill tennis courts.

The clay courts will be open, under supervision, on Saturdays and Sundays from noon to 6 p.m. until Oct. 16, Mr. Hebert said.

Nursery Clinic For Retarded Opens Tuesday

The Michael Mangum Nursery Clinic for Retarded Children will open its fifth season Tuesday at the First Baptist Church on South Street.

The clinic is sponsored by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, division of mental hygiene, and the Berkshire County Association for Retarded Children.

Tuesday morning will be registration and get-acquainted day for new pupils.

Classes for last year's participants in the clinic will start Wednesday at 9 a.m. Classes will be held four mornings a week, Monday through Thursday, from 9 to 12.

The director and teacher of the school will be Mrs. Ann DeWitt, a 1952 graduate of the Eliot-Pearson School of Preschool Training at Tufts University. She has also served as a staff teacher at the Stamford, (Conn.) Day Nursery and at child-care classes in the city schools of Pasadena, Calif.

Since 1957, Mrs. DeWitt has been the director and teacher at the Jewish Community Center Nursery School in Pittsfield. She is married to William A. DeWitt, an announcer for station WBRK, and has two children.

Mrs. DeWitt will be assisted by Mrs. Theresa Talarico, a graduate licensed practical nurse.

Anyone wishing further information should call Mrs. Edward F. Toughey, 34 Thomson Pl., chairman of the nursery committee for the Berkshire County Association for Retarded Children.

Sheerin Suggests County Clinic For Retarded

Winthrop F. Sheerin Jr. of West Stockbridge, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner, today advocated a "clinic-type training school" for retarded children in Berkshire County.

Mr. Sheerin, who has had experience working with retarded children at the Belchertown State Hospital for Retarded Children, cited a need for a nonboarding school where retarded children could receive suitable training to enable them to live as normal a life as possible.

The children would still live at home with their parents, thus avoiding the "heart-rending scenes of separation," Mr. Sheerin said. At the Belchertown Hospital he was an attendant nurse for one year.

Mr. Sheerin stated that there are many children in Berkshire County unable to secure needed medical attention and that one of the main reasons for this situation is the cost. A non boarding school, he said, would enable the county to help more retarded children at less cost to the taxpayer.

Mr. Sheerin emphasized that many of these retarded children could live useful lives outside of institutions if they received proper treatment at the right time.

"This clinic-type program would enable the families of retarded children to remain together when parental love and affection is most needed for the child's training," Mr. Sheerin said.

John Kennedy Is Winner, In Junior Olympics Here

A young man named John Kennedy topped a field of 100 candidates for the Junior Olympics individual championship at Clapp Park last night.

The 11-year-old son of Mrs. Constance Kennedy of 1005 Tyler St. scored 89 points, winning his midget boys' division and beating participants in two other divisions by only a point.

John will enter the seventh grade at North Junior High School in the fall. While he has actively participated in football, soccer, basketball and baseball at Crane School, last night was his first venture in the Olympics.

Clapp Park Wins

Clapp Park took team honors in the competition, earning the right to fly the Olympic Banner over their area for the rest of the season.

Their victory marked the third time in four years that the Clapp youngsters, under the leadership of Paul Perachi, had racked up the highest point total.

Exactly 100 youngsters participated in the various contests, which were run on a Pentathlon system this year. The new set-up required preliminary runoffs on each playground and proved much more orderly than in past years.

Running behind John Kennedy in the boys' midget division were Del Hoose of Pitt playground with 73 points, Don Boland of Lakewood with 68 points and Bill Kellogg of Wilson with 67.

Other Winners

In the midget girls' division, Barbara Conti of Springside was first with 76 points; Sharon Winters of Pitt, second, 73 points; Linda May of Lebanon, third, 71; and Geraldine Valencourt of Wilson, fourth, 67.

Prizes in the intermediate boys' division went to Jan Villanova of Wahconah, 84 points; Craig Bowlby, Root, 83; Robert Blakeney, Highland, 71; Art Duclos, Pontoosuc, 68.

Carol Termohlen of Osceola won the intermediate girls' trophy with 82 points, followed by Denise Goswill of Clapp with 77 points; Eleanor Harubin, Wahconah, 76; Mary Ann Placido, Springside, 69.

Junior boys' division winners were Paul Procopio, Clapp, 88 points; Bernard Frye, Pitt, 78; Robert Pinsonneault, Osceola, 73; and William Hygh, the Common, 68.

Junior Girls Results

In the final division, junior girls honors went to Joan Miller of Abby Lodge with 88 points; Coleen Termohlen, Osceola, 80; Candy Satrape, Wahconah, 70; Ann O'Connell, Clapp, 69.

The Olympics are run in connection with President Eisenhower's Youth Fitness Program and are intended for stimulation of interest in track and field events.

Sports Season In Full Swing At Play Areas

7/1/60

The playground sports season is in full swing, Tom Farley, playground sports supervisor for the Department of Parks and Recreation, announced today.

The boys' sports program already has reported the largest enrollment in history. The boys' Midget Softball League, for 12-year-olds and under, boasts the largest share, with two divisions, the American and the National. Each division has nine teams. More teams may be added to this morning league as Clapp and Wahconah have two teams each at present. The league accommodates about 50 boys each morning.

The Junior Softball League plays in the afternoon. This league, for 14-year-olds and under, has nine teams. It is under the direction of Bud Pellerin and Chuck Bordeau, Department of Parks and Recreation sports directors.

John Luzis, another department sports director, directs the Intermediate Softball League. This league, for boys 16 and under, will be in action Monday through Thursday nights. It will open Tuesday.

The department is interested in starting a volleyball league for boys 12 and under. It is also trying to originate a Junior City Softball League for boys 16 years and older. For information on these or any other league mentioned, interested individuals should ask at any of the 19 city play areas or telephone the Department of Parks and Recreation office.

Tournaments also are being planned by the sports department in horseshoes, zell ball, whiffle ball, and a new addition this year, a home-run-hitting contest. These tournaments tentatively are scheduled for late July.

The girls' sports program is active under the direction of Miss Penny Fall. The Midget Volleyball League, for 14-year-olds and under, operates in the mornings. In the afternoons, the Intermediate Volleyball League, for 16-year-olds and under, takes the field. Miss Fall is also trying to organize an evening softball league for girls 17-years-old and under.

Musicians' Union Plans Free Jazz Concert At Pontoosuc Lake Featuring 3 Local Bands

JUN 28 1960

For the first time the Pittsfield Department of Parks and Recreation and Local 109 of the Musicians' Union will sponsor a jazz festival, featuring three local bands, Sunday, July 10, at 2 p.m. on the Pontoosuc Lake beach.

Bands playing will be Tommy Scannell's Berkshire All-Stars, John Culpo's Modern Chamber Jazz Quintet and Dick Russo and his 13-piece orchestra. The Pontoosuc Lake Jazz Festival will be open to the public and free.

Fund Grant

The festival is being made possible from a grant of the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industries. Similar funds were also used to sponsor two free, public concerts by the All-Stars and Culpo's quintet this past winter at the Stockbridge School in Interlaken.

Monies from the national trust fund are apportioned among different local unions to stimulate public interest in live music, according to Tommy Scannell, chairman of the trust fund committee for Local 109.

Mr. Scannell refers to large attendances at the Interlaken concerts as proof that Berkshirites are interested in local musical talent. It was on this basis, he says, that the committee was convinced the same thing could be done in Pittsfield.

"The Pontoosuc Lake Jazz Festival is the first time anything like this has ever been done here," Mr. Scannell claims, "and particularly with local talent."

For instance, he points out that Dick Russo's orchestra grew out of a dance band that formed at Pittsfield High School and played in 1957 and 1958. Many of the old dance band members, though they went on to college, stayed together, Mr. Scannell says, and are now home rehearsing for the festival.

Original Work

Nine of the selections to be played by the Russo orchestra are original and have never been heard before publicly. Dave Bournazian, a junior high school music teacher here, wrote six and John Talerico wrote three. Both play tenor sax in Russo's orchestra.

Others in the orchestra are Mr. Russo and Louis Thomas on alto sax; Robert Guerrina, piano; Jay LaPlante, drums; Wayne Shepherd, bass; Tony Russo, Bruce Symanowicz and Dan DiNicola, trumpets, and Pete Campoli, Bob Berendson and Charlie Therrien, trombones.

Mr. Symanowicz, Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Bournazian also play in Culpo's quintet, which includes Mr. Culpo with the accordion and Frank Cronin on drums.

Mr. Scannell plays trumpet in the All-Stars; Mr. LaPlante, drums; Frankie Miller, clarinet; Roger Earle, trombone; Lois Koscak, piano and Edwin Hall, bass.

All the participants live in Pittsfield except Mr. Scannell who is from Lenox; Mr. Hall, Lee and Miss Koscak, Canaan, Conn. Some of the players have attended the School of Jazz in Lenox.

Miss Koscak graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music and has played professionally in Boston. She has composed several musical compositions, one of which the Scannel group uses as its theme. A graduate of Juilliard, Mr. Culpo directs the Biviano School of Music here.

All-Star Program

The All-Stars will be the first band performing in the festival and will play "That's A Plenty," "Perdido," "Ja-Da," "Found a New Baby," "Indiana," "Basin Street Blues," "Tin-Roof Blues" and "Wolverine Blues." Next on the program will be the Quintet playing "C-Jam Blues," "Walkin'," "Tequila," "M-Squad," "Summertime" and "Coup de Gras."

Dick Russo and his orchestra will conclude the program with "Neverland," "The Chief," "John's Other Note," "Six Feet Deep," "Nothing," "Skin," "Walkin'," "The Fugue" and "Slides Derangement."

Another free, public jazz festival sponsored by Local 109 may be held this fall, Mr. Scannell says, and funds may also be used for the concerts planned in Interlaken this winter by the Stockbridge School and the Windsor Mountain School in Interlaken.
